

COUNTY TICKET. GEORGE F. MILLER, of Union county. DANIEL KAISER, of Union county. JOSHUA C. YOUNG, Harrisburg. GEORGE MARKS, Union Deposit. HENRY HARTMAN, Washington. PHILIP MOYER, Upper Paxton. ALFRED SLENTZ, Harrisburg.

The Meeting this Evening. We trust that our friends in the city will turn out to a man, to hear the eloquent Illinoisan, Hon. Isaac N. Arnold, who is expected to address the people of Dauphin county in the Court House, this evening.

The Democratic Leaders Making the Presidential Election a Grand Financial Scheme of Speculation.

The changes to which political organizations are subjected, are among the most curious of all the fluctuations which the historian is called to discuss, as he records the events in the progress of a nation. As an instance of this fact, the Democratic party now affords some fine illustrations. From 1812 down to the war with Mexico, the leaders of the Democratic party made their capital and held their followers in a sort of trance, by appeals to their prejudices and their passions.

Our troops who started in pursuit of the raiding party that carried off the cattle did not succeed in overtaking the rebels in their retreat. The latter had too much the start and safely effected their escape with the entire herd, numbering 1485, together with 16 of the herders; but two of these were killed. The enemy, when first discovered, had almost surrounded the herd and its guard, and only a small number of the latter effected their escape.

Col. Morgan, Commissary of Subsistence of the army, had selected the best of the herd on account of the good quality of the grazing there. Lieut. Gen. Grant has issued an order that no spirituous, malt or vinous liquors shall be allowed to come into the army, excepting through the commissary and medical departments.

Another Rebellion Threatened. We have frequently warned the free masses of Pennsylvania, that the copperhead leaders enter on the Presidential canvass imbued with the same feeling and resolved on the same proceedings, which characterized the rebels in the campaign of 1860.

Mr. Lincoln may be re-elected; he may be elected fairly; but we tell the majority that if they elect him, they have no other security for the perpetuation of their power than brute force gives them. We make no threat; we point to the signs of the times. It is for our political opponents to shape their conduct in the light of them.

The outside speeches of the Chicago Convention were filled with such threats. They have, however, but little importance, for the General Government is well able, with the support of the Union loving people, to sustain itself against traitors in the North as well as in the South. The extract, however, shows the desperation of the Democratic organs. General McClellan says that "the preservation of our Union was the sole avowed object for which the war was commenced."

ONE LETTER OF ACCEPTANCE ENOUGH.—The Cincinnati Daily Times states, upon good authority, that Mr. Pendleton will not be likely to furnish the Democracy with a letter signifying his submission to the call of the Chicago Convention. We readily come to the conclusion that one letter of acceptance is sufficient for the Peace Democracy just now. They have scarcely been able to recover from the bewilderment and confusion created in their ranks by the very curious document submitted to their perusal by Gen. McClellan. Besides, it is very probable, that there would be a greater difference of sentiment between Mr. Pendleton and Gen. McClellan than between the latter and the Chicago platform. So, from the policy that "the least said is soonest mended," Mr. Pendleton would do wisely to write no letter. If they could seal his lips as well as they stay his pen until after the election, it would be well for both himself and his party.

HENRY S. FOOT, better known as "Hangman Foot," has addressed a letter to the public, through the columns of the Richmond Whig, relative to the peace manifestations in the United States, and the spirit in which we should respond to them. He looks upon the party which supports McClellan as substantially a peace party, and counsels a readiness on the rebel part to welcome its peaceful overtures.

Pursuit of the Cattle Stealers Not Successful. HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, September 18, 1864. Our troops who started in pursuit of the raiding party that carried off the cattle did not succeed in overtaking the rebels in their retreat.

Promotion of Gen. Mott. The Vicksburg Herald of the 10th inst. says there has been a concentration of the rebel forces at Jackson, Miss. The troops of Forrest, Taylor, Galsion and Wert Adams, were encamped around the city for several days.

Rebel Movements in the Country Around Vicksburg. The Vicksburg Herald of the 10th inst. says there has been a concentration of the rebel forces at Jackson, Miss. The troops of Forrest, Taylor, Galsion and Wert Adams, were encamped around the city for several days.

REBEL MOVEMENTS. Louisville, Sept. 18. Gen. Forrest crossed the Cold Water on Monday last, and camped within fifteen miles of Memphis. Gen. Marmaduke with seven thousand men is across the St. Francis, intending to invade Memphis. Gen. Price is threatening Little Rock.

DESTRUCTION OF VESSELS. Movements of a Pirate. Boston, Sept. 18. The schooner M. B. Smith arrived at Beverly on Saturday. She reports that she spoke Sept. 7th, in lat. 44:40, long. 67:50, the fishing schooner W. H. Lovett.

Arrested for Treason. Indiana, Sept. 18. Dr. Rowland Bayley, of Spring Hill, Indiana, was arrested for treason, by the order of Gen. Hovey, on the charge of treason. He will be brought to this city.

From New Orleans.

Movements of Steamers. From Mexico. Cortinas Occupies Brownsville, Texas, Hoists the U. S. Flag, and Offers his Services to the Government. REBELS DRIVEN OUT OF BROWNSVILLE. PARTICULARS OF THE AFFAIR. The Rebels Fire on the Mexicans. CORTINAS REINFORCED. BROWNSVILLE ATTACKED AND CAPTURED. THE REBEL FLAGS TORN DOWN. Rejoicing Among the Mexicans and People of Brownsville, on Seeing the Stars and Stripes.

CAIRO, September 18. The steamer Charles White, from New Orleans on the 12th, arrived here to-day. The steamer Fungshung arrived there on the 12th. The transport Continental left on the same day for New York, via Fortress Monroe.

The French were fortifying with cotton bales, and it is reported they would march from Monterey to Matamoros. The export on specie had been reduced to one per cent on gold and five per cent on silver.

General Averill continued to pursue them, and forming a portion of Colonel Howell's brigade, ordered them to charge. Lomax's command, who were formed in line. The portion of the brigade indicated charged them in the style, routing and driving them for two miles, until they reached the cover of General Sherman's division of rebel infantry, who were drawn up in line to dispute our further advance and cover the retreat of the cavalry.

It is but a simple act of justice to our cavalry, who have so nobly done the great portion of the fighting which has been recently done in this department, to state here that in every encounter which they have had with the rebel cavalry they have invariably whipped and routed them in double quick time. Under the able leadership of such men as Sheridan, Torbert, and Averill, the rebel cavalry have long since lost any prestige which they may have had in the earlier days of the war.

Rebel prisoners belonging to Imboden's command, captured by Lieutenant Savaocol, of the 1st New York Lincoln Cavalry, early on Tuesday morning, from the rebel picket line at Bunker Hill, state that the main portion of Early's command has taken possession of Stevenson Depot. There has been no movement to-day, and everything is consequently quiet along our lines.

W. P. Smith, the master of transportation on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, arrived at General Sheridan's headquarters last evening, and remained until this morning. It is understood that Mr. Smith came for the purpose of consulting General Sheridan respecting a force for the protection of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, which is being rapidly reopened.

The War in Georgia. POSITION OF THE UNION FORCES—SPLENDID RESULTS OF THE CAMPAIGN. ATLANTA, Sept. 11.—Our left is at present at Decatur, on the Augusta railroad, six miles from Atlanta; our right is at East Point, the same distance from that place, and our center in the city. The campaign, which has closed with the capture of Atlanta, has put our arms in possession of thirty thousand square miles more of territory. The Georgia militia, lately numerous in Hood's army, are rapidly deserting. Reliable information assures us that the mountains are full of them seeking safety. Of those killed in the battle of Jonesboro, nearly all were veterans in Hardee's corps. There are now left of the rebel army about 22,000 veterans, and from 10,000 to 15,000 militia. It has at length ceased to be feasible, and but for the fatigue of Sherman's forces, would, ere this, have been annihilated.

THE GEORGIA MILITIA WITHDRAWN FROM HOOD'S ARMY—UNION PRISONERS TRANSFERRED FROM ANDERSONVILLE. CHATTAHOOGA, Sept. 17.—The Griffin Rebel, of the 14th, contains an order by Governor Brown, of Georgia, withdrawing the 10,000 militia from Hood's army for thirty days. Thirty-five thousand (?) Federal prisoners at Andersonville, Georgia, have been sent to Savannah and Augusta.

California and Oregon. SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 16. ELECTION OF A U. S. SENATOR IN OREGON. The steamer Golden City has arrived from Panama, with the mails and passengers that left New York on the 23d of August. The shipments of treasure to China last month were over $4,500,000. The shipments of merchandise are also larger than ever before.

George A. Williams, an unconditional Union Democrat, was elected United States Senator, by the Oregon Legislature, yesterday. Destructive Fire. NEW YORK, Sept. 19. A fire broke out this morning at 3:30 A. M. in Wood & Bro.'s carriage depository, No. 596 Broadway. The building was also occupied by Bangs, Merwin & Co., book auctioneers. The building and stock of B. M. & Co. were totally destroyed, but the carriages of Wood & Bro. were saved. The total loss is about $250,000, of which Bangs, Merwin & Co. are the principal losers.

The Draft at Norristown. NORRISTOWN, Sept. 19. The draft was commenced here by Major Backus, of the 1st New York Cavalry, at nine o'clock this morning.

DEPARTMENT OF THE SOUTH.

REBEL RAID IN FLORIDA. WHOLESALE CONSCRIPTION AND ROBBERY. WASHINGTON, Sept. 18. Accounts received from Mosquito Inlet, Florida, of late date, state that several parties of rebel guerrillas, belonging to Major Dickinson's cavalry, made a concerted move on the inhabitants living near the seaboard, and captured numbers of them, the charge being that they had taken the oath of allegiance to the United States Government, and had been in the habit of trading with the blockading vessels on that station. One object of the raid was, however, to supply their ranks with conscripts, as well as the punishment of those who have been in open and friendly intercourse with our forces.

Among these captured were several deserters from the army, who, until recently, had succeeded in eluding their vigilance by camping in the swamps contiguous to their residences. Those living under the immediate protection of our naval forces were un molested. The guerrillas, not content with having captured all the male inhabitants within certain limits, completed the scheme by robbing their families, in several instances taking everything they could carry away. Information from other parts of Florida and the adjacent counties is to the effect that great distress prevails among the poorer classes of people, in consequence of these raids.

The United States schooner George Mangham is now performing blockade duty off this point, but was unable to render any assistance, not being aware of the raid until after it terminated.

The Shenandoah Valley. AVERILL DRIVING THE REBELS—A BRILLIANT CHARGE—EARLY'S POSITION. BALTIMORE, Sept. 17.—A letter from headquarters Department of Western Virginia, Sept. 17, says: Kershaw's division of Longstreet's corps has been singularly fortunate in having men captured. In every reconnaissance since our advance more or less of that command has been gobbled up.

General Averill advanced from Lee town at eight o'clock on Tuesday morning, and crossed the Opequan at Burns Ford, and moved through the country in the direction of Drakesville, where he encountered the enemy's skirmishers and drove them to Bunker Hill, where they rallied and made a short stand; but, deeming prudence the better part of valor, they soon rapidly retired on the main body of their cavalry, who were stationed three miles beyond, under the command of the rebel General Lomax.

General Averill continued to pursue them, and forming a portion of Colonel Howell's brigade, ordered them to charge. Lomax's command, who were formed in line. The portion of the brigade indicated charged them in the style, routing and driving them for two miles, until they reached the cover of General Sherman's division of rebel infantry, who were drawn up in line to dispute our further advance and cover the retreat of the cavalry.
