HARRISBURG, PA. TUESDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 25, 1864.

Rally! Rally! Rally! FOR THE UNION!

Vice President Hamlin WILL SPEAK ON WEDNESDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 26, in the State Capitol. Ladies are invited.

OWN AND COUNTRY.

WANTED IMMEDIATELY.—Two Salesmen acquainted with the dry goods business. Apply to person to CATHART & BROTHERS, No. 14, Market Square, next door to the Harrisburg Bank.

FRANK'S CELEBRATED LAGER BEER.—Mr. Henry Meyer, who keeps a restaurant on Second street, below Chestnut street, announces to his friends and the public generally, that he is now prepared to regale them with Frank's celebrated Lancaster lager. He studies to please. oct25-41*

SUDDEN DEATH.—Mr. John Senner, an aged citizen of Lancaster, died of apoplexy, yesterday morning. He was about to erect a fence, and while in the act of measuring the same, he fell over and expired.

We learn that Sergeant Edwin Tunis, of Company C, 56th P. V., who was captured by the rebels in August last, is at Salisbury, N. C., and is doing well. There was a rumor in circulation here that he had deserted and gone to the enemy, but we are pleased to learn, upon reliable authority, that there is no truth in the rumor. He was captured by the rebels while on picket duty.

DOWN THEY COME!—Reduction in the Prices of Dry Goods.—Messrs. Cathart & Brothers have on hand a very large stock of dry goods which they are selling at forty per cent. below the prices at which such goods could be purchased at wholesale, three weeks ago. This stock has just arrived from the great auction sales in the cities, and persons desiring great bargains would do well to examine the goods before purchasing elsewhere.

DEDICATION OF A MASONIC HALL.—The new Masonic Hall, in Shippensburg, was dedicated, with appropriate ceremonies, on Thursday last. A procession of the members was formed, and, headed by a brass band, marched through the streets of the town. A Bible purchased by the ladies, was presented to the Lodge, by Rev. James Collier, and the city was received in behalf of the Order, by Rev. F. A. Ruple, of Reading.

THEATRE.—The thrilling play of THE IRON CHEST, and the very valuable farce entitled MY NEIGHBOR'S WIFE, compose the bill for this evening. In the first named piece Mr. Meeker, the celebrated actor, will personate his great character of Sir Edward Mortimer.—Mr. Rouse, the world-renowned comedian, and Miss Fanny Denham, the popular actress and songstress, will appear in both plays. The entertainment of this evening will be the sixtieth of the present season. The Star Combination Company is increasing in popularity, and bids fair to extend the season to the full extent of a year. Go to the hall to-night.

STAMPS AND STAMPED ENVELOPES.—It may not be generally known by the public who use large quantities of stamps and stamped envelopes, that they can save five per cent. on their purchases at our own, or any post-office where the amount in stamps purchased exceeds the total sum of $1 00; which amount may be made up of the various denominations of stamps, and when a purchase of envelopes amounts to $5 00, which number also may be made up of different denominations and styles. This very liberal discount on stamps and envelopes will, no doubt, be generally known, induce many larger purchases than are now made, and prevent the very many small ones which are now made at the letter deliveries of post-offices. Storekeepers and others who use a great number of these articles, and desire to realize a mite by selling them, can do so by increasing their purchases somewhat, and in many instances may extend and increase their trade by the extra purchasers attracted to their places of business. They will most certainly accommodate the public living in their vicinities by the sale of these articles in their stores.

HALL OF THE REPUBLICAN INVINCIBLES.—The loyal young men of Harrisburg, anxious to serve the great cause of the Union by promoting the election of Abraham Lincoln, have organized a club, to be known as the Republican Invincibles, making their headquarters in the house formerly occupied by the Mt. Vernon Hook and Ladder Company. The Invincibles number just one hundred men, organized, outfitted and equipped in the most complete manner, each Invincible, when on parade, to carry a splendidly stained glass lamp, bearing the inscription:

LINCOLN, JOHNSON AND LIBERTY. The following is the organization of the club for parade duty: Capt.—JOSEPH LINES. 1st Lieut.—WILLIAM A. PARKHILL. 2d Lieut.—DANIEL BARR. For the transaction of business within the hall, the following officers have been selected: President—E. J. JONES. Vice President—JOHN KROUSE. Secretary—CHARLES H. SMALL. Treasurer—S. S. CHILD. Exec. Committee—CHAS. A. SUYDAM, W. H. H. SEIZ, W. A. PARKHILL. The headquarters of the Invincibles have been beautifully decorated within and without, the walls of the hall being adorned with American flags and patriotic mottoes, while on the front of the building is displayed an immense transparency, bearing the inscription of HEADQUARTERS, REPUBLICAN INVINCIBLES.

On either end of the transparency is a shield, one inscribed with the name of Lincoln, the other that of Johnson. We have seldom seen a more finished specimen of designing or it is only fair to state that the work was the production of L. W. Seay, an artist of rare talent who has already won a great reputation as a scene painter and sketcher. The Republican Invincibles will do great service during the time yet remaining of the campaign, and will visit the different localities in the county at which meetings have been appointed. Their first parade will be made on Wednesday next, when they will act as escorts to the speakers at the meeting to be held in the House of Representatives.

It is said that a day or two ago, a couple of children, in passing the Copperhead State Committee Rooms, on Second street, saw the lettering on the windows, when they stopped and innocently inquired, "what time the show would open?" Perhaps they imagined that there was a snake show in the Committee rooms.

WHAT NEWSPAPER MEN SUFFER.—As the chroniclers of events, newspaper people are dependent on others for facts, so that the information which is conveyed to the public by the channels of journalism, is nothing more, in nine times out of ten, but the repetition of narratives made to editors and reporters. In this way, newspaper people are often misled, and are often, too, made to indulge in statements utterly without foundation in truth. And when thus imposed upon, the easiest and most manly way to correct the error, and to avow it, and thus disabuse the public mind. We are led to these observations by the fact that the statement which appeared in our local columns on Saturday, was without foundation, having been the invention of one who was either utterly reckless of what was true, or who was as much imposed upon as he imposed upon us. The negroes alleged to have almost been the victim of an abduction, had consented to go hence with a lady; she had even applied to be taken hence; but when she was about to leave thus, of her own free will, she yielded to the persuasions of false friends, and thus lost the prospect of a good home, where she would have been fairly and honorably remunerated for her labor. We make this statement freely of our own accord, after having ascertained the facts from parties in no way connected with those alluded to in our circulation here that he had deserted and gone to the enemy, but we are pleased to learn, upon reliable authority, that there is no truth in the rumor. He was captured by the rebels while on picket duty.

THE SACRIFICE OF ANOTHER HERO.—A Gallant Son of Harrisburg Perishing that his Country might Live.—The announcement of the death of Lieut. John W. Winters, who fell while gallantly contending with the enemy on the 10th inst., in one of the battles of the Shenandoah Valley, has filled the hearts of many men and women who knew him with overwhelming grief and sorrow. He was a member of the Seventeenth Pennsylvania Cavalry, and led this city as Commissary Sergeant of that regiment more than two years since. In that time he saw much hard service and greatly distinguished himself in many of the severest battles of the war. For the present, we content ourselves with giving the following extract referring to this sad affair, reserving our full account to-morrow, when we will publish a full account of this great loss: Extract of a letter from a member of the company to which Lieut. Winters was attached.

"We have been in eight battles since the 19th of September, but yesterday was the most eventful of all. We engaged the rebels, drove them seven miles, captured six pieces of artillery, five ambulances, six wagons, and a large number of prisoners. We lost two of our Lieutenants. We have no officers now but Lieut. Neiman. Lieut. John W. Winters was killed. Poor fellow! We all loved him, and we all mourn his loss. Lieut. Winters was as brave as he was good. He charged in among the rebels, cutting right and left, and had killed three or four. His sabre was dripping with the gore of his enemies when he fell. A ball struck him in the neck, severing the spinal vein, and he died almost instantly without speaking a word. Thus has perished one of the bravest young men that left Pennsylvania during the war. We are bound to avenge his death, and make his name our future battle-cry."

TRIAL AND SENTENCE OF CAPT. R. B. WARD, OF THE 11TH PA. CAVALRY.—Before a court-martial recently convened at Fort Monroe, the trial of Captain R. B. Ward, of the Eleventh Pennsylvania Cavalry, was tried upon four different charges, viz: 1st. Having been detailed as a general recruiting officer in the State, he did present to George Blosser, a recruiting agent for York county, (who was then visiting Harrisburg,) a forged certificate, stating that three certain recruits had been passed by the Surgeon, and mustered into the United States service, to the credit of Shrewsbury township, York county, and by said Blosser, receiving $900 from said Blosser, as a local bounty for the recruits, which money was retained by Captain Ward.

2d. That he, the said Captain R. B. Ward, Co. D, 11th Pennsylvania Cavalry, being in command of his company, and having committed to his charge a large number of horses, the property of the United States, did take from the company a certain horse mare, the property of the United States, and did charge himself with said mare upon his muster and pay rolls; that after some time said mare, by reason of disease, died, and that then he, the said Ward, did take from the company a certain horse known as "Rattler," to supply her place, accounting for her by certificate of loss as a public animal, and has continued to use said horse as private property up to this date. That at Fort Monroe, Va., on or about November 1st, 1861, and continuously since that date.

3d. That he sold a number of horses belonging to the Government, at various times, and not properly accounting for them.

4th. That he embezzled the money paid him by George Blosser, of York county, for enlisting men in the service, in violation of the 39th article of war.

And the court-martial the accused pleaded "not guilty," but at the court, after mature deliberation upon the evidence adduced, found him guilty of all the charges and specifications. And the Court do therefore sentence him, Capt. R. B. Ward, Co. D, 11th Penna. Cavalry, "That he be cashiered; that he forfeit all pay and allowances now due or to become due him; that he be forever disqualified from holding any office or post of responsibility or emolument under the government of the United States; that he refund to the United States the various sums of money received by him for government property fraudulently disposed of, to wit, in the aggregate the sum of five hundred and fifty dollars, ($550) that he refund to the United States for the use of the horse "Rattler," as pay at the rate of forty (40) cents per day for the time during which he has used the said horse, to wit, for seven hundred and thirty (730) days, the sum of two hundred and ninety-two dollars ($292); that he refund to George Blosser, or his representatives, the sum of nine hundred dollars ($900) and that he be confined at hard labor for the term of three (3) years, at such Penitentiary as may be designated by the President of the United States, the said imprisonment to further continue until the foregoing sums of money are paid."

And the Court do further add, that this sentence, together with the crime, name and place of abode of Capt. E. B. Ward, 11th Penna. Cavalry, be published in the newspapers of this department, and of Philadelphia and Harrisburg, in the State of Pennsylvania. The proceedings, findings and sentence in the above case are approved. By direction of the President, the sentence of cashiering, and the confinement in the Penitentiary, is remitted. The remainder is confirmed. Captain Ward is hereby cashiered, and forever disqualified from holding any office or post of responsibility or emolument under the Government of the United States. By command of Maj. Gen. F. BUTLER: R. S. DAVIS, Major and Assistant Adjutant General.

POSTAL MONEY ORDER SYSTEM.—The postal money order system for some time being organized for the benefit of the public, will be commenced by the various post offices authorized to issue money orders on the 1st of November. One hundred and forty-one money order offices have been established in the U. S.; others will be added to this number as necessities may require. Penna. has fourteen of this number, three first class and eleven second class offices. Harrisburg, Pitsburg and Philadelphia are the first class; Erie, Honesdale, Johnstown, Lewisport, Meadville, New Castle, Pottsville, Reading, Scranton and Williamsport are of the second class. Any money order office can draw on any other one throughout the State or United States for the regular fee charged for the issuing of the order. No single order will be issued for more than $30, but any number of orders of less denomination may be issued on any office where it is desirable to have larger amounts transmitted. Orders will be issued for any sum under thirty dollars that may be desired, and fees will be charged in proportion to the amount, as follows: For an order of $1 or more, but not exceeding $10, ten cents. For an order exceeding $10, but not exceeding $20, fifteen cents. For an order exceeding $20, but not exceeding $30, twenty cents.

The design of the system is to provide a safer and surer means of transmitting small remittances by mail, and to prevent the losses and annoyances which now occur at times by the transmission of the money itself. It is believed the checks and safeguards which are employed in the system will fully prevent any losses or errors in payment; as much so as drafts drawn by one bank upon another. Having this reliance in view we recommend to the use and confidence of the public, believing that a trial will convince all of its safety, usefulness and utility.

[COMMUNICATED.] A young man who is more respected for his appearance than for his intelligence, was persuaded to vote the Copperhead ticket, and must vote for Gen. George B. McClellan by the request of the young lady to whom he pays his attentions. I see, of late, that he is wearing the badge of the above named American patriot, is he not? If all the young ladies who have Copperhead lovers as successful in turning them from the errors of their ways, Uncle Abe will have a greater majority yet than what he would otherwise have. Loyal ladies, try it.

BUSINESS ITEMS.

PHILOSOPHY.—The philosophy of life, in our opinion, matures from the experience of a long life, assisted and made comprehensive through the struggles incident to the man who honestly discharges his moral obligations, and provides, from this world's goods, or accumulates pecuniary resources for this life's comforts, and disseminates all the good in his power. Our philosophy teaches us to top all the avenues at the command to keep posted up with all the daily changes occurring in the commercial world. The ups and downs in prices tax all our ingenuity. The unsettled condition of our country, and the fear of commercial disaster, have presented such ghastly forebodings to the minds of some merchants in our Atlantic cities, that institutions, called panic actions, have sprung up, which hold out peculiar inducements. C. L. Bowman, No. 1, corner of Front and Market streets, will open, to-day, for public inspection, good calico at 25 cents per yard; best quality of moussé de laine at 40 cents per yard; red and white wool flannel at 50 cents per yard; all wool beaver cassimere at $1.50 per yard, and heavy six-quart black beaver cloth, for ladies' and gentlemen's overcoats, at $2.75 per yard. BANNART—Dear Sir: I have used Brown's Bronchial Troches, Wistar's Lozenges and other preparations for hoarseness and throat troubles, and in comparison with them all, can cheerfully commend your own as the most admirable for public speakers and all singers, in cases of hoarseness, coughs and colds. I have found them serving in time of need, most effectually. Yours truly, T. H. ROBINSON, Pastor of N. S. Presbyterian Church.

I agree with Mr. Robinson as to the value of Bannart's Troches. W. CATTELL, Late Pastor of O. S. Presbyterian Church. HARRISBURG, Jan. 1864. To C. A. BANNART—Dear Sir: In the habit of speaking very frequently, and in places where the vocal organs are very much taxed, I have found the need of some good expectorant, and that what has been supplied in your excellent Troches.

I consider them very far superior to any Lozenges that I have ever used, in relieving the most distressing kind of the voice arising from its too frequent use, and impairing the effectiveness of the delivery of public addresses. To C. A. BANNART—Dear Sir: Having used your Troches, I am free to say they are the best I have ever tried and take great pleasure in recommending them to all persons afflicted with colds, throat or hoarseness of voice arising from public speaking or singing. Yours, &c., G. G. BAKERSTRAW, Pastor of Ridge Avenue Methodist Church.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Renovo and Emporium TOWN LOTS FOR SALE.

THE PHILADELPHIA AND ERIE LAND COMPANY, chartered by an act of the Legislature of Pennsylvania, offers for sale choice lots for dwellings and business purposes in the above new towns on the line of the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad. RENOVO has been selected as the site for the extensive shops for building and repairing the rolling stock of the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad, of which the Pennsylvania Railroad Company are now lessees. It is 92 miles west of Sunbury, and 136 miles east of Erie. The town is beautifully situated on the margin of the west branch of the Susquehanna river, in the county of Clinton, and is surrounded by romantic and attractive scenery. The Railroad Company are erecting an immense Locomotive Round House, Repair Shops for Cars and Engines, Car Building shop, Iron and Brass Furnaces, and Dwellings for the Superintendent and other officers. A splendid Hotel, with which are connected arrangements for feeding passengers on the most extensive scale, has been commenced. All these buildings are of the most permanent and substantial character, of brick and stone, and are in accordance with the immense business anticipated on the completion of this great Railroad, so long anxiously looked for, and now an accomplished fact—the last rail connecting the Susquehanna river with Lake Erie having been laid on Saturday, July 24, 1864.

A Company has been chartered by the Legislature for supplying the town with gas. The works are nearly completed. Churches will be erected immediately. The situation of RENOVO is entirely healthy, and as the dimensions of the town are limited by nature, the value of the lots must appreciate greatly in the course of a few years.

EMPORIUM will certainly be the most important commercial point between Lock Haven and the Valley of the Susquehanna. It is near the centre of the railroad, 47 miles west of Renovo; 138 miles from Sunbury and 139 miles from Erie. It is near the Junction of the West Branch of the Susquehanna with West Creek, the Valleys of which Strama make it the most accessible point on the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad as a very extensive district of country. The moment the projected railroad connecting it with the city of Rochester, N. Y., shall be completed, it will be a great market for the sale of its business capabilities. An excellent graded road now connects it with Coudersport, the seat of Justice of Potter county. It is also connected with Sunbury, the seat of Justice of Adams county. Emporium is the County seat of the Erieon county; it has a handsome Court House, and the Land Company have just completed a large and commodious Hotel, which will immediately be opened to the public. The Railroad Company are about to erect a new and permanent Passenger Station at a central point near the Hotel and Court House. The place is healthy, and excellent water is abundant. It is to the market one of the finest White Pine regions in Pennsylvania. As a manufacturing town it has great advantages; coal, lumber, stone, bark for tanneries, sand, and all the railroad communications with the great manufacturing points of importance in the seaboard are unsurpassed. This place was selected thirty years ago as a point of importance, and a view of the water, and the rolling stock of EMPORIUM, but the difficulty of access has prevented its development so entirely that it is mainly known for the great number of mines and mines of the most valuable of the world's scarce affords an example of the rapid rise of any article into general and commercial importance, as has been the case of Potomac. The most parsimoniously limited home traffic, it has sprung into a vast foreign trade, amounting perhaps to $50,000,000 per annum, and is only yet in its infancy. From twenty-five cents per barrel, as it was a few years since, it has risen to little home consumption, and no export trade, it has advanced to twenty dollars per barrel, with a foreign demand that cannot be supplied. The region presents inexhaustible fountains of wealth that have so long been hidden deep in the earth.

I am prepared to dispose of a limited number of shares of Stock in the celebrated "BUENOS SPRING OIL COMPANY OF PENNSYLVANIA," with a capital of $1,000,000. A vast territory of more than one thousand two hundred acres of land, situated in the midst of the most valuable and most productive oil regions of Venango county, Pennsylvania, and the great Kanawha Valley in West Virginia, which are being rapidly sold, yielding largely and four others are being rapidly sold. I am also prepared to offer a certain number of shares in the country opening, they certainly will, a vast field for substantial and permanent investment. This stock will only be offered for a few weeks, as I expect to leave very soon for "Old Florida," to superintend the operations of the company in person. Descriptions of the land, together with full particulars and all the information desired, will be given on application either in person or through the mail. J. B. MUFFLY, Agent.
