Brady, 14th United States Infantry, a resi-dent of Bellefonte, Centre county, is still confined, with some prospect of early deliverance. His health is, however, very good, and he bears well the hardships of imprisonment.

THEATER The New Actress.—It is not say-ing too much to assert that no lady who ever appeared upon the boards here has created as great a degree of enthusiasm as did the charming protean actress, Miss Bella Gol-charming protean actress, Miss Bella Golcharming protect actess, mass being Gol-den, whose engagement at Rouse's Theatre commenced last night. She appeared in half-a-dozen characters, in each of which she sus-tained the reputation which she has so fairly won in the larger cities. To-night she will personate six distinct characters in the cele-brated drame artitled Summ in Paper. rated drama entitled SATAN IN PARIS ; or, The Mysterious Stranger In these characters Miss Golden is said to secual the world renowned Madame Celeste.

Another new face will appear to-night that of the great German delineator, Mr. D. L. Morris, who is pronounced by the New York: Herald to be the best representative of German character now in the United States. We trust that our people will continue to throng Brant's Hall, and give Mr. Rouse a substantial evidence that his efforts to place before us the best performers are truly ap preciated.

Fever and Ague!

A DAMPENER.-As the train from the south on the N. C. R. R., was waiting its usual time at the depot, yesterday, a party of blatant M'Clellanites passed through one of the cars after a flea. Meeting an old gentleman, a citizen of Baltimore, he was asked his prefer ence for President. He named Lincoln.-"But," said he, "I have five nephews in the army who each prefer M'Clellan." The cops became uprorious with applause at this an-nouncement. When one of the vipers con-gratulated the old Baltimorean upon the choice of his nephews, and inquired, "under whot General are your upplaced making the what General are your nephews making tar-gets of themselves?" imagine the surprise which struck the cops as the old man calmly which struck the copy as the out man calling but sarcastically replied, "General Robert E Lee." An audible titter ran through the cars as the cops hurriedly left the train.

THE SUBSTITUTE SWINDLE, to which we al luded on Saturday last, has created consider-able flurry among the brokers, on the principle of suspicion haunting the guilty, each of these worthies deeming himself referred to in that paragraph. At present we can only write that the individual referred to is a street broker, formerly a captain in the army, and at no time a citizen of Harrisburg. It appears that he was arrested and carried to Philadelphia, but he having since returned, it is fair to infor that by some hours pools known only to the profession, he managed to procure a discharge. This, however, does not clear up the fact that a mean swindle was perpetrated, and that forgery was resorted to o make that swindle successful.
