TOWN AND COUNTRY.

A Grand Torch-light Procession at Lykens.

The citizens of Lykens township will have a grand torch-light procession on MONDAY EVENING next.

Hon. DAVID FLEMING and other prominent speakers will address the meeting.

A new Masonic Hall at York was dedicated on Thursday.

The tobacco crop of York county this year, it is said, will be one-third short.

Down it Goes.—The Pottsville Ledger announces a fall of over two dollars per ton in the price of coal at that place.

The large porch in front of Herr's Hotel has been removed. When the improvements are completed, the Thompsonian House (that is to be) will bear but little resemblance to the old building.

NATIONAL UNION CLUB.—An organization with this title was formed on last Thursday evening, at Union Hall, Middletown, and the following permanent officers elected: President, Dr. B. W. Westling; Vice President, E. J. Ramsay; Secretary, W. H. Kendig. The Club has rented the Hall for the Campaign.

A MINISTER AND HIS SON CONSUMED IN THE CARS AT THOMPSONTOWN.—The Reading Times says:

Among those who perished in the burning railroad train at Thompsonstown, about 38 miles above Harrisburg, we are sorry to learn was Rev. Mr. Koetel, who formerly preached in this city. His oldest son also perished in the flames. There were more burned in that disaster than the public have any knowledge of.

The festival gotten up by the ladies of the Free Baptist Church resulted in a handsome profit. The proceeds of the two evenings amounted to $260.18—a sum that will be nearly sufficient to furnish the new edifice. Great credit is due those having the festival in charge, for their efforts to render it profitable and profitable to the church is nearly completed, and promises to be one of the most beautiful temples in the city.

VERY IMPORTANT TO ALIEN SOLDIERS.—The 31st section of the act of Congress, passed July 17th, 1862, provides that an alien of the age of twenty-one years, or upwards, enlisted in either the regular or volunteer forces, and who shall be honorably discharged, may upon petition to the courts, become a citizen of the United States, without a previous declaration of intention, and further that he shall not be required to prove more than one year's residence within the United States previous to his application to become a citizen.

LARGE UNION MEETING IN SWATARA TOWNSHIP.—A large and enthusiastic meeting of the friends of Lincoln and Johnson was held at Locust Grove, Thursday evening. The meeting organized by electing as President John Conrad; Vice President, David Roop; Secretary, George Boyer. J. M. Westling and W. T. Bishop, Esqrs., ably and forcibly addressed the meeting, and were enthusiastically applauded. The meeting adjourned with loud cheers for the Union and its candidates.

A FREAK OF NATURE.—A correspondent who "saw that of which he speaks," writes us as follows: "Mr. David Garver, of Macon county, Illinois, has a cane, the head of which is a correct likeness of Abraham Lincoln. It was found by one of his neighbors by the name of Prier. It grew out of the bark of a tree, and when he saw it he commenced to strip off the bark, when lo, and behold! there was the correct portrait of Abraham Lincoln's head, a little smaller than a man's fist. This is perfectly natural, which is shown by the grains of the wood taking such courses as to form perfect eyes, nose, mouth, and also wrinkles where the ears should be. But what is perhaps more singular is a perfect 2 on the back of the head, and an A and an L on his forehead. Mr. Garver's intention was to take it to the President. Whether he has done so or not we do not know. The fact is doubtless intended to show that Abraham Lincoln will be the second liberator of America."

OLD DERRY AROUSED.—Large Meeting and Pole Raising in Hummelstown.—The loyal citizens of Hummelstown united in raising a fine pole and flag on Tuesday, in front of Mr. Christian Nisley's store. The pole does honor to the patriotism of those who raised it there, dedicated as it is to constitutional Union and Freedom, and which the old flag was unfurled to the breeze, and shot of spirit rang through the air. In the evening a grand Union meeting was held, the largest and most enthusiastic held in Hummelstown for many years. Mr. Richard Fox was chosen President, and the usual vice presidents and secretaries were selected. Martial music enlivened the meeting, and immense applause was given to the patriotic speeches delivered. Abundant patriotic addresses were made by H. C. Altemus, J. M. Westling, J. W. Simon, Esqrs., and Rev. A. Weiss, creating much enthusiasm. At the close of the meeting the ladies sang several patriotic odes, and the streets resounded with the martial and vocal music, and cheer after cheer rent the air. A large majority will be given by faithful old Derry for the whole Union ticket.

Union Meeting in Lower Paxton

LANGLESTOWN, Oct. 7. Mr. EDITOR.—The true and loyal citizens of Lower Paxton held a meeting in this place last evening to counsel together for their country's welfare. It was one of the largest and most enthusiastic meetings ever held here. On motion of Clement B. Care, the meeting was organized by electing John Focht, Esq., Chairman, with the usual number of Vice Presidents, &c. The President, on taking the chair, ably and clearly recited the objects of the meeting, and the important issues of the present campaign. Addresses were then made by Ralph L. Akeley, A. C. Smith and L. N. Ott, Esqrs., which were listened to with the strictest attention, the only interruptions being the bursts of applause greeting the sentiments of patriotism, and the words of encouragement for the vindication of our national honor, which fell from the lips of the speakers. My word for it, Mr. Editor, there will be but few voters among us for the Union on the white-feather, ignominious peace platform.

JUST RECEIVED, a fine lot of potatoes, and for sale cheap, by John Wallower, at the P. R. Depot. 06343

The loyal people of Dauphin county are alive to the importance of working for the cause of their country, and will give a good account of themselves next Tuesday. The meetings held have been largely attended, and the enthusiasm exceeds that of any former occasion.

How different are the death throes of the expiring copperhead party. There is no enthusiasm in the ranks, and those who attend their meetings do so after the most earnest drumming of the slave-drivers, who, like their friends in the South, are giving their last kick "to keep up appearances."

From the 201st Regiment.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., Oct. 4, 1864. Editor Telegraph.—Companies A, B, C, D, I and K, the entire strength of our regiment, at present, are still lying here at Alexandria, awaiting orders to go to our destination; which I have every reason to believe will not be far from this point—probably to guard along the line of the Orange and Alexandria railroad, while the construction corps put this line once more in order to push supplies forward to Sheridan in the rear. At least, I have been informed by one of the "knowing ones."

The boys are constantly accusing me with, "Corporal, where is the TELEGRAPH? Why don't she come along?—would you without my dinner to get a sight of one, to-day!" Hold on, lads!

"The winter of our discontent," Shall presently be "Made glorious summer, by" a copy of our staunch Harrisburg Union daily the TELEGRAPH!

To drive away an hour or two of monotony, I walked out to the wharf—saw and heard the following: Fifty, or more, soldiers sitting on the different wharves looking out for birds! Observed, lying around "loose," piles of white perch, catfish and sun-fish.

I managed to get aboard of the hospital steamer, sitting out with all dispatch here, for a floating hospital, and found that she is the same magnificent "Ben Deford," formerly plying between Baltimore, New York and Boston, taking an occasional trip to Trinidad de Cuba. She is two hundred and twenty-five feet long, and has accommodations complete for about three hundred and fifty sick and wounded. Her engine is of nearly five hundred horse-power capacity, eleven feet stroke, and fifty-five inch cylinder. She is a side-wheel steamer, driven by a pair of wheels each ninety feet in circumference. She was built five years ago, at a cost of $175,000, but would now cost $300,000. The vessel is plied to the second deck, with half-inch iron, and draws eleven feet of water when loaded down. She has been in Government service for about three years. The "Deford" is to be ready for service in a day or two, to hasten down the river, in anticipation of the impending battle, between Grant and Lee, in front of Richmond.

The health of the men, at this writing, is pretty good—a few cases of diarrhea, from imprudent causes, are the only complaints I heard mentioned. I think if our mail matter don't soon come to hand some of the boys will grow desperate. On all sides you can read and finally with the words—"Home! home!—why don't we hear from home?"

I am under the impression that letters directed to "201st Reg't. (at or near) Alexandria, Va.," would come to hand. Try it, Mr. Editor, by forwarding a few copies of the TELEGRAPH, containing "our correspondence under difficulties." More anon, A. H. B.

From the Alleman Families.

HEADQUARTERS ALLEMAN FAMILIES, CAMP CADWALADER, PHILA., Oct. 5. EDITOR HARRISBURG TELEGRAPH.—Dear Sir:—Believing a communication from us would not be uninteresting to your many readers, I concluded to drop you a few lines. After our arrival in the city of Brotherly Love, we were marched down to Washington street, to the Volunteers' Refreshment Saloons, where we partook of a good and substantial breakfast. From thence we proceeded to camp, where we are being very comfortably quartered in tents. Our rations are very good pork, bread and coffee for breakfast; excellent bean soup and fresh bread for dinner; and I tell you your humble servant proved a full grown hand at the business. Bread, beef and good coffee for supper.

For the benefit of our Harrisburg friends, who may feel disposed to pay us a visit, I would state that Camp Cadwalader is pleasantly situated about one mile and a half from Ninth and Arch streets, where they can take the city passenger cars out Ridge Avenue to within the width of a small field, from camp. Rumors were rife this morning that we would be armed immediately and sent down to City Point, but after some enquiry on the subject, I could not have the yarn confirmed, and doubtless was gotten up by some of the smart ones in camp for the purpose of a big scare and having the laugh on us; but I can assure you that we are ready and willing at a moment's notice to march.

I will also say that we have quite a sprinkling of Christians in our ranks, and having two preachers with us, prayer meetings are held in the evening. A resolution was also unanimously adopted by the company, that before breakfast we should be called into ranks, and prayer offered by one of the religious persons in the company. While marching to the cook house for our grub, a member of one of the other companies remarked in our hearing there was danger of us being cheated out of our rations, as we were called and known as the praying company. We have as members of the company two hotel keepers, Messrs. McClintock and Roberts; one alderman, 1st Lieut. Cole; two policemen, Messrs. Radabangh and Davis. The men conduct themselves in a genteel and soldierly manner under the tuition of Captain Detweiler and Lieutenants Cole and Wingard, and I can assure you we command the respect and esteem of the superior officers of the camp. A good deal of disappointment exists among some of the boys in not getting out of camp to stroll around town and see the elephant. No passes out of camp are issued for the present, but all will be right in a few days should we remain here—and then we will have a chance to go to town and take a sizee glass, judge on Schaeffer's case. As near as I can judge there are about two thousand men here and some six hundred rejected ones pronounced unfit for military duty—except going Drixward and guarding the cattle.

I will now furnish you with a list of our company officers as fully organized: Captain—J. Detweiler. First Lieutenant—Geo. B. Cole. Second Lieutenant—Jesse Wingard. Company Clerk—Henry Radabangh. Orderly Sergeant—James B. Saleman. Third Sergeant—Geo. W. Chase. Fourth—"Isaac W. Hoover. Fifth—"Enos Barnage. Sixth—"Joseph Davis. Company Commissary—Samuel W. Roberts. No Corporals appointed yet. Five o'clock, P. M.—I have just been credibly informed that we are under marching orders; where to I know not. More anon. H. R. P. S. Nine o'clock, p. m.—We have just received our arms and will march to-morrow to the front, unless the order is countermanded. (How are you, Independents?)

BUSINESS ITEMS.

MORE EVIDENCE.—The merchants in the surrounding towns find Mr. Bride's Kinoc of Pain the most popular and saleable medicine ever placed upon their shelves. Orders for it by the dozen are accumulating daily—some from places where it has already been sold and its virtues thoroughly tested; others from where it has received a reputation from the cures it has performed. There is no mistake at all about it—it is the great medicine of the day.

PRUDENCE VS. FOLLY.—Prudence and Folly one day a shopping went. Do not understand us that they were in company, though each in the main had the same object in view, viz: the purchase of dry goods. Prudence, with a determination to supply those wants which they could be supplied for the smallest amount of money, started on a tour of examination. After carefully looking through the different dry goods stores, she made her purchases at O. L. Bowman's, No. 1 corner of Front and Market streets. Folly, puffed up and wrapped in a large garment of self-sufficiency, with presumption that said in every movement and gesture, I know more about dry goods than even those who have served many years in the school. Suffice it to say, Folly made her purchases at the first store she entered and said, "It must be so, for Miss Vanity, just think, I bought silks for a dollar a yard less than they first asked me for them." Can the reader see it?

Bannwart's Troches.

For the cure of Hoarseness, Throat Diseases, &c., are specially recommended to ministers, singers and persons whose vocation calls them to speak in public. Manufactured and sold by C. A. BANNWART & Co., Harrisburg, Pa., to whom all orders should be addressed. Sold by druggist every where.

Read the following testimonials from some of our eminent clergymen: HARRISBURG, Feb. 8th, 1864.

C. A. BANNWART.—Dear Sir: I have used Brown's Bronchial Troches, Wistar's Lozenges and other preparations for my hoarseness and throat troubles, and in comparison with them all, can cheerfully commend your own as a most admirable specific for public speakers and singers, in cases of hoarseness, coughs and colds. I have found them serving in time of need, most effectually. Yours truly, T. H. ROBINSON, Pastor of N. S. Presbyterian Church.

I agree with Mr. Robinson as to the value of Bannwart's Troches. W. C. GATTELL, Late Pastor of O. S. Presbyterian Church.

HARRISBURG, Jan., 1864. To O. A. BANNWART.—Dear Sir: In the habit of speaking very frequently, and in places where the vocal organs are very much taxed, I have found the need of some gentle expectorant, and that want has been supplied in your excellent Troches, which I have used, in removing Lozenges that I have ever used, in removing speedily that hoarseness of the voice arising from its too frequent use, and impairing the effectiveness of the delivery of public addresses. Yours, &c., JNO. WALKER JACKSON, Pastor of the Locust St. Methodist Church.

To C. A. BANNWART.—Dear Sir: Having used your Troches, I am free to say they are the best I have ever tried and take great pleasure in recommending them to all persons afflicted with sore throat or hoarseness of voice arising from public speaking or singing. Yours, &c., G. G. KAKESTRAW, Pastor of Ridge Avenue Methodist Church.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE, HARRISBURG, Feb. 29, 1864. To C. A. BANNWART.—Dear Sir: I have found your Troches to be invaluable in relieving hoarseness and in strengthening the muscles of the throat. They impart clearness to the voice, and are certainly of great benefit to all public speakers. A. J. HELLER
