HARRISBURG, PA.

FRIDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 21, 1864.

OF TENNESSEE.

The Soldiers' Vote. The following is the official vote returned at the office of the Secretary of State, of the vote in the army:

Union majority..... 10,277

The Victory in Pennsylvania.

It astonishes us that the rebel organs have the effrontery to claim a partial victory on the result of the late Pennsylvania election. They seem determined to keep their' readers in total ignorance, and hence proclaim, daily, that a majority of the people of Pennsylvania sympathize with rebellion, and have declared an opposition at the ballot-box to any further prosecution of the war. Now let us examine the result ; an examination which will carry every candid reader to the following conclusions :

1st. The Union men have twelve members in the present Congress. The result of the recent elections positively establishes that sixtren, if not eighteen Union men will occupy seats in the next Congress. The copperheads have elected only six of their obnoxious Congressional candidates. Is this not a GAIN of FOUR or SIX members of Congress?

2d. In the State Senate the Union men had but ONE majority last year, but in the next organization of the Senate that party will have at least a majority of FIVE. Is this a Copperhead gain?

3d. The Union men had SIX majority in the last House of Representatives. In the organization of the next flouse they will have at least TWENTY majority. Is this another Copperhead gain? We can't see it in that light.

4th. The copperheads claim a majority on the popular vote in Congress. How does this stand the test of truth? We have the official returns from all the counties in the State except Forest, Jefferson, Mercer, Venango and York, and estimating these the same as they voted last year, the Union majority is still 1,962. To this must be added a majority of at least 15,000, given by the soldiers. This will give us a larger Union majority than we had last year for Gov. Curtin. The talk about the home vote is mere pretext, partaking of that shallow sophistry which always distinguishes the Democratic party in defeat. Our soldiers are at home everywhere when battling beneath the flag of their country. To them the battle-field is a home, around which cluster more honorable memories than those which cling to the palaces of such speculators in the nation's honor, glory and credit, as the Jew Belmont. The right of the soldier to express his political opinions and preferences through the ballot-box, has become the most sacred of all the franchises with which the citizen, defending the honor of his country, grand privilege, the soldier is under no obligation to the demagogues who now oppose

The Last Lie of the Enemics of the Gov-ernment Exposed. A day or two since, this entire community was aroused to indignation by the appearance of an article in the opposition journal published here, containing the grossest, foulest, falsest and most cowardly attack upon the President of the United States. The attack was conducted under the cover of a confession alleged to have been made by a sister-inlaw of Mr. Lincoln; and constituted the most brutal and unmanly invasion of the sacred precincts of domestic life-seeking the pollution of the blood of a virtuous wife and mother, while it attempted the degradation of the private character of the Chief Magistrate of the nation. The object of this assault was not the vindication of virtue. The attack on Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln was not made to promote the morals of the nation. It was merely one of those tricks peculiar to the Democratic leaders, to gain votes at an election. God save the land from the rule of such desperate villains, alike the defamers of the Government and those representing its just author-

The following affadavit explodes the fabrica tion of the Patrict and Union. Mrs. Todd was the authority used for the foul aspersion of the character of Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln. Now read the truth, under the solemn obligation of an oath, from Mrs. Todd herself:

City of Harrisburg, Dauphiu county, State of Pennsylvania: Personally appeared before me, an Alderman in and for said city, this twentieth day of October, 1864, Mrs. Mary Ann Todd, widow of John Todd, deceased, and deposes as fol lows: I have read the article in the Patiot and Union, date of 19th October, 1864, headed 'A Chapter for Abe Lincoln's History," and hereunto annexed; some of the statements I made to the reporter of the paper, who drew them from me by questions, but the majority of the statements ascribed to me are the invention of the writer.

All of the statements, both my own and those of the writer are utterly and entirely her false. MARY MANN TODD.

mark. Sworn and subscribed, October 20th, 1864,

M. S. BOWER, Alderman. before We have no comment to offer on this affair, so far as the assailants of Mr. and Mrs Lincoln are concerned. By this whole business, the community can hereafter estimate the character of the men who now control the columns of the Patriot and Union. It exhibits the desperation of bad men engaged in an unholy cause, and only needed this to prove of personal honor and political fairness. We considered it a desperate game when the at tempt was started to elect George B. McClellan President of the United States, by a direct attack on the integrity of the Government; but we leave the people to decide how much more desperate that cause must be which depends for its success, by direct libels on the good names and virtue of a father and mother—a husband and wife.

-As many of our readers have expressed a desire to see the article alluded to above, we have transferred it to our columns to-day. that the public may thereby have an oppor tunity of sounding the depths of Copperhead depravity and desperation by its perusal. Henceforth billingsgate will be most emphatically recognized in copperheadism

Look to Your Government Securities. Mr. Augustus Belmont, the Chairman of the Democratic National Committee, is the agent and banker in the employ of almost all the millionare aristocratic representatives of the ruling factions in the old world. These ariscan be invested. For the enjoyment of this tocrats have all invested largely in confederate securities. The investments were made, first, as a matter of profit. the traitors offering t most unheard of rates of interest, and second as a matter of pride, the aristocracy of the old world desiring the success of the slaveholders' rebellion in order to explode the the late elections in Pennsylvania, Ohio and democratic doctrine of man's ability for self-Indiana, and will meet a like, if not a more government. Belmont, while he acts as Chairman of the Democratic National Committee, is only serving his European masters. If he can secure the success of what is called "Northern Democracy,"Belmont promotes the value of Southern securities. All the European friends of the Southern Confederacy now acknowledge that in order to promote the triumph of the slave-holders, it is only necessary to secure the success of the Democratic party. That party is pledged to the recognition of the Southern Confederacy, and when that is accomplished, Belmont and his European friends will reap a rich financial harvest. It may be well also to state, that Mr. Belmont, although the controller of millions of floating capital, has not invested a dollar in the loans of the Government, made necessary to secure the overthrow of rebellion. He appreciated his relations with the foreign abetters of treason. and was aware that his European employers would call on him to assist in destroying the national Union and Government. Hence his caution in refusing to invest in Federal securities. Hence, too, his alacrity in aiding the cause of rebellion to secure the investments

THE "THREE GEOBGES" AT HOME. - Speaking of the tremendous laying out which the three Georges got in Cincinnati last Tuesday-Pendleton's district, which he has represented for years, going against him, in the person of his brother "George" E. Pugh, 1,700 on the home vote, and about 4,000 with the soldiers, and Long's district slaughtering him to the tune of 2,300, to be made 5,000 by the seldiers-the Cincinnati Gazette says: When we come to reflect upon these facts, then we come to releve upon these facts, it is not surprising that the eastern papers attach so much importance to the victory in Hamilton county. We have wiped out our Congressional disgrace; killed one of the 'Georges," and wounded another of the "three" very severely. And when we come to think of it, the other "George" was also a resident of our city, and if our friends abroad choose, they may consider the 9,000 Union majority, as the opinion of our people of George B. M'Clellan. We are good for 9,000 in November, toward finishing up the "three Georges.

PARSON BROWNLOW says that half the slaveholders of Tennessee are for Lincoln, not because they approve of all his acts, but because they consider him the man to put down the rebellion; and that those who are for M'Clellan there are traitors at heart, who do not want the rebellion put down.

PUTTING IT BACK .- The Chicago Convention struck out of Washington Hunt's resolution the clause, "insisting on maintaining the national unity." Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana have voted to put that back.

VALLANDIGHAM, as Commander-in-Chief of the Western conspirators, was simply per forming the functions of his office when he took command of the Chicago Convention.

ST. ALBANS, Oct. 20, 4 P. M.

Captain Conger's party have returned, and report they caught the leader of the raiders at Stanbridge, and recovered one hundred thousand dollars, in addition to fifty thousand dollars recovered this morning. The Canadian authorities are still after the villains, and there is a good prospect of the capture of the whole gang. The Governor General of Canada has telegraphed that he will respond to a requisition from the United Government for the surrender of the States robbers already arrested, and such as may hereafter be arrested. The St. Albans Bank lost seventy-five thousand dollars; the Franklin County Bank, eighty-five thousand dol-lars, and the First National Bank, fifty-four thousand dollars.

QUEBEC, Oct. 21.—Information of the out-rage at St. Albans was communicated to the Government yesterday, and a number of detectives and a body of troops were at once despatched to the frontier with orders to ar rest the parties at all hazards. The Government is fully determined to use every possible means to put a stop to such abuses of Canadian hospitality. If the op-portunity is afforded, an example will be furnished, to prevent similar attempts in the fu-The police are on the track of the ture. bank robbers.

CAIRO, Oct. 20. The steamer Nannie Birch, from Memphis, has passed up. Business, which was entirely suspended at Memphis, has been resumed. The militia are disbanded, as the danger is believed to be over. It is the opinion at headquarters that the rebels have no intention of attacking Memphis. Their design was to cover the march of troops into Kentucky. No rebel force is within five miles of the city. The last heard of Chalmers, he was south of Hernando, retreating towards the swamps of Tallahatchie. Forrest was en route for Meridian with his prisoners.

An Important Decision by the Provost Marshal General. WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.

Provost Marshal General Fry, in a letter to the Mayor of Washington, says credit will be allowed only for such men as are obtained by the draft. Persons who are drawn and fail to report, are not considered by the law officers of the Government, nor by the Provost Marshal General's Bureau, as obtained in the meaning of the law. They will not therefore be credited unless they shall be subsequently ar-rested and held to service. In view of the decision some of our prominent citizens have taken measures to discover the whereabouts of those who have failed to report, offering a reward of fifty dollars for every such drafted man who may be traught and held to service. According to Gen. Fry's decision, it would appear that citizens are held responsible for drafted absentees.

the re-election of Abraham Lincoln.

-But we have neither the time nor the in clination to multiply words on this subject. The copperheads were completely routed at terrible defeat, at the November election, in every loyal State in the Union.

THE RESOURCES OF PENNSYLVANIA .- Perhaps in no State of the Union, have the resources thereof been more largely developed, than in Pennsylvania. In several of the southern counties, cotton has been successfully cultivated on a small scale, while the growing of tobacco has been made one of the principal crops of the farmer. Indeed the importance of tobacco planting has now become of the first character, and its harvest a matter of great importance. We now observe that in Cambria, Somerset and the adjoining counties, a good quality of Tar is being manufactured from the knots of the pitch pine. The manufacture of this substitute for North Carolina tar is carried on quite extensively, and has already considerably depreciated the price of the latter article. The tar thus produced answers nearly all the requisites as a substitute, for the original article.

ALL the old Know-Nothing leaders-those men who used to cry "No Popery" with such zest, and who demanded an extension of the period of naturalization to 21 years-now belong to the Copperhead organization. In the ranks of the Chicago party are Morris Ketchum. James Brooks, Erastus Brooks, Leslie Coombs, Millard Fillmore, Washington Hunt, William Duer, Robert C. Winthrop, and the whole clan of so-called "Native Americans." And yet there are thousands of Irish Catholics who intend to vote for the ticket concocted by the very individuals who have spent their lives in heaping abuse upon them and their religion.

JOHN C. KUNKEL, ESQ., of this city, is announced to speak in Indiana, on the 4th of November, at a grand Union Mass Meeting. We can safely promise our Indiana friends a speech of great power and eloquence, as Mr. K, is one of the favorite orators of the country,

THERE are many remarkable instances of defective memory, but the most remarkable on record is that of Gen. M'Clellan, who "does not remember" whether he was on shore or on the river while the battle of Malvern Hill was being fought !

of his foreign employers. -The American holders of American securities can, of course, appreciate Mr. Belmont's attitude and conduct in these premises. We submit these facts to every bondholder, without further comment.

McCLELLAN'S SELF-CONTROL.-An exchange quoting the declaration of the opposition journals that General McClellan has perfect self-control, remarks: "We never heard of his losing his temper but once, and that was when Colonel Metcalf, of Kentucky, told him that his friend Jeff Davis was not a gentleman. That put him in a great rage."

THE Copperheads complain that the Administration influence is used against them. But they certainly should not complain at that, inasmuch as the influence of the rebel 121a administration is used for them. Every one 142chelps his friends.

149t VICTORY can only be lost by going to the 150t rear. Let every man continue at his post, and hard at work. So shall Rebeldom and Copperheadism be ours, and fairly won. Confidence must not beget apathy.

it. Gen. U. S. Grant, City Point;

We have again been favored by a great vic tory-a victory won from disaster, by the gallantry of our officers and men.

The attack on the enemy was made about 3 o'clock, P. M., by a left half wheel of the whole line, with a division of cavalry turning each flank of the enemy, the whole line advancing.

The enemy, after a stubborn resistance, broke and fied, and were pursued with vigor. The artillery captured will probably be over 50 pieces. This, of course, includes what were captured from our troops in the morning. At least sixteen hundred prisoners have been brought in also wagons and ambu lances in large numbers.

This morning the cavalry made a dash at Fisher's Hill and carried it, the enemy having fled during the night, leaving only a small rear guard.

I have to regret the loss of many valuable officees, killed and wounded, among them Col. Joseph Thorburn, commanding a division of Crook's command, killed; Col. J. Howard Litchen, commanding a brigade, wounded; Col. R. G. M. Lusie, commanding a brigade, wounded severely, but would not leave the field.

I cannot yet give exact details. Many of our men captured in the morning have made their escape and are coming in.

Ramseur, commanding a division in Early's corps, died this morning (Signed) P. H. SHERIDAN, (Signed) P. H. Snithanding. Major General Commanding. Gen. Grant's appreciation of the victory is expressed in the following dispatch:

each of the armies here, fired in honor of Sheridan's last victory. Turning what had bid fair to be a disaster into a glorious vic-tory, stamps Sheridan what I have always thought him-one of the ablest of generals. (Signed) U. S. GRANT, (Signed) Lieutenant General
