Government Houses.—A number of con-demned Government horses will be sold at York, on the 27th. Some of these horses, sold heretofore, have proved valuable stock. Mr. A. E. Kapp, of Northumberland, purchased one at a sale in this city, a year or more since, for $90, and afterwards sold him for $300. He proved to be one of the fastest trotters, but he was vicious and unsafe, and Mr. Kapp parted with him. His present owner, we understand, has refused $4,000 for PETROLEUM .-- We have information which induces us again to direct the attention of our citizens to the valuable oil stocks now being disposed of by our friend, Major J. R. Muffly. We are aware that cautious capitalists are indisposed to invest in a species of stock in which there has been so much deception practiced, but we can assure our citizens that the companies which Major Muffly represents are safe and reliable, and conducted by the most substantial and responsible business men of the city of Philadelphia. The lands of both companies are situated in Venango county, Pa. and Wirt county, West Virginia, and are not only extensive, but among the most valuable in those localities. Both are now yielding largely of oil of a most superior quality, and in such quantities as warrant the assertion that there are no more valuable or desirable stocks in which—the "Weare well"—has produced as much as 500 barrels per day, while the Burn-ING SPRING COMPANY has in operation seven paying wells, and both are making rapid and further developments, which can scarcely fail to make them the richest companies in the country. We would advise all those desiring to invest, to call at the office of Robert Snodgrass, Esq., North Third street, or address box 120, Harrisburg, Pa., inasmuch as the amount of stock to be disposed of is limited.

ATTEMPT TO CARRY A FUGITIVE SLAVE BACK TO SLAVERY—Two Respectable Ladies of Harrisburg Acting as Slave Hunters.—We have just had communicated to us the facts of a conspiracy to carry back to slavery a poor defenceless female, who had been honestly earning her living in this city for some time, and who is regarded by all who know her, as a decent and virtuous girl. It appears that two sisters reached this city, some time ago, as fugitive slaves from the State of Maryland. They sought service and found it is respecta-ble families in the city. The gentleman with whom the girl lived, who was thus attempted to be abducted, has given us the main facts of this outrageous case. He writes that the girl, Martha Jones, was entired by false pretences to the residence of one of the ladies engaged in this disgraceful affair, where she was locked up in a room until train time—the object being to carry her over the Cumberland Valley Railroad, back to slavery, in Maryland. Her sister, in the meantime, found it out, when she called at the house where Martha was held as a captive, where she was informed by one of the aforesaid ladies that she had gone up street, but the truth was that Martha was confined in a room in the house aforesaid. When these ladies imagined that the way was clear, they conducted the trembling fugitive through the alleys of Harrisburg, calculating to reach the railroad just as the Cumberland Valley train would start. In the meantime, however, Martha's sister, with a number of friends, had stationed themselves at the depot, waiting the approach of the party of negro stealers. When the ladies made their appearance with the poor girl, Martha discovered her sister, who at once interposed to prevent her from being forced into the cars. The ladies (God save the mark!) almost fought desperately to force Martha on the train, but the poor girl struggled, her sister and her friends came gallantly to the rescue, and slavery to-day, in Martha Jones, is one less of its victims in this land of

We have barely given the facts of this case, and these can be relied upon as substantially true. If the proper officers are desirous of pushing this matter to its proper end, we are prepared to give the name of our informant, and that informant is ready and willing to testand that informant is ready and willing to testand the ladies whether stand shawed tify against the ladies who thus stand charged with having violated the fugitive slave law. The circumstances connected with this case The circumstances connected with this case are too outrageous—the parties who thus boldly attempted to abduct this poor girl too respectable not to have known what they were about—and therefore we demand, in the name of Justice and the Right, Freedom and Religion, that they be at once proceeded scaning by the manual level officers. against by the proper legal officers.

A FREAK IN NATURE. On the 12th ult., a on of Mr. Samuel Koehler, of Hanover, says the Allentown Democrat, killed a large rattlesnake, about as thick as a man's arm, which on its dying throes brought forth twenty young ones, measuring seven inches in length, one of which had two distinct and well developed heads, forming a fork in the rear of the NATURALIZING DISCHARGED SOLDIERS. -- It does not seem to be generally known that in the year 1862 an important amendment ade to the naturalization laws of the United States, by which an alien of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, who had enlisted, or might thereafter enlist in the armies of the United States, either in the regular or volunteer forces, may become a citizen by virtue of his service. The act was passed July 17, 1862. It secures to any alien who has been a soldier and has been honorably discharged, the right of citizenship upon his own petition, without a previous declaration of intentions. He must prove that he has resided in the United States one year before his application, and also prove his good moral character in the ordinary manner, and must also produce proof that he has been honorably displaced. bly discharged. There are many aliens who have been in service and whose time has expired, to whom this privilege will apply, and it is as well that the terms of the law should be generally understood.

This contains numerous views of the country along the great Father of Waters, painted from actual sketches taken by the artist, Mr. L. W. How a Captain was Converted .- At a social gathering night before last, says the Chat-tanooga Gazette of October 13, during the evening Capt. Sutherland, Assistant Adjutant General, formerly of Gen. Steedman's staff, captured during Stoneman's raid, and recently exchanged, was present, and was toasted, and made a happy response. We regret that every soldier in the army, and every patriot in the land, could not have listened to his remarks. Captain Sutherland, before his capture, was well known as a warm and earnest M'Clellan man. In the remarks alluded to, he mentioned this fact; said that he had changed base in this particular. He was now for Lincoln, because, during his imprisonment, his guards at Charleston, and every rebel he met, with one exception, learning that he was a Democrat, electioneered with him for M'Clellan. That exception stole an opportunity to whisper in his ear that the South was only holding out in hopes of Lincoln's defeat, and assured him that if Lincoln was elected the war would instantly end and unconditionally cease, as the South would then see that resistance was no longer practicable. Captain Sutherland declares that he never could nor never would vote for any man at the request of armed traitors.

One of the Philadelphia papers gives the following interesting account of the closing scenes in the life of Gen. D. B. Birney, who died at his home in that city, a few days

THE LAST ACT OF LOYALTY. General Birney reached his home in this city on the 11th instant, the day of the State election; and notwithstanding his extreme physical prostration, he insisted upon being taken to the polls and casting his vote in the contest. To this point he was conveyed in contest. To this point he was conveyed in his carriage, and supported by two of his aids who had accompanied him from the army, he stepped up to the polls, and there deposited his vote for the country that he had so long and honorably served. How sublime the act! for even at that time the stamp of death was impressed upon the brow of the warrior.

HIS LAST WORDS. During the progress of the insidious and ady which was the cause of the death of Gen. Birney, he was frequently delirious. During these moments, when reason was temporarily unseated, he constantly was under the hally cination that he was still in the field at the head of the proud legions that he had led so often to victory. He was frequently hearl to exclaim by the abxious watchers at his led-side:—"Bring up the guns;" "Advance on the left;" and other military orders, the counterpart of those issued on the batlefield. His last words spoken in the delirim that preceded his death were, "Boys, keep your eyes on the flag!" Thus the brave lol-dier "kept the bird in his bosom" to his dyng

Renove and Emporium

TOWN LOTS FOR SALE THE PHILADELPHIA AND ERIE LAND COMPANY, chartered by an act of the Legislature of Pennaylvania, offers for sale choice lots for dwellings and business purposes in the above new towns on the line of the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad.

RENOVO has been selected as the site for the extensive shops for building and repairing the rolling stock of the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad, of which the Penna Railroad Company are now lessees. It is 92 miles west of Sunbury, and 196 miles east of Eric. The town is beautifully situated on the margin of the west branch of the Susquehanna river, in the county of Clinton, and is surrounded by romantic and attractive scenery. The Railroad Company are erecting an immense Locomotive Round House, Repair Shops for Cars and Engines, Car Building shop, Iron and Brass Furnaces, and Iwellings for the Superintendent and other officers. A splendid Hotel, with which are connected arrangements for feeding passengers on the most extensive scale, has been commenced. All these buildings are of the most permanent and substantial character, of brick and iron, and are in accordance with the immense business anticipated on the completion of this great Railroad, so long anxiously looked for, and now an accomplished fact—the last raif connecting the Susquehanna river with Lake Erie having been laid on Saturday, July 24, 1864.

A Company has been chartered by the Legislature for supplying the town with gas and water, and the water works are nearly completed. Churches will be erected immediately. The situation of RENOVO is entirely healthy, and as the dimensions of the town are limited by nature, the value of the lots must appreciate greatly in the course of a few years.

EMPORTUM will certainly be the most important commercial point between Lock Haven and Warren, a distance of 158 miles, It is near the centre of the raitread, 47 miles west of Renovo; 139 miles from Sunbury and language and the raitread to a very extensive district of country. The moment the projected railroad connecting it with the city of Rechester, N. Y., shall be completed few interior towns in the State will surpass it in business capabilities. An excellent graded road now connects it with Coudgraport, the seat of Justice of Potter county. It is also connected with Smethport, the seat of Justice of McKean country. Emporium is the County Seat of Cameron country; it has a handsome Court House, and the Land Company have just completed a large and commodious Hotel, which will immediately be opened to the public. The Railroad Company are about to erect a handsome and permanent Passsenger Station at a central point near the Hotel and Court House. The place is healthy, and excellent water is abundant. It is in the midst of one of the finest White Fine regions in Pennsylvania. As a manufacturing rown it has great advantages: coal, lumber, stone, bark for tannerics are abundant, and its railroad communications with the great lakes and all points of importance in the seaboard are unsurpassed. This place was selected thirty years ago as a point of importance, and a town laid out with the prophetic name of EMPORIUM, but the difficulty of access has prevented its development so entirely that it is mainly known for the excellence of hunting and trout fishing in the vicinity. The completion of the Philadelphia and Erie railroad must soon make it a place of great importance as a distributing point for goods of all kinds, and it offers great advantages for persons of moderate capital who desire to identify themselves with the early history of a thriving town.

A RARE CHANCE TO MAKE MONEY!

Våluable Oil Stocks for Sale!

Valuable Oil Stocks for Sale!

To capitalists and others who wish a good, a safe and reliable paying investment: I am now offering a limited number of shares of the most valuable oil Stocks ever offered for rate in this country. The history of the world scarcely affords an example of the rapid rise of any article into general and commercial importance, as has been that of Petroleum. From a comparatively limited home traffic, it has sprung into a vast foreign trade, amounting pernaps to $50,000,000 per annum, and is only yet in its infancy. From twoaty-five cents per barrel, as it was a few years since, when there was little home consumption, and no export trade, it has advanced to twenty doliars per barrel, with a foreign demand that cannot be supplied. That vast region presents inexhaustible fountains of wealth that have so long been hidden deep in the earth.

I am prepared to dispose of a limited number of shares of Stock in the celebrated "BURNING SPRING OIL COMPANY OF PENNNYLVANIA, with a capital stock of $1,000,000! A vast territory of more than one thousand two hundred acres of land, situated in the midst of the most valuable and most productive oil regions of Venange county, Pennsylvania, and the great Kanawha Yalloy in West Virginia. Two (2) wells are now yielding largely and four others are being rapidly sunk.

I am also prepared to offer a certain number of shares in the "Rathbone Petroleum Oil Company of Pennsylvania, for sale. Capital Stock $50,000, par value $10. I can assure my friends that these are reliable companies, and will rank first among the safest and best paying companies in the country, opening, as they certainly will, a vast field for substantial and permanent investment.

This stock will only be offered for a few weeks, as I expect to leave very soon for "Oil Dorado," to superintend the operations of the company in person.

Descriptions of the land, together with full particulars and all the information desired, will be given on application either in person or through the main.
