RESIGNATION AND APPOINTMENT. - James H. Dysart has resigned the office of Ticket and Freight Agent of the Pennsylvania Railroad, at Altoona, and John Shoemaker has been appointed to fill the vacancy.

VERY tiny hats, with a large boquet of nearly every flower that blooms (all natural) and about two pounds of additional hair, (all artificial,) is the "morning promenade fashion" in head dresses in Paris.

THE York True Democrat understands that quite a number of recruits for the one year's service, who previous to the late election had intended to credit themselves to the townships in which they reside, now positively refuse to do so because those townships, by a majority, declared that the soldier had no right to vote.

A new style of veil is coming into favor with young ladies. It is made in the fashionable black and white figured lace, with a fine elastic run through the upper part, which fits to the edge of the bonnet. A second elastic runs through the lower part of the veil, a short distance from the bottom, which fastens it under the chin, giving the effect of a street mask, transparent, but very coquettish.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—William Ullery, brakeman on the emigrant train on the Pennsylvania Railroad, was instantly killed on Saturday morning last. It appears that he was standing on top of the cars as the train approached Petersburg, and not observing the bridge which crosses the track at that point, his head was struck by the timbers with such force as to cause his almost instant death.

Almost a Bet. -- "I'll bet a hundred dollars with any man that the nominee of the Chicago Convention will be elected," said a man in our streets the other day whose nose indicated most indubitably the presence of copper. "There are ten ten dollar greenbacks," said an earnest looking man, stepping forward. "Please to cover them." "I—ah! I—don't want to lose my vote," said kopurhead as he CAPTURED REBELS. -- The Hagerstown Torch of Wednesday says: On Saturday evening last, a squad of sixty-two rebels, with twenty-four wagons, which were captured by General Averill in a battle which took place near Bunker Hill on Friday last, were brought into New York, by a special train of cars, on Sunday.

NEW COUNTERFEITS .- $20 greenback counterfeits have made their appearance in Philadelphia. The Detectors say they are an exact imitation of the genuine, and that a great many are likely to be put into circulation.

County Superintendents .-- The following counties have, during the summer, raised respectively the salaries of th ir County Superintendents, owing to the increased expenses and high market prices of all that we eat and wear: Northampton raised the salary from $700 to $1,000, Perry from $300 to $500, Carhon from $500 to $900, M'Kean from $300 to $600, Beaver from $500 to $800, Jefferson from $500 to $800, Cumberland from $500 to $700, Luzerne from $800 to $1,200, Bedford from $500 to $1,000, Chester from $1,000 to $1,200, and Lehigh from $500 to $800.

A RABID DISLOYALIST. - Arrival of Prisoners. -The Chambersburg Repository of Wednesday says: A man named Eli Smith, from Tanevtown. Md., was arrested in this place week before last. Smith on coming to town and reviewing the destruction around him, remarked, in the presence of some of our citizens, that it was a great pity the rebels did not burn the entire place. He also acknowledged that he was a rebel. He was taken before Provost Marshal M'Gowan, and sufficient testimony being adduced he was sent to jail, and afterwords to Fort Mifflin.

On Sunday last an extra train from Hagerstown arrived in this place with 56 Rebel prisoners captured by Gen. Averill's command in the Shenandoah Valley. The prisoners were in charge of guards under the command of Lieut. W. W. Blackmere. Of the number 51 were sent to Fort Delaware for exchange, and five to Fort Mifflin to take the oath of allegiance. One man prepared to take the oath stated that he had four brothers and eleven cousins in the army. The examination of the prisoners was made by Provost Marshal, Capt. McGowan. Another lot had been sent through on Hatriday.

MINISTER ELECTED. -The Reading Daily Times says; The Rev. F. C. H. Lampe, of Williamsport, Lycoming county, has received a call from St. James Lutheran Church, of that city; and we learn has accepted. Since the death of Rev. F. A. M. Keller, this society has been without a pastor.

THE grandest bill of the season is presented o the patrons of Rouse's Theatre, for this evening. The great actor, Frank Drew, will appear in his great character of MAZEPPA, OR THE WILD UNTAMED STEED. The entertainment will conclude with The Irish Emigrant. Go, everybody, if you want to see great acting.

A CORRESPONDENT of the West Chester Record says that the wife of the rebel General A. P. Hill, and a daughter of Gov. Bradford, whose husband is in the rebel army, are boarding in the neighborhood of Downingtown, Chester county, and that a few days since they made their appearance at a funeral at that place, dressed gorgeously, and flaunting the rebel colors, white and red, conspicuously on various parts of their apparel.

THE ARMY HOSPITALS.—During the past week 841 soldiers were admitted into the Army Hospitals of this department 555, were returned to duty, 111 deserted, and 65 died. The number remaining is 13,674, distributed as follows: McClellan 1353 Chester, 1036; Satterlee 3228, Chestnut Hill 2048, White Hall 1089, Haddington 1092, Chambersburg 53, Pittsburg 808, Broad street 265, Cuyler 359, Islington Lane 6, Filbert street 344, Turner's Lane 273, Officers' Hospital 27, Broad and Prime 44, Summit House 971, South street 244, Christian street 334.

A BOLD BURGLARY. -On Saturday night, the cellar of Mr. Cottrell, on the corner of Dewberry alley and Third street, was entered and robbed a of large amount of butter, bread, &c. the usual stock of an ample larder. The burglar must have been exceedingly stealthy in his operations, as the family occupied a portion of the house where almost any noise could be heard. This is beginning early in the season to steal for the sake of eating, and it would be well for the police to be on the alert for this evidently newly organized band

THE COPS IN COUNCIL AT MIDDLETOWN. -The long expected torch-light procession and ratification meeting, announced some time since to be held in the borough of Middletown, came off on Saturday evening last. After a good deal of trouble some seventy-five to one hundred of the faithful were drummed in procession, and paraded the streets behind a few transparencies. The party halted in the square, where they were addressed by our distinguished Congressman in his usual eloquent style. We understand that he told them that notwithstanding a large portion of the party did not like the Chicago platform, that they should not care a d--n for it, but vote for the man. The most remarkable thing, however, was the absence of the "black

OPERATIONS OF THE U. S. MINT-Great Coinage of Cents. -- The deposits of gold at the United States Mint, Philadelphia, for the month of August, from all sources, amounted to $395,411 90, and of silver to $11,581 25. Of both gold and silver, $406,893 15. The silver coinage, mostly half-dollars, dimes and half-dimes, was $20,253 80. There were coined prisoners were quartered in the market house | hundred and thirty thousand two cent pieces, during the night, and were sent to Elmira, together of the value of $103,000. This immense coinage of cents has been going on monthly at about the rate of the last month for more than two years, and yet they are so scarce in circulation as to render the change for a five cent note a great difficulty.

> RAILBOAD ACCIDENT-Three Men Killed .- A frightful accident occurred on Friday evening near Latrobe, on the Pennsylvania Railroad, caused by the explosion of a locomotive attached to the cattle train. The locomotive (No. 237) was blown to pieces, and the tender and six cars were destroyed. The engineer, Charles Garrigan, was instantly killed, and his body found about fifty yards from the track. He was mangled in a shocking manner. He resided in Pittsburg, and leaves a family. William Walter, the conductor, is missing, and it is supposed his body was blown to pieces. He also resided in Pittsburg, and leaves a family. R. Jones, the fireman, must have been instantly killed. His remains were found about one hundred feet from the wreck of the engine, with his intestines, &c., strewn upon the earth.

HORRIBLE MURDER IN BRISTOL, BUCKS COUN-TY.-On Friday afternoon one of the most horrible murders ever heard of was committed by a youth in Bristol, Bucks county. It appears that a boy named Charles Johnson, aged about eleven years, living in the above place, enticed a lad about seven years, named Joseph Fisher, into the garret of the house occupied by the former, and there deliberately shot him. After committing the horrible crime, the youthful offender dragged his victim down stairs and into the alley. Here he placed a heap of shavings, and in order to hide the deed he laid the body upon the shavings and then set fire to them. The smoke arising from the shavings caused the citizens to inquire into the matter, when, to their astonishment, they discovered the body of the lad, partly consumed. The youthful murderer was taken into custody, when he confessed his guilt, but gave no reason for his atrocious conduct. The murder caused no little excitement in Bristol, and the conduct of the lad was the general theme of conversation.

Last week when the news of McClellan's nomination at Chicago was received, a flag was hoisted over the Keystone Hotel and remained there until Saturday. Saturday morning news was received of the capture of Atlants—the flag was down.

NEW NATIONAL THEATRE. - Business for the last week, has been good at this establishment. Notwithstanding the opposition, they have a very fine company, one of the finest in fact, in our city, or that has ever appeared here. The audiences have been very select; some of the first people in our city have attended this beautiful dramatic resort. We hope the man-agers will be supported by the public, for they truly deserve it by their untiring efforts to please; and the stage department we must not pass by, being in the hands of that supe-rior comedian and gentleman, Harry Gilbert: and Mr. Marble, whose task is so arduous, he has filled in a superb manner, both as a man-ager and an actor. The part of Count Priuli in Retribution, was rendered in a manner which stamps him as an artist of rare merit his gentlemanly deportment, both on and off the stage, has won for him many friends and a lasting esteem. Mr. W. H. Ferris is a very fine actor, he being natural, easy and graceful. Mrs. M. Day does very well. Miss Effic Warren is as fine a soubrette as we would wish to see the the free instance well. wish to see; pretty, fascinating and sings well.

Mrs. W. L. Ayling is as good an actress as ever appeared in our city, being always perfect, an artist of the first magnitude. The ever charming and beautiful Miss Minnie Lehman must not be forgotten; as an actress words would be useless to speak of her fine artistic acting; as a lady she is indeed one worthy of every one's esteem.

This evening, the charming, beautiful and versatile actress, Miss Bella Golden, will appear in her great impersonation of CAMILLE, in the play of Camille, or, The Fate of a Coquette; in which character she stands without a rival The press of our metropolitan cities speak of her as a second Rachel. Miss Golden has been engaged for a limited number of nights only, and will appear during the week in some of her favorite pieces, songs and dances. We would advise all those who wish to see a good, creditable company, and a first class company, to call at the New National, where seats can be secured from 10 till 12 A. M. and 2 till 4 P. ar, without extra charge. Don't forget to go and see the only legitimate star actress now traveling in the United States, who will appear at the New National this evening. Remember New National Theatre, corner of North Second and South streets, the pretti-est and neatest theatre and best company in the city. Go early and secure good seats.

BUSINESS ITEMS.

Card to the Public.

Harrived here on last Saturday evening, pursuant to agreement to fill an engagement with the managers of the New National Theatre, but to my disappointment I find the management deficient in company, scenery and ap-pointments, and not able to produce my pieces in a legitimate and satisfactory manner. Consequently I have declined the honor of appearing at the New National Theatre.

Respectfully the public's obedient servant,

BELLA GOLDEN.

AN ADJOURNED MEETING of the Paxton Fire Company will be held at their room this (Monday) evening, September 12th, at 7½ o'clock. Punctual attendance of every member is desired.

THE TERMINATION OF THE WAR AND THE PRO-BABLE EFFECT UPON THE PRICE OF DRY GOODS The impressions of men largely engaged in the sale of dry goods in our sea board cities, bear us out in saying that in the event of the termination of this much regretted war, that prices, instead of receding, will increase for a time, which can be accounted for from natural causes. Want of space prevents us from enumerating the direct facts upon which these impressions are founded. Speculation in the north, we will admit, has contributed much to the present high prices. Will these specula-tors, with money in their pockets to control the market, suffer loss? And on the other hand we say, knowingly, that many particular makes of staple goods are out of the market entirely, and cannot be bought at any price, no matter what you may be disposed to pay for them. We adopted some months since the gold coinage, confined almost entirely to idea, and put it into action, of purchasing all double eagles. was $586,251 88, and the goods from those who had got tired or frightened at future destruction, that in their minds must overtake those who continue in business. Through this means we now have on hand during the month four millions and forty some thirty thousand dollars in amount of dry this place by a guard of Union soldiers. The thousand cent pieces, and three millions one goods, which we are selling lower by ten to ifteen per centum than they can be pur-chased at wholesale in New York or Philadel-phia, for the purpose of giving us a chance to phia, for the purpose of giving us a chance to confirm what we have said. Please call at the dresses. Yours, &c.,
