On Friday evening last, John C. Martin of this place, sell or was thrown from the platform of one of the passenger cars on the Cumberland Valley Road, about three miles east of town. The engineer and conductor knew nothing of the accident until the train reached town, whereupon they immediately started the train back and found Mr. Martin lying in an almost insensible condition, about ten seet from the track. He was severely out about the face and head, and it was feared he ad suffered some internal injuries which would prove fatal. He was brought to Esquire Harris' office, where medical attendance immediately secured. The injuries he received are not of so serious a character a was at first imagined, and it is thought he will soon be about again.

ABREST ON A CHARGE OF DESERTION. - A few nights ago, Sergeant Franklin, U. S. detective, arrested, in Middletown, a man named Whitney, who was pointed out to the officer as a deserter. He had in his possession severai hundred dollars in money, railroad tickets, three skeleton keys, which Sergeant Franklin took charge of. Whitney was brought to this city and handed over to the Provost Marshal, who subsequently transferred him to the civil authorities, as the charge of desertion was not sustained. He acknowledged to the detective that he was a professional burglar, and offered him $150 to release him, but officer Franklin could not be bribed, and Mr. Burglar was brought to "the Captain's He has since been discharged by the office." civil authorities, received his money, and leit for parts unknown. In reply to the filse and makeious card of hose honorable gendemen, the Messrs Marden-I ask the honorable gentlemen's pardon-Marble Welker. I will a plain unvarnished tale relate. On last Friday evening my agent ar-rived in this city, and presented to the hun-orable managers, the pieces in which I wished to open. They replied that they could not. cast them. (The pieces were "Margot" and the "Young Actress," two of the easiest pieces I play, to put upon the stage,) and that they had already selected "Camille." To me the piece was acceptable enough, but when I learned that they could not play the piece without a shameful doubling of parts, I objected. My agent and Mr Golden waited on the State Manager, and asked him to cast some of my pieces, but he was un able to do so in consequence of the inefficiency of the company and a most lamentable vant of scenery, there being only three scenes and singers, in cases of hoarseness, coughs and colds. I have found them serving in time of need, most effectually. Yours truly, T. H. BOBINSON, Postor of N. S. Presbyterian Church.

REGIMENT after regiment continue to march forth to join the Union hosts in the field. The Two Hundred and Eighth Pennsylvania lett here vesterday, and its members expect to be "in at the death" of the rebellion. All honor to the Keystone State !

WE CALL ESPECIAL attention to the card of Prof. Senmacher, who proposes to locate himhimself in Harrisburg as a teacher of the Piano Forte. We learn that Prof. S. comes highly recommended as a thoroughly educated musician. An opportunity is af-forded our citizens of securing the services of a really first class teacher of the Piano, which they will not fail to accept.

We understand Prof. S. proposes to appear in public in a Grand Concert, assisted by emi-nent artists from neighboring cities, of which due notice will be given.

KILLED.-On last Saturday an accident oc curred to Mr. Jacob Hoover, an old and estimable citizen of York county, residing near Wrightsville. Mr. Hoover was in a carriage with another gentleman whom he was taking from the furnace over to a point on th Wrightsville railroad, and while turning of to make room for another vehicle, got too near the edge of the embankment, and, the carriage upsetting, he was thrown down and sustained such injuries on the head that he lived but a short time thereafter. The other gentleman escaped by jumping out. Mr. Hoover was aged about 60 years.

A NIGHT WITH MONUS.-To-night we are to have two sterling comedies at Brant's Hall, viz: HANDY ANDY, and THE WIDOW'S VIOTIM both of which will be played for the last time In the latter piece Mr. Frank Drew, the great est comedian of the age, will appear in three characters. He will also appear as Handy Andy, with songs. This fine oll will attract an immense audience. Mr. Kouse and Miss Fansy Denham will be on hand, together with all the members of the Star Combination Company. The most respectable classes fill Brant's Hall. Improper characters are not admitted it known to be such. Secure seats at Bannvart's.

. A PRECOCIOUS RASCAL.-A lad of fifteen years, named David B. Greenly, was commit-ted to jail in Lancaster a day or two since for opening the switch at the station near Rothsville, on the Reading and Columbia railroad. Had not the engineer of the passenger train, which passed over the track shortly after, dis covered that the switch was open, the conse-quences might have been serious. The boy dues not seem to realize the enormity of th act. He acknowledges that he broke the lock of the switch, and when asked his motives of doing it, said he did it for "devilment." His parents are dead, and he has been for some time loifering about that neighborhood.

his character. HOW THE SOLDIELS RESPOND TO THE APPEALS of the Coppeensats. -- We are constrained to declare, in all candor, that the most impertinent of all blatant politicians, is the full grown and full blown copperhead. As an evilence of this, we observed a little incident tation being entertained aga

last evening, in connection with the march of the 208th Regiment P. V., through the city on its way to the depet for transportation to the "seat of war." As the rear of the regi-

the "seat of war." As the rear of the regi-ment was passing Market Square, a thick-skulled copperhead, who is only known for his intemperate opposition to the soldier, and who stood at the polls all day opposing the Constitutional amendments to entranchise the oldier, vociterated, "Hurrah for M'Clellan;" "Little Mac is the Boy;" "L'urrah for M'Clei-lan," "Hurrah for Lattle Mac, he's hunkey." ian." These cries of the copperhead, however, elici ted no response from the soldiers-the column moving on steadily, its servied lines echoing back only the tramp of brave men marching to the glorious duty of destroying traitors. Still the biatant copperhead con-tinued to shout for "M'Clellan," but as the last man of the 208th reached the cop, the soldier stepped aside only for a second, and uttered such a mighty "huzza for Old Abe," as fairly made the cop jump. The incident was a good one, as illustrating how ittle the soldiers care for the appeals of the copperheads, and how truly they are devoted to the Government and those who faithfully uphold its cause.

THE WAY THE ORGANS OF DEMOCRACY TREAT DEMOCRATIC FIGHTING MAN.-The soldiers in Camp Curtin, citizens of the 15th Congress sional district, recently nominated Hon. Joseph Baily as the war candidate for Congress in that district, in opposition to Glossbrenner, the peace secession -sympathizer can didate. The proceedings of the meeting of these soldiers were presented to a Coppernead organ ia this vicinity, for publication, but were refused on the ground that the action of the soldier. might impair the prospects of the "regular Democratic candi dat ." To show the inconsistency of this proveeding, the Copperhead county convention of? Dauphin nomi-nated Lieutenant Colonel We sley Awi for the Assembly, solely on the ground because he is a soldier in full sympathy with the politicians now opposing the Government. Awl will be supported by the Copperheads, on account of his military position, while Baily is bitterly opposed by the same party because he is the war candidate of the soldiers. By just such dirty tricks as these the Copperneed politicians hope to succeed at the polls. Lieuten ant Colonel Awl enlisted for one year, and Lefore he has drawn his; maiden sword as Lisutenant Colonel, in the face of an enemy the enemies of the country seek to place him in a position where half his term as a soldier may be devoted to thus corruptions of legislain the establishment. On Sunday afternoon the honorable Marden-again I have to ask the gentleman's pardon--Marble and his stage manager waited on me, and tried, with much persuasiveness, to prevail on me to aid them in cheating the public by presenting for their patronage an inferior entertainment. This I declined to do. I then and there notified them that I would not appear at the New National Theatre. As to outside influence, it was a thought worthy only the augean mind of the writer. With this statement of facts I dismiss the subject, intending to take no further notice of aught that may emanate from such canaille.

I remain the public's obedient servant BELLA GOLDEN.

thing appeared to be horror-stricken to ine; I had no ambition to do anything; I lost all my love of family and home; I would ramble and wander from place to place, but could not so near was my whole nervous system de-stroyed, and also my mind from that awful complaint, Dyspepsia, that my friends thought best to have me placed in Dr. Kirkbride's hospital, West Philadelphia; I remained there nine weeks, and thought I was a little better, but in a few days my dreadful complaint was raging as bad as ever. Hearing of the wonderful cures performed by Dr. Wishart's Great American Dyspepsia Pills and his treatment for Dyspepsia, my husband called on Dr. Wishart and stated my case to him. He said he had no doubt he could cure me. So in three days after I called and placed myself under the Doctor's treatment, and in two weeks I began to digest my food, and felt that my disease was fast giving way, and I continued to recover for about three months, and at the present time I enjoy perfect health of body and mind, and I most sincerely return my thanks to a merciful God and Dr. Wis-hart, and to his great American Dyspepsia from an Insane Asylum and premature grave.
