TOWN AND COUNTRY.

ARE YOU ASSESSED?—If not, attend to it at once. The election takes place in two weeks, and every voter must be assessed ten days before the election.

DON'T forget the Union meeting to be held at Halifax, to-morrow (Wednesday) evening.

THERE will be a grand Union meeting and torch light procession, at Reading, on Saturday evening next.

THERE will be a sale of two hundred condemned Government horses at Lebanon, on Thursday of this week.

COWS KILLED.—The Lebanon Valley train ran over five cows, and killed four of them, near Lebanon, a day or two ago.

LARGE quantities of grapes are now offered for sale by our fruit dealers. The prices are as varied as the quality of the grapes.

A GREAT Union mass meeting will be held in Lancaster on Wednesday, Oct. 5th. Arrangements have been made to render the occasion such as will be an honor to the cause.

FOURTH WARD DRAFT.—A meeting of the subscribers to the Fourth Ward Draft Relief Association will be held at the hall of the Hope fire company, at 7 o'clock this evening. Every member is requested to be present.

THE COLORED PEOPLE of this city are invited to attend a public meeting in the Masonic Hall, Tanners Avenue this evening, to elect delegates to the National convention to meet at Syracuse, N. Y., on the 4th of October.

THE DRAFT.—The turning of the wheel commenced yesterday. Up to this time the drawing has been made for four delinquent sub-districts of Dauphin county. There was a large attendance on the part of our citizens to learn who were the "lucky ones." The "drafter" is no respecter of persons—rich and poor, black and white, having to furnish a full share.

ANOTHER OUTRAGE.—"Another Democratic meeting broken up!"

"Where at?"

"A large crowd of Democrats scattered by Union soldiers!"

"Where, where!"

"Union officers participate in the disturbance!"

"Good! good! Where did it all happen?"

"In the Shenandoah Valley."

"Git out!"

COTTON GOODS are coming down in price in New York. There has been a great decline. The Express says: "Wholesale dry goods merchants seem to be rivaling each other to see who can sell the lowest, and if the retailers will only find out the recent large decline in prices, then the public will reap the benefit. The proper way to break up the speculation in produce and merchandise is for consumers to buy no more than they actually want for immediate use, and our word for it lower prices must rule."

A BRIEF HONEYMOON.—One of our Pittsburg exchanges gives the following account of "a brief honeymoon," in which the "happy pair" are old stagers, who are well known here among the patrons of Sanford's Opera House. The paper says: "Edward Washington Hall and Miss Lucy Clinetop, of Sanford's Minstrel Troupe, were married at Wheeling on Sunday evening last. On the following Tuesday, it appears, the newly wedded Mrs. Hall gave her new "hubby" the slip, and ran off in the company of a Captain, with whiskers, who had been casting sly glances at her on several evenings while executing her beautiful pirouetts and delighting large audiences. We are sorry for Edward Washington, and hope he may have better luck next time."

THE PEEP O' DAY, as performed at Rouse's Theatre, last night, was a perfect success, and the large audience present gave positive evidence that the efforts of the management rendered full satisfaction. The grand scenery and costumes, the fine cast of characters, and the excellent manner in which each part was rendered, form the theme of conversation, among play-goers to-day. We are pleased to learn that this grand drama will be repeated until further notice, in order that our citizens generally may have an opportunity to witness it. We would say to all, go to Brant's Hall, and see the Peep O' Day.

We would suggest to the management that some method be adopted to prevent improper characters from occupying reserved seats, which should be entirely allotted to persons who are known to be respectable. By some means, unknown to the gentlemanly manager, a number of cyprians have succeeded in obtaining "front seats" during the past evening or two. It would be well to give this matter extra attention, as all the reserved seats can be filled by respectable people, who will not attend if brought in contact with those of doubtful reputation. We know Mr. Rouse will see that the latter are excluded hereafter.

THE DRAFT.—The draft for this District was commenced yesterday afternoon, at the Court House. The quotas of the First, Fourth and Fifth wards of this city were drawn. One hundred per cent. was added, to provide for contingencies. The following are the names of the persons drafted:

HORRIBLE MURDER AT LORBERRY.—On Sunday last at Lorberry, this county, a man named Robert Gardner, was attacked in his house by Dennis Aikin, assisted by John Donnelly and another man whose name is unknown, and murdered in a most brutal and shocking manner. The weapon used by Aikin was an axe, with which he not only nearly severed the head of Gardner from his body, but hacked the body in other parts almost to pieces. On Monday an inquest was held, when the testimony disclosed the fact that jealousy was the ruling motive for the commission of the horrible deed. A verdict was rendered in accordance with the facts. Aikin effected his escape, and he has not yet been arrested.—Miners' Journal.

PENNSYLVANIA STATE FAIR.—The interest with which the public mind invests political affairs at the present time should not absorb it so completely as to make it overlook or pass by with indifference other public events of moment or of local advantage. It should be kept in mind that our State Fair is to be held at Easton on the 27th, ending on the 30th inst. This is a matter of interest to thousands of the citizens of Pennsylvania and New Jersey, and from no public exhibition can they derive more useful information, or find so much real satisfaction and enjoyment.

☞ In every age of the World, the professions have been slow to admit the value of new discoveries, or the expediency of adopting them in practice. It is not to the legal profession that we look for reforms in jurisprudence, neither do we find the advocates of medical reform among physicians. Each deprecates whatever is found to innovate upon received opinions and established usage. Hence the opposition which medical men too often exhibit to the use of private remedies, whatever their acknowledged value, or great efficiency in the cure of disease. No medicine has ever done more for the relief of human suffering than OSGOOD'S INDIA CHOLAGOGUE. The promptness with which it cures Fever and Ague, and eradicates bile from the system, is its best recommendation. Sold by all druggists and medicine dealers.

DECLINE IN PRICES.—The New York Sun says: The prices of dry goods and provisions are going down in New York. A large auction sale of domestic goods, on Tuesday last, showed a decline of from 10 to 15 per cent.; the retail market has not yet been sensibly affected, but that must sympathize soon with the downward tendency in prices, as the Federal victories increase and the premium on gold grows beautifully less. C. L. Bowman, No. 1, corner of Front and Market streets, has just returned from New York with a handsome stock of ladies' seasonable dress goods and a general assortment of dry goods, including fine cloths, cassimeres, over-coatings, ladies' cloakings, shawls, &c., &c.—These goods have been bought at the decline prices and will be sold at small profits. C. L. Bowman respectfully reminds and says to the public that he has at all times used his best efforts to procure for the patrons of his establishment dry goods at the very lowest prices, and his efforts and disposition have been assisted in that direction by the fact of purchasing one or two stocks of goods from persons who desired to go out of business. Having some ten or twelve thousand dollars of these goods in amount on hand, which, when purchased, at one-third less than the wholesale rates at that time, he now proposes, and will sell, commencing this day, (Monday,) Sept. 26, 1864: Fast colored madder calico, at 25 cents per yard, worth 35 to 40 cents at wholesale; delaines and poplins at 25 and 35 cents per yard, worth 40 and 50 cents at wholesale; and all other goods included in this lot of ten or twelve thousand dollars at the same rate of low prices. (He will make a liberal abatement in price to those who suffered by the late rebel fire at Chambersburg.) The public can depend upon the conditions of this advertisement being strictly adhered to. We challenge any dry goods house in the city of Harrisburg to compete in low prices.

Cloaks and Furs! Cloaks and Furs!

We will open next week the cheapest and largest assortment of Cloaks and Furs in Harrisburg, all bought at greatly reduced prices. Beautiful muffs at 4 50 and 5 dollars. Splendid cloaks as low as 9 and 10 dollars. Black cloth for cloaks as low as $2 50. White all wool flannels as low as 65 to 70 cents, worth 90 cents. 4 by 4 bleached muslin 55 cents, worth 75 cents. French merinos, black alpaccas, black bombazines, all at reduced prices.

500 doz of woolen and cotton stockings, children's wools stockings as low as 15 cents. Cassimere for boy's wear. The greatest bargins in black silks. We have now in store a very large stock of goods, and will sell at less than wholesale prices, in order to reduce our stock. Bargains in Irish linen bought at auction. Call and judge for yourself. S. SPECIAL NOTICES.

SOLDIERS, TAKE IT WITH YOU!

The greatest trouble to persons in the Army, especially in this season, is Dysentery, which (by death or by disability) weakens the service more than the Rebels do. Very many have found, upon trial, the DYSENTERY DROPS are among the very best preventatives and cures that are to be had. Every officer and every soldier should carry it with him, and thereby reasonably insure himself against a great danger. It is prepared in Harrisburg by MRS. L. BALL, at 27 Pine street, between Second and Front. Take a phial with you. Price 25 cents.

Dr. Rand's Specific.

The oldest and most reliable medicine for the cure of Spermaorhœa, Seminal Weakness, Loss of Power, &c. This medicine has stood the test of over thirty years, and has always proved a success.

Dr. RAND'S SPECIFIC is exhibited in the form of pills, made up entirely of substances that have a specific effect upon the generative organs. Most persons associate the idea of operations upon the bowels from taking any kind of pills. The SPECIFIC of Dr. Rand is not intended as an evacuating medicine. Its medicinal virtues are expended entirely upon the impaired regenerative organs. The pills are not unpleasant to the taste, and many persons masticate them with impunity before swallowing them; which plan we would always recommend, as affording the speediest way to get the effect of the remedy.

Price $1 per box, or six boxes for $5. Sold by druggists everywhere.

Bannvart's Troches.

For the cure of Hoarseness, Throat Diseases, &c., are specially recommended to ministers, singers and persons whose vocation calls them to speak in public. Manufactured only by C. A. Bannvart & Co., Harrisburg, Pa., to whom all orders should be addressed. Sold by druggist every where.

Read the following testimonials from some of our eminent clergymen:

HARRISBURG, Feb. 8th, 1864.

C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir: I have used Brown's Bronchial Troches, Wistar's Lozenges and other preparations for hoarseness and throat troubles, and in comparison with them all, can cheerfully commend your own as a most admirable specific for public speakers and singers, in cases of hoarseness, coughs and colds. I have found them serving in time of need, most effectually.

Yours truly, T. H. ROBINSON,
Pastor of N. S. Presbyterian Church.

☞ I agree with Mr. Robinson as to the value of Bannvart's Troches.

W. C. CATTELL,
Late Pastor of O. S. Presbyterian Church.

HARRISBURG, Jan., 1864.

To C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir: In the habit of speaking very frequently, and in places where the vocal organs are very much taxed, I have found the need of some gentle expectorant, and that want has been supplied in your excellent Troches.

I consider them very far superior to any Lozenges that I have ever used, in removing speedily that huskiness of the voice arising from its too frequent use, and impairing the effectiveness of the delivery of public addresses. Yours, &c.,

JNO. WALKER JACKSON.
Pastor of the Locust St. Methodist Church.

To C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir: Having used your Troches, I am free to say they are the best I have ever tried and take great pleasure in recommending them to all persons afflicted with sore throat or huskiness of voice arising from public speaking or singing.

Yours, &c., G. G. RAKESTRAW,
Pastor of Ridge Avenue Methodist Church.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE,
HARRISBURG, Feb. 29, 1864.

To C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir:—I have found your Troches to be invaluable in relieving hoarseness and in strengthening the muscles of the throat. They impart clearness to the voice, and are certainly of great benefit to all public speakers. A. J. HERR

No. 3—Containing 16 acres and 140 perches, more or less, adjoining No. 1 and located on the west side of the public road aforesaid, on which are erected the various buildings belonging to the farm.

No. 4—Containing 28 acres and 100 perches, more or less, adjoining No. 3 and lands of Jacob Fisler, Wm. Colder and the public road on the east.

A corrected survey and draft of the said property can be seen at any time before the day of sale at the office of JNO. H. BRIGGS.
