Don't be Deterred from the Main Object of Victory at the Polis.

By this time every truly loyal man is well convinced, that the main object with the friends of the Union in seeking a victory at the polls, is to strengthen our armies in the field. No set of men in the country understand this fact better than our copperhead opponents. Hence the virulence and vindictiveness with which the copperhead leaders have been conducting the campaign. Hence the attempt to make side issues, and thereon base appeals to the lower passions of men In seeking a victory at the polls, the copperhead leaders are not so much prompted by the desire for political power, as they are by the hope of breaking up our system of free Government. Such men as C. L. Ward, the for the furtherance of their political ends, and the bools tested. Early of Sulface the same evening, which point they reached the same evening, with 700 men and all their artillery. The total loss in the command including the same. as C. L. Ward, the Chairman of the copperhead State Central Committee, do not ask political power from the people. What they seek is the destruction of the Government, after which they will seize the power to rule on the principle of the divine right of aristocrats, as the masters of the poor man and the owners of his labor. We want the poor man everywhere to remember these facts, and not allow himself to be attracted from the real object of the election. Loyalty wants a victory at the polls that loyalty may triumph in the field. COPPER-READISM SEEKS SUCCESS AT THE BALLOT BOX THAT SLAVERY MAY BE VICTORIOUS ON THE BAT-THE FIELD! These are questions for the workingmen to ponder. And before every workingman goes to the polls let him think that as he votes it will depend whether his dear ones cherished gods of his household altars. These are the real issues of the political contestfor freedom-FOR PEACE BASED ON THE VINDI-THE STRENGTH OF BOTH!

THE M'CLELLAN PROGRAMME. - The Indianapolis Sentinel, the organ of the Indiana Democracy, published an article last Monday, headed, "A Few Thoughts Upon the Coming Presidential Election," in which the writer, after depicting the terrible results (to the Democracy) of Mr. Lincoln's re-election, says: "Turn we now to review the result should the Chicago nominee be elected. His programme will be a cessation of hostilities, and an attempt to restore the Union by compromise and reconciliation, or, if failing in that, taking the last extreme-recognition."

M'CLELLAN'S SNEAR POLICY.—The Louisville Daily Press states that it has "ample reason to know that Charles A. Wickliffe, of Kentucky, stated in Baltimore that McClellan assured him, two days in advance of his letter of acceptance, that if he (McClellan) were elected, not a gun should be fired at the rebels after the 4th of March." What a curse would it be to the nation could this non-resistant do-duties. nothing Major General be made President of the United States! O.

The Vote for the County and District Ticket.

Every truly intelligent and fervently loyal man in Dauphin county recognizes the great principle at stake in the coming political contest at the polls. The issue will not stop with triumph at the polls. Long thereafter, in the halls of legislation, in the departments of trade and finance, and in every social relation, the effect of a triumph or defeat will be most seriously felt for evil or for good. Hence, the importance of the people in every district in the State discharging their full duty at the polls. In a crisis like this, no man has a right to neglect to vote, and still claim to be a citizen. He who wilfully omits the duties forfeits the rights of citizenship. Hence, in Pauphin county, every loyal man must vote if he hopes to keep bright and powerful the eternal principles of his loyalty. The fact that we have a majority and can easily elect our county and district ticket, does not afford any man an excuse to absent himself from the polls, because we aim at higher results in this contest, than the mere election of candidates for local offices. We want the prestige of large majorities, to establish our unqualified devotion to great national principles. Hence the principle at stake in both elections, alike the one in October and that in November, is the same. Therefore, if we poll a large vote for our candidates at the first, we can increase it at the second election. This has always been proven to be the case with all parties. Prestige is allied to numbers. Give us the preponderance of a full vote for our county and district tickets, and our word for it, the State of Pennsylvania will roll up such a majority for Lincoln and Johnson in November, as will startle traitors from their dark strongholds, and over-awe to obedience every mean treason sympathizer in the loyal States. Dauphin county owes it to herself to poll every loyal vote within the limits of her different election districts, on Tuesday next.

The young and active men in the boroughs, wards and townships, must make it their bus iness to get out the old men of their districts -to see that the sick and wounded discharged soldiers get to the polls—to see that every man in their respective districts goes to the election.

In a crisis like this every man has his duty to perform—every man should feel it his duty upon their works. As it is, however, we have to see that his neighbors vote—to see that possession of the Vaughn road, over which justice is dealt out at the polls—to see that illegal votes are refused-to see that the victory is for the right!

We want a full vote for every man on the county ticket. From Congress down to Auditor, we want a full vote. Our foes in this district only hope to reduce our majorities; it is our duty, then, to increase such majori-

We fight for freedom, government and the Union, against treason, despotism and anarchy

What the People Want.

The people of all the States, alike those of the north and the south, want peace, based on the full recognition of the Federal authority. Any other peace would not last a calendar month. Until the rebel armies are beaten and broken up—until the aristocratic representatives of the institution of slavery, now defending rebellion, are humiliated, their institution divested of its political prerogatives, and wherever slavery is known to contribute directly to the support of traitors in arms, the institution itself abolished—until all this is accomplished, there cannot and will not be peace in the United States, simply because the slave-holder, for the interest of that instituunmistakable, severe and stern crushing out of treason and rebellion, that it may not again become necessary for them to repeat the terrible sacrifices of the war into which they are now plunged, to suppress another rebellion But against all this the copperhead leaders now oppose themselves, to save slavery, to preserve the prestige of its leaders and maintain the power of their former political positions, that the same men for the same purposes may, at some future propitious hour, again arm and assail the national authority. The whole political contest in which we are now engaged, hinges on this point. While the slave-holders are working to destroy free government, the Democratic leaders are strugshall become slaves in the market, or remain the gling to maintain the political influence and the social corruption of slavery. While the free masses of the north are making noble sacrifices for peace, based on the recognition CATED AUTHORITY OF THE GOVERNMENT-FOR of the national authority, the Democratic A UNION AND A GOVERNMENT CON- leaders are alone absorbed in a con-TROLLED BY THE LABOR WHICH IS test for the nationality of slavery. The THE SOURCE OF THE WEALTH AND difference between the Democratic leaders and the real friends of the Union, is that the Democracy are contending for peace by the enslavement of all labor, while the friends of the Union seek peace by the universal spread of liberty. The one wants all the States devoted to slavery; the other seeks a Union of commonwealths based on freedom. This is the true solution of the peace projects as they are presented for the approval of the people at the polls. If the true Union men succeed at the polls in October and November, we will have taken the first step to a peace based on freedom. If the copperheads triumph, the peace which will follow, will be one enforced by the slave master with the lash and the traitor

IMPORTANT MOVEMENT OF WARREN Heavy Firing About Chapin's Farm.

Capture of Another Line of Rebel Works.

Manassas Gap Railroad Opened to Rectortown.

Washington, Oct. 6. The mail steamer Manhattan, from City Point, reports that there has been no heavy fighting in front of Petersburg since the last reports. Warren has swung around on the left somewhat, to a position commanding the Southside railroad, where he is throwing up entrenchments and mounting heavy guns, by which it is believed the rebels may be prevented from using the road.

The Manhattan brought up forty-four rebel officers, captured by the 18th Carps on the north side of the James river; they are under charge of Captain Powell, 68th Pennsylvania Regiment, and rank from lieutenant to lieutenant tenant-colonel, including several majors.— Lieutenant-colonel Maury, who commanded a rebel fortification on Chapin's farm, is among the party.

Captain Powell also had charge of thirtytwo rebel deserters, who came into General Butler's lines. They have taken the oath and desire to go North.

The transport steamer Belvidere has arrived from Fortress Monroe, which place she left yesterday afternoon at three o'clock. She reports that yesterday morning heavy cannonading was heard from the direction of Chapin's farm, and the report was in circulation at Fortress Monroe that we had driven the ene-my from another line of intrenchments.

Yesterday four hospital boats arrived at Fortress Monroe from above, with wounded, belonging to the Army of the James. There was a large proportion of colored soldiers among these wounded.

The Manassas Gap Railroad has been repaired as far as Rectortown.

SECOND DISPATCH.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—No further movements are reported as having taken place southwest of Petersburg. Our troops are steadily fortifying the positions gained, but the enemy is probably too strongly intrenched on the Southside railroad to warrant an assault the rebels wagoned a large portion of their supplies, and our forces hold an impregnable position within two miles of the Southside railread. This is an advantage worth far more than the cost of the attack.

Arrival of General Ewing at St. Louis Account of his Retreat From Pilot Knob

A Fight with the Rebels at Harrison Station. Price Reported Near Union on Tuesday.

Gen. Ewing and several officers of his command reached here last night, having marched from Pilot Knob to De Soto, with an escort of forty men, and thence came to St. Louis by railroad. His retreat from Pilot Knob was unmolested till about, twenty miles from Har-rison Station, where the rebels attacked him in considerable force, but were driven back by his artillery, with loss. He erected some slight breastworks and planted cannon, and fought the enemy pretty constantly till Saturday afternoon, when Col. Beveride, with 600 of the 17th Illinois cavalry, arrived from Rolla, and the rebels retired. Early on Sunday agreement of the 17th Illinois cavalry, arrived from Rolla, and the rebels retired. total loss in the command, including the siege will always be prompt to render slavery aid Pilot Knob, skirmishing on the retreat, and and comfort. Hence the people want the full, the engagement at Harrison Station, were about 300, the larger proportion being prison-

Dispatches from Franklin report all quiet there. General Smith commands the forces at that point, including the enrolled militia, all under General Pike. The latest accounts from Price placed him six miles west of Union on Tuesday, on the Jefferson City road. His force consists of fitteen thousand fighting men, cavalry, mounted infantry, and about 5,000 camp-followers. His movements indicate a design to take Jefferson Qity, install Tom Reynolds as Governor, and hold the State for the Confederacy. General Mower has been heard from, but his whereabouts is contraband.

The Delaware Assessors' Election. A LARGE UNION GAIN. The State Reported Good for Lincoln and Johnson.

WILMINGTON, Oct 6. In New Castle county the Unionists elected twelve inspectors and six assessors; the Dem-ocrats elected five inspectors and four assessors. There are no returns from Kent or Sussex counties, which are usually Democratic It was no test vote. The Union vote was not full, while the Democrats middle exertions to bring out their full vote. By domparison with 1862, the vote shows that the Union men can and will carry the State for Lincoln and John son. In 1862 the Democrats had a majority of about 800, but in the November election the Union majority was 111.

The Federal guard numbered sixty, half of whom were killed, wounded or captured. The balance escaped and arrived here safely. The cattle were stempeded, and here safely. The cattle were stampeded, and large numbers of them were straying through the country.

The river is six feet on the shoals and rising. On the 4th, a large rebel force appeared on the Chattahoochie river, near Ackworth station, destroyed several pieces of the track, and burned Big Shanty. Two bridges across the Chatahoochie at Cartersville and Resaca, the Chatahoochie at Cartersville and Resaca, were damaged by heavy rains. A rebel force was near Dalton on the 3d inst., moving in a southeasterly direction. They had with them a train of 250 wagons. A severe fight occurred at Alatoona yesterday, between the garrison and a body of rebel infantry. Gen. Carse and Col. Towlett were wounded. The rebel lass was heavy according to the reports of loss was heavy, according to the reports of prisoners taken.

The battle is expected to be renewed to-day. A division of rebel infantry was seen moving at the Etowah river, probably with the intention of crossing to this side. The river has seven feet on the shoals, and

The Rebel Attack on Alatoona

They are Repulsed and Leave their Dead and Wounded in our Hands.

CHATTANOOGA, Oct. 6.—At six o'clock yesterday morning the enemy attacked Alatoona with artillery and infantry, The position was occupied by a portion of Gen. Smith's corps. The fight continued at intervals, and during the latter part of the day the enemy was handsomely repulsed with severe loss. In the evening they hastily retreated towards Dallas and Dalton, leaving all their dead and 400 to 600 wounded in our possession. Our loss is about 300 killed and wounded. Gen. Carse is reported to be wounded. The firing was heavy in the direction of Kenesaw during the day.

This is the first clear day for nearly two weeks. All the streams are overflowing and washing away the bridges at Ringgold, Resaca and Chattahoochie. The two first-named will be rebuilt to-day.

the rebel forces under Gen. Forrest, in which the rebels were driven from the field with heavy loss, leaving their dead and wounded in our hands. The details are given in the following dispatch from Gen. Thomas:

NASHVILLE, Oct. 6—11.30 P. M.

Hon. E. M. Stanton, Secretary of War:

The following telegram is just received from Chattanooga: Gen. Smith, who left there yesterday, fifth (5th) inst., telegraphs that the enemy retreated last evening from Alatoona, moving in the direction of Dallas, leaving from four to six hundred wounded in our hands Our loss is about 100 killed and 200 wounded. The railroad bridge near Ringgold was washed away yesterday. (Signed)

S. B. MOORE, Asst-Adjt. General.

The Resaca bridge will be repaired by tomorrow and the trains will be able to run as far as Alatoona, going via Cleveland and Dalton Nothing further has been heard from Sherthe roads will admit.

We have had heavy and continuous rains for the last five days, rendering the roads and streams impassable. I have just received the following dispatch from Gen. Granger, dated HUNTSVILLE, October 6—10 p. m.—The courier reported wounded in crossing Elk river is in. He lost the dispatches while crossing the river. He reports that two rebels were captured yesterday, who say that they left Forrest at Lawrenceburg the night before, crossing south.

General Morgan's advance was skirmishing with the enemy this A. M. on Span's Creek, he being unable to cross the creek on account of high water. He hopes to be able to cross by to-morrow morning, when he will push them still further on.

The Alabama railroad will be repeaired from here to Pulaski in one week.

(Signed) GEORGE H. THOMAS, Major General.

Another and unofficial dispatch reports as follows: Telegraph repaired to Alatoona to day. The action yesterday was severe, French attacking with his division, 7,000 strong, and suffering heavily, leaving his killed and wounded in our hands to the manufacture. ed and wounded in our hands to the number of 1000, while we lost only 300. The fight

Issted six hours altogether.

From Florence we hear that Morgan has Forrest cornered, has captured his transportation, and that the gunboats prevent all retreat across the tation, and that the gunboaus prevent an retreat across the Tennessee.

SATISFACTORY REPORTS OF THE OPERATIONS IN PROGRESS BEFORE RICHMOND AND PETERSBURG HAVE BEEN RECEIVED, but their details are not at present proper for publication.

A dispatch from Gen. Stevenson reports an officer of Gen. Sheridan's staff just arrived. Gen. Sheridan was still at Harrisomburg.— His supply trains were going on all right, occasionally interrupted by guerrilla parties, the only force on the road. This officer brought in the remains of Lt. John R. Meigs, of the Engineer Corps, and only son of brevet Maj. Gen. Meigs, Quartermaster General, who was killed by bushwhackers on Monday last, while making a military survey.

In the death of that gallant officer the department has occasion to deplore no ordinary loss. Last year he graduated at the military academy at West Point with the highest honors at the head of his class, was commissioned as a Lieut. of engineers, and was immediately ent into the field. He performed meritorious and dangerous services during the last year on the fortifications at Baltimore, at Harper's Ferry and at Cumberland, and was made chief engineer in the army of the Shenandoah. In the campaigns he accompanied the army under Sigel, Hunter and Sheridan in every position. He gave proof of great professional skill, personal courage and developed patriotism.

One of the youngest and brightest ornaments of the military profession, he has fallen an early victim to murderous rebel warfare.
General Rosecrans reports that Gen. Ewing made good his retreat to Rolls, losing only a few stragglers, and the killed and wounded by the way were very few. From the number of the wounded rebels the enemy's loss will not fall much short of a thousand hors du combat.

Mosby Recovering From his Recent Injuries. Washington, Oct. 6.
This Government continues its official re-

It appears, from an official statement received at the Navy Department to-day, that the North Atlantic blockading squadron has from August 1st, 1863, to October 1st of the present year, captured or destroyed fifty vessels. Most of these were first class blockade runners.

The intelligence received from the Army of the Potomac to-day is that unusual quiet prevailed during Wednesday night and yesterday morning up to 10 o'clock, when the mail boal left City Point. Our forces on the south side are within sound and sight of the railroad, and in a strong position, capable, it is said, of resisting any rebel assault.

It appears that the enemy are not using that railroad to any considerable extent.

Positive information has been received by the Alexandria (Va.) Journal that Mosby has so far recovered from his recent wound as to be able to again take the saddle.

It says certain it is that he is once more in command, and it may not be many days before there will be a renewal of the guerrilla depredations in the adjoining countie
