HARRISBURG, PA

FRIDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 23, 1861.

NO COMPROMISE, BUT SUBMISSION

For Justice and the Right AGAINST TRAITORS TO LAW AND ORDER

The loyal men of the city of Harrisburg, undaunted in the presence of the common enemy, and ready always to raise their voices or their arms in defence of a common country, will GRAND MASS MEETING, ON SATURDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 24, 1864,

At the Court House, for the purpose of organizing still further for the protection of the national honor, the preservation of the National Union, and the perpetuation of the National Government, in A GLORIOUS TRIUMPH AT THE POLLS BY THE ELECTION OF LINCOLN AND JOHNSON. The Farmers, Mechanics, Merchants and Laboring men of Dauphin county, are requested to be present, in their might, and tesnfy their allegiance to the national authority, and by their presence, also, evidence their ABHORRENCE OF TREASON.

The Committee have the best assurance to know that several eminent and distinguished speakers from abroad, and among them, the tion. John Cessna, will be present to address the meeting. Hon. John C. Kunkel, and others of our fellow-citizens at home will also speak on the occasion.

By order of the County Committee.

JOHN J. SHOEMAKER, Chairman. J. M. Wiestling, Secretary.

TOWN AND COUNTRY

DIED OF LOCKJAW.—David D. Eshelman, Union candidate for Surveyor in Huntingdon county, died on Tuesday, of tetanus, caused threshing machine on Thursday previous.

KILLED.-On Wednesday last, while the workmen at the Pennsylvania Iron Works in Chester, were endeavoring to raise a large iron flask, used in the moulding department it slipped from their hands, and coming down upon the body of Robert Williamson, he was almost instantly killed.

THERE will be a Union Mass Meeting at the Court House in this city, to-morrow evening. Hon. John Cessna, one of the most eloquent speakers in the State, will be present and address the meeting. Should the weather prove favorable no doubt there will be a large attendance from the country. Every loyal man should be present.

Sword Presentation.—On the 19th inst., as Co. H, 201st Pennsylvania regiment, was on its way from this city to York, the Captain, B. F. Ashenfelter, was made the recipient of a handsome sword. The presentation was made in the cars. Mr. Dougherty tendered the valuable gift, in a few appropriate remarks, to which the Captain responded briefly, returning his thanks for the weapon, and for the respect shown him by those under his command.

FARMERS, take care of your orchards and your fruit trees. All the fruit that falls and you do not pick up and carry away from under your trees are filled with insects, which are destined to destroy the next year's crop. Go destined to destroy the next year's crop. Go to your trees in the morning and take all the good and sound fruit, then let your pigs in during the day, and thousands, yea, tens of thousands of insects are destroyed every day. Try the experiment, and don't almost dog the pig to death that is doing you good when by accident it gets into your orchard.

-Capt. Geo. Bates, of the 1st New York Artillery, was arrested yesterday by officer Lowe, charged with committing an aggravated assault upon the person of Joseph Bowman. There being much excitement manifested by the citizens against Capt. B., he waived a hearing, and entered bail for his appearance on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, when the matter will be fully investigated. tigated .- Pittsburg Commercial.

Capt. Bates above alluded to was recently command at Fort Washington, opposite this city. We know nothing concerning the offence alleged to have been committed in Pittsburg, but must say that while here Capt. Bates acted the part of a perfect gentleman, and was highly esteemed by our citizens and and all who knew him.

Exciting Chase after a Locomotive.--On Saturday, the 10th inst, says the Indiana American, an engine on the Pennsylvania Railroad, which had been supplied with fuel and water preparatory to taking a train west, got loose from the hostler, and ran up the south track like a streak, snorting and panting as if giving challenge for a race. Engineer Black, with the engineer of the fast line, was despatched at once on the north track in pursuit of the fugitive, and, she being a faster animal, caught up with the runaway at Athensville, and running alongside, the engineer stepped over and reined in the flying steed.
The precaution was taken to the flying steed. precaution was taken to telegraph to White Hall and have the switch turned so as to throw her off the track in case she reached ACCIDENT TO DETECTIVE FRANKLIN. Last night as officer Franklin and a soldier were coming up the pike from Middletown, when near Lochiel (owned by Gen. Cameron.) they came across a deserter. The soldier who was with Franklin jumped out of the buggy, (leaving the details). the detective in charge of the team,) and pursued the deserter a considerable distance, firing at him several times. From some cause the soldier fell, and the fugitive escaped. The pursuer then returned to where he had left the team, and found that the horse and buggy, together with Sergeant Franklin, had down an embankment into a deep ravine. Franklin was insensible, and apparently in a dying condition, but subsequently rallied sufficiently to be removed to the residence at Lochiel, where he was kindly cared for, and is now lying in a critical condition, and but little hope is entertained of his recovery. The only information that could be obtained from him, in regard to the accident, is that in jumping from the buggy his feet were caught in the lines, causing the horse to turn suddenly, and fall down the enbankment, taking the buggy and officer with him.

Sergeant Franklin has been a very efficient officer, always succeeding in accomplishing his work of arresting deserters. He was a gentleman in every sense of the word, and his numerous friends in this city will deeply regret to hear of the accident that has befallen him. It is hoped that he may survive his injuries, and be spared to continue his work as detec-

REV J. WALKER JICESON, the eminent or-ator of this city, is anticulated to address the loyal people of Milton this evening.

Felonious Assaula Two soldiers, named George W. Roberts and William Bassett, were arrested yesterday, charged with committing a felonious assault upon one of our saloonkeepers. A pistol and a crutch were used by the parties. The Mayor committed them to prison to answer the charge at court.

An Independent Company of volunteers for the U.S. service is now being recruited by Capt. J. Deswiler. The Captain is an old soldier having efficiently served his country. Those who desire to escape the draft that will surely take place in delinquent sub-districts, would do well to connect themselves with this independent organization.

ROBBERY OF A SPRING HOUSE.—The spring house of Mr. Michael Budy, in the vicinity of this city, was recently entered by a party of thieves, and a tub of butter, a lot of chickens, etc., were stolen. Yesterday three darkies, named Eli Gibson, Thomas Dochens and James Robinson, of this city, were arrested, charged with the theft. The tub was found at the house of Robinson. They were committed to answer at court.

To OUR COUNTRY EXCHANGES. - Country editors are respectfully requested to examine the advertisement of Thos. H. Burrowes, relative to the education of soldiers' orphans, (published in our columns,) and notice briefly the particulars contained therein, together with the names of the parties to whom application can be made in the respective counties. They would thus greatly aid the cause of the orphans of the brave men who have laid down their lives in their country's service. d&w.

JUST IN SEASON.—Mrs. M. Mayer, of No. 13 Market street, has already received her new stock of goods for the fall market. Visitors to Mrs. Mayer's store pronounce the assort-ment of bonnets, hats, flowers, feathers, trimmings, &c., the most complete in the city, and comprising the most fashionable articles that are to be found in the market. Persons wanting anything in the millinery line would do well to give Mrs. Mayer a call, as the prices are low, and the stock of goods com-plete. Remember the place—No. 13 Market RECRUITING AGENT ADDRESTED.—Evan Damp county, died on Tuesday, of tetanus, caused who has been operating in this city, was ar by having one of his hands crushed by a rested yesterday, at the instance of two mer named Burns and Jones. It appears that Dampman offered liberal bounties for men to be credited to Philadelphia, and succeeded in obtaining Burns for the 9th ward, and Jones for the 10th ward of said city. Their signatures were obtained to the necessary documents, thus securing the men, but the bounty money failed to be forthcoming, and Damp man was arrested on a charge of obtaining the signatures under false pretences. The Mayor committed him to prison to answer the charge.

BUSINESS AT THE PROVOST MARSHAL'S OFFICE, -The public have but a slight idea of the amount of business transacted at the office of the District Provost Marshal, or of the number of men examined and disposed of. The records in the office of Gen. Clement show that during the first ten days of this month sixty-three deserters were arrested and returned to that office, and from that time to the 20th inst., fifty-five more were disposed of. During the month of August, five hundred and seventy-five soldiers were mustered in there, a majority of whom were accredited to this district. Since the 1st of January, 1864, two thousand seven hundred and eigh-teen men have been mustered into the service through the office of Gen. Clement. We doubt whether any other Provost Marshal in the State can show a better record.

A MAGNIFICENT bill has been prepared for this evening, the occasion of the benefit of Miss Bella Golden, whose performances have created the greatest enthusiasm during the present week. To-night she will appear as a French lancar, an Arab boy and French lady, in the romantic military drama of THE FRENCH SPY. Also, as Laura in the new comedietta of The Layrle Rebel. She will, in the first piece, dance the wild Arab dance, and fight a broad-sword combat with Mehammed, a wild Arab. In the latter character Mr. Martin Golden, a great actor, will make his the regiment, he was promoted to be its Serfirst appearance in this city. Mr. D. L. geant Major, the highest promotion a colored st appearance in this city. Mr. D. L. Morris will deliver his stump oration on The Times. We would advise all play-goers to attend the benefit of Miss Golden, and witness a magnificent entertainment, such as is only given at Rouse's Theatre. Go to Bannvart's drug store and secure a seat—then go to

A Base Slander of the Ladies Engaged in THE DEPARTMENTS AT WASHINGTON. -The GOVernment has seen fit to employ a large number of ladies in various capacities in the Departments at Washington city. These are mostly the wives, daughters and sisters of sol-diers. In allusion to this fact, Senator Wallace, during the delivery of his studied tirade of treason on Tuesday evening last, in the Court House in this city, deliberately and em-phatically declared that such employees were all women of doubtful characters, whose pres ence in the Department might be regarded as a mere assignation for the accommodation of Lincoln's hireling—or words to this effect. The gentleman who communicated this fact, listened carefully to Senator Wallace's speech and he is certain that the Clearfield copper head intended deliberately thus to impugn the character of the ladies in the employ of the Government at Washington.

SINGULAR CASE OF ROBBERY. - A most singu lar case of robbery, in which the facts are almost beyond belief, has just been brought to light, by the arrest of one of the parties, and an investigation which took place yesterday, at the Mayor's office. Margaret Lee, a colored woman, has been living in the family of Mr. Houck, about a mile from this city, but was previously employed in the house of Mr. William Trullinger, some five miles from town. From the confession of Margaret, at the Mayor's office, it appears that Mrs. Houck had for some time been endeavoring to persuade her to go to Mr. Trullinger's residence for the to go to Mr. Truilingers resuence for the purpose of stealing certain articles, but did not succeed until Friday last, on the evening of which day Margaret (the colored girl) and Mrs. Houck's little daughter, aged about thirthen, were disguised in male attire, and induced to go a distance of four miles, to Trullingers's. When there Margaret entered the house, which she effected without difficulty. owing to her familiarity with the premises. Two hans, a lot of dishes, knives, forks, ladles, pepper boxes, etc., were stolen, and taken to Houck's. A portion of a ham found there was identified by Mr. Trullinger as having been his property. The dishes, &c. were subsequently brought to this city by Margaret, and were yesterday taken to the Mayor's office. It seems incredible that a mother could encourage, her daughter, an innocent child scarcely in her teens, to assist in committing a theff but mitting a theft, but from the evidence, it seems that the little girl corroborates the statement of Margaret. The latter was committed for trial in default of bail, and Mrs. Houck, who had a hearing last evening, has been held for court. We trust there may be some extenuating circumstances connected with the case which will relieve a respectable family from all connection with the case.

HARISBURG, Sept. 22, 1864. A meeting of the citizens of the Sixth Ward was held at the new Market House, for the purpose of raising an independent com-pany of volunteers for the U.S. service, as-surance having been had that such a company would be acceptable to the Government. The meeting was organized by electing Wm. K. Verbeke Chairman, and George B. Cole

Secretary.

The object of the meeting was very ably set forth by our pariotic Chairman. Col. Alleman was then called upon, who addresses these soul stirring. the meeting in one of these soul-stirring, earnest, patriotic and practical strains that is so characteristic of the man. On motion, it wrs agreed to organize the company by electing Captain J. Detyveiler temporary commander. On motion, it was unanimously agreed to call the company the Alleman Fencibles. On motion, adjourned to meet again at the same place on the evening of the 23d inst., to make a perman ent organization by electing company office rs. Three rousing cheers were given for Ventieke. A Grand Union Mass Meeting will , be held at Huntingdon on Friday, Sept. 30. Hons. John Cessna, Morton M'Michael, James Pollock and Dan Daugherty, are announce. 3 as the speakers.

Gen. McClellan is now styled "The Great American Hesitator."

At Fort Jackson, on the Mississippi River, below New Orleans, on the 26th of August, 1864, Lewis J. Frey, Sergeant-Major of the 8th Regiment, U. S. Heavy Artillery.

The colored population of Reading bears an enviable character for honesty and sobriety, and as a consequence is greatly respected. Of its younger members no one was better or more widely known than was Lewis J. Frey and no one was more honor ed than he for the possession of all the good! qualities which adorn and dignify the character of a man in his sphere of life. He was a pattern of industry, of integrity, of intelligence, such as are rarely met with—his temper was of the kindest and most genial sort—his truthfulness was never for an instant to be doubted. They, whom he served, felt for him a real affection. It seems almost superfluous to say of such a man that he was one of the best of sons and brothers-he could not have been anything

From the beginning of the rebellion he felt that he owed the duty of military service to the country, and, long before colored troops were enrolled, he with some of his associates were taking steps for their mutual improve-ment in military matters. In the latter part of August, 1863, he volunteered into the 14th Rhode Island, Colored Vicel, and was soon after made Sergeant of his company, in which position he exhibited such excellent qualities of attention to duty, of fidelity to every trust, of strict obedience to and enforcement of the all orders, that upon the final organization of man can reach. The service being Heavy Artillery, his regiment was in garison at various forts on the coast of Texas and upon the Mississippi river in Louisiana, a malarious region, for which it was supposed the colored regiments were peculiarly fitted, a mistake which has caused this good and true man, with hundreds of others, his life.

Letters from his comrades bespeak the esteem in which he was held by them and most touchingly express their sorrow for his loss The death of such a man is, however, rightly regarded, not only a loss to those who survive him—to his friends, to his family, to his fellow soldiers. Few of these ever forget such an exemplar of good conduct, and though he is dead he will still live in that menory and be fruitful of good works in them.
