HARRISBURG, PA.

SATURDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 17, 1864.

Freemen! Arouse!!!

Dauphin County to the Rescue! Lincoln and Johnson Ratification Meeting, Organize for the Success of the County and District Tickets.

The Republican Union men of Dauphin county will assemble in the city of Harrisburg on MONDAY EVENING, September 19th, for the purpose of ratifying the Union National, District and County nominations.

HON. ISAAC N. ARNOLD, OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, One of the most eloquent orators in the great West, will be present and address the people.

It is hoped that the loyal men of the different townships, boroughs and wards of Dauphin county, as well as the people in adjoining counties, will make arrangements to meet in Harrisburg on the occasion named above.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

IMPROVED ORDER OF RED MEN.—The Annual Session of the Great Council of the United States was held at Philadelphia this week.

MISS MAJOR PAULINE CUSHMAN and Mr. J. M. Ward, the celebrated Irish comedian, arrived in town this morning at 3 o'clock, and will positively appear at the New National Theatre, on Monday, Sept. 19th.

PERSONAL.—Col. Ramsey, of the 187th P. V., is in town. He was wounded in one of the late engagements with the rebels. We are pleased to learn that he is improving, and expects to return to the field at an early day.

ST PAUL'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH.—Corner of Ridge Avenue and Reservoir.—Divine service to-morrow at 10 A. M. and 6:30 P. M. In the evening a discourse by the pastor, Rev. A. J. Barrow; subject, "David and Goliath." All are invited.

PENNSYLVANIA HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY.—The annual exhibition of fruits, vegetables, &c., of this Society, will be held at the Society's rooms, Broad and Walnut streets, Philadelphia, on Tuesday next, commencing at twelve o'clock, lasting but one day.

APPLE BUTTER FOR THE SOLDIERS.—Miss Dix, in a letter to a friend here, says: "Reg all your acquaintances to make apple butter for the soldiers. Dried apples supplied by the Commissaries are repudiated, being most prepared from rotted fruit."

BAPTIST CHURCH.—There will be service in the Baptist Church, corner of Second and Pine streets, to-morrow morning at ten and a-half o'clock, and in the evening at seven o'clock. Rev. A. J. Barrow, of New York, will fill the pulpit. The public are invited to attend.

"WE ARE COMING, FATHER ABRAHAM!"—The 209th Pennsylvania Regiment, commanded by Col. T. B. Kaufman, left here yesterday afternoon, en route for the field. Like all the other regiments recruited for one year's service, under the President's late call, the 209th is composed of noble-looking men, who possess every qualification for making good soldiers. We venture the prediction that they will make the Johnnies bite the dust, if an opportunity is afforded.

WE are pleased to learn that our enterprising young townsman Dr. F. H. Hemperley, has taken the agency of this State for the sale of the valuable medicines prepared by Kunkel & Brothers, among which is the celebrated King of Pain, so successfully introduced by Dr. McBride. Dr. Hemperley has been educated in a good school, and we bespeak for him success wherever he goes. He thoroughly understands the principle of treatment adopted by Dr. McBride, and like him possesses that rare faculty of detecting disease simply from diagnostic symptoms. We understand he intends to establish an office in Pittsburg.

WANTED.—A man for a Hotel.—Our enterprising friend Harry Thomas, who is now fitting up the splendid property formerly known as the Herr House, for the purpose of rendering it one of the best hotels in the State, and which is to pass into the hands of Mr. Thomas, wants a name for the new Hotel. Mr. Thomas desires his friends in Harrisburg to assist him in naming his new hotel and has requested us to bespeak the suggestive ability of those in this city who are competent in such matters. Those who desire to test their talent in originating a name for the new hotel, are requested to enter their suggestion on paper and send it at this office addressed to the local editor of the TELEGRAPH.

AN ACT OF VILLAINY BY A TRIO OF BOUNTY BROKERS.—We have just had communicated to us the outlines of one of those base transactions on the part of a number of bounty-brokers, which have done so much to bring disgrace on the service and odium on the city of Harrisburg, which we intend to make public as soon as we can gather the full details. The main fact is that a respectable citizen of Harrisburg paid a broker $1,050 for a substitute. The broker and his accomplices induced a minor to enter as substitute paying him only $225. The parents of the minor are pushing the fraud to exposure, and as soon as that is made, we shall give the names of the parties criminated in this villainous affair.

WHAT A QUIET M. C. CAN DO.—A member of Congress can benefit his constituents to a great extent, if he will but give their interests the attention due from a representative to those whom he represents. During the last three years more new post routes have been established (by acts of Congress, which renders them permanent) in the 15th District of Pennsylvania than in any other in the Union. Through the efforts of Hon. Joseph Baily, mails regularly reach all corners of York, Cumberland and Perry counties, thus greatly accommodating the people in places where no post routes had ever been established. Every member of Congress should make it a point to study the interests of their constituents, yet how few think of this when once they enter the halls of Congress. The people of Mr. Baily's district should remember that they have a faithful Representative.

GERMAN REFORMED CHURCH.—Divine service as usual to-morrow (Sabbath) morning and evening at 10 A. M. and 7 1/2 P. M. Preaching by the Rev. Wm. Harrison Snyder, of Akron, Ohio.

PROMOTION OF A HARRISBURGER.—Captain O. B. Simmons, of the 15th U. S. colored regiment, has been promoted to a captaincy on the staff of Maj. Gen. Sherman, U. S. A. This promotion makes our young friend a captain in the regular army, and a very worthy and deserving appointment it is. He has fought his way nobly, and we have reason to feel proud of him.

DECISION IN A MARRIAGE CASE.—A couple were recently married in Baltimore, the bride being less than fifteen years of age. The mother, restraining her from living with or seeing her husband. A writ of habeas corpus was issued, and the girl brought into Court—the mother claiming that she had the right to retain the daughter on account of her age. After receiving proof of the marriage, the Judge decided that the young lady should live with her husband, the marriage being legal if the girl was over twelve years old.

DASTARDLY OUTRAGE.—One of the meanest deeds we ever heard of was perpetrated on Thursday night, by a wretch who entered the house occupied by Mrs. Baker, in Patterson's Row. Mrs. B's husband was ill, and at the point of death, when the thief carried off in a snatching manner, a set of silver spoons, a lot of books and shells, besides a lady's gold chain, and about thirty dollars in money—leaving the family penniless, in addition to their deep affliction. It is not known who committed the robbery, but he is mean enough to commit any deed known in the catalogue of crime, and every effort should be made to bring him to justice.

MAJOR CHARLES A. SHRINER, the Union Candidate for State Senator in the Lycoming District, was in town to-day. He is sanguine of a brilliant success in that district, and gives besides a glowing account of the enthusiasm that pervades the masses in that part of the State, in reference to the re-election of Abraham Lincoln. We are glad to hear from the Major that our eloquent townsman, John C. Kunkel, has volunteered to speak in his behalf at different points in his district. We can promise the people who hear Col. Kunkel a rare and most successful and effective speaker in the Commonwealth.

ROUSE'S Star Combination Company continues to be the chief attraction in the line of amusements. Our citizens fully appreciate the efforts of the manager to furnish the best entertainments given in the city, and the crowded state of the hall each evening is abundant proof that the performances render full satisfaction. With a full troupe, good plays, and an abundance of scenery, Mr. Rouse can safely defy competition. The patronage of the most respectable citizens is freely bestowed upon the theatre, and great excitement was given. To-night Mr. Frank Drew makes his farewell appearance, when the beautiful play of RIP VAN WINKLE and the drama entitled THE ROBBER'S WIFE, will be presented. Mr. Drew will appear in both pieces, with songs. The first-named piece is a legend of the Catskill, full of interest, and worth the whole price of admission. Mr. Rouse, "the honorable member from Catskill," will appear; also Miss Fanny Denham and a fine troupe of comedians, together with the whole troupe. In THE ROBBER'S WIFE, Mr. Drew will appear as Larry O'Gig, and Mr. Meeker as Mark Redland. This is a very thrilling play, and an excellent conclusion to the Saturday night bill. Let there be a rush to Brant's Hall to-night.

Next week Miss Bella Golden, a famous actress, will appear. Want of space compels us to defer a more extended notice of this celebrated lady until Monday morning.

THE OLD-FASHIONED BLUSHES.—Where have they fled?—We have frequently noticed what to us is an mournful loss, not that we, as a married and as a man rather advanced in life, are given to gazing into the faces of girls in quest of what we miss; that the girls of this generation do not blush as beautifully or as modestly as did the girls of the generation which is fast passing through Jordan's waters, washing their robes in its pure stream, to appear in virgin whiteness on the bright shore beyond. We miss the maidens blush—that glorious suffusion which colors in softness true the still fresher glories of mind and soul. Now-a-days, a girl of sixteen can look a man into the eyes with the steadiness of a grenadier or a veteran who has been trained to gaze on long lines of bristling bayonets. Twenty-five years ago—aye, thirty years past—a woman of as many years old, could not look a man in the face, without crimsoning in the almost consuming warmth of her own modesty. Then, too, forsooth, girls of a teen trembled like lilies in a storm, when they were approached by any of the sterner sex. Times have changed, however, and now bearded men are become timid in the presence of the gentler sex. The blush of the guileless maiden no longer illuminates the beautiful paths of retired society. Alas that it is so! We are almost fearful to write our apprehensions as to the meaning of this departure of the sacredness of a blush. But the fact has frequently filled us with sadness as we mourn the still fresher glories of mind and soul. We are glad to learn that Mr. G. W. Parsons, 110 Market street, Harrisburg, has just been appointed agent of these celebrated machines. Give him a call. We know them to be the best, most simple and cheapest machine in use.

The greatest trouble to persons in the Army, especially in this season, is Dysentery, which (by death or by disability) weakens the service more than the Battle do. DR. BARR'S AGUE PILLS, a sure and certain cure or no pay. It is astonishing to see the number of persons that call for his pills since his notice appeared in this paper one week ago. We would earnestly advise all afflicted to go and try them. His office is next door to the National Bank.

THE GREAT REMEDY.—You might as well attempt to stay the powers of the whirlwind with a fan, or sweep back the tide with a broom, as to make any attempt to stop the immense sales of Dr. McBride's KING OF PAIN. These sales are daily increasing, and the reason for it is palpably plain—the medicine accomplishes all that is claimed for it, and no one who buys it is disappointed. If you are afflicted with pains or aches of any kind, give it a single trial, and relief is as sure to follow as daylight follows the darkness of night. Sold wholesale and retail by S. A. Kunkel & Brother, 118 Market street.

THE DANGERS OF ACCLIMATION—or sea-sickness as it is termed, incident to a change of residence to a bilious climate, South or West, are entirely avoided by the timely use of OSGOOD'S INDIA CHOLAGOGUE. It should be commenced on appearance of the earliest bilious symptoms. The sensation of languor, weariness of body, depression of spirits, derangement of the stomach, pain in the bowels, are not to be easily mistaken. Sold by all druggists and medicine dealers.

WE are often surprised to find so few SEWING MACHINES in use, in our section of the country. In the large cities, every family has without one for ten times its cost. It is certainly the most useful and economical invention of the age, and we advise our readers to hesitate no longer, but to see to getting one of these labor and life saving Machines. There are a great many kinds of Sewing Machines, and we have the most popular and best made into their respective merits, and we have come to the conclusion that the WHEELER & WILSON, HIGHEST PREMIUM SEWING MACHINE, is decidedly the best. These unequalled Machines are adapted to every variety of sewing for family wear, from the lightest muslins to the heaviest cloths. They work equally well upon silk, linen, woolen, and cotton goods, with silk, cotton, or linen thread. They will sew, quilt, gather, hem, and fall, and blind and perform every kind of sewing, making a beautiful and perfect stitch, alike on both sides of the article sewed. The sewing will never unravel or wash out. The Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machines are so simple that a child can work them with ease. Printed instructions are sent with every Machine, so that any one can operate them without any trouble or difficulty. Every Machine is warranted, and the money returned if not entirely satisfactory.

Over Fifty Thousand of the celebrated Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machines are sold every year, and yet the demand is so great that they can hardly be supplied as fast as ordered. Machines are carefully packed and sent in good order to any portion of the country. We hope our readers will write at once to the Wheeler & Wilson Agency, No. 704 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, and get one of their Almanacs for 1865, and specimens of work done by the Machine, all of which they will send by mail, free of charge, to any address. We are glad to learn that Mr. G. W. Parsons, 110 Market street, Harrisburg, has just been appointed agent of these celebrated machines. Give him a call. We know them to be the best, most simple and cheapest machine in use.
