a reconnoissance in the direction of the South Side Railroad, but the result of the trip has not yet been ascertained.

Rebel scouting parties have been capturing safe guards left at houses in Prince George county, during the last few days.

One of these came in to-day to get his pay, and while on his way back to his post, was seized and robbed of his money and other valuables, his arms and part of his clothing, and was then released.

Another was coming in, and being ordered to halt and surrender, drew his revolver and shot one of the enemy, after which he made good his escape, although he was pursued several miles.

The rebels have been moving back and forth to-day in every direction—at one time marching off toward our left, and again returning to Petersburg, as if going to Richmond, then appearing at some other point, and finally going out of sight altogether.

Some deserters came in to-day, who say the defeat of Early in the valley has caused a great depression throughout their ranks, and thousands were ready to desert on the first opportunity, having lost all faith in final success.

Captain De Pitts, of the 19th colored regiment, was killed yesterday on the picket line, and two or three of his men were wounded.

LATER.

Firing Among the Pickets.

Rumors of the Evacuation of Petersburg.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY POTOMAC, Sept. 30—6 A. M.

Brisk firing was kept up along the centre of the line all night, between the pickets, but this morning the utmost quiet prevails.

Reports that the rebels are evacuating Petersburg are again in circulation here.

GENERAL ORD AT BALTIMORE.

He is Confident of Success.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 1.

Major General Ord, wounded in the recent movement of the army on the north side of James river, arrived here this morning from the front. He is now at Barnum's Hotel.—He has a flesh wound of the right leg, but is doing well. He is full of hope of glorious results of our present movement—and expects to be up and at it again in a few weeks.

121 Bales of Cotton Picked up in the Gulf of Mexico.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.

Lieut. Commander Gillis, commanding the gunboat Scotia, reports to the Navy Department that on the 10th inst., in the Gulf of Mexico, he picked up eighty-three bales of cotton, and the gunboat Aroostook secured thirty-eight bales.

Daily Telegraph

HARRISBURG, PA.

SATURDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 1, 1864.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

CHESTNUTS—The first of the season—were sold in market this morning.

SYNOD being in session at Lebanon, there will be no preaching in either of the Lutheran churches of this city to-morrow.

COLD weather is upon us. Fires and heavy clothing are necessary to comfort. The nights are uncomfortably cool.

CHANGE OF MARKET HOURS.—This morning the usual fall change was made in the time of opening market. Hereafter the bell will be rung at five o'clock, instead of half-past four.

ATTENTION is invited to the advertisement of the barbers of this city. They have adopted a new scale of prices, which are considerably higher than the old rates. Particular attention is called to the fact that after to-morrow the barber shops will be closed on Sunday.

ARREST OF DESERTERS.—Two bounty jumpers were arrested at Newville on Wednesday, and taken to Carlisle. They proved to be Charles P. M'Avoy and John Rutherford, who had received, respectively, $900 and $1,100 bounty in New York. They are now under guard at Carlisle barracks.

WELCOME!—Manager Rouse has effected an engagement with Miss Kate Denin and Mr. Sam Ryan, both of whom will appear at Brant's Hall on Monday evening. These stars are favorites with our people, and will command a liberal patronage. In the great character of East Lynne, Miss D. is unsurpassed. Look out for grand bills during the week.

THE Miltonian says: On Friday last, Rev. J. Walker Jackson, of Harrisburg, made a most telling and excellent speech in Lawson's Hall. The Hall was crowded, and large numbers from the country could not obtain either sitting or standing room. The speech was one of the best vindications of the Union cause we have yet listened to in the present campaign.

THE REV. A. J. BARROW will commence a series of Sunday evening discourses on interesting Bible narratives, at St. Paul's Episcopal church, corner of Ridge Road and reservoir. The first, to-morrow evening, will be the "Dedication of Solomon's Temple," in which the ancient Jewish Tabernacle and the grandeur of the Temple will be explained. Service to commence at half-past six o'clock.

THE copperheads of this city have been industriously circulating a report, within the past two days, that Grant's army had suffered a terrible reverse. It is scarcely necessary to state that the whole report is a copperhead LIE, made up for political effect. Look out for all sorts of stories between now and election day, but do not believe in any reverses to our armies until so informed by telegraphic dispatches. Grant is successfully moving on.

UNION MEETINGS will be held in this county next week, as follows:

Conewago, Foltz' store, Monday evening, October 3.

Derry, Hummelstown, Tuesday evening, October 4.

Union Deposit, Tuesday, evening, October 4.

Linglestown, Ammon's tavern, Thursday evening, October 6.

Susquehanna township, Progress, Friday evening October 7.

Millersburg, mass meeting Saturday afternoon, October 8, at 3 o'clock; evening 7½ o'clock.

Able speakers well be present at each of the places named, to address the people on the great questions of the day.

HARRISBURG, Sept. 30, 1864.

A citizen wishes to suggest the names of INLAND HOTEL, or CENTRAL HOTEL, or INLAND HOUSE, or CENTRAL HOUSE, as suitable names from which to select for Herr's Hotel.

ORGANIZED.—The Alleman Fencibles have organized by electing the following officers:

Captain—J. Detwiler.

1st Lieut.—George B. Cole.

2d Lieut.—Jesse Wingart.

The Company is composed of able bodied men, who will make good soldiers, and they have made an admirable selection of officers.

FAMILY POISONED.—The family of Mr. James Porter, residing in Perry township, Fayette county, Pa., was poisoned on Monday last by eating mushrooms. The vegetables were gathered and cooked for dinner, the whole family eating of them. In half an hour afterwards they were all taken sick, and before night the oldest son died from the effect of the poison. Antidotes were administered to the others, who are likely to recover.

POLE RAISING AT DAUPHIN.—The Union men of Dauphin borough have secured a very large pole, which was hauled to that place by Peter Hetrick, teamster for Jacob Conrad. The pole will be raised at Capt. Speese's Hotel at five o'clock this afternoon, and the stars and stripes will be flung to the breeze. In the evening there will be a Union meeting at the same place, when a number of able speakers will be present to address the people. Let there be a grand rally at Dauphin.

LAST APPEARANCE OF BELLA GOLDEN.—To-night Miss Bella Golden will make her farewell appearance at Rouse's Theatre, when the dramatization of the great Ledger story, THE GUNMAKER OF MOSCOW, will be performed, with the full strength of the Combination Company; to be followed by the FRENCH SPY. This is a grand bill, and will attract an immense crowd. We would advise those who contemplate attending, to go to Bannvart's Drug Store and secure reserved seats during the day.

SHEET MUSIC—MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS, &c., &c.—W. Knoche, 93 Market street, has certainly the largest and most extensive establishment of this kind that can be found outside the Eastern cities.

His stock of sheet music is indeed unsurpassed, comprising selections from the catalogues of Ditson & Co., as well as of all other publishers, (the latest publications included.) The department for Melodeons has a well selected stock, comprising instruments of four different manufacturers, including the celebrated Mason & Hamlin Cabinet Organs.—Pianos from the manufactories of Chickering & Sons, G. Steck, Albrecht, Reikes & Schmidt, and others, can be had at this establishment. The above manufacturers have gained such high reputations that nothing in their praise need be said. Another feature of the business is the well selected stock of Engravings and Lithographs, also oval and square picture frames, etc., etc. In a few words—we can recommend this Establishment as a model one.

AT Harrisburg they have an odd little theatre, located in the second story of a hotel. Major Pauline Cushman has finished an engagement there, and Miss Bella Golden has been playing there, though she had an amusing quarrel with her manager, and published the funniest kinds of indignant "cards" about him. In the stock company is Mr. Billings, an ambitious and promising young actor of New York, who lately belonged to the companies at Niblo's and the Broadway.

The above is from the Philadelphia Telegraph, which knows nothing about "theatricals" in Harrisburg. Miss Golden had no quarrel with the manager with whom she has filled a successful engagement, neither has Maj. Cushman been playing at the "little theatre in the second story of a hotel," which is no doubt intended to mean Brant's Hall—a place of amusement that is not very small. Our Philadelphia cotemporary should become "posted" before he notices affairs of which he knows nothing.

JEWISH FESTIVALS—To-day is the first day or beginning of the Jewish new year, being the first day of the month Tishri. Its observances as a holy day is found in Numbers, XXIX, 1, and is considered among all Israelites as a very serious time, and is strictly observed in every quarter of the globe. On the 10th day of the same month occurs the great "Day of Atonement." This day is characterized by total abstinence from all food, and from worldly occupations and physical enjoyments on the one hand, and on the other increased devotional exercises and profoundly fervent prayer. On the fifteenth day of the same month happens the festival of "Tabernacles." This day is celebrated in remembrance of the miraculous preservation of the Israelites, during the forty years of their wanderings and privations in the Wilderness. In the time of Moses and his successors, this "Feast of Tabernacles" was one of gratitude and rejoicing, not only for the great historical and national blessings, that saved and protected their forefathers during their long pilgrimage to the new home of promise, but also for the gifts of God's beneficence vouchsafed in such rich abundance, to all his children during spring, summer and autumn. The festival was observed from the fifteenth day of the month of Tishri, ere the season changed for winter, and in joyful acknowledgment of the treasures reaped at the close of the agricultural year, when the labors of the husbandmen were concluded, when the orchards and vineyards, as well as the corn-fields, had given up their produce to persevering exertions, and when those who had tilled the ground were both rewarded for their work and relieved of its fatigues. Every seventh year, when the land also was allowed to rest, the law was read publicly in the Assembly of the people, and the paramount duty thus inculcated was thankfulness.

DEATH OF SURGEON J. B. COOVER—While Surgeon General Phillips, of Pennsylvania, was on a mission in the Valley of the Shennandoah to look after the wounded in Pennsylvania regiments, he was accompanied on his return from Winchester to Harper's Ferry a number of volunteer surgeons, and when about three miles from the latter place the party were attacked by guerrillas. Surgeon Coover, of the 6th regiment Pa. cavalry, received a ball through the hip, inflicting a serious wound. At the time Surgeon Coover was wounded, it required the utmost endeavors to escape from the guerrillas, who surprised Surgeon General Phillips and party in overwhelming number. After Surgeon Coover arrived at Harper's Ferry his wound was dressed, when it was discovered to be of a dangerous character, and resulted finally in his death on the 27th inst. Surgeon Coover was originally attached to the 46th regiment P. V., (Col. Knipe,) as an Assistant Surgeon, and afterwards appointed Surgeon of the 6th Penna. cavalry.

Professionally he was regarded as one of the ablest young physicians in the locality where he was educated. In the army he was just rising to that position which is above all rank in the confidence and respect of good men and brave soldiers. The men of the 6th cavalry will mourn his untimely end with a deep and sincere regret, while his brother officers cannot fail to miss him as a friend, counsellor and companion.

The body of Surgeon Coover reached this city yesterday, and was taken hence to Mechanicsburg, the residence of his father, where it will be interred on Monday.

PATRIOTIC AND PROLIFIC.—Under this head the Carlisle Herald gives the following notice of a remarkable family:

"Last week, Hiram R. Reese brought his two sons, George and Jeremiah, to Col. Henderson's office, to be mustered into the United States service. These two young men are the last of twelve brothers who have enlisted in the army during this war. Four of these have been killed in the service and eight of them are yet in the army. The most remarkable feature is yet to come, and we confess our credulity was somewhat staggered when we heard the statement; but the respectable character of the father, with the assertions of his neighbors, leave no room for doubt that Mr. Reese, after having sent twelve sons to serve his country has yet thirteen sons at home, all of whom are under military age.

This remarkable family reside in Warren township, Franklin county, of this State. The father is 78 years old, and is enjoying vigorous health; these boys are the children of three mothers. On taking his leave of George and Jeremiah, the old man exhorted them to be good boys and good soldiers, warning them to guard well the reputation of their ten brothers who had gone to the field as well as the thirteen youths left at home.

Dauphin County Aroused!

The first of the county meetings of the friends of Lincoln, Johnson and the Union was held at the house of John Byrod, in Halifax, on Wednesday evening last. Col. James Freeland presided. The meeting was quite large, and was ably addressed by Ralph Maclay, Esq., Hon. David Fleming and J. C. Young, Esq. Our friends in Halifax are wide awake, and though the opposition will do their worst, we feel confident that we shall receive a good account from there at the next election.

A meeting of the friends of the Union was held at the house of Jacob P. Hoffman, at Lykens, on Thursday evening last, and was addressed by Robert Snodgrass, Ralph Maclay, J. M. Wiestling, A. C. Smith and S. S. Bowman, Esqr's. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, there was a very large turn out—in fact one of the largest meetings held there for a long time. The speakers were listened to with attention. A number of returned volunteers were present, all enthusiastic for Honest OLD ABE and Andy Johnson. The meeting ended with three times three for Lincoln, Johnson and the whole county ticket.

From the 201st Regiment.

CAMDEN STATION, BALTIMORE, Saturday evening, Oct. 1, 1864.

Editor Telegraph:—The 101st and 102d regiments are both lying here awaiting transportation to Washington. We slept on the soft side of brick pavements and paved streets last night. We get our boarding at the Union Relief Rooms, were thousands upon thousands are fed daily, with bread, fresh beef, salt pork and hot coffee three times a day. It requires a small regiment of contrabands to attend to the tables, and every soldier gets as much as he can eat, at any time.

A bounty jumper was shot dead here at Camden Station, while trying to escape the guard. He was shot in three places—through the back, in the head, and through the abdomen, and instantly expired. I heard three reports, almost simultaneously, but did not go over to the depot to see the unfortunate man.

He hailed from Trenton, N. J., and this was not his first attempt to get away.

The boys are all in good spirits, and appear to be indifferent as to our destination from here.

In haste, truly yours, A. H. B.
