HARRISBURG, PA.

MONDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 26, 1864.

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS .- All Advernements, Business Notices, Marringes, Deaths, &c., to secure insertion in the TELEGRAPH, must invariably be accompanied with the CASH.

Advertisements ordered in the regular Evening Edition are inserted in the Morning Edition without extra charge.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

ARE YOU ASSESSED ?-- If not, attend to it at once. The election takes place in two weeks, and every voter must be assessed ten laus before the election.

NEW NATIONAL THEATRE .-- Mr. J. M. Ward has been re-engaged, and will appear this evening. A fine bill is presented.

THE lengthy account of the Union meeting, and other matters compel us to condense our local report to-day.

EAST PENNSYLVANIA SYNOD of the Lutheran Church will hold its annual meeting in Lebanon, commencing on Wednesday evening of

GRAPES. -A fine lot of Catawba and Isabella ment, (Col. Lessig.) numbering one hundred and four men, arrived here to-day, en route for Pottsville, to be mustered out of service their term of service having expired. GONE TO THE FRONT .- The 210th Pennsylvania regiment left here yesterday, en route for the front. This fine regiment is under command of Col. Sargent, and is composed of AFTER A DESERTER-Quite an excitemen was raised in the Fourth ward yesterday, caused by the pursuit of a deserter, who managed for a time to avoid his pursuers by making good use of his limbs. He was at length caught and properly taken care of.

"U. S. SANITARY COMMISSION," is the inscription on a red flag that floats from the Sick Soldiers' Rest, near the Depot. It will be gratifying to know that that noble organization, the Sanitary Commission, has again established a branch in our midst.

THE attention of the reader is invited to the advertisement of Mr. Jacob Tausig, who has opened a variety store at No. 1051 Market street, near Eby & Kunkel's. Mr. Tausig will at all times have a supply of Notions, Jewelry, &c., from which a selection can be made to suit the taste of every one.

FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS reward will be paid by D. Eppley & Co. for such information as will lead to the detection of the thieves who robbed the store of said firm, on the night of the 20th inst., and for the recovery of the goods. See card in advertising col-

DETECTIVE FRANKLIN. -- We had the pleasure of seeing this officer to-day, at his room in the Buehler House, and are pleased to announce that he is improving, and expects to recover entirely from the effects of his late injuries. His numerous friends will be gratified to learn that he is receiving every attention necessary to render him comfortable. Although still suffering considerable pain, officer F. is considered out of danger.

THE VERY LAST CHANCE.—The Secretary of War has given authority to raise an Independent Company for one year's service. This may be the last opportunity persons will have to volunteer into a new company, and escape the draft, and where neighbors and friends can be together. The company is filling up rapidly, and when full, may be used for provost duty, or be attached to one of the new regiments, and if so most probably the VOICE OF THE PEACE MAKERS. -A salute of thirty-four guns was fired from Capitol Hill, on Saturday atternoon, in honor of Sheridan's second victory in the Shenandoah. Yesterday (Sunday) morning one hundred guns were fired at Fort Washington, in honor of the same event.

The booming of cannon in honor of our victories causes more trembling among the cop-perheads than would the utter defeat of the Union armies in the field.

THE SOLDIERS' ORPHANS-The following persons compose the committee of this place, to care for the soldiers' orphans, attend to their wants, and see that they receive the education provided for by the munificent donation of the Pennsylvania railroad company, and the the Pennsylvania failtoad company, and the subsequent action of the Legislature: Dr. Charles Bailey, Rev. Charles A. Hay, D. D., Rudolph F. Kelker, Mrs. Wm. Colder, and Mrs. Jas. W. Weir. Application should be made to the committee for the necessary attention, by those who have a knowledge of any orphans of soldiers.

Cassimere for boy's wear. The greatest bargins in black silks. We have now in store a very large stock of goods, and will sell at less than wholesale prices, in order to reduce our stock. Bargains in Irish linen bought at auction. Call and judge for yourself.

THE DRAFT.-The following list of quotas has been furnished us from the office of the Provost Marshal. We were unable to obtain the credits for each district, but have ascertained that the Second and Third wards of this city have filled their quotas by volunteers, and that nearly all the townships have also filled their quotas. The draft will take place to-day at the Court House: NO. OF MEN ENROLLED AND QUOTAS OF DAUPHIN the first peep at the greatest drama ever presented to the people of Harrisburg—a drama which had an uninterrupted run of four hundred and fifty consecutive nights in the city of London. It is entitled PEEP O'DAY, or, Savour neen Deelish, in which the scenery and decorations are of the grandest description. It will be presented in all its grandeur on this cocasion, and by the full strength of the Star Combination Troupe, and numerous auxiliaries employed specially for the piece. The original music and songs belonging to this original music and songs belonging to this great drama will be performed by Weber's ordnestra. Miss Bella Golden will appear as Kathleen Kavanagh, and will sing a number of appropriate songs. Mr. Martin Golden will appear as Black Mullins. Miss Fanny Denham, Miss Nellie Sprague, Miss Wilton, Messrs. Meeker, Rouse, Fisher, Crossen, and every member of the company will sustain prominent parts. We would say to all, go and see this grand drama, the beauties of which are beyond description. Secure seats

DECLINE IN PRICES.—The New York Sun says: The prices of dry goods and provisions are going down in New York. A large auction sale of domestic goods, on Tuesday last, showed a decline of from 10 to 15 per cent.; the retail market has not yet, been sensibly affected, but that must sympathize soon with the downward tendency in prices, as the Fedthe townward tentered in Intes, as the rest eral victories increase and the premium on gold grows beautifully less. C. L. Bowman, No. 1, corner of Front and Market streets, has just returned from New York with a handsome stock of ladies' seasonable dress goods and a general assortment of dry goods, including fine cloths, cassimeres, over-coat ings, ladies cloakings, shawls, &c., &c.— These goods have been bought at the decline prices and will be sold at small profits. C. L. Bowman respectfully reminds and says to be the public that he has at all times used his best efforts to procure for the patrons of his establishment dry goods at the very lowest prices, and his efforts and dispessition have been assisted in that direction by the fact of purchasing one or two stocks of goods from persons who desired to go out of ousiness. Having some ten or twelve thousand dollars of these goods in amount on hand, which, when purchased, at one-third less than the wholesale rates at that time, he now proposes, and will sell, commencing this day, (Monday,) Sept. 26, 1864: Fast colored madder calico, at 25 cents per yard, worth 35 to 40 cents at wholesale; delaines and poplins at 25 and 35 cents per yard, worth 40 and 50 cents at wholesale; and all other goods included in this lot of ten or twelve thousand dollars at the same rate of low prices. (He will make a liberal abatement in price to those who suffered by the late rebel fire at Chambersburg.) The public can depend upon the conditions of this advertisement being strict.

of our eminent clergymen: HARRISBURG, Feb. 8th, 1864.
C. A. BANNYART—Dear Sir. I have used Brown's Bronchial Troches, Wistar's Lozenges, and other preparations for hoarseness and throat troubles, and in comparison with them all, can cheerfully commend your own as most admirable specific for public speakers and singers, in cases of hoarseness, coughs and colds. I have found them serving in time of need, most effectually.

Yours truly, T. H. ROBINSON, Yours truly, T. H. ROBINSON, Paster of N. S. Presbyterian Church.

I agree with Mr. Robinson as to the luc of Banneyart's Troches. value of Bannvert's Troches.

W. C. CATTELL, Late Pastor of O. S. Presbyterian Church.

HAERISBURG, Jan., 1864. To C.A. BANNVART -- Deer Sir: In the habit of speaking very frequently, and in places where the vocal organs are very much taxed, I have found the need of some gentle expecto rant, and that want has been supplied in your rant, and that want has been supplied in your excellent Troches.

I consider them very far superior to any Lozenges that I have ever used, in removing speedily that huskiness of the voice arising from its too frequent use, and impairing the effectiveness of the delivery of public at dresses. Yours, &c.,

JNO. WALKER JACKSUM.
