HARRISBURG, PA. WEDNESDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 12, 1864.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

The Maryland election on the question of adopting the new constitution, commenced to-day, and will be concluded to-morrow.

BURNED.—The barn of Robert Wiggins, of White township, Indiana county, was entirely consumed by fire on Tuesday night of last week.

BUCKWHEAT.—Our exchanges say that there will be an abundant crop of buckwheat throughout the State, and that it is out of danger from frosts. Good news!

THERE is nothing worthy of note concerning this morning's market. Prices have not changed since last week. There was an abundant supply of everything.

THERE is nothing worthy of note occurring in the city. The only topic of conversation is the election, and its probable result. Squads of men can be seen on the corners, all inquiring "What's the latest?"

HIDDEN TREASURES FOUND.—A young woman engaged in assorting rags in Shober's paper mill, at Eden, Lancaster county, found a rag containing fourteen silver half dollars. She was allowed to keep the money.

HORSE FAIR AND MULE RACE.—A horse fair will be held at Reading, Pa., commencing on the 19th and ending on the 21st of this month. Pacing and trotting races will take place on the first day, and trotting races on the second. On the last day premiums will be awarded. The wible will conclude with a mule race.

BRADMAN KILLED.—The Meadville Republican says: A brakeman on the Meadville and Great Western railroad, the named Mike Clark, of Vernon township fell from a freight car near this place on Wednesday night, and was killed. An inquest was held and a verdict of accidental death rendered.

VOTE OF THE GUARD HOUSE AT CAMP CURTIS.—The following is the vote among the deserters and bounty-jumpers in the Guard House of Camp Curtis, taken by order of the officer in command:

FATAL FALL.—About eight o'clock on Saturday night last a laborer on the Pittsburgh and Steubenville railroad, in attempting to cross an unfinished bridge over Robinson Run, on the elevated section, lost his balance and fell upon the rocks below. Besides being badly cut about the head, he was fatally injured internally. He died in a few hours. He was a Scotchman by birth, and his friends live in Canada. His name is John Kennedy.

Go to Brant's Hall to-night, and witness the thrilling play entitled Pizarro. It is one of the grandest pieces in the catalogue, and exceedingly interesting. Mr. Meeker will appear in his great character of Pizarro.

THE election is over, and the people anxiously await the returns. The Union voters have made a noble fight and have reason to feel that they were not beaten by the copperheads, whose entire forces are at home.

In our city the copperhead majority for Congressman is but 233, which is very small, considering the fact that hundreds of our loyal men are in the army. This majority will be greatly reduced if not entirely wiped out by the returns from the army.

The election passed off quietly. But few disturbances occurred, and they were caused by bad whisky. In the evening there was considerable noise on the streets. Large crowds assembled in and around the newspaper offices, and as the dispatches came in cheers were given by the parties to whom the news was favorable.

Our whole county ticket is elected by several hundred majority, on the home vote. The Union voters of Dauphin county have done well.

A COMPLIMENT TO A HARRISBURGER.—The Eastern Daily Express of the 10th inst., thus handsomely and justly alludes to a citizen of this city, who was engaged as one of the chief managers of the late State Agricultural Fair held in that place:

The officers of the State Agricultural Society closed their affairs in our borough last week, and we can now record that they left us satisfied with our people and their efforts to aid the society in its exhibition. Indeed, we ought to intensify our expressions of their satisfaction, for it was warm and heartfelt in its acknowledgments of the energy of our people, their courtesy and hospitality. And upon our part, we are sure that we express merely public opinion when we say that the affairs of the Society are managed by most competent and affable gentlemen.

Their genuine politeness and liberality must secure success for whatever enterprise they may be engaged in, and give pleasure to all who have any intercourse with them. We desire, however, to speak especially of one of these gentlemen, whose kindly, never failing patience and executive ability commanded the friendship and esteem of all who knew him.

No one, we are confident, ever lived in our midst so short a time, and left behind him so large a number of real, admiring friends, as General Williams. His position he filled with one of much responsibility, and his duties demanded the most delicate management and good judgment, and the display of artistic taste. How well he acquitted himself in the administration and pleasure of all who visited him sufficiently attest. Whatever position he may occupy in the future, we are sure that success and honor will follow him. And in these days of uncertain personal liberty, it should be our fate to become a "conscript," the round edge would be taken from the hardships could we fall under the command of the soldier and gentleman of whom we speak.

Bannart's Troches.

For the cure of Hoarseness, Throat Diseases, &c., are specially recommended to ministers, singers and persons whose vocation calls them to speak in public.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 26, 1864.

To O. A. Bannart.—Dear Sir: I have used Brown's Bronchial Troches, Wistar's Lozenges and other preparations for hoarseness and throat troubles, and in comparison with them all, can cheerfully commend your own as a most admirable specific for public speakers.

To O. A. Bannart.—Dear Sir: In the habit of speaking very frequently, and in places where the vocal organs are very much taxed, I have found the need of some gentle expectorant, and that want has been supplied in your excellent Troches.

To O. A. Bannart.—Dear Sir: Having used your Troches, I am free to say they are the best I have ever tried and take great pleasure in recommending them to all persons afflicted with sore throat or hoarseness of voice arising from public speaking or singing.

To O. A. Bannart.—Dear Sir: I have found your Troches to be invaluable in relieving hoarseness and in strengthening the muscles of the throat.
