It will afford an opportunity to per sons of moderate means, especially, to pre-serve their earnings, and have them safely invested, at the highest rate of interest.

RESPECT FOR THE MEMORY OF GEN. BIRNEY

-Yesterday morning Mr. Stees, Superintend-ent of Public Grounds and Buildings, placed the flag at half-mast over the Capitol, in re-spect for the death of the gallant Gen. Birney. At twelve o'clock, when the news of Sheridan's gallant victory in the valley, reached the city the flag was raised to its full height, in ac knowledgement of "Little Phil's" wonderful achievement. By an official order of Major General Couch, commanding the Department of the Susquehanna, the flags in the different camps and and public buildings throughout his department were again displayed at half-mast in token of respect for the memory of General Birner General Birney.

IMMENSE ATTRACTION.—That thrilling yet beautiful drama by Bourdrault, entitled THE COLLEEN BAWN, or The Brides of Gary-owen, will be performed at the Theatre to-night, for the first time this season. street, sole agents for the State. We learn, moreover, that the causes which led to this resignation are briefly these: Mr. Wallace, who is a patriot as well as a minisas Father 10m, Miss Fanny Denham as Annic Chute. Among the scenes will be exhibited the Lake by Moonlight, $2e Signal Light, Gap of Danloe, Water Cave by Moonlight &c. Eily O'Connor will sing; the songs, "The Pretty Girl Milking her Cow," and "The Court of the success of the Union arms, and for the speedy suppression of the rebel-lion. He probably, in his sermons, also ad-verted, in a patriotic manner, to the progress of our cause, but of this we are not certain. This procedure, it appears, gave mortal of-fence to the members of the Church Session, all, or a majority of whom, are violent Copall, or a majority of whom, are violent Cop-perheads, and sympathize strongly with the South. Accordingly, the Rev. gentleman was waited upon, and requested to resign, which he, rather than sacrifice his patriotic princi-ples and conscience scruples, at once com-plied with. Whether the members of the congregation approve of the action of the Sacrifice we have not hered Session, we have not heard. We have indeed "fallen upon evil times," when in the free and enlightened North, in the midst of a wicked rebellion, inaugurated for the perpetuation of a heinous sin, that a Christian minister, in the sacred desk, is for bid, by professedly Christian men, from imploring the most High to crown the Union arms with victory, and to crush this insane rebellion. But we forbear commenting any further, believing that a Christian and patriotic people will frown indignantly upon this petty specimen of dictation and tyranny. We might through one of the employees of this office, that Abraham Lincoln had a sister-in-law living in Abraham Lincoln had a sister-in-law living in this city. Our curiosity was aroused by the dis-covery and we paid the lady a visit, just to see what a branch of the Royal family looked like. We found her living in humble circumstances, and apparently an amiable and pious lady, submitting to the cruel decrees of fate with true Christian fortitude and resignation. She is the widow of John Todd, the brother of Mrs. Lincoln, and has three children by him to care for, one boy and two girls. Her famil-iarity with the history of both the Lincoln and Todd family induced us to put more interrogatories than was perhaps prudent, though she answered them willingly and readily, making due allowance for that reticence, which modesty dictated. It is evident from the manner of the lady, that she has seen better days in years gone by. In regard to Abraham, she informed us that In regard to Abraham, she informed us that she was well (acquainted with him in his younger days, that she had bestowed many kindnesses on him when he was yet splitting rails, that she gave him many a dinner, and added naively, and many a pint of whisky.-About the time he was to be married to Miss store of Freedman, and some money passed between the parties, the witness obtaining S25. A DESPERATE LEAP .- A man named Joseph Sheats, a notorious bounty jumper, (of Pitts-burg,) belonging to Company A, 2d Pennsylvania cavalry, was arrested on the 14th, turned over to the proper authorities to be forwarded. On the following day he was sent off, heavily ironed, in charge of a sergeant. While the train was nearing Harrisburg, in full motion, he succeeded in jumping off, but received injuries, which will in all probability prove fatal. He was picked up in a senseless condition by some citizens, who immediately telegraphed information of the fact to this city, and the sergeant, upon arriving here immediately returned to the place where the leap was made, secured Sheats, and brought him to Harrisburg. He is in a critical condition.

THE LATE ROBBERY OF EPPLEY & Co's STORE. -Hearing of a Jew who Received the Goods .-The following, taken from the Philadelphia Press, gives an account of a hearing that took it the odd one found in Freedman's store was identified. We give the Press article in full :

Nathan Freedman was arraigned at the Central Station yesterday on the charge of re-ceiving stolen goods. This is a somewhat complicated case, and it should be stated that the material evidence is derived from thieves. The defendant keeps a spice store on North Third street. It seems that about the middle of September the store of Messrs. D. Eppley & Co., on Market Square, Harrisburg, Pa, was robbed of alpaca, silk, linen, shawls, silk handkerchiefs, cravats &c., to the value of $3.000

At the hearing yesterday the following light was thrown upon the subject: John W. Shultz, a colored man, testified that about three weeks ago some men came to him with a horse and wagon; he went with them to a place on the Pennsylvania Railroad, a short distance above Pennsylvania Railroad, a short distance above the Wire Bridge, where these bundles were picked up; these bundles contained such goods as had been stolen from the store of Messrs. Eppley & Co.; these bundles were taken; to the These were of the same peculiar make as those stolen from the store at Harrisburg.

Conrad Emerick, who lives opposite Freedman's, testified that about three weeks since he saw a white horse and wagon standing in front of the spice store of Mr. F., and saw three bundles carried into that place. What they contained he could not say.

stands pre-eminent. He travels about the streets wan and woe-begone, as though he had one foot in the grave, and the other upon the brink. Is it any wonder, that a man so afflicted by bodily ailment should become correspondingly depressed in mind, soured in temper, and indifferent to pursuits of busi-ness or pleasure? This is according to the everlasting fitness of things—the ordeal of Dr. McBride's KING OF PAIN-we have the documents to prove that some of the worst cases have been cured in this city, and what has been done can be done again. FEVER AND AGUE can be cured. Do not FEVER AND AGUE can be cured. Do not think because you have tried everything you could read or hear of, that you cannot get anything to cure you, for you have not taken the pupe vegetable that is curing every one that takes 1. It does not stop your shaking for a week or two, bat it is a perfect cure. A trial of this will convince you and your neigh-bors. It can be had only at No. 27, South Pine street, by Mrs. L. Ball. oct17-tf

A COLLECTION of Sacred and Secular Choruses from Oratorios, Operas, and popular Giee and Chorus books, designed as a Standard Book for Choirs, Musical Societtes, Conventions and Schools, and containing the most desirable pieces for private practice and qubile performance. This new compilation will prove highly acceptable to Choirs, Musical Societies and Conventions that require, in a compact and convenient form, the very best vocal com-position for private practice or public performance. Aside from the fact of getting rid of the great inconvenience of being obliged to turn to a large number of volumes, the low price at which the best and most popular pieces of half a dozen or more costly books are here furnished, will recommend the Chorus Wreath to the musical public as a valuable work within the reach of every one. It is destined to become the most popular collection of choruses published. itted to enjoy life, the victim of dyspepsia THE undersigned having taken the above Shop, respectfully solicits a share of the public pa-Particular attention will be paid to repairing of Steam Engines, and all kinds of machinery.
