COUNTY TICKET.

CONGRESS GEORGE F. MILLER, of Union county. ASSEMBLY,

Col. H. C. ALLEMAN, Harrisburg. DANIEL KAISER, Wiconisco. PROTHONOTARY, JOSIAH C. YOUNG, Harrisburg.

REGISTER. GEORGE M. MARK, Union Deposit. COUNTY COMMISSIONER, HENRY HARTMAN, Washington, PHILIP MOYER, Upper Paxton.

ALFRED SLENTZ, Harrisburg. WATCH THE POLLS!

Look out for Deserters and Men Wh. Failed to Report After Being Drafted,

We would remind the Union men in this State to have committees appointed for every election district in the State, whose special duty it is to note every deserter from the Union army, and every man who failed to report himself after being drafted. All these men will vote the copperhead ticket, and our friends should be on the alert. They can assist their country materially by giving proper information which will lead to their arrest. We repeat again, therefore, "WATCH THE POLLS."

-In addition to the class of tories alluded to above, whom the copperheads hope to use at the polls, there are still others who must be watched. We allude to persons who have been exempt as demented, and therefore unfit for service in the army. If any such present themselves at the polls, let their votes be at once rejected.

The Legislative Ticket. The Democracy of Dauphin county hope, by one of their peculiar tricks at the polls, to defeat one or both of the candidates for the Legislature on the Union ticket. Of course our friends will be prepared on the day of the election, for any movement in this direction. But it is well that they should be advised a little in advance of the games of their foes. Our candidates for the Legislature, Col. Alleman and Daniel Kaiser, have already faithfully served their constituents. Col. Alleman has done his duty a sa soldier. Both have been faithful as legislators. Why then should either be rejected, for the best copperhead sneak that ever wore a false face while professing love for his country? Friends of the good old cause and the good old flag, see to it, that neither Alleman or Kaiser run a vote behind the ticket. Beware of Rumors of Defeat of the Army. The copperheads unwittingly expose their alliance with treason, when they engage in the circulation of false reports setting forth the defeat of our armies in the field. They confess by this, that a rebel victory is the only result which can help a Democratic candidate: and vice versa a Democratic triumph at the polls is all that can possibly help to success the rebel armies in the field. We warn the voter to beware, then, of these false reports concerning the defeat of our armies in the field. The gallant men who now lead our armies, Grant, Sherman, Sheridan, Butler, Meade, Hancock, will take care that we get glorious victories in the field, and all that those leaders ask of us in return is a victory at the ballot-box. The soldiers in the field only ask, only need, the victory of the ballot to crown with eternal glory the triumph of the bullet! Between the armies in the field and loval men at home. there are reciprocal duties to be performed. And these will be discharged, despite the struggle of armed traitors or the lies of sneaking sympathizers.

The Meeting on Friday Evening. Daniel Dougherty, Esq., of Philadelphia the young and eloquent champion of true Democratic principles, will positively address the citizens of Harrisburg, at the Mass Meet ing in the Court House, To-MORROW (FRIDAY) Evening.

The seats within the bar of the Court-room will be reserved for the ladies. Our fair and loyal countrywomen can have no delicacy in mingling in any of the Union demonstrations of the campaign, as these have been and will continue to be, conducted with a decorum, a decency and that just regard for the amenities of refined society, so becoming the patriot and the true gentleman. The ladies will not hesitate, therefore, to greet the Union mass meeting assembled on Friday evening, with the cheering, inspiration of their smiling

A Solemn Fact. It should be borne in mind by the free

white men in this district, and particularly by those who will get to peruse this paragraph. that in voting for Congressman, the elector will have an opportunity of deciding directly in favor of or against the cause, the effect and the claims of the traitors in arms. If the rebels themselves had agreed to submit their cause to the arbitrament of the ballot-box in this district, it could not have been brought more prominently before the people thereof than it now is, in the aspirations and the claims of William H. Miller for a re-election to Congress. Miller represents the cause of treason in all its worst features. He is a dirt-eater at the footstool of the slave power. He believes in the divinity of slavery. He despises labor as unfit to govern. He regards the unity of the States as a mere compact to be broken at the nod of a township as well as the blow of a Commonwealth. He looks upon Federal power as the mere dispenser of political patronage, to be contended for by politicians as gamblers struggle for their games and the profits they bestow. He is convinced that beyond slavery there is nothing national in the Union. He denies the right of the Federal authorities to coerce a State, but believes in the coercing influence of States against the national power. He is a friend of treason without any of the generous impulses of a soldier ready to die for that in which he believes, but with all the sordid cravings of a demagogue, willing to float into place in the blood of his fellow citizens. This is the man, fellow citizens, who asks your vote for Congress, after he has betrayed your most sacred interests, insulted your most cherished hopes, and trampled on your noblest principles. If you want to endorse treason, vote for William H. Miller. If you desire the success of rebellion, vote for William H. Miller, and you practically put a man into the rebel army. If you want to encourage the traitors of the South, vote for William H. Miller, and you say to those desperados, we are with you. If you want to dishearten the loyal men of the South, vote for William H. Miller, and you say to those suffering men, we are against you! Here are the plain issues of the contest, so far as William H. Miller is concerned.

The Prospect in Pennsylvania. We have been carefully noting the political prospect in this State, as it is presented in the columns of our loyal cotemporaries throughout the Commonwealth, and the accounts of the immense gatherings of loyal men, as they are conveyed to us by private correspondents. Pennsylvania is decidedly awake and alive to the importance of the pending contest, and if the feeling of the other States is in any degree represented in this Commonwealth, Lincoln will carry every State in the Union. We rejoic in a confidence thus strengthened, which makes us believe that all is well in the old Keystone State. The meetings are earnest Oll and enthusiastic and overwhelming railies. The Union men are more zealous and determined than ever, and manifest their devotion by works that must tell favorably upon the result. They leave all things else now for the political interests of the country. The people leave their avocations in response to calls for meetings, and rain or shine, make each of these a demonstration that alarms and confounds the enemy.

THE Democratic press, which has no fault to find with Gen. George B. McClellan, for drawing his pay without rendering equivalent service, signalizes its consistency by such tuff as this:

"The Abolition press are making quite a lowing to the heavy storm last night, the uss over the fact of Gens. Hooker and Dix telegraph lines are down on the Chattanooga monorting Lincoln. What else could they railread, and we have mo reports from Gen. stuff as this: fuss over the fact of Gens. Hooker and Dix supporting Lincoln. What else could they we should like to know? They are both office holders, under the Administration, ne, ceiving big pay and rations for doing nothing; and they are consequently as favorable to the the re-election of Lincoln as any other office. bolder in the land."

Who could believe, after reading this attack en Generals Dix and Hooker, both Democrats, and both in actual, active service, that the same paper supports a man who has drawn the same pay and rations for nearly two years, with-out pretending to render service in return.

A DESERVED COMPLIMENT.—There is some thing so just and truthful in the following compliment from the Harrisburg correspondent of the Daily News, to one of the officers connected with the State administration, that we cannot refrain from transferring it to our columns:

I am not much given to noticing officials in my communications; but I must say a word relative to a painstaking, exact, hard-working man, who is not properly appreciated at large—a member of Governor Curtin's Administration. I refer to Samuel Thomas, of Delaware county, the military Secretary of the State. United to his laborious application to business, he possesses mind, intelligence and courtesy—what so very many officials lack. He deserves a higher position.

Somerhing Left Out. - In Gen. McClellan's last electioneering speech; he speaks of "the gallant and skilful Sherman, the heroic and dashing Sheridan, and the intrepid Farragut," but not one word for the Lieutenant Gen. eral. He might have said something even if nothing better than the rash and immoderate Grant," who chose a new route to Richmond, and never paused for Quaker guns. But having penetrated into Virginia beyond McClellan's topographical knowledge, the latter may have lost track of him. Of course the hero of the Chickahominy is not jealous.

THE REBEL PROGRAMME.—The following from the Charleston Mercury, of the 5th, is a succinct statement of the rebel relation to our political canvass: "If we hold our own and prevent further military successes on the part of our foes, there is every prospect that McClellan will be elected, and his election on the Chicago Platform must lead to peace and our independence.

AGENCY OF THE NEW YORK ASSOCIATED) Press, Philadelphia, Oct. 4, 1864. To the Chairmen of the State Committees of both

In order to insure more correct and complete returns of the ensuing State election for pubof the different Political Committees of the several counties.

All the telegraph offices throughout the State will be held open during the night for the reception of the returns, and by an arrangement between the county committees and the telegraph operators, it is believed that a reliable estimate of the result may be published on the morning after the election

The vote for members of Congress will be sufficient, with a mention of the gain or loss compared with the vote of last year, and if possible, the result of the legislative vote. There is no necessity for the vote for local officers, as there is no State ticket to show exactly the popular majority. It is proposed that the Congressional vote should be the first counted, and for this purpose the co-operation of election officers throughout the State, with the Chairman of the Political Committees, should be sought for and arranged by the latter immediately. In order to obtain these results the Associated Press have received the endorsement of the chairmen of both the Demogratic and Republican State Central Committee, as well as that of the publishers and editors of all the daily papers connected with the Associated Press in Phila-

It is desirable that these returns should be actual and received at as early an hour as pos-

All messages should be telegraphed to W. W. Fulton, agent of the Associated Press, Philadelphia. We refer the above card to the several County Committees of the State, trusting that the arrangements proposed will be perfected
