ORGANIC WEAKNESS mimediately overed, and roll vigor restored.
This distressing affection—which readers life misorable and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victims of improper indulgence. Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent. Besides being deprived the pleasures of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms to both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged, the physical and montal functions weakened, loss of procreative power, nervous intribability, dyspepsin, palpitation of the heart, indigestion, constitutional debility, a wasting of the frame, cough, consumption, detay and death.
