Army Officers Interfering with Elections have repeatedly made the charge that the officers in the army are arranging certain plans to interfere with the elections, and the same sheets assert that if the interference is not desisted from, the "Democracy would either have a free fight or a fair election."-

We are now fully convinced that the officers of the army not only interfere with the elections being and to be held, but the disposition thus to meddle with the civil rights and franchises of the people begins to crop out among the privates serving under Uncle Sam's beautiful banner. Of late, one Phil Sheridan, a Major General in the national army, leading several thousand sun-browned, war-bruised but indomitable veterans, has carried this interference to an extent which imperils the prospects of every Democratic-treason sympathizing aspirant for office in the country. The outrage will not and cannot be borne any longer with patience. It is unconstitutional. It imperils

State rights and jeopardizes the divine attributes and the partriarchal influence of the institution of slavery. Every drop of rebel blood thus shed by the interference of army officers with the elections makes at least a hundred, votes for Abe Lincoln .-

Hence the outrage-hence the grievous unconstitutionality of the entire proceedings.

In the name of slavery-sin-the devil-Vallandigham, Bill Bigler, Bill Miller and the Black Cow, we protest against this interference on the part of the brave soldiers grappling

The Northern wing of the Breckinridge Democracy is appealing again to the people for their votes, and, as usual, has become very solicitous for the welfare of the dear people, especially on the subject of taxation. We remember that in the fall of 1862, the Democracy flooded the State with documents in which they asserted that the national debt at that time was over three thousand millions of dollars, when in reality it was less than onethird of that amount. They are now endeavoring to alarm the people again upon this subject, by the same system of deception and misrepresentation. They are promising the dear peo ple, if they will only vote, their ticket, that this war will be stopped, and their taxes reduced by their party as soon as they get into power! And how do they propose to do this? Why, their platform, which they The meeting in the Court House, to-night, adopted at Chicago, tells us how it is to be must and will be one worthy of the great cause done. They propose an "immediate armiin behalf of which it was called. It is for stice," and making a peace with the scoun justice and the right that we now contenddrels and traitors who are endeavoring to break up the Government, and destroy our for justice againt traitors and right for those glorious Union! But do they tell us on what who peril their lives in a death struggle with terms they will make peace with the traitreason. To-night we can send greeting to tors ? Not a word on that subject, for they Sheridan and his brave boys who are wining dare not intimate to the people the terms on which the traitors would make a peace with victories, and dispersing bands of rebel asus. They know that if they would dare to sassins, as it were, at the very door of every intimate to the people such conditions, they man's home in Dauphin county. We trust would be spurned with contempt by every that every man who loves his country, will loyal man! Now let us see what these Southturn out to-night and testify to the fact by his ern traitors say upon this subject themselves. Let us see what their conditions of peace will presence at the meeting in the Court House. be if the Democratic treason sympathizers at the North should get into power. The Richmond Examiner, in an article on this sub ject some time since, said : "It is useless, however, for our oppressors to talk of making a peace with us, and a union with them again on any terms that would be offered by the Lincoln administration ! We certainly would accept no. thing less than an unconditional guarantee that slavery should never be interfered with by any act of Congress or the Government in anu form. That we should have an equal right to settle in any of the Territories, and no law should deprive us of the right to carry our slaves there. THAT THE CONFEDERATE NATIONAL DEBT SHOULD BE ASSUMED AND PAID BY THE GENERAL GOVERNMENT, and all Southern property which has been confiscated, to be returned or paid for at its full value at the time of such confiscation."

Democracy and Taxation.

Now we ask the farmers, mechanics and al taxpayers of Pennsylvania, are you prepared for such a dishonorable peace, and on such ignominious terms as these? If you are, then vote the Democratic ticket. Are you prepared to assume and pay the millions on millions of confederate debt which these scoundrels and traitors created in their treasonable at tempt to overthrow the Government? If you are prepared to assume the enormous taxation which would be required to pay this vast debt, then vote the Democratic ticket, for as surely as that party gets into power, just so CASUALTIES FROM PICKET FIRING. surely will we have to pay that debt. And yet this is the party which talks to you of making peace and reducing your taxes. Why did not this Democratic peace party, when it made its nominations and platform at Chicago tell us the terms on which it proposed to make a peace with these traitors? Because the Democracy knew that if they should even hint at such terms as are proposed by the rebels, that the people would spurn them with contempt. There is but one way to make a peace with these scoundrels, and that is to conquer it; and thank God, GRANT and SHERMAN and SHERI-DAN and our other brave soldiers are fast doing sire to violate the professional courtesies which | it. When we get a peace of that description, it

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24-10 A. M. To Major General Dix, New York:

The following official dispatch has just been received from Gen. Sheridan, detailing some of the particulars of the battle at Fisher's Hill: HEADQUARTERS MIDLE MILITARY DIVISION, WOODSTOCH, VA., Sept. 23, 8 A. M.- To Liqui-Gen. U. S. Gran', City Point.-I cannot as yet give any definite account of the results of the attle of yesterday. Our loss will be light. Gen. Crook struck the left flank of the ene my, doubled it up, advancing along their lines. Ricketts' division of the Sixth Corps swung in and join ed Crook. Getty's and Johnson's divisions taking up the same movement, followed by the whole works of the enemy. The rebels threw down their arms and field in the greatest confusion, abandoning most of their artillery. It was dark before the battle ended.

I pursued on after the rebels during the night to this point with the Sixth and Nineteenth corps, and have stopped here to rest the men and issue rations. If Gen. Torbert has dashed down the Lu ray valley, according to my directions, he will achieve results. I do not think that there ever was an army so badly routed.

The valley soldiers are hiding away and going to their homes. I cannot at present give you any estimate of prisoners. I pushed on regardless of everything. The number of pieces of artillery reported captured is sixteen. P. H. SHERIDAN, [Signed] the daily Lancaster Intelligencer. We get the weekly issue of that sheet, and God knows one dose of its slanderous perversions of the truth, ribald treason and utter disregard of. all that is due to freedom and religion, is sufficient. We get the daily Evening Express from Lancaster-a loyal sheet-a splendid newspaper in all its departments-that is sufficient for all the uses of an exchange. Hence, we must respectfully decline an exchange with the Intelligencer. One dose a week of its treason sympathy is as much as we can stand.

Significant Political Changes. The copperhead organs of the country are amusing their readers with romantic accounts of the great changes which are daily working in the public mind in favor of Gunboat M'-Clellan. While the cops are thus energetically engaged, the intelligent voter finds something suggestive in the fact that the electoral ticket for Mr. Lincoln is headed by Edward Everett, in Massachusetts; Daniel S. Dickinson, in New York; Thomas Cunnigham, in Pennsylvania, and David Tod, in Ohio-all respectable names, and all of them men who opposed Mr. Lincoln in 1860. The nomination of these men was spontaneous-it sprung from the people and not from the politicians, and it shows the class of solid, thinking, patriotic men whom they represent are in a body upon the side of the country and against M' Clellan. The fact that they are so is one of the heart-cheering signs of the times.

Must Make a Choice.

Gen. M'CLELLAN occupies one of two positions: If he accepts the nomination for the Presidency on the Chicago platform, then he is the Peace candidate. If he accepts the nomination, and does not intend to carry out the principles of the party tendering it, as enunciated in the Chicago resolutions, then he is a dishonest candidate. Either he is a candidate who believes that "immediate efforts should be made for a cessation of hostilitles," or a candidate not to be trusted."

For and Against.

"The Union must be preserved at all hazards," says Gen. M'CLELLAN. If these Southern States cannot be reconciled," says Mr. PENDLETON, candidate on the same ticket, "I would signalize their departure by tokens of love; I would bid them farewell so tenderly that they would forever, be touched by the recollection of it."

A Military Failure as a Political Trickster.

When Henry Clay was a candidate for the Presidency, his brilliant reputation as a statesman, his long career of usefulness, his purity of character and invincible patriotism, were not proof against a most contemptible, transparent and insignificant lie. The great statesman was actually defeated by a mean, deliberate, infamous and damnable lie. At that contest, as in the one in which we are now involved, the Democratic leaders wanted power in order to increase and perpetuate the political and social influences of the upholders of slavery. The South then sought the realization of what is still a darling object with the slave-holding traitors, namely, the utter prostration of free labor. Henry Clay was recognized as the great champion of the cause of free labor-the ardent advocate of ts protection from the competition of the pauper labor of Europe. It was necessary to break down Mr. Clay, and ruin him as a Protective Tariffman. On the very eve of the Pres idential election, this was effected so thoroughly, that Henry Clay was actually defeated by the vote of States which would have been most benefitted by the policy he advocated. We all remember the notorious Kane letter. in which James K. Polk, a confirmed free trader, a mere tool of the conspirators of the South, was made to appear "a better Tariff man than Henry Clay." That letter elected James K. Polk-and during his administration was inaugurated the policy which atterwards impelled the conspirators of the South and their dough-face allies of the North, to break up and forever destroy free government on this continent. Between the Polk-Kane letter on the subject of the Tariff, and the M'Clellan-Seymour letter, accepting the nomination of the Chicago Convention, there is that fearful similarity, which at once proves that the latter was dictated for objects as infamous as elicited the former, namely, the disgrace, if not the utter destruction of all the rights and interests of free labor. The Polk-Kane letter was a lie and a cheat ... Who will dare say that the M'Olellan-Seymour letter does not partake of the same base qualities, even to a more infamous and dangerous degree. But thanks to the intelligence and experience of the people, a mere military failure cannot mislead them by a miserable political trick.

Recruits, should not bring amounts of money with them into the field As a general thing, they are never easy until all they have it either spent at the sutlers, gambled away or stolen from them. One was seen to offer $100 for a canteen of whisky the other day, but he failed to obtain it even at hat price

To-day the batteries of the 3d Division, 2d Corps, were ordered to open fire on a barn from which the rebel sharp-shooters have annoyed our men for some time past. The fire was so effectual as to make them decamp in rather a hurried manner from their hiding place. SEPTEMBEE 23, A. M.-All is quiet this

Another Fight Between the French and Cortinas. ARTILLERY BEING USED ON BOTH SIDES.

THE RESULT UNKNOWN.

Rumored Departure of General Banks from the Department.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 23. New Orleans advices of the 16th, via Cairo, have been received.

There is nothing new from Mobile. Some additional particulars of the recent capture of Brownsville, by Cortinas, have come to hand, but they embrace nothing important beyond those already reported. Colonel Day, of the 91st Illinois, com-mands the Federal troops at Brazos Santiago. The transport Alabama has just arrived from Brazos with the inelligence that another fight had occurred at Bagdad between the French and Cortinas.

A private letter, written ten minutes before the Alabama sailed. says: "A fight is now pro gressing, and artillery is used on both sides. The Erench marines are good gunners, and are entrenched. The result of the fight is purely conjecture.

It is rumored in military circles here that Gen. Banks leaves this department next week. He is now more popular than ever with the Free State party.
