

NATIONAL UNION TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT Abraham Lincoln, OF ILLINOIS. FOR VICE PRESIDENT Andrew Johnson, OF TENNESSEE.

John Walker Jackson.

At a meeting composed of the most respectable men in the city of Harrisburg, in which our mechanics, merchants, financiers and manufacturers participated, and where a large body of veteran soldiers were present to approve of the proceedings...

CARRYING VIRGINIA FOR LINCOLN.—For the information of the Peace Democracy, we would notify them that the campaign in Virginia just now looks as though the State would be carried for Lincoln by the time the November election arrives.

Those two excellent campaigners, Grant and Sheridan, with a host of valuable auxiliaries, are visiting many of the principal places, and with very convincing arguments are demolishing the Chicago platform and showing it up in all its deformity.

We call this carrying the State for Lincoln, because every Democratic stump speaker declares that the war is only to perpetuate the power of the present Executive, and we give them the benefit of the assertion, Virginia is apparently going very fast for Mr. Lincoln. A few more grand rallies like that in the Shenandoah valley, and the "Old Dominion" may be considered as Lincoln all over.

A FREE ELECTION OR A FAIR FIGHT.—In Philadelphia, on Saturday night last, as a procession of loyal men were passing a "Democratic Headquarters," a number of soldiers who were in line, were grossly insulted and brutally assailed by the Cops. The soldiers in return gave their cowardly assailants a taste of a "free election or a fair fight."

SOLDIERS' VOTE.—The Democracy pretend to claim the vote of the soldiers, although their leading organs throw obstacles in the way of giving our brave defenders the right of suffrage. They will get that vote as General Tuttle did last fall in Iowa, as Vallandigham did in Ohio, when he was beaten by the larger majority that ever consigned a man to private life in the Buckeye State.

WHAT McCLELLAN FAVORS.—We hold ourselves ready to prove, from McClellan's record, that he favors military arrests—that was his first suggestion a draft—and that he advised general emancipation. The copperhead orators who have been roaring out indignation on these topics, must now roar as gently as suchling doves.

THE LAST Secretary of the Treasury under a Democratic Administration could not raise money enough to meet the ordinary expenses of the Government, and was a beggar in the market at 12 percent. Let those who want no repetition of such a foul disgrace keep out of power the men who brought it upon us.

The Danger of Northern Invasion Dismissed.

One of the darling objects of those who are at the head of the cut-throats in the South, now in arms against the constitutional authority of the land, has been, and was until lately, to effect a footing in the States north of the Ohio and Susquehanna rivers, and there to indulge the banditti whom they command in the robberies and assassinations which so hugely delight their brutal passions.

It has been suggested to us, whether the fact that the rebels have been completely routed and cleaned out of the Shenandoah valley, will not render it unnecessary to organize, or at least to go into a draft for, the State Guard. As long as the door to Northern invasion was so ineffectually guarded as was the region of the Shenandoah valley, it became an imperative duty in the Government as well as the authorities of the States on the path leading northward, to make every arrangement necessary to meet the emergencies which were likely to grow out of such an invasion.

Democratic Opposition to Negro's Fighting in the Army.

One of the favorite topics of copperhead opposition to the Government, has been the tenacity with which the Democratic leaders have contended that Negroes should not be armed to fight traitors. A more malicious, ignorant prejudice has been created on this subject, and many a good man misled from his faith in the Government, by his misapprehension of the effects of compelling the negro to share the horrors of a war to put down a wicked rebellion.

Those two excellent campaigners, Grant and Sheridan, with a host of valuable auxiliaries, are visiting many of the principal places, and with very convincing arguments are demolishing the Chicago platform and showing it up in all its deformity.

A Hard Road to Travel.

General Sherman's "rebel nomination" is having a somewhat difficult journey along his political course. His record is being dissected, and the lamp points, so carefully hidden by the Congressional Investigating Committee, are being brought to light.

George B. McClellan has shown himself capable of doing great things. Probably no other General (Messrs. Porter and Bull) may have been exceptions could have kept 150,000 men idle around Washington for six months, while 60,000 of the enemy blockaded the Potomac.

None but he, probably, wearing the uniform of a soldier, the star of a Major-General, could have dared to accept a nomination for the Presidency offered by a Convention avowedly opposed to the war, and made unanimous by the intervention of Vallandigham.

from Philadelphia, bound to Port Royal, S. C., and loaded with coal, put in here for a harbor this morning, in a leaky condition, having been run into outside the capes by an unknown vessel belonging to the navy, which carried away the schooner's bowsprit and the greater part of her rigging.

Shelby's design has not yet been developed. General Price, commanding the District of St. Louis, a brigade of Gen. A. J. Smith's troops, last night, and of other units made preparations to meet the enemy. Pilot Knob is well fortified and garrisoned. Cape Girardeau, on the river, can stand a siege, and the only damage the rebels can do is temporarily to cut the Iron Mountain Railroad.

When General Price crossed the Arkansas river, some days since, at Locust Point, his forces moved towards Batesville, evidently with the design of joining Shelby in the north-east of Arkansas, and with the combined commands to invade Missouri from the south-east. The force occupying Fredericktown is undoubtedly the advance of the column, which is estimated to be from 10,000 to 12,000 strong.

The military operations here are active, and troops are already moving southward. The blacksmith shops are busy all day shoeing cavalry horses, and everything is being put in line for immediate active service. Major General Blair arrived here to-day. The trains on the Iron Mountain Railroad are still running, and so far as is known, the railroad has not been molested.

Reports are circulating to-night that part of the force which occupied Fredericktown yesterday captured Cape Girardeau to-day. The rebels are occupying Fredericktown in that direction, but the post is too strong to be taken by cavalry. General Mower, with a part of the 11th Army Corps, left Brownsville, on the Duval's Bluff and Little Rock Railroad, a few days ago, in a northerly direction, and Shelby will have to look after his rear. The situation will probably develop itself in a few days.

The Lower Mississippi. ACTIVE OPERATIONS COMPLETED BY GEN. DANIEL DAVIS. DEPARTURE OF A LARGE UNION FORCE—EXECUTIONS FOR MURDER.

General Dana has commenced active operations in this district. A large cavalry force left last night, under Col. Osborn, which will be followed by a heavy force of infantry. The result will probably be known in about ten days. A negro was shot on the 25th inst., for mutiny. The paymasters are paying the troops now here.

Arkansas. THE CABIN CHIEF AFFAIR. St. Louis, Sept. 25. A dispatch from Fort Scott, Ark., says none of the forces guarding the train recently captured at Cabin Creek were killed or taken prisoners, and only a few were wounded. The rebels have been sent off. Three-fourths of the men have arrived at Fort Scott.

Arrival of Libby Prisoners at Washington. WASHINGTON, Sept. 27. Some of the soldiers just released from the Libby Prison have reached Washington. It is stated that one of their number, while on the way to the place of delivery, engaged himself on sketching the rebel defensive works in the river, and other points of interest, for which he was taken back to Richmond.

Canada. WARRANTS ISSUED FOR THE ARREST OF LAKE ERIE BATER. TORONTO, C. W., Sept. 26. Warrants have been issued by the authorities here for the arrest of several of the Lake Erie baters, who have been seen in this city.
