Pennsylvania-The Union State Centra Committee

We printed an address of the Union State Central Committee, on Saturday, quoting the law regulating the votes of soldiers, and appealing in strong terms to the Union men at home to assist, by all the means in their power, to secure the success of the legislation extending the elective franchise to the heroes in the field. We trust that address was not only carefully read and considered by our readers, but that the counsel which it contains will be strictly followed by the friends of the soldier. To-day, we print still another address from the same committee, congratulating the loyal men of the Commonwealth, on the splendor of their victory at the late election. The practical results of that victory are decided gains in our Congressional delegation, and a powerful majority in the Legislature-results at once indicative of the temper of the people and their resolve to achieve a still greater victory at the November election.

It is not out of place here to state that the Chairman of the Union State Central Committee, Gen. Cameron, and the active Secretary, A. W. Benedict, have been unceasing in their labors to arrive at the results just named, and that they are still in the harness, laboring with the zeal and force known only to men of their enthusiasm and ability, to place Pennsylvania where she belongs, at the November election, first among the States, by her majority, in suport of the Government. Pennsylvania has sent more than two hundred thousand soldiers into the field. She has poured out her life blood, hurried forward her youth and her strong men, and generously contributed of her material wealth to defend the Government against armed traitors. Without her, the war to crush rebellion would have been, it not a failure, at least a wager of uncertain battle. With her strong legions, the struggle has become decisive for the right and for freedom. While our fellow citizens are thus steadily supporting the great cause of the Government in the field, they have a right to expect at our hands at home, a similar service at the ballot box. Pennsylvania must do her full share with the ballot, as her sons are now doing it with the and a host of others in our own State. bullet. The Union State Central Committee is laboring steadily and earnestly to secure a great victory at the November election-but unless the active men in all parts of the Commonwealth, devoted to the cause of the Union, second these efforts, the labors of the Committee must prove abortive for good. ,We therefore invoke the co-operation of all true men. Let us show to our friends of the other States, that Pennsylvania is in reality the Keystone of the Federal Arch.

What Copperhead Opposition to the Govcrnment Means. The developments made by the recent investigation of the facts and circumstances connected with the great conspiracy in the Northwest, have established very clearly what copperhead opposition to the Government means. While the leaders of the copperhead factions are deluding the majority of the honest men who are now supporting M'Clellan, the real objects of those leaders, aside from and which are calculated to follow the election of "Little Mac," may be clearly set forth as follows:

I. To incite soldiers to desert from the armies, and to harbor and protect deserters. II. To discourage enlistments and resist th draft. III. To circulate disloyal and treasonable documents.

IV. To communicate with and impart intelligence to the enemy.

V. To aid the enemy by recruiting for him, or assisting him to recruit within our lines. VI. To furnish the enemy with munitions of war. VII. To co-operate with the rebels in their invasions of loyal States. VIII. To act as the paid incendiaries and apply the torch to northern cities and towns. IX. To destroy the military stores and property of the Government.

X. To assassinate and get out of the way, Union citizens obnoxious for their zeal, and Union soldiers and Government employees. XI. To establish a Confederacy of States, with the eastern commonwealths left "out in the cold," and make slavery and the slave trade the great features of the Government. -This is what the Democratic leaders are at now, and it is what they hope to accomplish by the election of George B. M'Clellan.

"Give Us Back Our Old Commander." The following extract from a letter, written by a private in the 114th Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers, now in service at the headquarters of the Army of the Potomac, near Petersburg, to his father, a life-long Democrat of Philadelphia city, indicates pretty clearly what sort of reverence the soldiers have for the "Little Napoleon :"

"On last Tuesday the election came off in our regiment, and the result proves that the Democrats were nowhere. The whole number of votes polled was 157, of which 132 were cast for the Republicans, and 25 for the Dem-ocrats; making a majority of 102 for the Re-publican ticket. In November the majority will be still greater, as there were some who would have voted the Republican ticket but were unable to do so on account of not hav-ing their tax receipts. When you go to the polls at the next election, I want you to think of your son, who has been so long in the army fighting for his country, and then put your vote in for "Uncle Abe" clear up to the shoulder, for he is the only man to settle this Rebellion, and is the "right man in the right place," therefore it is my desire that you give him your hearty support at home, and we will sustain him here in the army."

Such is the almost universal sentiment of those who are gallantly exposing their lives every day at "the front," as shown by the result of the recent voting in camp, and by the thousands of letters which have reached our State within a week, similar in purport to the one from which the above extract is taken.

Are You a Democrat ?

So is Andrew Johnson, of Tennssee. So are John A. Dix and Daniel S. Dickinson, f New York.

So is James M. Scovill, of New Jersey. So are Daniel Dougherty, Benj. F. Brewster, Judge John C. Knox, Hon. Wm. M. Hiester John Cessna, Jos. Bailey, Judge Champneys Democrats, how is it with you? Recollect

ADDRESS OF THE UNION STATE CEN-TRAL COMMITTEE:

To the Loyat Men of Pennsylvania.

ROOMS OF THE UNION STATE CENTRAL, COMMITTEE, PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 21, 1864. To the Loyal Men of Pennsylvauia :- The smoke of the first engagement has cleared away, and upon the vote of her citizens at homo Pennsylvania stands by the Government of our fathers, while her brave sons in the field will not give less than twelve thousand majority for the good cause. The last hope, therefore, of the supporters of General McClellan has disappeared, and the only result of continuing to sustain him is to give aid and comfort to the rebellion by increasing the appearance of disunion among ourselves. General Sheridan; dealt a terrible blow to treason on Wednesday, and every patriot's heart thrilled with joy upon hearing it; but a great majority for Abraham Lincoln in Penn-sylvania would be far more fatal to the armed conspiracy against the Union and the Consticonspiracy against the Union and the Consti-tution. Every vote for our tried and faithful President will paralyze some arm raised to shoot down the flag, while every vote for the base surrender at Chicago, and the men who carry its white flag, will encourage some rebel to shoot another Northern sold the The The ticket nominated by Vallandigham, Wood and Seymour is now black with treason, and after it is voted will be red with the blood of our brothers fighting for us. The war has existed for the last year only by reason of our divisions, and its continuance to-day is solely owing to the activity of the disunion party of the North and the platform of its convention. While any hope remained of the election of its candidates, plausible excuses might be found by misguided men for giving them their suffrages; but, after the verdicts of Maine, Vermont, New Hampshire, Ohio, Indiana and Pennsylvania, all sensible persons know that the election is already decided by the people, and that it only remains to ascertain the majorities. It follows, therefore, that every vote for McClellan and Pendleton is an earnest invitation to Jefferson Davis to continue this fearful war, to waste more of our treasure and to murder others of our sons.

The sublime spectacle of a United North will end the war. We invoke all patriots to lend their efforts unceasingly to produce this result By perfecting the ward and township organizations; by the circulation of docu-ments; by public addresses, especially by local speakers; by earnest personal efforts with honest but mistaken men; by making ar-rangements to bring every loyal voter to the polls; by sending tax receipts to every soldier and sailor; by the immediate formation of campaign clubs in every borough and commu nity; by great meetings of the people by day-light and torchlight, and by all the honest agencies of an active and thorough canvass, appealing to the patriotic zeal and kindling the patriotic enthusiasm of a great and loyal Common wealth, we can attest the fealty of our State to the flag of the Union by a majority worthy of the historic character of the contest and of the great issues dependent upon it. Forward, then, every lover of his country, to the good work! Looking not to the past but the future, forgetting all personal considerations, and appreciating the privilege of some sacrifice for liberty and the Union, let us relax no effort until the polls are closed.— This committee will continue to do its whole duty, and relies upon your instant, earnest and constant assistance. Grant's march of valor and of glory from the Rapidan to the James sealed the fate of the rebellion. Since then Sherman has turned its left wing. Farragut is closing its avenues of escape. Sheridan has sent its vanguard again whirling down the valley. It only re mains for us to sound the charge along the whole line, and wrapping our ballots around our brothers' bullets, march to the peaceful, final triumph which awaits us in November. B. McClellan is himself the great failure of the war-a general without a victory-a states man without a record; and if we are faithful history will add to his epitaph that he was a candidate for the Presidency without an elec-toral vote. Let us all, therefore, labor without ceasing. In memory of our buried martyrs, in regard for the wounds of our living herces, to guard liberty from its deadly peril, and the Union from its treasonable foes, in the interest of religion, and in the hopes of the Republic of the future, loyal men of Pennsylvania, forward to victory. In behalf of the Committee.

SEN. OURTIS HEAVILY PRESSED -- THE REBELS ALL ABOUND HIM-DEFEAT OF GEN. BLUNT-CAP-TURE OF LEXINGTON BY PRICE.

Sr. Louis, Oct. 23. A dispatch from Gen. Curtis, dated at Kan-sas City, at 6 o'clock last night, says : I have been pressed all day, and this afternoon the been prosed around my flank, when I gave him heavy blows for several hours. We have heard heavy firing east, and I have just received a messenger from Gen. Pleasanton, who is fighting on the other side. Leavenworth papers of the 20th furnish the following : General Blunt, with 2,000, cavalry and four howitzers, entered Lexington on Tuesday, and on Wednesday Price attacked him with an overwhelming force, and after a sharp fight drove him from the city. Blunt fell back to Little Blue river, fighting desperately, retard-ing the advance of the enemy. On Thursday and Friday the skirmishing continued between Little and Big Blue rivers, and yesterday something of an engagement seems to have occurred between the main forces of Curtis and Price, but the locality of the battle is not known, nor has anything been received at headquarters here since General Cartis' dispatch of last night. Blunt lost about fifty men in his fight of Wednesday.-General Pleasanton is believed to be co-ope rating with Curtis, and Rosecrans and A. J

Smith are near by. KANZAS CITY, Oct. 22,--The fight yesterday, between Little Blue River and Independence, was a very gallant affair. We fought Price's entire army for five hours. M'Lean's Coloraentire army for five hours. M'Lean's Colora-do Battery silenced the rebel guns. Col. Hopt made a gallant sabre charge with a bat-talion of the 15th Kansas Cavalry. The 2d Colorado lost sixty killed and wound-ed; among the former Major Smith, com-manding the regiment Our total loss was over 400. We evacuated Independence, fall-ing back to the Big Blue River. The militia have arrived, and this morning we hold the line of the Big Blue. Generals Curtis, Blunt and Dostler were on the ground. and Dostler were on the ground.

About ten o'clock to-day Col. Jennison, with the 15th Kansas, with severel guns, was attacked at Byron Ford, by a heavy column of the enemy. About two o'clock the rebels forced the ford, Jennison falling back to-wards Crestport and the State Line. 'Colonel Moonlight went to his assistance, and both commands got separated from the main force. A portion of the Kansas militia fought near Picknow Mills, but were compelled to fall back to Shawneetown. The main body of the militia marched to Kansas City, where the headquarters now are. They occupy en-trenchments, and are in good spirits. Colonels Jennison, Moonlight, and Major Hart, with General Curtis' body-guard, fought the enemy till some time after dark, driving them four miles over an open prairie. Our loss was inconsiderable, that of the enemy

We captured 150 stand of arms, and the rebel Captain Van Valkenburg, brother of the New York Congressman.

Our rear had a sharp skirmish with the rebels at Big Blue this morning, capturing fourteen and killing one. KANSAS CITY, Oct. 23.—Price's whole army is reported to be retreating rapidly south.— Our cavalry are in hot pursuit-altogether, with Pleasanton's force, numbering 15,000

Pleasanton closed yesterday's battles at Inprisoners and three guns. This morning our line formed five miles south of Kansas City, on the West Point road. Skirmishing continued for several hours, when the whole force advanced and heavy firing ensued. The enemy rapidly fell back and formed a new line a mile and a half from the first pocame in on our left and a grand charge followed, resulting in the total rout of the enemy.

the raid, and the amount taken from the banks was $223,000.

The Evening Telegraph, published at St. Al-bans, says: "Fears are entertained, from the sympathy shown at St. John for the rebel raiders at St. Albans, that an attempt will be made to rescue them. A troop of cavalry has been called out, and are now guarding the jail. Hon. J. J. Abbott, R. Laflamme, and Hon. J. H. Cameron have been retained as counsel for the rebels, and Mr. Devlin for the United States authorities."

Lieutenant Bennett H. Young, commanding the raiders has sent to the Evening Telegraph a letter, in which he charges the citize Vermont with violating the English and Ca adian laws.

BURLINGTON, Vt., Oct. 23.--Thirteen of the St. Albans bank robbers are now in jail at St. Johns. They are mostly young men claiming to hail from Kentucky, and insist that they are in the Confederate service, and are also confident that they will be released. Two of them claim to have captain's commissions. A small quantity of Confederate money was found on them. An examination will be com-menced at St. Johns to-morrow before Judge Copperhead Mathematics-A New Way to Arrive at Majorities.

The copperhead mode of arriving at a re sult, by cyphering, is about as novel as were their tactics at the late election to achieve a victory. For instance, the copperhead organs claim that the vote of the people of Pennsylvania has been largely cast against the Government, and that the result exhibits a decided majority of thousands in favor of their candidates. Now, it is patent that the supporters of the Government have elected a majority of Congressmen, gaining at least FIVE members -that they have secured both branches of the Legislature, and everywhere throughout the Commonwealth elected the county offices, filled by Union men up to terms just expiring. Still, the copperhead organs and orators insist that they have carried Pennsylvania by five thousand majority. This result is reached by the following novel and original system of mathematics: The copperheads, instead of confining themselves to a particular candidate, select whichever man on their local tickets, throughout the State, who has the highest vote ; thus, if a candidate for Congress in one county runs ahead of his associates, his vote is claimed as the test ; while, if a candidate for Coroner in another county leads the copperheads on the same ticket, that vote is this truly original style, the cops insist that they have carried Pennsylvania by five thousand majority. The reader will at once comprehend the ridiculousness, as well as the knavery, of such a claim. On the popular vote for Congress, with every deluded man who votes a copperhead ticket out, and with not more than two-thirds of the Union vote of the State polled, it is conceded, by some of our friends, that the copperheads carried the State, at the late election, by six majority. But when the soldiers' yote is added to that polled in the State, the majority in Pennsylvanis, on the Congressional vote, will be at least TWELVE THOUSAND IN FAVOR OF THE UNION Trexes.

that Alex, Long, the Woods, Dan Voorhees, Cox, Harris, the Seymours, and every other member of the peace-at-any-price party, were in the Chicago Convention. Vallandigham wrote the platform, and afterwards moved to make the nomination of McClellan unanimous, while Penndleton, one of its most obsequious followers, was made Vice President. Is that Jackson Democracy?

THE HOME OF PENDLETON .- Cincinnati has spoken! The home of Pendleton gives six thousand majority for the Union Ticket. Two years ago, the two Congressional districts in Hamilton county voted as follows :

Pendleton, Dem...... 7,545 Groesbeck, Union..... 6,418 Pendleton's majority..... 1,127

Long's majority. 131 Total Democratic majority...... 1,258

A gain of 7,258 votes in the home of the copperhead candidate for Vice Present, will answer the present purpose tolerably well. "Mr. Chairman," said George H., "I say again, that my constituents are in favor of conciliation; they are in favor of peace " To this dastardly assertion of the poltroon Pendleton, the people of Ohio have replied, in thunder tones, "LIAR and TRAITOR!"

YOUTHFUL INDISCRETION. --- The Copperheads of Connecticut are principally busy explaining away McClellan's arbitrary arrest of the Maryland Legislature. The latest excuse for him is that he was young at the time. Said Prof. Fowler at the Middle Clambake: "He was a young man and not accustomed to the ways of doing business at Washington." This is a new version of the sad "Romance of the Poor Young Man." Prof. Fowler said that McClellan exceedingly "regrets" this youthadded to the copperhead majorities, and, in ful indiscretion. In the consideration of his youth and inexperience, the people will permit George to tarry at Jericho until his beard is grown. Returns of Company G, 99th Regiment. The Union county soldiers in this company voted as follows: John Walls..... 2 Samuel H. Orwig.....11
