WEST LONDONDERRY—Place of Election.

Also, section 1 and 2, page 1, pamphlet laws, approved April 18, 1863, and section 1, page 1, pamphlet laws, of the township of Londonderry, in the county of Dauphin, formerly embraced in the Portsmouth election district, together with such other citizens of said township reading west of the public road leading from Port Royal, and all other townships, shall thereafter hold their general and special elections at the house of Christian Neff, in said township.

Sec. 3. That said district shall hereafter be known as West Londonderry election district.

BUSH TOWNSHIP—Place of Election.

Whereas, the place of holding the election in the townships of Bush, and of the New School House, number three in said township; and whereas, there is no such School house, therefore—Section 1. It is enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted, that the election for the general and township elections of Bush Township, Dauphin County, shall be held at the house belonging to the estate of the late John McAllister, deceased, now occupied by David Riesel. Page 83 pamphlet laws, 1863.

Also, that in the fourth section of the act of Assembly, entitled "An ACT relating to elections, and for other purposes," approved April 18, 1863, it is enacted that the election for the state assembly, shall be held to prevent any militia officer or borbor officer from serving as judge, inspector or clerk at any general or special election.

Also, that in the general and special election, it is enacted that the election for the state assembly, shall be held between the hours of eight and ten in the forenoon, and shall continue without interruption or adjournment until seven o'clock in the evening, when the polls shall be closed.

No person shall be permitted to vote at the election, as aforesaid, but at his friends the age of twenty-one years or more, who shall have resided in this State at least one year, and in the election district where he offers to vote at least ten days immediately preceding such election, and two years paid a state or county tax, while he has been a resident of the same for at least six months, and to whom the law affords protection, or otherwise, a subordinate officer, or agent, who is or shall be employed under the legislative, judiciary, or executive department of this State or the United States, or of any city or incorporated district, and also, that every member of Congress and the State Legislature, and of the General Assembly, and of the State Board of Education, in any incorporated district, is by law incapable of holding or exercising at the same time the office or appointment of judge, inspector or clerk of any election of this Commonwealth, or any inspector or judge, or other officer, at such election, shall be eligible to any office then to be voted for.

Also, that in the fourth section of the act of Assembly, entitled "An ACT relating to elections, and for other purposes," approved April 18, 1863, it is enacted that the election for the state assembly, shall be held to prevent any militia officer or borbor officer from serving as judge, inspector or clerk at any general or special election.

Also, that in the general and special election, it is enacted that the election for the state assembly, shall be held between the hours of eight and ten in the forenoon, and shall continue without interruption or adjournment until seven o'clock in the evening, when the polls shall be closed.

No person shall be permitted to vote at the election, as aforesaid, but at his friends the age of twenty-one years or more, who shall have resided in this State at least one year, and in the election district where he offers to vote at least ten days immediately preceding such election, and two years paid a state or county tax, while he has been a resident of the same for at least six months, and to whom the law affords protection, or otherwise, a subordinate officer, or agent, who is or shall be employed under the legislative, judiciary, or executive department of this State or the United States, or of any city or incorporated district, and also, that every member of Congress and the State Legislature, and of the General Assembly, and of the State Board of Education, in any incorporated district, is by law incapable of holding or exercising at the same time the office or appointment of judge, inspector or clerk of any election of this Commonwealth."

Also, that in the general and special election, it is enacted that the election for the state assembly, shall be held between the hours of eight and ten in the forenoon, and shall continue without interruption or adjournment until seven o'clock in the evening, when the polls shall be closed.
