NATIONAL UNION TICKET. FOR PRESIDENT.

Abraham Lincoln. OF ILLINOIS.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT. Andrew Johnson,

OF TENNESSEE.

COUNTY TICKET. CONGRESS. GEORGE F. MILLER, of Union county.

ASSEMBLY. Col. H. C. ALLEMAN, Harrisburg. DANIEL KAISER, Wiconisco.

PROTHOTARY. JOSIAH C. YOUNG, Harrisburg.

REGISTER, GEORGE M. MARK, Union Deposit. COUNTY COMMISSIONER, HENRY HARTMAN, Washington,

PHILIP MOYER, Upper Paxton. ALFRED SLENTZ, Harrisburg.

The Two Conventions and the Soldiers The National Union Convention, at Baltimore, resolved "that the thanks of the American people are due to the soldiers and sailors of the army and navy, who have periled their lives in defence of their country and in vindication of the honor of the old flag; that the nation owes to them some permanent recognition of their patriotism and valor."

The National Copperhead Convention, at Chicago, resolved, in language framed by the infamous traitor Vallandigham, "that the sympathy of the Democratic party is heartily and earnestly extended to the soldiers of our army, who are and have been in the field under the flag of our country.

The one Convention, recognizing and acknowledging the heroic services of the pa triotic men who have periled life in defending the Union and overcoming its enemies, addresses to them the grateful thanks of the great mass of loyal people whom it represented.

The other Convention, insolently stigmatizing the war which these brave patriots have fought in defence of the Union a "failure," offers them a condescending sympathy in their "failure"—the sympathy of Vallandighams and Powells and Harrises and Seymours.

Which of these tenders, does any man suppose, is most acceptable to the soldiers and the sailors of the Union

Grant and Butler. A careful examination, on a good map, of the position of the Army of the Potomac on James River, will convince any person capable of understanding a military situation, that it is one highly advantageous. We hold the peninsula between the James and Appomattox Rivers, at Bermuda Hundred, elaborately fortified, and made impregnable. On the right we have an important post north of the James River, also well fortified, and connected with Bermuda Hundred by our fleet, which rests in James River, over which, when required, a pontoon bridge can be thrown. On the the transactions at Chicago has worked for left, Bermuda Hundred is connected with the position in front of Petersburg by a pontoon bridge, which is fully protected by fortificafleet. The base of our operations at City Point, is just below the junction of the Appomattox with the James. A railroad runs from this point on the east side of the Appomattox, up to Petersburg, and is employed in carrying supplies to our troops. Our lines about Petersburg now envelop the city so far as to include the Weldon or Great Southern Railroad. Now it will be seen at a glance that Grant can, without the knowledge of the enemy, or leaving any part of his line insecure, throw the main body of his army either south of Petersburg, or between Petersburg and Richmond, or against Richmond, north of the James. Out of this situation it is reasonable to expect the most important and favorable results will be obtained.

The Union men of the XIIIth Congressional District have just met in conference and unanimously nominated Hon. Ulyssus Mercur, of Bradford county, as the candidate for Congress in that District. Mr. Mercur is the President Judge of the Bradford District. Perhaps no man in the Commonwealth enjoys a fairer reputation, has more friends, or is distinguished for larger abilities, than Judge Mercur. He is known as well for his intellect as for his integrity—a man who will fearlessly represent the interests of a constituated attitude his reply is, I am no longer uency, and boldly stand, up for the right in George B. McClellan—I am the Chicago platthe face of any wrong, however stupendous, by which he may be confronted. Indeed, we can write in honest candor of Judge Mercur, what is so little applicable to so many men in these days of chicanery and fraud-that he s a man who can be relied upon at all times and in all places! Of course he will be elected by a handsome majority.

THE Cleveland Herald neatly says that "seeing the velocity with which the Chicago Copperhead train is rushing to destruction, Mc-Clellan, the cautious railroad man, keeps his eye on the warning-'Don't stand on the Platform."

ALL GOOD MEN ARE IN FAVOR OF PEACE-but when peace comes, let it be in the shape of a white-winged angel, and not in the form of a white-faced slave, chained under the bloody feet of an aristocratic rebellion.

THE vote against the soldiers' suffrage in Connecticut is proportional throughout the State to the Democratic vote in the regular elections. And yet the Democrats claim to be the friends of the soldier."

andamen a Redike

Pennsylvania has a hundred thousand vote in the field and in the hospitals which must be polled at the coming State and national elections. In addition to this vote in the army, of men active for duty or confined in hospitals within our lines, there are also a large num ber of gallant men held as prisoners by the rebels, who cannot exercise the electors franchise. For every vote thus lost, it becomes the friends of the soldiers and the Government, to secure a vote from among those who are halling in their opinions in reference to the issues at stake. There are many men who can be induced by fair means and frank arguments if appealed to personally, to vote for the re-election of Abrahan Lincoln, but who, if neglected and left to the influences of copperheadism, will unwittingly allow their ballots to be attracted where they have neither affection or confidence. This element in the political or ganization of the opposition, can be wielded to make up for the loss of the votes of the soldiers now in possession of the enemy. The soldiers in the field and in the hospitals, to whom facilities for voting will be afforded need only be reminded that in voting for the re-election of Abraham Lincoln, they cas their political influence, as they new peril their lives, for the defence and the preservation of the Government. In one sense, they do more than this. Every soldier who votes for a Union candidate for State and national office, casts his ballot for the perpetuation of the very principle which guarantees to him the exercise of the election franchise. The very men who extended the privilege of the election franchise are those who now sustain the Government; while the men who have organ-IZED opposition to the national authorities, and who seek a change of Administration that the prestige of rebellion may be revived and the recognition of the Southern Confederacy | THE REBELS PURSUED BEYOND STRASBURG secured, are those who opposed the measure providing for the constitutional legality of the soldier's vote. Hence it is not possible that any true man wearing the uniform of his country and serving beneath the banner of freedom, can be so recreant to them and so false to himself as to vote for those who are his enemies as well as the foes of his country. While the loyal vote at home will be ample to decide the great political contests approach ing in Pennsylvania, we want the vote of the soldier to add glory to the victory we intend to achieve.

The Forgeries of the Copporheads, The satisfaction with which the nomina tion of M'Clellan, and the platform erected at Chicago, have been received at Richmond. has disconcerted the managers of the northern wing of southern opposition to the Fede ral rule. There is still a pulsation of patriotism left in the Democratic masses. The virtue of the people, unlike the villainy of the politician, is proof against treason. This patriotism and virtue revolt at the idea of being identified with men and measures which meet the unqualified approval of the traitors in arms to destroy the National Union and National Government. Hence, the cop- More Prisoners Captured. perhead organs in different sections of the loyal States are engaged in manufacturing opinions and reviews of the candidates and platform put up at Chicago, purporting to have appeared in the Southern rebel newspapers, which are severely and even rancorously denunciatory of the "Democratic party." These forgeries have been resorted to, to counteract the mischief which rebel approval of M'Clellan and Pendleton. In the meantime, or as soon as the managers of the northern wing of traitors, can give their southern allies tions on either shore and a portion of our the cue, the entire rebel press will ring with denunciations of the proceedings of the Chicago Convention. The object of this swindle is to silence the apprehensions of many honest men who still believe in the purity of Democracy, but who cannot reconcile the notion of what Democracy ought to be, with what Democracy is, as it is presented to their view in the columns of the rebel press. Such are the cheats with which George B. M'Clellan is to be carried into civil power.

> We fear that Gen. Grant does not have sufficient respect for the wishes of the Democratic party. At Chicago they resolved in favor of "immediate cessation of hostilities." But without paying the least attention to this, he proceeds to Harper's Ferry, orders Sheridan to pitch into Early and whip him. The latter General having no more respect for the wishes of the Convention than his superior, obeys orders, and straightway Early is whipped. We are curious to know what the Democracy will do with these two refractory disturbers of their plan. Evidently something ought to be done with them!

> WHEN James Buchanan was the Democratic candidate for the Presidency, he was twitted with former political heresies. His reply was, I am no longer James Buchanan-I am the Cincinnati platform." So when General Mc-Clellan is reminded of his present double > GEN. M'CLELLAN says that "the preserva tion of our Union was the sole avowed object for which the war was commenced." The General is mistaken. The dissolution "of our Union was the sole object for which the war was commenced "--by the Southern half of the party that nominated McClellan for the Presidency. For futher particulars, address James Buchanan, O. P. F., Wheatland, Pa.

> McClellan may be the "coming man," but if he does not come faster than he went toward Richmond, he will find the White House occupied by an older, a taller, and an infinitely better man, with a lease of the premises signed by an overwhelming majority of the people, for four years from the 4th of March

SOMETHING FOR DEMOCRATS TO REMEMBER. -Before the rebellion broke out, Senator Douglas, referring to the Southern States, said : if they remain in the Union, I will go as far as the Constitution will warrant me in securing their rights; but if they seeds, I am infavor of allowing them just as many slaves and just as much slave territory as they can hold at the point of the bayonet."

UNION MEETING AT WILLIAMSPORT GREAT ENTHUSIASM

WILLIAMSPORT, Sept. 23, 1864. Daily Telegraph:—There was a glorious Union meeting here last evening. The Court House was crammed. Judge Armstrong presided. Charles H. Shriner, Union candidate for Senator, spoke for two hours, and was greeted with most enthusiastic applause. He made one of the most convincing speeches ever made here, and the meeting was one of the most enthusiastic ever held in Williamsport. Several other speakers followed; and the meeting adjourned with cheers for Shriner and the Union. E. W. C.

A STAND ATTEMPTED AT FLINT HILL The Enemy Driven Out by Our Forces.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22-9:15 P. M. Dispatches down to 9 o'clock last night have been received from Gen. Sheridan.

A portion of the rebel carairy-having turned of to Front Royal, they were pursued, attacked, and driven by our cavalry, which was still pursuing the enemy.

The rebel infantry made a stand at Flint Hill, a strongly entrenched position beyond Strasburg, which was attacked by our forces last evening, and the crest carried and held by our troops. There is reason to believe that later dispatches were captured last night by Mosby

Gen. Stevenson reports that Sheridan's supply trains arrived safely at Winchester last night. EDWIN M. STANTON, Secretary of War.

SHERIDAN DRIVING THE REBELS.

BRAVERY OF GEN. CROOK'S COMMAND

BALTIMORE, Sept. 22.
The American has received the following special dispatch: CHARLESTOWN, Va., Sept. 22-4 A. M.-I arrived here last night on my way to the front. Sheridan continues to drive the rebels, capturing every day more or less prisoners.

The wounded are being collected at Winchester and put in temporary hospitals.

I expect to reach Winchester at noon and the front to-night.

In my account of the battle of the 19th I omitted to mention the fact of Colonel Duval being wounded. His division of Crook's command was on the extreme right, and did some desperate fighting. His turning of the enemy's left flank did much toward securing us victory. The whole of Gen. Grook's command fought magnificently, and kept their promise to "wipe out Winchester." They have pro-bably lost more men killed and wounded, in proportion to the force they had engaged, han any of the other commands. General Crook led his men during the hottest part of the fight, personally directing all their movements and cheering them along. It is a mira-cle that he escaped unburt, as the bullets flew around him thick as hail.

THE LATE UNION BAID ON THE RAPIDAN—GREAT DESTRUCTION OF SUPPLIES—ENGAGEMENT WITH EARLY'S CAVALRY.

Washington, Sept. 22.—The raid by our avalry on the Rapidan, in which the railroad bridge over that stream was destroyed, was performed by 400 cavalry, under the command of Colonel Luzelle, 16th New York Cavalry, sent out by Gen. Augur. The movement was ordered in reference to the then impending battle between Sheridan's and Early's force The expedition was successful in the destruc tion of the railroad bridge, and also the Liberty Mills, about six miles above the Orange and Alexandria Railroad, and 4,000 barrels of flour, with considerable other properties.

About 400 mules were captured, but on the return of the party they encountered a greatly superior force of Early's cavalry, with whom they had a smeat arresement Legica 22 bills. they had a smart engagement, losing 23 killed and wounded, and the mules they had cap tured. The main object of the expedition was successfully accomplished.

SHERIDAN AT STRASBURG. Washington, Sept. 22.—Sheridan reached Strasburg at a late hour yesterday. The rebel retreating rear left the town but an hour or two before our advance entered it.

AFFAIRS IN MISSOURI, Shelby's Rebels on the Move.

CAIRO, Sept. 22. Citizens just from Charleston, Mo., state that the 2d regiment of Missouri volunteers, fearing an attack from a superior force o Shelby's rebel army, evacuated Bloomfield. Mo., and retreated in the direction of White Water river.

It was reported at Charleston that the enemy, several thousand strong, had overtaken the militia and a fight was going on at White Water last night. Great excitement existed at Charleston but it is not thought that any considerable number of rebels had been in that vicinity.

An arrival from up the river at New Orleans gives a doubtful rumor that Little Bock has been captured.

Hereafter no persons will be arrested in New Orleans without a written accusation is made against them. The water in the Mississippi is very low.

Sr. Louis, Sept. 22. Col. Thompson, of the 1st Iowa Cavalry who has just arrived from Little Rock, says was understood there that from 20,000 to 50,000 rebels, under Price, had crossed the Arkansas river, between Little Rock and Fort Smith, and all communication was cut be-tween those points. It was not known whether Price would strike Fort Smith, or march directly for this Chip. march directly for this State.

Shelby had expected to co-operate with him, and enter the State from the southeast, while he pushes his column in the southwest.

A report from another source says that Price already has a force 7,000 strong in Barr county, Missouri. A heavy Federal force is concentrating at Brownsville, between Little Rock and Duvall's Bluff. Davidson's division, under General Dennis, from Morganzia, had already arrived.
