THE VOICE OF A SOLDIER. The following extract from a letter written by a Harrisburg soldier, now in the 84th Pennsylvania regiment, to a friend in this city, shows how the nomination of McClellan is received by our brave soldiers.

After which three cheers and a hurrah for the Col. Art. were proposed by Captain G. W. Frank, of Company A, and were promptly responded to by the entire regiment.

During the first part of the ceremony our fine Regimental Band discoursed a favorite piece of music, appropriate to the occasion, to the world renowned "Three cheers for the Red, White and Blue."

Our saucy-looking Regimental Flag now floats gaily in the morning breeze, the pride and admiration of all in Camp Couch.
