THE CitySolicitor publishes an advertisement announcing that the viewers appointed to assess damages caused by the opening of Front street from Paxton to Hanna, will proceed to assess the said damages on Tuesday, the 20th

Int people of Chambersburg are preparing to rebuild their destroyed dwellings, though they can never replace their old homes; and since the work of making the town is to be all done over again, it is proposed to beautify it by increasing the width of its streets, make ing the houses next and uniform, and lining the streets with shade trees.

SWORD PRESENTATI A Vesterday Capt. J. Neyhart, of Co. I, 2024 Tenn'a. Regiment, was the recipient of a handsome steel sword, ash, and belt, complete, which were purchased and presented by the privates of the company as a token of respect for their commanding officer. Capt. Neyhart is an old veteran, and shared all the handships and dangers in which the old 51st Pinn's. Regiment (to which he formerly belonged) participated.

AN INCENIOUS DEY BEEF CUTTER .-- Shisler family grocery store, an ingenious machine tor cutting dry beef, which enables this firm to furnish their customers with this article ready cut for table use. Those who are fond of dry beef will readily acknowledge the convenience of such an accommodation, as they now can purchase to a fraction any quantity of the article, ready cut, in the finest manner. It will amply repay the public to give Shisler & Frazer a call, if it is only to see this machine in operation.

In Town .- This morning we were favored with a call from Lieut. Samuel S. Green, of the 3d Pennsylvania Cavalry. The Lieutenant has served his country faithfully for a period of three years, and participated in all the conflicts with the enemy in which his regiment was engaged. He was in command of Company B for some time previous to being mustered out, and is highly spoken of as officer. We are pleased to welcome him to Harrisburg, where he has numerous friends. He was at one time connected with the True-GRAPH printing office, and is (as all printers are) a noble, whole-souled gentleman.

A PRISONER HEARD FROM.—Yesterday a letter was received in this city from Captain P. Graham, Co. E, 54th Pa. Vols., who was supposed to have been killed several months since." He is a prisoner in Charleston, South Carolina, and in feeble health; he has also lost the sight of his right eye. Capt. Graham states that there are about 2000 officers in the prisons at Charleston, and from 27,000 to 30,000 privates at Andersonville, on the State line between Georgia and South Carolina -all of whom greatly desire to be exchanged.

As an evidence of the scarcity of paper at Charleston, it is merely necessary to statethat the envelope in which Capt; G.'s letter was enclosed is made of wall-paper.

IMPROVEMENTS.—The Pennsylvania Railroad company is about erecting an immense freight warehouse, at the foot of Third street, between Mulberry and Meadow Lane. The foundation walls are already built, and from the appearance of the same we are led to believe that the warehouse will have the requisite strength as well as capacity to contain a very large quantity of freight.

The building known as the fold found house," adjoining the Novelty Works, has been demolished, and its place is to be occupied by a new and substantial structure, intended for freight and other office. This is also the work of the Pennsylvania Ruitroad Company

GOVERNOR CURTIN arrived at the Astor House, New York, on Saturday night, and on Sunday took his departure for Saratoga. The health of the Governor has been impaired by his arduous labors. He will probably visit the White Mountains before returning home.

SAD CASE OF POISONING.—On Wednesday last, d child of five years of age, son of Mr. Josephp R. Brown, of Montgomery township, Indiana county, was accidentally poisoned. It appears that some strychnine had been left in a hureau drawer, within the child's reach, having been there for same time previous. Tas Pennsylvania Bible Society has gener. The child got it and took the fatal dose, which was almost immediately discovered by the mother, who administered several antidotes; but without avail, as the child died in half an hour. Parents cannot be too cantious in regard to the storage of poisonous articles, and yet more than one half of the cases of accidental poisoning, both of children and adults, arise from the most culpable carelessness in this respect.

> CONTINUED SUCCESS - An Entire New Bill. Brant's Hall was filled last night, the occasion of the second appearance of Frank Drew, who stands unrivalled as a comedian. He appeared as O'Bryan in the Irish Emigrant, and was almost continually applauded. Harrisburg has never seen the equal of Mr. D., and he must continue to draw immensely. Tonight we are to be favored with the White Horse of the Poppers, in which Mr. Drew will appear in the two characters of "Gerald Pepper and "O'Rafferty." This piece will be f 1lowed by the laughable piece entitled "Acting Mad," with Mr. Drew as Augustus Tactic. The enteriainment will be interspersed with songs by Miss Fanny Donham and Messrs. Drew and Rouse. The only way to obtain a desirable seat is to secure it at Bannvart's during the day.

FRIENDSHIP FIRE COMPANY.—At a stated meeting of the Friendship Fire Company, & Frazer have in operation, at their cheap held in their hall, on Monday evening, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, Twenty members of the Friendship Fire company have enlisted in the service of the United States, under the late call of the President, leaving but nine active members; therefore, be it Resolved, That we hold a special meeting of the company at our hall, on Monday evening, Sept. 12th, for the purpose of receiving new members, or to get such citizens to enroll themselves as are willing to serve with the company until the active members return from the battle-fields—said citizens to abide by the Constitution and By-Laws of the com-

Last Grand Pic-nic of the Season.—A graud Pic-nic will be held at Hoffman's woods to-morrow, Sept. 8. Tickets of admission to the woods 25 ceats. Carriages will run from Third and Market streets every hour. Good music in attendance.

New NATIONAL THEATRE.—Great Enthusi-usm Evinced by the Public.—People turned away from the doors last evening unable to gain admittance.—The company is one of the finest that ever appeared in the city. Miss Minnie Lehman is, indoed, truly beautiful, and an artist of rare talent. Mrs. W. L. Ayling played Lady Andly, last evening, with a great deal of true artistic acting, and drew forth rapturous appliance. Muss Effic Warren, as Gimp, proved herself an actress of unquestion-able talent. Mr. Harry Gilbert is an excellent comedian, one devoid of all vulgarity, which so often invests some comedians, Mr. Gilbert being full of natural wit and humor. Mr. W. H. Ferris, as Capt. Dartford, was ex-cellent. Mr. Marble, as Sir Charles Andry, showed great histrionic power, and the remaining members did equally well. Tonight the ever stirring comedy, the Serious Family, will be produced, together with the roaping farce of Trials of Tompkins. We advise the people to go early, and secure good seats, for the bill offered is one to merit the Attendance of everybody. Remember we in vite competition in any form, as our endeav ors are to please in every way.

"On! on! to the National!"

Is the battle-cry; long may its flag wave, and its fame never die.

ABOUT TO LEAVE. - Dr. J. J. McBride. whose notices have so frequently appeared in our columns for the last few weeks, has closed his business in this city, and is about to leave for Philadelphia. During his stay here, by his genial disposition, and extreme lib erality, he made a host of friends, who will long remember him. He has suc-ceeded in waitding up a name and reputation for his Pan Kuler in this city, and the surrounding neighborhood, which will rank it as a standard preparation for all time to come. The Doctor will carry with him the good Wishes of hundreds of our prominent citizens; whom he has cured of the worst form of disease, as well as a large portfolio of certificates tendered him by his patients. We commend the Doctor to the press of
