Our Warrior, Gen. William H. Miller, the Congressman!

Our amiable friends of the rebel Organ over the way, give our distinguished Congressman the use of four columns and a half to defend the treasonable action of our mis-representative in Congress, William H. Miller.-We make no complaint of that His father-in-law, C. L. Ward, is the prime owner of the concern, and his natural connection with the British gold speculator and hater of American prosperity, Augustus Belmont, will lead him to do anything to re-elect his heroic son, the General.

It is very easy and becoming for the Organ to call the TELEGRAPH a liar, and we deem it unworthy to reply to anything that is said on that see e; but we dare the owner, C. I. Ward, or any of his tory associates, to deny that William H. Miller did not vote just as we published a tew days since, and in order to refresh his memory, we republish the same to the draft who is opposed to let a colored man go in his place and fight for the Union, will vote for WILLIAM H. MILLER, who would rather SACRIFICE A WHITE MAN than a negro, judging from his votes. But without extending this article, we republish the following:

Our Loyal William H. Miller, Congress-man from the 14th District. The Patri t and Union of Friday evening

lefends our most abused Congressman from this District, in a long article, and vouches for his loyalty and friendship for the soldier in the tented field in glowing language. Without extending this article unnecessarily, we will examine our distinguished Congress-man's record, and then let the voters of this District judge for themselves. GREEN CLAY SMITH'S RESOLUTION.

On the 17th of December, 1863, Mr. SMITH of Kentucky, offered the following resolution, Congress to pass all necessary bills to supply men and money, and the duty of the people to render every sid in their power to the col-stituted automobiles of the unvernmentable. crushing out of the rebellion, and in bringing the leaders thereof to condign punishment.

On the adoption of the resolution 90 Union men and 4 Democrats voted for the same and 65 copperheads voted against it, and among those 65 stands the name of William H. Miller, from this District.
On the same day another resolution was offered by Mr. Smrra, as follows:

convex Crystal Spectacles, which are warranted to strengthen and preserve the eyes of the wearer, and to last from 10 to 12 years without change. List of prices sent free to any direction. Concave and convex enges, set in scen trames, $2.

THE COPPERHEADS VOTE THAT IT IS NOT THE DUTY OF THE PEOPLE TO FIGHT DOWN AND DESTROY THIS ACCURSED REBELLION. 1864-January 18, Mr. Smith offered the following resolution:

Whereas, A most desperate, and wicked and bloody rebellion exists within the juris-diction of the United States, and the safety and ecurity of personal and national liberty de-THE undersigned having taken the above Shop, respectfully solicits a share of the public papend upon its absolute and utter extinction;

therefore, resolved, That it is the political, civil, moral and sacred duty of the people to meet it, fight it, crush it, and forever destroy it, thereby stablishing perfect and unalterable liberty. This preamble and resolution was adopted by 112 men voting for it. Among the year were 87 Union men and 25 Democrats. Nave 16 Democrats, and among the nays appears the name of William H. Miller.

COWARDLY PEACE PROPOSITIONS. The Copperheads vote to appoint three con missioners to treat with Jeff Davis for peace, and thus acknowledge his bogus confederaly that has waged a desolating, cruel, and causless war, and destroyed the lives of untdd thousands of our noble soldiers.

1863-Dec. 14, Mr. Fernando Wood. o. New York, offered the following resolution:

Whereas, The President in his message celivered to the House on the 9th instant, and in his recommendation to the people to asset-ble at their places of worship and give thanks to God for recent victories claims that the Union cause has gained important and substantial advantages; And whereas, In view of these triumphs, it is no longer beneath our dignity, nor dangerous to our safety, to evince a generous magnanimity becoming a great and powerful people by offering to the insu-gents an opportunity to return to the Union without imposing on them degrading or estructive conditions; therefore,

Resolved, That the President is requested to appoint three commissioners, who shall be empowered to open negotiations with the at-thorities at Richmond, to the end that this bloody, destructive and inhuman war shill cease, and the Union be restored on terms equity, fraternity and equality under the Costitution.

Mr. Elihu B. Washburne, of Illinois, mov that it be laid on the table, which was agred was 98, nays 59.

Which was rejected—yeas 22, nays 96.

William H. Miller voted for this resolution.

DEGRADING PROPOSITION OF MR. LE BLOND The Copperheads voted that there should be no draft of new troops to fill up the broken ranks of our noble soldiers in the field, until the President has degraded the country by the President has degraded the country by "an armstice," and appointing commissioners to negotiate peace with the bloody-handed rebels in arms against the Government, thereby acknowledging the bogus confederacy of Jeff. "The third question, a provison for th Southern War Debt, is one to which we have not bestowed sufficient reflection to have a very definite opinion, although it is obviously one of the things to be considered in this dis solution of the Confederacy. It is a matter which concerns the South more than it concerns us. If distributed and assumed by the several rebel States, it will make the pressure of State taxation so heavy as to seriously impair their ability to pay their proportion of the Federal taxes. Whether the exchange of Confederate scrip at its market value for United States bonds, would not, by its tendency to produce good feeling, save an equivalent expense in maintaining troops in the South, is a question on which it is premature to hazard any opinion. HOW IT IS TO BE ACCOMPLISHED.

Notwithstanding the cautious and indirect manner in which this scheme is advocated, it may be regarded as a settled conclusion in the minds of the Democratic leaders. It has long been under discussion by them, and the article in the World is evidently put forward as a feeler, to accustom the public to the idea. Elevate the Democracy to power, allow them to bring back "the Union as it was," with 22 rebel votes in the Senate, and 61 in the House, acting in concert with their Democratic friends, the whole of this plundering arrange ment may be anticipated.

WHO ARE TO BENEFIT BY IT.

The suggestion of the World that the scrip is to be taken "at its market value," is the shallowest of devices to entrap the unwary. The paper so worthless now, would rapidly rise with the first prospect of such an accommodation, and by the time the affair was con-summated, its "market value" would be the same as that of United States bonds and "green-backs," which would depreciate cor-respondingly. Immense Outpouring OF THE LOYAL PEOPLE: Mr. Dougherty Challenges Gov. Seymour to a Public Discussion.

The Discussion is Declined Because He is not Among His Friends.

The loyal citizens of Harrisburg met last evening at the Court House for the purpose of taking counsel together for the approaching election.

The spacious room was filled to overflowing, many hundreds were obliged to turn back, not being able to gain admittance. The interior of the building was handsomely decorated with the emblems of our Nationality, and the splendid drum corps of the Veteran Reserve enlivened the vast assemblage convened. The meeting was organized by the appointment of the following officers, viz President—Col. A. J. HERK.

President—Col. A. J. HERR.
Vice Presidents—Col. Prevost, Col. John
Roberts, Isaac Mumma, Daniel 'A: Muench,
John A. Weir, Albert Hummel, Ieonard G.

Secretaries—Sam'l D. Ingram, John Lowrie,
William Knoche Abraham Over, Jacob Shell

William Knoche, Abraham Oves, Jacob Shell, Dr. James Fleming, Amos Fisler, Charles Suydam, Lt. Abner W. Leonard.

Mr. Here, upon taking the chair, made a few appropriate remarks and introduced Dr. A. Ruppaner, of Boston, who entertained the vast assemblage for three-quarters of an hour.

After Mr. R. had concluded, Daniel Dougherty, Esq., was introduced by the President, and he delivered one of the most powerful assembles. speeches ever made in Harrisburg. His ddress was received with immense applause.

Rev. Mr. Jackson was also called out, but after making a tew appropriate remarks he promised to address his fellow citizens sometime after the October election, when we would celebrate the victory achieved. The meeting was really the grandest affair ever witnessed in Harrisburg, and adjourned at a late hour with cheers for the Union, for the speakers, for the soldiers and for the soldiers wives.

GOV. SEYMOUR CHALLENGED TO A DISCUSSION.

Shortly after the arrival of Daniel Dough-Shortly after the arrival of Daniel Dougherty, Esq., it was ascertained that Gov. Seymour, of New York, was to address the copperheads of this city, and that they were creeting a stand for the speaker in Market Square. In order to have the issues pending before the American people properly discussed, he addressed the Governor as follows, Harrisburg, Sept. 7. 4½ o'clock a. m. Sir:—I have just arrived in town and learn that you are announced to speak this evening in front of the Buehler House. In your speech as published in the Age of yesterday, occurs the following passage: "I stand hefore you to night most terribly impressed with the magnitude of the great issues now to be tried before the august tribunal of the American peo-prompted by the deep convictions of my judgment." I, too, am an earnest man, "terribly impressed with the magnitude of the $3,456,105,062 great issues to be tried by the great-tribunal OrTHREE THOUSAND FIVE HUNDRED of the American people." I therefore suggest MILLIONS OF DOLLAR, to "produce good that we discuss these great issues this evening before the same audience. I cannot speak in the open air; and therefore invite you to meet me at the Court House--a spacious Hall (the largest in the city.) Please favor me with an immediate reply, in order that the requisite preliminaries be at once arranged.

I have the honor to be, with great respect, Your obedient servant, DANIEL DOUGHERTY.

Hon. HORATIO SEYMOUR, Harrisburg. The above letter was presented to Gov. Seymour by Joshua M. Wiestling, Esq., Secretary of the Dauphin County Union Commit-After considerable delay, Mr. Wiestling was enabled to deliver the letter of challenge to Gov. Seymour. That gentleman read the letter, and then, after a moment's hesitation, he said he thought it would be in bad taste to discuss the questions in the manner proposed, as he was a stranger in Harrisburg. To this the Secretary replied that Mr. Dougherty was also a stranger. The Governor remarked that the bearer of the letter could see that it was not in good taste, but he was politely in-formed that the question of "good taste" was raised by him and by him it must be settled. The Governor positively declined giving a written declination of the challenge.

A Democratic paper said on Saturday last: The first armistice has been asked by Gen. Sherman, and granted by Hood." This is a mistake. The first armistice was asked for by Gen Lee, and granted by Gen McClellan, after the battle of Antietam, under cover of which Lee escaped with his entire army across
