Invincibles. Attention !- A stated meeting of the Republican Invincibles will be held at their room, on Locust street, this evening, at 72 o'clock. Let every one attend.

VICE PRESIDENT HAMLIN will address the loyal people of Harrisburg on Wednesday evening, in the Hall of the House of Repre sentatives. Let there be a large attendance to hear the champion of Freedo

REV. CHAS. A. HAY, D. D., advertisés a valuable building lot to lease. It is located op-posite the new market house, and will make an admirable location for a grocery. Business men would do well to give the advertisement their attention.

GOING TO BELLEFONTE.—Our patriotic townsman, Rev. J. Walker Jackson, will speak for the Union, at Bellefonte, on the 1st of November. The Centre county people will then hear the best address ever delivered in their

Another Railroad Accident.—On Friday last, Charles Wenditz, of Lancaster, was stilled at Rohrerstown station, on the Penn-sylvania Railroad. It is supposed that he fell while putting on the brakes, and was crushed between the platforms of two cars. His age was about twenty years.

DEATH OF A SOLDIER. - Lieut. Wm. P. Chambers, of the 20th Penne. Cavalry, died on Fri day last. His funeral took place this after-noon, and was attended by a large concourse of friends and acquaintances. Thus, one after another our brave men are passing away.

Two weeks from to-morrow the great contest for the Presidency will terminate. The people will then decide, by ballots, whether they will have a Union President or a ruler who will compromise with traitors. There is no doubt of the result, if the Union voters do their duty.

THE NEW IRON MINES IN DERRY.—We re-cently noticed the opening of new iron ore mines in Derry township, but were not ad-vised of their extent. We have since been informed that those on the land of Peter Frantz and Widow Missimer yield fifty tons of the best quality of Hemetite ore per day. On David Plouse's land there are some five hundred acres of ore; and fourteen different leases have been granted. All are yielding large quantities of first quality ore. These new mines must prove very valuable, and of great advantage to delices in iron.

UNCLE TOM'S CABIN .-- At the urgent request of a large number of our citizens, the manager of the Theatre has consented to have the amous play of Uncle Tom's Cabin performed this evening. This thrilling exhibition of life among the lowly is worthy of patronage, and particularly so on this occasion, as there is a fine cast of characters. Miss Fanny Denham will appear in her favorite part, as Topsy, and sing a number of songs; Mr. Fisher as Uncle Tom; Mr. Meeker as Legree and Harris, Mr. Rouse as the Kentuckian and the Yankee. Let Brant's Hall be crowded to-night.

Personal.—This morning we were favored with a call from Maj. Charles C. Davis, of the Seventh Penna Cavalry. The Major has just concluded a term of over three years service.

concluded a term of over three years service.
He has proven himself a gallant soldier, who never turned his back to the enemy.
Capt. John T. Ensminger, of the 201st Penna. Reg., is in town. He represents his company as being in fine condition, and denies the truth of the rumor that their camp, at Bloody Run, is in an unhealthy condition.

Cont. Corne. F. Page of the 104th Policy of the condition. Capt. George F. Ross, of the 194th Penna Reg., (one hundred days' men) was in tewn yesterday, looking well, and giving a good re-port cencerning the health, etc., of his com-

THE FAITHFUL MISSING A FAVORITE.—George H. Pendleton, one of the peace sneaks who have been laboring for three years and more, to bow this great nation into the dust before the frowns and the swords of traitors, and the candidate of the copperhead sympathizers with treason for the Vice Presidency, passed through this city on Saturday last, en route for New York, without his dough-face followers in Harrisburg being aware of the fact. Mr. Pendleton goes to New York, doubtless, to take counsel with Belmont, and will of course be more ready to take the bastard Jew's money than his advice. The sneaking manner in which Pendleton passed through Harrisburg, may be regarded as the best evidence he has yet given of his fitness to be the cop-perhead candidate for the Vice Presidency.

REV. JOHN WALKER JACESON-A challenge to Enter the Political Arena.—The opposition organ of Friday last contained a letter from a gentleman named, Geo F. Hall, who is a stranger to us, challenging Rev. J. Walker Jackson to discussion of the political issues at stake in the contest for the Presidency. Of course Rev. Jackson could not accept such a chal-lenge, however able we all know he is, and ready as we believe he would be at all times and in all places to detend his country in destake. He does not defend men or advocate particular measures of government. He merely occupies a position as friend of his country, opposed to treason, epposed to rebellion, and opposed to all the causes leading to both. Hence, we assert, Rev. Jackson cannot, and we have no doubt will not accept a phellenge.

THANKSGIVING.—President Lincoln has isthanksciving,—resident intuon has issued a proclamation designating Thursday, the 24th of November, as a day of National Thanksgiving. Providence, during the past year, has protected us from "unfriendly designs abroad," and youchsafed us "many and signal victories over the enemy, who is of our household." Unusual health has been granted to our armies and our sailors on the rivers and seas. All our departments of industry have been abundantly rewarded; our population has been largely increased; and new re-sources of wealth have been opened up to our people. Moreover, Almighty God has filled the hearts and minds of the people with coururges upon our citizens to assemble on the paccas, 24th day of November, and return thanks to prices. the Ruler of all the Earth for his goodness and mercies toward us in this the day of our national peril.

ESCAPE OF PRISONERS FROM ANDERSONVILLE, Ga.—Their Travels through the Southern Swamps—Condition of Affairs at Anderson-ville, etc.—To-day we received a call from two young men—Sergeants George Carns and P. Lichtenfels, of Co. D. Fourth Penn's Cavalry, who, with Corporal I. J. Robb, of the same company, James Burden, of the Sixth Missouri Cavalry, and John M. Fargo, of the One Hundred and Forty-fifth Penn's Vols., have just reached here, having escaped from the rebel prisons at Andersonville, on the State line between Georgia and North Carolina, after having been confined there eleven months. They, with many others, were captured by the enemy at Sulphur Springs, Va., on the 12th of October, 1863. On the 9th of last month, (September,) while being removed, by railroad, from Andersonville to Charleston, South Carolina, thirteen of the prisoners escaped from the train, by overpowering the guards of the rear car, who were boys of some fourteen years of age—rebel conscripts. The train was passing through a woods at the time, and the thirteen prisoners who escaped ran a distance of three miles before they were pursued. Bloodhounds were put upon their track, but the boys applied pitch or turpentine to their feet, and the hounds were foiled. [The men separated into three squads, one of which was composed of the five whose names are given above. others nothing definite has been heard, but it is supposed they were re-captured.] Nineteen days were passed in the swamps and fields of rebeldom, during which time the only food obtained by the men consisted of corn, sweet potatoes and melons, with the exception of the last day, when a sheep was caught and killed, and eaten without salt. In the course of their travels they reached Granville, on the West Point railroad, and followed the line of the road a distance of twenty miles, to Newland. Finding that Hood's army had fallen back they left the railroad and traveled a con-siderable distance along by roads, and through woods and thickets—finally reaching the rail-road at another point, making very narrow escapes from capture. At the end of the nine-teen days our pitket lines near Atlanta were reached, and the men were once more free. They confirm all previous statements of the suffering of our prisoners at Andersonville.

During the eleven months imprisonment of these men, over eleven thousand deaths oc-curred among the prisoners. The dead are buried in rows, without any marks to indicate who are the occupants of the narrow houses except in cases where rude boards are erected by a friend among the prisoners.

BUSINESS ITEMS.

Philosophy.—The philosophy of life, in our opinion, matures from the experience of a long ife, assisted and made comprehensive through the struggles incident to the man who honestly discharges his moral obligations, and provides, from this world's goods, or accumulates pecuniary resources for this life's comforts, and dis-seminates all the good in his power. Our phi-losophy teaches us to tap all the avenues at our and in all places to detend his country in debate; but it must be remembered that Rev. J. is no politician, and in his speeches in behalf of the country, never discusses the political bearing of the issues. He is guided in his course alone by the moral bearing of the issues at stake. He does not defend men or advocate particular measures of government. He merely octained in the commercial world. The unsettled condition of our country, and the fear of commercial disaster, have presented such ghostly forebodings to the minds of some merchants in our Atlantic cities, that institutions, called panic auctions, have sprung up, which hold out peculiar interest of the particular measures of government. have sprung up, which hold out peculiar in-ducements. C. L. Bowman, No. 1, corner of Front and Market streets, will open, to-day, Hence, we assert, Rev. Jackson cannot, and we have no doubt will not accept a challenge to enter the political arena as a wrangler. He is for his country—doing it good service, and has no time at this stage of the conflict to bandy words with any man, and particularly and has no time at this size of the connect to bandy words with any man, and particularly with one not uncalifiedly devoted to the cause of the country.

THE PHILADELPHIA AND ERIE LAND COMPANY, chartered by an act of the Legislature of Pennsylvania, ofter for sale choice lots for dwellings and business purposes in the above new towns on the line of the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad.

RENOVO has been selected as the site for the extensive shops for building and repairing the rolling stock of the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad, of which the Penna. Railroad Company are now lessees. It is 92 miles west of Sunbury, and 196 miles east of Erie. The town is beantifully situated on the margin of the west branch of the Susquehanna river, in the county of Cinton, and is surrounded by romantic and attractive scenery. The Railroad Company are erecting an immensa Locomotive Round House, Repsir Shops for Cars and Engines, Car Building shop. Iron and Brass Furnaces, and Dwellings for the Superintendent and other officers. A splendid Hotel, with which are connected arrangements for feeding passengers on the most extensive scale, has been commenced. All these buildings are of the most permanent and substantial character, of brick and iron, and are in accordance with the immense Susiness anticipated on the completion of this great Railroad, so long anxiously looked for, and now an accomplished fact—the last rail connecting the Susquehanna river with Lake Eric having been laid on Saturday, July 2d, 1864.

A Company has been chartered by the Legislature for supplying the town with gas and water, and the water works are nearly completed. Churches will be receted immediately. The situation of RENOVO is entirely healthy, and as the dimensions of the town are limited by nature, the value of the lots must appreciate greatly in the course of a few years.

EMPORIUM will certainly be the most important commercial point between Lock Haven and Watren, a distance of 156 miles. It is near the centre of the railroad, 47 inties west of Renovo; 139 miles from Sundary and 149 miles from Eric. It is near the Jounts on the Drift wood Branch of the Sinnemahoning, with West Creek, Portage Creek and North Greek, the Valleys of which streams make it the most accessible point on the Philadelphia and Eric railroad to a very extensive district of country. The moment the projected railroad connecting it with the city of Rochester, N. Y., shall be completed, few interior towns in the State will surpass it in business capabilities. An excellent graded road now connects it with Coudersport, the seat of Justice of McKean county. Emporium is the County Seat of Cameron county; it has a handsome Gourt House, and the Land Company have just completed a large and commodious Hotel, which will immediately be opened to the public. The Railroad Company are about to erect a handsome and permanent Passenger Station at a central point near the Hotel and Court House. The place is healthy, and excellent water is abundant. From tweaty-five cents per barrel, as it was a few years since, when there was little home consumption, and no export trade, it has advanced to twenty dollars per barrel, with a foreign demand that cannot be supplied. That vast region presents in exhaust that cannot be supplied. That vast region presents in exhaustible fountains of wealth that have so long been hidden deep in the earth.
