The Assessments.

Friday next, the 30th inst., will be the last day for the assessment of those desiring to vote at the October election. It is important that these facts should be generally known, as the exercise of the elective franchise never involved so high a duty, never was invested with such vast importance, because the result of the elections to be held in October and November throughout the country, will directly decide the peace of the Union and permanency of the government. Hence, the man who wilfully neglects to secure his vote by having himself assessed and paying his taxes, may be regarded as having been recreant to his country in the hour of its greatest peril. Let no man, then, fail to be assessed-let no man, in fact, fail to take advantage of every legal provision for the exercise of the elective franchise, as upon the victory of loyal men at the ballot box, depends the victory of the Government with armed traitors. Remembers that briday next, the 30th inst., IS THE LAST DAY FOR THE ASSESSMENTS!

"All for Little Mac."

The copperhead organs are keeping up their courage and hoodwinking their blind follow ers with all sorts of falsehoods among th most ridiculous of which is the publication of a long list of names of wornout political hacks and discarded journals, as all being for Little Mac. The object of the miserable ruse is to delude ignorant men with the idea that hundreds of people are leaving the ranks of the party which supports Mr. Lincoln to espouse the cause of McClellan. Such men as Amos Kandall, Reverdy John. son, Brutus L. Clay, George D. Prentice, with journals of the class to which belong the National Intelligencer and the Louisville Journal, are cited as evidences of these changes, but when it is clearly known that all these opposed the first election of Mr. Lincoln the ludicrousness of making "a blow" on account of their support of McClellan, becomes apparent. Not a single man or newspaper that supported Abraham Lincoln in 1860, now oppose him! While this is so, such Democrats as Ex-Governor Tod of Ohio, John Cessna of Pennsylvania, and Daniel S. Dickinson of joining counties will of course turn out, and New York, who all opposed Mr. Lincoln in 1860, now ardently advocate his re-election!

Thorns in the Side of Democracy. There are two great facts connected with the campaign for the Presidency, which irritate the Democracy alarmingly. First, the largest and most respectable portion of the American ministers of all denominations in the free States, are heartily in favor of the re-election of Abraham Lincoln. It is not the man, altogether, whom the clergy support, however deserving Mr. Lincoln is of the confidence reposed in him. It is the principles at stake. It is God's religion that is involved. Abraham Lincoln is to-day the embodiment of a greater principle than ever was centered in any American states man, from the day that our fathers resolved to dissolve their connection with the British Crown. It is a principle as sacred as religion itself, involving the dearest hopes of the poor man, and leading back to God and Heaven, an entire race of Christ's brethren. If Mr. Lincoln should fail, Christianity would be more or less impaired in its power for good on earth: because the worst feature of barbarism, that which justifies a barter in human flesh, would be legalized. If George B. M'Clellan should become President, then immediately after his inauguration, slavery would be nationalized—the selling of human beings would be resumed on the porches of the Federal capital-while ignorance and sloth, concubinage and lechery, lust and licentiousness would attend as the handmaidens of slavery, the slow but sure retrogression of a nation back to barbarism. None understand this better than the enlightened and liberal Christian minister. Hence, a large majority of the Christian ministers of the land are in favor of the re-election of Abraham Lincoln, because the issues involved in his success seriously affect for good or evil, so far as it is possible for men to do so, God's religion. It is not the politics of the contest which attract the clergy to our standard. In fact, the ministry have not come to us. The surging of the great slave-holders' rebellion has rather carried the struggle for liberty into the sacred precincts of the pulpit, so that the Christian minister who does not take part in the fight is unfaithful to the great Mester, who uttered the sublimest political axiom that ever was spoken on earth, when he urged that we should "render unto Cosar the things which are Casar's." Hence we insist, that the brave men, preachers part in the present struggle for civilization and liberty, are only defending and upholding the first great principles of their religion. The preacher of God's religion, who lacks the courage to cry out against the sin of slavery, is either a fool or a knave, unfit to teach men and women the way to Heaven, and unworthy the confidence of the Christian and the patriot. But the out-spoken, fearless Christian minister, who upholds a man in power while declaring the emancipation from slavery of millions of God's creatures, is the man who forms a target for modern Democrats. Yet it is brave men like these who now support Abraham Lincoln's re-election. No wonder, then that the allies of slavery and treason hate such men.

There is another class whom the treason sympathizer hates. It is composed of men who, still claiming to be Democrats, openly and fearlessly advocate the re-election of Abraham Lincoln, because they believe that in his success is involved the highest interest of our nationality. This class of men are sagacious and far-seeing. Heretofore they imparted all the vigor, all the decency, all the prestage, all the strength for victory, and all the statesmanship which the Democratic organization ever possessed. Their separation from the Democratic organization does not dissolve their connection with Democratic principles; but it does leave the new leaders of that party in a woful plight. Hence the vindictiveness and the spleen with which independant Democrats are assailed by the adventurers who have control of the Democratic organization. These men know that they cannot wield that organization for goodthey see the best blood, the largest brain, the steadiest courage, the experience and renown of the old party against them. Hence their wrath. But it is a wrath impotent. The Cessnas and the Tods, the Dickinsons and the Butlers, the Casses and the Rosecrans the Hiesters and the Cunninghams, the Mac Dowells and the Speels, belong to a class who, when the proper time comes, will return to the Democratic party, spurning its false leaders from their assumed control of its organization, and again, under purer incentives and for loftier purposes, than those which now inspire its leaders, control it for the good for which it was originally called into existence.

Grand Union Demonstrations." The Union men of Lancaster county are making arrangements for holding a grand mass meeting in Lancaster city, on Wednesday, October 5th, which they intend shall constitute the monster demonstration in favor of the Government, in this part of the State. Letters have been received from Senator Harlan, of Iowa, R. Stockett Mathews. o Baltimore Col. John W. Forney and Morfor M'Michael, Esq., of Philadelphia, accepting invitations to address the people on that occa sion. It is of course expected that large bodies of Union men from the adjoining coun ties will go to Lancaster on Wednesday next to swell the crowd and increase the enthusi asm in favor of the Government. Dauphin county, we have no doubt, will be appropriately represented.

-A Bellefonte correspondent informs u that the Union men of Centre county intend holding a mass meeting in that borough on Thursday, October 6th, which they hope to make one of the largest demonstrations ever witnessed in that portion of the State. Several eminent and distinguished speakers have signified their intention of being present on that occasion. The Union men of the admake the mass meeting at Bellefonte one in every respect worthy the cause and creditabl to the locality in which it is to be held. 137

"QUIET STILL PREVAILS."

NO IMPORTANT NEWS

HEADQUARTEES ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, September 26, 1864. Quiet still prevails in front of Petersburg broken only by the usual picket firing, with occasional artillery duels, the effect of which is merely consumption of powder by both parties. A good deal of heavy firing was heard yesterday and to-day in the direction of James river, supposed to be from the gunboats.

A large body of rebel cavalry are reported this afternoon to be moving to our left, but, if so, their object has not yet been developed. Three scouts were arrested within our lines yesterday, and evidence has been obtained which is said to be strong enough to convict

Two citizens were also arrested charged with giving aid and comfort to the enemy. An order has been issued in relation to the loss of colors in battle.
