HARRISBURG, PA.

FRIDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 14, 1864.

God and our Country!

AN OVATION TO VICTORY!

Lincoln, Johnson and the Government.

He is a Freeman whom the Truth Makes Free!

In compliance with a request made by many prominent citizens of Harrisburg, in a correspondence which has already been published, an oration discussing the leading issues involved in the great struggle now going on in the Southern States, for the triumph of Barbarism, Treason and Rebellion on the one side, and for Christianity, Civilization, Law and Peace on the other, will be delivered by the

Rev. J. WALKER JACKSON,

In the Court House, in the City of Harrisburg,

ON FRIDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 14.

All in favor of the freedom of speech—all opposed to the shacklinfi of the body or the mind in the chains of slavery—all in favor of the just rights of labor—all opposed to bartering in human flesh—all in favor of the policy of the National Administration to put an end to the Slaveholders' war, are invited to be present and thus testify their abhorrence for the treason of the Southern Nabob, as well as their defiance for the sympathies of the British Aristocrat.

The great object of this meeting is to celebrate with becoming respect and proper enthusiasm, the late signal and glorious triumph of Law and Order in Ohio, Indiana and Pennsylvania!

Seats will be reserved in the Bar of the Court Room for Ladies.

By Order of the Union County Committee.

JOHN J. SHOEMAKER, Chairman.

J. M. WIESTLING, Sec'y.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

A STATE LAW of Ohio entirely prohibits the sale oi liquors on election day. Would that we had a similar law in Pennsylvania.

DEATH CAUSED BY CHESTNUTS.—A man named Sykes, of White township, Indiana county, died on Sunday last, from the effects of eating freely of chestnuts on Saturday.

THE barracks occupied by the Invalid Corps, and located near the Cotton Factory, have received a coat of paint, and present a neat and attractive exterior. A few additional buildings are being erected. These barracks afford excellent quarters for our brave veterans.

THE sale of condemned ordnance and other materials belonging to the State of Pennsylvania, will take place at the Arsenal, in this city, on Tuesday next, 18th inst., at 10 o'clock. The stock consists of cannon, gun barrels, carriage axles, tires, hub rings, strap iron, &c.

IMPROVEMENTS.—New buildings are stil being erected in various portions of the city, for business places and residences. All who have the means should build a house, however small, and avoid the payment of high rents. "There is no place like home"—even though it be of the most humble character.

WEST HARRISBURG MARKET HOUSE.—This building is now under roof, and workmen are busily engaged in erecting and completing the stalls. When finished, the new market house will be far superior to those in Market Square, as it is larger, and the interior is being finished in the very best style.

SOCIAL BALL.—A social ball, under the management of officers of all the fire companies in the city, will be given at the Hope Engine House, on Thursday evening next, for the benefit of disabled firemen. This is a most worthy object, and should receive the patronage of those who delight in dancing.

BOY KILLED.—On Monday a boy named Cherry, aged nine yearsf was run over and instantly killed, by a railroad car, at Altoona He was standing on the bumper of a car, (a practice indulged in by many Harrisburg boys,) and, jumping from the train when in motion, fell upon a pile of cinder, rolled back upon the track, and was killed.

A GAME OF FISTICUFF.—A hand-to-hand fight took place between two colored "gemmen," in the lower end of the city, last evening, which resulted in one of them sustaining serious injury to his nasal appendage, and the other having his frontispiece considerably battered. A Dinah was the cause of the fracas.

GOD AND OUR COUNTRY!—A grand attraction is presented to our citizens for their entertainment this evening, on which occasion Rev. J. Walker Jackson will speak in the Court House. Rev. J. is one of the most eloquent orators in the country, and all who attend will hear the best address of the campaign. Turn out hear the truth.

IMPROVED RAILROAD CAR.—Mr. Edw. Burke, of Philadelphia, has invented an improvement in a railroad car, by which, in case of accident, all the car doors will be thrown open by a self-acting arrangement, which works as soon as a collision occurs. The car doors, in this arrangement, are on the sides of the cars, and a lever, running along the length of the car, opens each car as soon as the collision occurs. The design of the improvement is to prevent persons being burned to death in the cars when a fire occurs from collision.

Mr. EWING has again been making himself conspicuous in the upper end of the county. He made a speech in Jefferson township on last Saturday, in which he took occasion to abuse and vilify Mr. Jonathan Enterline, one of the most respectable, intelligent and peaceable citizens of that neighborhood. It appears that Mr. Enterline has been the enrolling and notifying officer of his township, and because he did his duty, he was made the subject of an outrageous abuse from a man who had neither patriotism or disposition to deal fairly and squarely with his fellow-men. It is those inflammatory speeches against the government, and government officials which is prolonging the war, and sacrificing the lives of our fellow citizens. Mr. Ewing has a perfect right to make Democratic speeches, but he has no right to abuse his government, vilify her officials in the honest discharge of their duties, or outrage the feelings of peaceable and inoffensive citizens.

THE return judges of this county met in the Court House, this morning, to add up the votes of the various townships, wards, boroughs, &c. The figures will be found in the official table published elsewhere in our columns.

SUBSCRIBERS to the bounty fund of the Third ward, in this city, will meet at the Franklin House on MONDAY Evening, the 17th of October, when the several committees will make their final reports.

WM. W. JENNINGS,
oc13deodtd] Pres't Third Ward Association.

THE 201ST REGIMENT.—A rumor has been current to-day, that the six companies of the 201st regiment in Virginia, were captured on Monday last. We have no confirmation of the rumor, but have received a letter from Co. I, dated Monday evening. We trust the report of the capture is without foundation.—The letter alluded to will be published to-morrow.

OYSTERS.—Our friend Evy, at his well known stand on Second street near Mulberry, is now prepared to supply his old customers with fresh and prime oysters, direct from the markets of Philadelphia, New York and Baltimore, at the old prices. He is determined to continue his trade for the accommodation of families, and only asks for a fair share of patronage. We can recommend Evy, and we are confident the people will sustain him. He has a fine lot of oysters now on hand.

SHAKSPEARE'S great tragedy of MACBETH will be performed at the Theatre, this evening, the occasion of Miss Kate Denin's benefit. That lady will appear as Lady Macbeth. Mr. Meeker, the talented tragedian, sustains his great character of Macbeth. Miss Fanny Denham will sing several songs, as Hecate. Macduff will be personated by Mr. Crossen, and Banquo by Mr. Alex. Fisher. Sam Ryan, Mr. Rouse and Mrs. Rainford will appear as the Witches. MACBETH has not been performed in Harrisburg for a number of years, and we know it will draw immensely. To obtain a comfortable seat it will be necessary to go early. In order to give due effect to this great tragedy, no other will be performed to-night.

In rehearsal—the great plays, SEA OF ICE; COLLEEN BAWN; POCAHONTAS, &c.

MAJOR HARRY WHITE, who was recently released by the rebels, reached his home in Indiana, Pa., on Friday last. The Register says, notwithstanding the many vicissitudes of his prison life, Major White looks tolerable well—a little thin in flesh—and is rapidly being invigorated by the healthful air of freedom, which he is once again permitted to breathe. Four different times, during his captivity, he made efforts to escape, but was foiled each time. Once he was at large some three weeks, eluding search, and had reached a point within twenty-five miles of Knoxville, when he was again caught. The Richmond authorities constantly imposed harsh treatment upon him—subjecting him to life in dungeons, and sickly places, without room for exercise, and without fire in winter.

The Middletown Journal, a neutral paper, speaks as follows, of the address delivered in that place, on Monday evening last, by our patriotic townsman, Rev. John Walker Jackson:

"THE NATIONAL UNION CLUB was addressed on Monday evening, by the Rev. J. Walker Jackson, of Harrisburg. The hall was crowded to overflowing, and the meeting was one of the most enthusiastic ever convened in this place. The speaker seemed to excell himself, and for two hours he held the large and intelligent audience completely spell-bound. In short, it was one of the most logical, able, interesting and truthful speeches ever delivered in Middletown. This is the expression of all who had the pleasure of hearing the great orator on Monday evening. Several pleasing, patriotic and very appropriate songs were sung, with a happy effect, before and after the address.

CLERGYMEN ON THE STUMP.—Several clergymen in this county, impelled by their honest convictions and by the very deep interest they feel in the welfare of the country, in this, the hour of its peril, have taken the stump and made earnest as well as effective addresses in behalf of the Union cause. They have not regarded this act as being partisan.—When the very life of the country is at stake, those who enrol themselves upon its side are not taking party ground. There can be but one party among honest men when the country is on one side and its enemies on the other. If it be partisan to stand for the country at such a time as this, what sort of a party must that be which is in opposition to it? In the days of the Revolution, clergymen were not ashamed to lift up their voices on the side of Liberty and Humanity, nor did Washington and his co-patriots scorn their aid. They were not abused and vilified for being patriotic, nor did the sturdy, upright soldiers of that day, with their high-toned sense of duty, regard them as being out of place in speaking and writing for the patriotic cause. And why should they be so regarded now, any more than then? There cannot be any reason for it except that there are more Tories now than then. Liberty and Humanity are as much at stake to-day as then. The issues involved in the present contest are as grave, and the results that hang on them as grand as any that impended then. The men of the Revolution were fighting to establish a country, we to maintain what they established; and except that our appeal in this home struggle is to ballots, while theirs was to bullets, there is no difference in the broad, non-partisan and purely patriotic character of its objects. But the clergyman does not lose his civil rights in becoming a clergyman. He is still a voter, and has all the rights as well as responsibilities of a voter. Nay, more; having a weighty influence from his position, as such, is he not bound as a Christian man, to wield that influence for the Right, for Liberty, for God and for Humanity, and make himself a living example to those who naturally look to him at such a time as this? The abuse and vilification heaped upon these men the gross and brutal assaults made upon them, and the coarse, ruffianly epithets hurled at them, are meant but to deter them from pursuing the course they have begun. The leaders of the copperheads are fully aware of the immense moral weight of the influence of the clergy, and that their appearance at the hustings at such a time is evidence that the moral sense of the community is upon the side of the Union. Hence they have nothing for it but to try and break down this immense weight by exhausting the vocabulary of Billingsgate in abusing and denouncing those who use it. Perhaps those of us who have been so long in the political ring as to become callous to abuse of all kinds, have paid less attention to this filthy out-pouring than it demanded. We know how hard, to sensitive men, it is to bear. But after all, it is best to pay no attention to it. Men cannot fight with skunks. The only alternative is to avoid them. Their nasty odor will offend the nostrils of all who come within smelling distance of them; but we have never heard any remedy for it. It is a nuisance, but cannot be abated by any attack upon the filthy creatures themselves. Everybody knows that the moral character of the clergymen referred to is above reproach.—There is not a stain upon their names, nor can any respectable man be made believe aught against their reputations as high-minded, honorable, upright men.

Dr. Rand's Specific.

The oldest and most reliable medicine for the cure of Spermaorhœa, Seminal Weakness, Loss of Power, &c. This medicine has stood the test of over thirty years, and has always proved a success.

Dr. RAND'S SPECIFIC is exhibited in the form of pills, made up entirely of substances that have a specific effect upon the generative organs. Most persons associate the idea of operations upon the bowels from taking any kind of pills. The SPECIFIC of Dr. Rand is not intended as an evacuating medicine. Its medicinal virtues are expended entirely upon the impaired regenerative organs. The pills are not unpleasant to the taste, and many persons masticate them with impunity before swallowing them; which plan we would always recommend, as affording the speediest way to get the effect of the remedy.

Price $1 per box, or six boxes for $5. Sold by druggists everywhere.

Read the following testimonials from some of our eminent clergymen:

HARRISBURG, Feb. 8th, 1864.

C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir: I have used Brown's Bronchial Troches, Wistar's Lozenges and other preparations for hoarseness and throat troubles, and in comparison with them all, can cheerfully commend your town as a most admirable specific for public speakers and singers, in cases of hoarseness, coughs and colds. I have found them serving in times of need, most effectually.

Yours truly, T. H. ROBINSON,
Pastor of N. S. Presbyterian Church.

☞ I agree with Mr. Robinson as to the value of Bannvart's Troches.

W. C. CATTELL,
Late Pastor of O. S. Presbyterian Church.

HARRISBURG, Jan., 1864.

To C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir: In the habit of speaking very frequently, and in places where the vocal organs are very much taxed, I have found the need of some gentle expectorant, and that want has been supplied in your excellent Troches.

I consider them very far superior to any Lozenges that I have ever used, in removing speedily that huskiness of the voice arising from its too frequent use, and impairing the effectiveness of the delivery of public addresses. Yours, &c.,

JNO. WALKER JACKSON.
Pastor of the Locust St. Methodist Church.

To C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir: Having used your Troches, I am free to say they are the best I have ever tried and take great pleasure in recommending them to all persons afflicted with sore throat or huskiness of voice arising from public speaking or singing.

Yours, &c., G. G. RAKESTRAW,
Pastor of Ridge Avenue Methodist Church.

FOR BEAUTIFYING AND PRESERVING AND STRENGTHENING THE HAIR,

IS PURELY A VEGETABLE Preparation, distilled from herbs and fragrant flowers from the south of France; conceded to be the most delicately perfumed and desirable hair preparation ever offered to the American public. It will restore lost hair. It will prevent hair from falling out. It will restore gray and faded hair to its original color. Its continued use will materially thicken the hair.
