THE funeral of Surgeon Coover took place to-day, at Mechanicsburg. It was attended large concourse of citizens of the town and surrounding country.

Horses, suitable for cavalry and artillery purposes, are wanted by the Government—to be delivered at Giesboro Depot, D. C., during the present month. $175 will be paid for cavalry horses, and $180 for artillery horses. See advertisement.

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT .- Daniel Herr, Esq. has been appointed Superintendent of Com-mon Schools for Clinton county, in place of W. W. S. Snoddy, who was chosen Lieutenant Colonel of the regiment of Pennsylvania volunteers recently organized under the leadership of Col. Con.

Our attention has been called to the habit which has grown to great extent among cer-tain business men on Market street, who regularly scrub their pavements at the busies hours of the day, when people are continually passing to and fro. This practice should be abated, as it is a nuisance. Let the pave-ments be washed early in the morning, before they are crowded with people.

Dr. Dock was called in and dressed the wound. We are pleased to notice that Mr. Meeker's injuries will not prevent him from appearing on the stage.

POLE RAISING AT HUMMELSTOWN.-There will be a Union meeting at Hummelstown, to-morrow evening. A splendid hickory pole will be raised, and a national flag bearing the inscription "Lincoln And Johnson" will be run up as a token of the loyalty of the people In the evening eloquent speakers will address the meeting, upon the great issues of the day. Let there be a large turnout of the people of Old Derry, to hear the truth. Induce your Democratic neighbors to go along.

A fine collection of fancy articles, &c., will be offered for sale. Ice Cream, Oysters, Grapes, and other refreshments will be served up in excellent style. ATTENTION, FIREMEN!-A stated meeting of ATTENTION, FIREMEN!—A stated meeting of the Citizen Fire Engine and Hose company will be held at their Hall this (Monday) even-ing, at, 7 o'clock. Punctual attendance is re-quested,

Our telegraphic reports bring us the grati-fying intelligence that Major Harry White has been exchanged, and is on his way home. Major White was elected State Seriator last year, and his absence in the rebel dungeons was taken advantage of by the copperheads who endeavored to block the wheels of Legislation, by refusing to vote on any measure introduced in the Senate.

THE TIME FOR HOLDING THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION.—Many persons entertain an erroneous impression in regard to the time of holding the Presidential election. For the information of all we would state that the election will take place on the First Tursday. AFTER THE FIRST MONDAY IN NOVEMBERbeing the 8th day of the month-not on the first Tuesday, which will be the 1st. Remember the time—Tuesday the 8th day of No-

Susquenanna Township Notice. The Union meeting appointed for Friday evening at Progress, is postponed, in order that the citizens of the township may have an opportunity to attend the meeting in Harrisburg, to hear the eloquent champions of the Union, Hon. Daniel Dougherty and Gen. Ferry. By order of the County Committee.

J. J. SHOEMAKER,

Chairms Secretary. Chairman.

WHAT HE WILL DO.—Says the Girard Union in regard to Dan Rice as State Senator:— Dan is nothing without mules and monkeys. We suppose if he is elected he will take his "eduon all measures for the support of the Administration. Dan himself would appear in striped tights and painted face, and when his name should be pronounced at roll; call, would bound into the legislative arena with his "Here we are, master, what will you have next?'

THE VEST MAKERS OF HARRISBURG. We have received a well written communication, (but which is too lengthy for publication) signed "The Vest makers of Harrisburg" the main facts stated in which are as follows: It appears that the vest makers of Harrisburg receive one dollar and twenty-five cents for making an article for which like work-women in New York and Philadelphia receive two dollars and two dollars and twenty-five cents. It is well known that it costs as much; if not more, in Harrisburg, to have a suit of clothing manufactured as it does in New York or Phila-delphia. Is it fair, then—ask the ladies who send us this communication—that the profits of poor women's work should go into the pockets of men who only stand between this labor and the customer? We shall refer to this subject again, and in the meantime we trust that these facts willy be carefully considered by the public at large. If there is any right which deserves the vindication of honest men, it is the right to a fair remuneration of women honestly toiling for bread.

GRAND RAILY AT DAUPHIN—POLE RAISING, AND GREAT ENTHUSIASM.—There was a fine attendance at the Union meeting held at Cap-tain Speese's hotel, in Dauphin, on Saturday tein Speese's hotel, in Dauphin, on Safurday evening, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. A splendid pole (cut du the land of Daniel Hain, Esq., an old spldier, and hauled to town by Col. Jacob Conrada team of four splendid matched bays—the finest team in the township—driven by Mr. Peter Hetrich) was raised at 5 o'clock, and the good old stars and stripes were unfurled to the breeze, amid the cheers of loyal men and twomen. At a laten hour the meeting of the Sales of Government Horses.—Quarter breeze, and the cheers of loyar master General Ekin advertises sales of condemned horses, to take place as follows:—
demned horses, to take place as follows:—
diffintown, Oct. 13; Wilmington, (Del.) Oct.
13; Wilmington, (Del.) Oct.
20; York, Oct. 27. Two hundred horses will be sold at each place. Farmers and others would do well to give attention to these sales, stirring remarks were listened to with marked stirring remarks were stirring re as bargains may be had, and many of the horses will be valuable for road brifarming purposes.

Accident occurred at the Theatre on Saturday night, in the drama of the Gunnaker of Moscow, by which Mr.

Surring remarks were listened to with marked attention. The proceedings were entirened by the singing of a patriotic song, in which all present, including the ladies, joined, and and the effect produced by the melbdy of several hundred loyal voices can be imagined but not described. Cheer upon cheer went and the enthusiasm was immense. The people of Dauphin and vicinity are fully aroused, and we may expect to hear a good report from that quarter at the close of each election day,

BUSINESS ITEMS.

The Despat Island.—The reader will please excuse the condensed shape in which we are compelled to render this article. A man immensely rich and benevolent, wished one day to create the well-being of a prisoner. He gave him liberty, saying; you see that ship leaded with merchandise—it is yours; leave—you are free; manage well that little fortune; it will be able to render you happy. The prisoner-embarked, but when at some leagues distance from the shore he saw the clouds gathering, and he knew that it would not be long before tempest would burst forth; soon the clouds seemed to struggle against each other, and the lightnings embraced them; the agitated waters were followed by a deep obscurity, and the noise of the thunder was repeated from atar, and the vessel atruck suddenly against the and the vessel struck suddenly against the rocks near to a desert island. He arrived at the island; the whole of his cargo was lost; also three companions. Despair was beginning to seize upon him, when suddenly he perceived a number of strange looking men reading a netice of C. L. Bowman, No. 1, corner of Front and Market streets, selling out at cost. Reader, is it necessary to explain to you the meaning of this fable? We wish you to admit that we have all been restrained in the purchase of dry goods, from the very high price which you have been warned against for the last three years, and though there appears now to be some abatement in the wholesale prices, which was from the fact of some apoly prices, which was from the fact of some begoty speculators being compelled to throw a large stock of domestic goods into auction, a few days since, in New York. The consider must, however, bear in mind that these goods pass through two or three hands, each of which make some profit, which must be added to the price before they reach the retail purnoon, October 8, at 3 o'clock; evening 71 chases of the price before their read that retaility of clock.

Able speakers well be present at each of the places named, to address the people on their great questions of the day.

- Harrisburg, Feb. 8th, 1864. C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir. I have used Brown's Bronchial Proches, Wistar's Lozenges and other preparations for hoarseness and throat troubles, and in comparison with them all, can cheerfully commend your own as a most admirable specific for public speakers and singers, in cases of hoarseness, coughs and colds. I have found them serving in time of need, most effectually.

Yours truly.
