CAN CAR FARE BE COLLECTED FROM A PAS-SENGER WHO IS COMPELLED TO STAND ?-A decision will shortly be given on this question. Recently a passenger purchased a ticket on one of our railroads; but the cars being crowded, he was compelled to stand on the crowded, he was compened to stand of the platform. When the conductor passed around, the passenger refused to hand over his ticket, on the ground that he had not been supplied with a seat. He was put off of the train at the rest station and has since entered with against the railroad company, in one of our W H Brown, eastern counties. This matter should be defi-nitely settled, as some of the railroads scarcely Wm Knoche, ever run a sufficient number of cars to accom

THE PENNSYLVANIA RAILBOAD.—Prior to the late accident on the Pennsylvania Railroad. the conductors were in the habit of locking the doors between the way and through cars, to prevent the passengers for local stations from annoying the through ones, who are only required to show their tickets three timesbetween Philadelphia and Pittsburg. Since the accident the conductors have been instructed to lock no doors while the train is in motion, and to accomplish the same object, hitherto attained by locking the doors, the doors are all to be so arranged that they open only from the inside. This prevents passengers from running through the cars. The travel is now so heavy that another fast express train will be put on, to leave Philadelphia for Pittsburg at 8 P. M.

WE had the pleasure of a visit to our sanctum from our young friend, Lieut. J. B Rife, of the Sixth U. S. Infantry, who is now stationed at Fort Wool, in New York Harbor. Lieut. Rife is a citizen of Middletown, in this county, and has been, until recently, in active service since the breaking out of the rebellion. The Lieut. brought our fellow towns-man, Lieut. John Elliott, of the 2d U. S. Artillery, to his home. It will be recollected that Lieut. Elliott was a cadet at West Point from this city, and graduated in June last. He was immediately appointed a second Lieutenant in the Second U.S. Artillery, and at once joined his command in the field before Petersburg. After an experience of but four weeks in the field, he was wounded in the leg, in the recent Weldon railroad fight, and his foot has since been amputated above the an-ile. We are pleased to learn that he behaved gallantly, and is now doing well. We tender him a hearty welcome to his home, and wish him a speedy recovery."

A RICH JOKE. -As a soldier train , was pas sing through this borough on Wednesday last, it stopped at the Depot a short time, when a hoary-headed old copperhead concluded to try his hand on to see how McClellan would go down with the soldiers. He accordingly sent a little niece of this to the train with Mc Clellan's portrait, to see how well pleased the soldiers would be to look once more on the pleasing features of the would be President. As soon as they saw who the picture represented they yelled, "Bring him here to hang him," "Break the thing to pieces," and many other expressions peculiar to soldiers. The little girl, with better sense that the old man, ran back into the house, rather disappointed no doubt with the "picture." As a closing scene, just as the train started, the soldiers gave three cheers for "Abey," as they called him, saying "he is the man." We advise the old man never to send out his Mc-clellan portrait when soldiers are about.

Resolved, That we, the Union citizens of the Sixth ward, will use every exertion in our power to secure a decided majority for the Union County ticket at the October election. Resolved further, That we will leave no nonorable means unused to secure the triumphant election of Abraham Lincoln and Andrew Johnson at the November election. Three rousing cheers were given for the Union party, liberty and for Lincoln and Johnson, when the meeting adjourned.

REFORM IN THE SUBSTITUTE BUSINESS.—When we alluded to the frauds and mal-practices which disgraced the substitute business in a former issue, we scarcely expected to have the pleasure of writing and printing the fact that the great reform has already been effected in this connection. Capt. Hunt, who is now acting Provost Marshal, vice Capt. Clement, (absent on sick leave,) is reducing the brokerage business to a principle which protects the service from imposters and affords protection to honest men desiring to enter the army as substitutes. Immediately on the muster of a substitute, Capt. Hunt compels the party drafted to pay the bounty at once to the party mustered for substitution. The old practice was to pay the substitute a nominal sum, subordinate officers in the Provost Marshal's office reserving the balance until such time as they thought it was safe to pay it over, in the meantime, permitting the substitute to go at large. We do not pretend to write that the system induced desertion, but the facts of the case do show that under the old regulation bounty jumpers made up largely the class who offered themselves as substitutes, and that by the frauds and villainies of these rascals, the service suffered great em barrassment and loss. Capt. Hunt is doing all in his power to put an end to these frauds. He is indefatigable in his efforts to protect the substitute from imposition and robbery, and preserve the service from the rascals who have heretofore lurked around recruiting stations, to act as the stool-pigeons of bounty brokers. All that is needed to insure the suc-cess of Capt. Hunt, is for the men who de-sire to go as substitutes to be true to them-selves, true to the country they are anxious to serve, and acting Provost Marshal Hunt will be true to them. If we can assist in dispers ing the gang of bounty brokers who have disgraced Harrisburg, at the recurrence of every draft, we will have a just claim to having done a good thing in this war.

In Town.—Brig. Gen. John R. Brooke, of Montgomery county, this State, was in town yesterday on his way to Carlisle, where a General court-martial is about to assemble, of which he has been appointed the President. Gen. Brooke has made himself a record of which he may well feel proud, and has endeared himself to every Pennsylvanian, and every pure lover of his country. He belongs to the noble Second Army Corps, and has won his well-earned laurels under the gallant Hancock. He recruited and was Colonel of Hancock He recruited, and was Colonel of the Fifty-third regiment of Pennsylvania volunteers, but has for nearly three years commanded a brigade in the Army of the Potomac. His command assisted in covering the retreat of McClellan's army in the Seven Days' Fight before Richmond. While at Savage Station Gen. McClellan ordered Capt. Martin, of the Fifth U.S. Artillery, commanding a battery, to spike his guns, and abandon every-thing but his horses, with which he and his men should retreat. Captain Martin, who was neither a coward or a traitor, refused in a was neither a coward or a traitor, refused in a solemn oath to comply with the order. Gen—then Colonel—Brooke, who was present, complimented the Captain upon his determination, and tendered his command to cover the retreat of the battery. The offer was accepted, and most gallantly did the valiant Brooke save that battery from capture and the guns from being spiked. We cite this as a single instance of his heroism, as well as his partiotism. His gallantry and superior skill as an officer during the recent fights before as an officer during the recent fights before Richmond under the indomitable Grant, won the confidence and admiration of that chieftain, and as a consequence he was made a Brigadier General, and unanimously confirmed by the U.S. Senate. In one of those battles he was unfortunately severely wounded, from which he has not yet recovered; and although totally unfit to take the field, yet he applied to be placed upon duty, and the position to which he has been assigned he will fill as honorably and as creditably as the hero in the BUSINESS ITEMS.

REDUCED PRICES.—The unprecedented rush at Bowman's cheap dry goods store, can only be accounted for from the fact, that he is sell-ing goods cheaper than any other merchant in Harrisburg, and was the first and only man, perhaps, that has reduced the price of goods under the limited decline. The succrtain condition of things, we think, permits us to say, now is the time to purchase at No. 1, corner of Front and Market streets.

LATEST ARRIVAL.—The undersigned takes the pleasure to inform the ladies of this city and vicinity, that she has received this day a large quantity of CLOAKS and CIRCU-LARS, ranging in price from $6 to $25. 27 ETHIOPIAN COMEDIANS, U. S. 7-30 LOAN. THE Secretary of the Treasury gives notice that subscriptions will be received for Coupon Treasury Notes, payable three years from August 15th, 1864, with semi-annual interest at the rate of seven and three-tenths per cent.

per annum—principal and interest both to be paid in lawful money.

These notes will be convertible at the option of the holder at maturity into six per cent. gold bearing bonds, payable not less than five nor more than twenty years from their date, as the Government may elect. They will be issued in denominations of $50, $100, $500, $1.000 and $5,000, and all subscriptions must be for fifty dollars or some multiple of fifty dollars. The notes will be transmitted to the owners free of transportation charges as soon after the receipt of the original Certificetes of Deposit as they can be prepared.

As the notes draw interest from August 15, persons making deposits subsequent to that date must pay the interest accrued from date of note to date of deposit.

Parties depositing twenty-five thousand dol-lars and upwards for these notes at any one time will be allowed a commission of one quarter of one per cent. Special Advantages of this Loan. IT IS A NATIONAL SAVINGS BANK, offering a higher rate of interest than any other and the best security. Any savings bank which pays its depositors in U. S. Notes, considers that it is paying in the best circulating medium of the country, and it cannot pay in anything better, for its own assets are either in government securities or in notes or bonds payable in government paper. It is equally convenient as a temporary or permanent investment. The notes can alvays be sold for within a fraction of their face and accumulated interest, and are the best security with banks as collaterals for dis-

Convertible into a 6 per Cent. 5-20 Gold Bond. In addition to the very liberal interestion the notes for three-years, this privilege of conversion is now worth about three per cent. per annum, for the current rate for 5-26 Bonds is not less than nine per cent. premium, and before the war the premium on six per cent. U. S. stocks was over twenty per cent, It will be seen that the actual profit on this loan, at the present market rate, is not less than ten per cent. per annum. Its Exemption from State or Municipal . Taxation.

But aside from all, the advantages we have enumerated, a special act of Congress exempts all bonds and Treasury notes from local taxation. two per cent. per annum, according to the rate of taxation in various parts of the country. It is believed that no securities offer so great inducements to lenders as those issued by the Government. In all other forms of indebtedness, the faith or ability of private parties, or stock companies, or separate com-munities, only, is pledged for payment, while the whole property of the country is held to secure the discharge of all the obligations of the United States. While the Government offers the most liberal terms for its loans, if believes that the very strongest appeal will be to the doyalty and patriotism of the people.

Up to the 24th of September, the subscriptions to this loan amounted to over $40,000,000. Subscriptions with he received by the Treasurer of the United States, at Washington, the several Assistant Treasurers and designated Depositaries, and by the FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF HARRISBURG. ALL RESPECTABLE BANKS AND BANKERS throughout the country will give further information and
