A Grand Scheme to Secure the Election of George B. M'Clellan.

It is now clearly understood, that the con test for the election of a President of the United States, so far as the friends of George B. M'Clellan are concerned, is to be conducted solely by fraud and falsehood. The Chicago platform is a fraud, because it was prepared designedly to delude and mislead ignorant and unsuspecting people. M'Clellan's letter of acceptance is a fraud, because its object is to draw the wool over the eyes of the War Democrats and secure their support at the polls. Pendleton's reticence is a fraud, because it is persisted in to save the peace element. But the greatest of the frauds contemplated by the copperheads is to be held in reserve until its effect for mischief to the country and assistance in the defeat of Lincoln (as the cops hope and calculate) will be beyond counteraction. The nature of the fraud is of this description: On the eve of the Presidential election, the copperhead leaders will suddenly spring on the people a proposition from Jeff. Davis to the effect that if the people in the free States elect George B M'Clellan the war shall at once cease, the rebellious STATES COVENANTING TO BETURN TO THEIR ALLE-GIANCE ON THE BASIS OF THE OLD UNION, NAMELY, will compensation for the slave property already lost, the return of all freedmen in the limits of the slave States at the time of the cessation of hostilities, and the payment of the debt incurrid by the war, in common by the States North and South, by the Federal Government. It is calculated by the copperheads, that this proposition will delude the people of the North into the election of M'Clellan, with the hope that the war will then end. This scheme reminds us of the trick to which M'Clellan loaned himself on the eve of the last election for Governor in this State. A few days before that contest, M'Clellan wrote and issued a circular letter appealing to his friends to support Woodward, on the plea that his (M'Clellan's) political opinions harmonized with those of Woodward's-when it was well known that Judge Woodward had pronounced the war to crush rebellion unholy and unjust -that the slave States should be allowed to go in peace—and that the Government could not coerce a State after it had resolved to leave the Union. This last trick, to delude the loyal men of the North, on the plea that the rebels will lay down their arms if M'Clellan is elected President, will fail as did M'- Clellan's trick to elect Woodward Governor. October Elections.

Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and lowafour States-will hold elections for State officers on the 11th of October ensuing. The vote of these States will have a controlling influence on the one to follow in November. In 1863, the Union majority in Ohio was 101, 699, against a "Democratic" majority in the year previous of 5,577. Independent and loyal journals in Ohio speak confidently of the majority for Lincoln in that State reach ing that of 1863, as the influences which brought disgrace and defeat to Vallandigham, are stronger to-day in the Buckeye State than they were two years ago. Indiana did not hold an election two years ago. However, a spirited political canvass has been going on in that State, and parties are actively engaged for and against the Government, preparatory to the great contests at the polls in October and November. In 1862 the "Demoeratio" majority in Indiana was 9,613. Since then at least five thousand Democratic voters have left that State and entered the rebel armies, so that we may reasonably look for a Union victory in Indiana at the approaching October election. In 1862, the Union majority in Iowa was 15,115--in 1863 it was increased to 20,513 and in October it will not fall short of 30,000 majority. In 1862 the "Democracy" carried Pennsylvania by a small majority, 3,526. Meaner advantages were never taken by a party, than those resorted to by the "Democracy" in this State at that election. In 1863 our friends were up and doing. The State was thoroughly canvassed, and the result was the re-election of Governor Curtin by a majority of 15,325. This majority will be increased on the popular vote for Congress, in this State, at the coming October election, and as the issues at that election will be involved at the November election, we may reasonably calculate that 25,000 majority. The skies were never so bright for the friends of liberty, law and loyship to the latter of the friends of liberty, law and loyship to the latter of liberty, law and loyship to the latter of liberty, decreased, friends in the lands of liberty, law and loyship to the latter of liberty, decreased, friends in the latter of liberty, law and loyship to the latter of liberty, decreased, friends in the latter of liberty, law and loyship to the latter of liberty, decreased, friends in the latter of liberty, decreased, friends in the latter of liberty, decreased, friends in the latter of liberty latter of liberty, decreased, friends in the latter of liberty, latter of liberty, decreased, friends in the latter of liberty, decreased, friends in the latter of liberty, latter of liberty,

Friends of the Union, what think ye of them?

"Have you heard the news from Maine, Maine, Maine?" Latest news from Maine show that the majority of the shoddy candidate has been cut down from last year, just about five thousand votes.—Patriot and Union, Sept. 20.

We copy the above in order to show our readers how the copperheads are given to lying. The truth is, complete returns (given below) from seven counties, and partial returns from eight others, show that the Democratic vote has fallen off in every county. The figures are correct. Every victory gained by our soldiers is of but little importance to them and very seldom laid before their readers, but let the rebels achieve an imaginary victory, flags are displayed from their dwellings, and the Union losses greatly magnified. Let the Union men mark their conduct.

at three o'clock yesterday afternoon, is a short distance this side of Strasburg. He had pursued the rebels over thirty miles from the point where he attacked them at daylight on Monday.

Harper's Ferry, Sept. 21, 1864. Hon. Edwin M. Stanton, Secretary of War. Reliable news from the front has been received. Our army was crossing Cedar creek yesterday, at 3 o'clock P. M. There has been no aghting. The following list of the rebel generals killed and wounded is correct: Rhodes, Ramseur, Gordon, Ferry, Goodwin, Bradley Johnson and Fitz Lee.

From all we can learn the prisoners will approximate 5.000. The indications are that the rebels will not make a stand short of Stanton. They are evidently too much demoralized too make slight ripple of excitement was produced here yesterday by the report that a Yankee raiding party was advancing on Gordonsville and were within a few miles of that place. Were within a few miles of that place.

The result of all our inquiries on this head is that this report originated in the fact that early yestesday a party of Yankee raiders, whose number is not known, visited Rapidan bridge—after destroying it proceeded to to Liberty Mills, five or six miles above, which they also destroyed. From this latter place they are believed to have gone back to Culpepper."

FORTRESS MONROE, Sept. 19. SURPRISE AND CAPTURE OF A SCHOONER BY THE REBELS-REBEL PRISONERS TO BE EXCHANGED

-GENERAL GRANT ON HIS WAY TO THE FRONT. The schooner Jane F. Durfee, E. G. Davis master, was captured on Saturday evening last, at 11 o'clock, while at anchor in Warwick river, near James river, by a party of five rebels belonging to the C. S. navy.

It was a complete surprise. The first Capt. Davis knew of it, a rebel entered his cabin with a pistol directed at his head, demanding the surrender of the schooner, and informing him of his crew having been overpowered.

The schooner was released by Captain Davis giving bond to the amount of $7,313, and wilbur F. Stocking, the supercargo, being held as hostage for payment of the money.

They then robbed the schooner, taking 2,700 from the captain, clothing from the crew, the small boat, colors, papers, compasses, nautical instruments, &c.; bidding the ses, nautical instruments, &c.; bidding the captain politely adieu, left at one r. M. The captain of the Dufree arrived and reported here with his schooner this morning.

Flag of truce steamers New York and Dictator, with one thousand rebel prisoners, destined for exchange, arrived last night from Philadelphia, and left at ten o'clock this morning for Aikens' Landing, all in charge of Meior, John E. Multord Commissioner for Major John E. Mulford, Commissioner for Exchange of prisoners.

Lieutenant-General Grant arrived this morning from Baltimore, and proceeded up nes river, with Major Mulford, on the New York.

Steamer Keyport ran on to an old wreck in Hampton Roads, this morning, making a hole in her keel. She ran ashore on Old Point, and sunk in shoal water. The wreck had ecently floated in and sunk in the channel. Sloop-of-war Wyoming sailed from Hamp-ton Roads this afternoon, and went to sea.

Toledo, Sept. 20 Captain Orr, of the steamer Island Queen arrived from Detroit river this morning, and furnishes a statement in regard to the ratical operations in the vicinity of Sandusty last night. The Island Queen left Sandusky at 3 r. : yesterday, stopped at Kelley's Island for thirty or forty soldiers, and passed Midde Bass Island, where she found the steamer Pasons in possession of pirates, who at one seized the Island Queen.

The soldiers were paroled as confederate prisoners, and the other passengers were swon to secresy for twenty-four hours. The Island Queen was then lashed to the Parsons, and the two started for Sandusky; when out fire miles the watercock of the Island Queens pony engine was broken off, opening a hole the side, and she was cast off, and left to sin The Parsons tossed into the mouth of Saldusky Bay, and after hovering about for some time, apparently signalling to those insid. started for Detroit river, arriving at Fighting Island, on the Canada side, about 8 o'clod this morning, where Captain Orr, his cler and engineer were landed, and the steam was burned as soon, as preparations could be made for that object.

The Captain has no doubt the seizure of th United States steamer Michigan and the liber ation of the prisoners at Johnson's Island wa the object of the plot. Both steamers wer stripped of everything valuable.

Saldiers' Orphans.

THE arrangements for the education and maintenance of the destitute Orphans of the Soldiers and Sailors of the State, under the act relating to the subject, being now sufficiently completed to enable the undersigned to receive application, notice is hereby given that blank forms of application, with the necessary instructions, have been deposited with the following gentlemen, from whom the relatives or friends of the orphans can obtain them.

When the application and statement in each case shall be properly filled and sworn to, and certified by the Board of Common School Directors of the district in which the orphan resides, it is to be returned to the gentleman from whom it was received, or to some other member of the county superintending committee, by whom it will be forwarded to the undersigned.

In a short time after the receipt of the application by the undersigned, if it be in due form, and the orphan be entitled to the benefits of the act, an order for the admission to the proper school will be sent by mail to the mother, or other applying relative or friend, with necessary instructions.

It is expected that the schools selected for these orphans will be ready for their reception during the month of October. Their friends will therefore take the necessary steps and have them ready for admission by the 1st of November at the latest.

The State will provide clothing, boarding, washing, monding, instruction books, &c., for the orphans while in the schools provided for them, but the relatives or friends are expected to send them thither, without cost to the State, and also to send with them, in as good order as possible, such clothing as they may then have, to be worn till others can be provide for them.

Practical Anatomy will be taught by James H. Butler, M. D., Demonstrator.

During the continuance of the war, Military Surgery and Military Hygiene will be introduced as a regular part of the course.

Matriculates of the School have access at all times to the wards of the Baltimore infirmary, where they can winness the performance of all the principal operations in Surgery, and can observe the numerous forms of disease under treatment. The Infirmary is a spacious hospital attached to the Medical School, and it is open to the Students daily throughout the entire year, without any additional charge.

The fees for the full Course of Lectures are $90; for Matriculation, $5; and for Practical Anatomy, $10.
