

NATIONAL UNION TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT, Abraham Lincoln, OF ILLINOIS. FOR VICE PRESIDENT, Andrew Johnson, OF TENNESSEE.

ELECTORAL TICKET.

SENATORIAL. MORTON M'MICHAEL, Philadelphia. T. CUNNINGHAM, Beaver county. REPRESENTATIVE. 1-Robert P King, 13-Elias W Hale, 2-G. Morrison Coates, 14-Charles H Shriner, 3-Henry Bumm, 15-John Wister, 4-William H Kern, 16-David M'Conaughy, 5-Barton H Jenks, 17-David W Woods, 6-Charles M Runk, 18-Isaac Benson, 7-Robert Parke, 19-John Patton, 8-William Taylor, 20-Samuel B Dick, 9-John A Hestand, 21-Everard Bierer, 10-Richard H Coryell, 22-John P Fenney, 11-Edward Halliday, 23-Ebenezer M'Junkin, 12-Charles F Reed, 24-John W Blanchard.

COUNTY TICKET.

CONGRESS, GEORGE F. MILLER, of Union county. ASSEMBLY, Col. H. C. ALLEMAN, Harrisburg. DANIEL KAISER, Wisconsin. PROTHONOTARY, JOSIAH C. YOUNG, Harrisburg. REGISTER, GEORGE M. MARK, Union Deposit. COUNTY COMMISSIONER, HENRY HARTMAN, Washington. DIRECTOR OF THE POOR, PHILIP MOYER, Upper Paxton. AUDITOR, ALFRED SLENTZ, Harrisburg.

ANOTHER RALLY!

Gen. O. S. Ferry, Ex-Governor Johnston, And others will speak at the Court House, on Wednesday evening, Oct. 5, 1864. All Union men are invited to attend.

WATCH THE POLLS!

Look out for Deserters and Men Who Failed to Report After Being Drafted. We would remind the Union men in this State to have committees appointed for every election district in the State, whose special duty it is to note every deserter from the Union army, and every man who failed to report himself after being drafted. All these men will vote the copperhead ticket, and our friends should be on the alert. They can assist their country materially by giving proper information which will lead to their arrest. We repeat again, therefore, "WATCH THE POLLS!"

Look Out for Spurious Congressional Tickets.

The peculiar friends of Congressman Miller hope to make a point by confounding the names of the candidates for Congress in this District. William H. Miller and George F. Miller cannot easily be confounded to the intelligent voter. GEORGE F. MILLER is the candidate of the friends of the Union—the candidate who will represent the interests of his District instead of those of a party in sympathy with traitors. William H. Miller is the candidate of the avowed traitor sympathizers in the District, pledged to vote in a coming as he has in a passing Congress—in favor of every act and measure calculated to benefit the cause of treason, and against all propositions to secure the overthrow of rebellion.—Surely no fraud which William H. Miller or his friends may attempt between this and the day of the election, will enable him or them to impose upon the intelligent voter.

Bring in the Returns.

We trust that our friends in the different election Districts in Dauphin county, will make arrangements by which we will get the returns as soon after the vote has been counted, on Tuesday night, as possible. If our friends in the county accommodate us in this matter, we will be able to give a correct tabular return of the vote in the county, in our morning edition of Wednesday.

Look Out for Spurious Tickets.

The old dodge of issuing spurious tickets has been resorted to by the Copperheads. THEREFORE BE CAREFUL.—EXAMINE YOUR TICKETS AND SEE THAT NO NAME OF THE STATE OR COUNTY TICKET IS OMITTED. Do not stab your country through the mean deception and devices of its enemies.

CAPTURING THEIR OWN.—

One of the richest captures of the war was the train on the Lebanon Branch Kentucky railroad on Monday last. It contained two car-loads of passengers going from Louisville to a McClellan picnic near Lebanon. The excursionists had a banner with the following inscriptions: "McClellan and Pendleton." "We know our rights, and knowing dare maintain." "Yet the train was surrendered without resistance to two men and two boys."

Old Ben Wade announced a suggestive truth, in a speech the other day, when he said—After a year and a half of battles, McClellan and his staff, and all their horses, came out as sleek, as fat and fair, as they went in. Not one had blood drawn on him. And he was the young Napoleon!"

"Our success in battle," says the Charleston Mercury, "insures the success of McClellan; our failure will inevitably lead to his defeat."

The Prospect.

Never since the war began has the political and military prospects been more promising than now. Everywhere our armies are reaping successes which are assuring the final and early triumph of the Union cause. Atlanta, the Capital of the Southern half of the rebel Confederacy, and second in importance only to Richmond itself, has fallen, while Mobile, which has been the great entre pot for blockade runners on the Gulf coast, has been hermetically sealed by the capture of the forts at the mouth of Mobile Bay. The attention of that stern hero of the sea, Admiral Farragut, will no doubt be turned now to Wilmington, the last port through which the rebels keep up a regular commercial communication with the outer world. Sheridan has routed Early in the Valley of the Shenandoah, and is pressing his demoralized and dispirited hordes towards Richmond.—Grant has taken up the "On to Richmond," and his brave veterans and gallant new recruits are moving with equal zeal and enthusiasm "upon the enemy's works" between Petersburg and Richmond. The rebel movements in Tennessee and Missouri furnish no exception to the general rule. It is believed that Forrest has already been compelled to retire, and there are indications that it is Gen. Rosecrans' purpose to draw "Pap" Price and his ragamuffins on as far as possible, in order that a clean sweep may be made of them. Two weeks hence we do not believe there will be left a rebel in Missouri who will not be a prisoner, or striving to disguise himself by the profession of Union sentiments.

Not the least gratifying fact is, that the draft is being quietly and successfully enforced in all the States. The army is thus being rapidly reinforced, and inspired with new zeal and confidence. The Government is immeasurably stronger to-day than it was two weeks ago, when it halted on the brink of the draft. The loyal North, foreign nations, and our rebel enemies, and their northern sympathizers, aiders and abettors see that the rebellion is to be suppressed and the Union preserved; and that fact is of itself equal to an army of a hundred thousand men. No man who regards his character for sagacity or loyalty dares now to doubt that the Union and the Constitution will triumph over treason and rebellion.

At the same time, it is evident that whatever contributes to the military success of the Union cause, also contributes to the success of the same cause politically. Atlanta and Mobile, Sheridan's successes in the Valley of the Shenandoah, and Grant's before Petersburg, all are so many unanswerable arguments for the re-election of President Lincoln. This is confessed by our political opponents when they receive the news of Union victories in silence, or scarcely dissembled disgust. Victory in Missouri, in Georgia and Virginia, means victory at the polls in November, and both we will have.

The Draft in the City of Harrisburg.

The organs of copperheadism in this locality, are strenuously laboring to create the impression that another draft will be shortly ordered. The reports are coined and circulated to panicize and influence the poor laboring men of the city, with a view thus unfairly to control their votes. The facts in the case, however, when fairly understood, will convince any candid man that, had it not been for the copperhead leaders holding seats in the city council, every ward in Harrisburg would have been exempt. Every drafted citizen of Harrisburg can thank such men as W. O. Hickok, John W. Hall, A. T. Hamilton, with their copperhead colleagues, for the existence of the necessity which compelled them to leave their families and take up arms to crush a wicked rebellion. There were large numbers of single men who were willing to volunteer and credit themselves to the different wards, thus rendering it unnecessary for men of families to go forth to battle, perilling lives on which helpless women and children depended for support. But a copperhead council interposed, and absolutely drove poor men into the army. A copperhead council defied, as it were, the unanimous voice of its constituents, who had met in mass meeting to ask that such an appropriation be made. And yet the organs of a party represented by such a council now strive to alarm the people with the false story of another draft. Cannot the intelligent hard working men of Harrisburg see the real designs of the demagogues who are at the bottom of this business? So far as the Democratic leaders are concerned, they would rejoice if a draft were ordered every month. All such men care for, is the influence or the pretext which affords them a chance of catching the votes of poor men. After they have used the laboring man thus, they are willing to let him go into the army or to perdition, for aught they care. How long will the people be blind to these tricky and hollow hearted demagogues?

The Seven Principles of the Democrats.

As General McClellan appears to have considerable difficulty with the war and peace factions in adjusting his platform, we offer him our aid gratuitously in arranging the trouble. It is apparent that neither the Chicago platform nor McClellan's letter can heal the sore, therefore there must be some new creed framed; and as all kinds of subterfuges have failed, we suggest that the party fall back upon its true principles, seven in number, to wit: 1. The national offices. 2. The patronage thereof. 3. The State offices. 4. The patronage thereof. 5. The local offices. 6. The patronage thereof. 7. Defense of slavery, in order to get the aid of the South in the elections. This creed, manfully declared, would unite more Democrats than any other.

The representative of the McClellan party in New England is Mr. Joseph Story Fay, who celebrated the last Fourth of July by hoisting the Stars and Stripes at half-mast over his own house. And his insult to the American flag is admitted and upheld by the McClellan papers in Boston.

The Copperhead papers have suddenly dropped the expression "Lincoln's hirelings." It is said to be out of regard for the feelings of Gen. McClellan, who still continues to draw his pay as a Major General, though out of service for nearly two years past.

Grand Union Demonstration in Lancaster City. Forty Thousand Freemen in Council! The Largest Mass Meeting Ever Held, In the Middle States or the Union!

Special to the Telegraph.

LANCASTER, Oct. 5, 1864. The monster mass meeting about being organized in this city, exceeds in enthusiasm, numbers, magnificence of display and general respectability, anything of the kind ever witnessed by your correspondent in any State of the Union. At least forty thousand people have been gathered within the limits of the city, and these representing every class in the mechanic arts, every branch in the useful professions, the wealth and the intellect of Lancaster county and the surrounding country.

Every public building in the city is gaily decorated with flags, while the four great thoroughfares leading from the centre of the city, are filled with dense masses of people, the delegates from the townships of Lancaster county. The enthusiasm—banners, music, representatives of the mechanic arts at work, gaily attired ladies on horseback, soldiers, citizens, all combining to make such a display as will never be forgotten by the beholder. I have not had time to ascertain positively who are here to address this vast throng, but I can safely telegraph you that Hon. Henry Winter Davis, of Md., Col. John W. Forney, Hon. Simon Cameron, are here and will address the meeting this afternoon.

Army of the Potomac

Quiet Reigns in Front of Petersburg. Robbery of Our Dead and Murder of Our Wounded by the Rebels.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY POTOMAC, Oct. 5. The utmost quiet has prevailed in front of Petersburg since Monday. In passing over the ground where the 2d Division of the 9th Corps met with the reverse on Saturday, our dead were found entirely stripped of clothing, and some of the bodies were horribly mutilated. Several of the men had evidently been murdered after being wounded, and one body presented a spectacle too horrible even to be described.

LATER.

Gen. Terry Assaults and Captures a Rebel Battery. FORTRESS MONROE, Oct. 4. The Hospital steamer from Point of Rocks, with wounded men from the Army of the James, reports that General Terry had assaulted and captured a rebel battery on the New Market road.

From Aspinwall.

Arrival of the Costa Rica, with $190,000 in Treasure. Important From Peru. War to be Declared Against Spain.

NEW-YORK, Oct. 5. The steamer Costa Rica, from Aspinwall on the 26th ult., arrived at this port this morning, bringing $190,000 in treasure. Advice from Valparaiso to the 2d and Callao to the 13th ult., had been received at Panama.

The Government of Chili had declined to sell the Central and Southern Railroads at Valparaiso. Resolutions were passed by the Peruvian Congress that war will be declared against Spain, as a last resort to obtain a complete and honorable satisfaction by the surrender of the Chinese Islands, and a salute of the flag of the Republic by Spain.

A resolution was pending to seek intervention from the European powers, to enable Peru to cope with the superiority of Spain. The news from Ecuador is very interesting. Ex-President Urbina, with a revolutionary force of 4,000, had landed in the Province of Machala, with the intention to overthrow Garcia Movenas.

The Government had dispatched two river steamers with troops to the scene, but they failed to effect a landing and returned to Guayaquil, where the Government has 15,000 troops.

The Ecuadorian Government held rather a precarious position, owing to the opposition of the other republics to her taking the position she has on the Spanish Peruvian question. A revolutionary movement in the northern part of the Republic, with an enemy on both sides, looks as though Movenas' Government cannot last long.

The Peruvian Government is said to be concentrating troops on the frontier. Dates from Central America to Sept. 23d bring no news. It was announced in Panama officially, on the 16th ult., that the blockade of the Mexican coast had been raised, and that the ports of that country were open to the world.

The President of New Granada has been requested by the Legislature to withdraw the exequatur of the French Consul at Panama. Mr. Rice, Consul at Aspinwall, had notified the agent of the national Government that he intended to resist the collection of the tonnage tax of 50c per ton on goods delivered from ships in Columbian ports, until instructed by his Government otherwise.

The Connecticut at Boston.

BOSTON, Oct. 5. The United States steamer Connecticut arrived from the Southern blockading squadron, having delivered 600 men to different vessels on the coast. She stopped at Hampton roads to mail dispatches from Admiral Farragut. She brings no news.

Hon. W. B. Washburne Renominated for Congress.

WORCESTER, MASS., Oct. 4. The Ninth Congressional district nominating Convention was held at Greenfield to-day. The Hon. W. B. Washburne, of Greenfield, was unanimously renominated for Congress by acclamation. Colonel W. S. Clark, of Amherst, was nominated for Presidential elector.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4. REMOVAL OF WOUNDED. About four hundred of our wounded from the valley are in course of transportation to Philadelphia.

REGULATIONS FOR VOTING IN THE ARMY.

The following general order has just been issued from the Adjutant General's office: In order to secure a fair distribution of tickets among the soldiers in the field, who, by the laws of their respective States, are entitled to vote at the approaching elections, the following rules and regulations are prescribed: First. One agent for each army corps may be designated by the State Executive or by the State committee of each political party, who, on presenting his credentials from the State Executive, or from the chairman of said committee, shall receive from this Department a pass to the headquarters of the corps for which he is designated, with tickets, or proxies when required by State laws, which may be placed by him in the hands of such person or persons as he may select for distribution among the officers and soldiers.

Second. Civilian inspectors of each political party, not to exceed one for every brigade, may in like manner be designated, who shall receive passes on the day of election, or General, to be present on the day of election, to see that the elections are fairly conducted. Third. No political speeches, harangues, or canvassing among the troops will be permitted. Fourth. Commanding officers are enjoined to take such measures as may be essential to secure freedom and fairness in the election, and that they be conducted with due regard to good order and military discipline.

Fifth. Any officer or private who may wantonly destroy tickets, or prevent their proper distribution among the legal voters, interfere with the freedom of election, or make any false or fraudulent return, will be deemed guilty of an offence against good order and military discipline, and be punished by summary dismissal or court martial.

General Grant's Army.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4. A gentleman from City Point, this morning, says the usual artillery firing was going on, but the positions of our forces were the same. Some of the passengers state that "an engagement is hourly expected."

CAPTURE AND ABANDONMENT OF THE SECOND REBEL LINE—NUMBER OF REBEL DEPARTURES. WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—The dispatches received to-day from Grant's army contain no account of new movements, but furnish some interesting particulars of the operations before Richmond already reported.

The second rebel line was captured by our forces with ease, but was abandoned during the night, as its possession would have interfered with future operations. General Hancock's troops in front of Petersburg are continually engaged in skirmishing with the enemy.

Desertions from the rebel ranks grow more numerous daily.

Tennessee.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 4. A band of guerrillas, thirty-five strong, captured two upward-bound freight trains, at ten o'clock last night, between Richland Station and Fountain Head, on the Nashville railroad.

They burned nineteen cars, but no stores were aboard the trains. To-day the trains will be slightly disarranged by the disaster.

REBEL ATTACK ON ATHENS, ALA.—THE PLACE HELD BY OUR TROOPS—GUERRILLAS NEAR NASHVILLE—REBEL DEMAND FOR THE SURRENDER OF DALTON, GEORGIA—GEN. MEAGHER AT NASHVILLE.

NASHVILLE, Oct. 4. A party just from Chattanooga reports that a demand for the surrender of Dalton, Ga., was made yesterday by a body of rebels claiming to be Forrest's force. No further particulars have been received.

The telegraph is working to Chattanooga and Columbia. Major General Thomas and T. F. Meagher arrived here last night.

California.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 1.—Advice from Arizona says that the authorities of Lower California have reduced one-half the tonnage dues on American vessels from San Francisco to Colorado River, via Laposa. This will increase the shipments of gold, silver, and copper ores from Arizona, a business that promises to become important.

J. S. Baldwin, late Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of California, died last night. The condition of trade is prosperous, and money is easy.

The treasure-receipts for the last ten days are $1,700,000. In the last two days nearly $350,000 in specie have been shipped to China.

Arrived ships Dreadnought and Helvetia, and bark Harriet, from New York.

Markets by Telegraph.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 5. Trade moves sluggishly in all departments. Cotton dull at $1 25. In clover seed nothing doing. Petroleum is at a stand still. We quote crude at 36@37c; refined in bond at 60@65c, and free at 75@80c. In coffee, sugar and molasses the sales are unimportant. Flour dull; no shipping demand, and sales are only in small way, at $9 50@75 for superfine, and $10@10 50 for extra, and $10 50@11 00 for extra family. Rye flour nominal at $9 00@9 25. Corn meal at $7 50. Wheat dull; prices lower; sales of 3,000 bushels prime red at $2 20, and smaller lots of white at $2 40@2 50. Rye sells slowly at $1 80@1 82. Corn comes forward freely, at 3,000 bushels mixed western sold at $1 78. Oats steady at 90c. Whisky declined; sales Ohio bbls at $1 30; drudge at $1 70.
