HARRISBURG, PA.

THURSDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 27, 1864.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

MR. JOHN LIVINGSTON, an aged and respect able citizen of Washington township, York county, died at his residence, yesterday morn-ing. He was the father-in-law of Mr. Eli Hollinger, of this city.

THE Springfield Republican-whose article on Gen. Wallace and Andy Johnson" is going the rounds of the copperhead press-is not a Union journal, but a rank copperhead sheet, published at Springfield, Mass.

THERE was a sickly gathering at the court house, last night, to hear some of the played-out copperhead politicians defame the U.S. Government, but who forgot to say a word against their bosom friends in politics, Jeff Davis and his followers. The only thing wanting to render the meeting respectable in point of numbers was an audience. The furious ringing of the bell for an hour and a half failed to attract a crowd.

DISCHARGED.---Nathaniel Friedman, the Philadelphia Jew who was arrested on a charge of receiving the goods stolen from D. Eppley & Co., of this city, was up for a final hearing yesterday. The Alderman stated that the officers had not been able to obtain any additional testimony, and that he did not consider the evidence adduced sufficient to justify the holding of the accused. He was, therefore, discharged.

MURDER IN CHAMBERSBURG. - Mr. Jacob Sweitzer, a well-known engineer on the Cumberland Valley Railroad, was killed, last night, at his residence in Chambersburg. We learn that several soldiers, who were intoxicated, went to Mr. Sweitzer's house and demanded ad-mittance, which was refused. They then left, informing Mr. S. that they would return in thirty minutes, and if not admitted, the house would be burned. During their absence Mr. Sweitzer went to a neighbor's for assist ance, and upon his return was met by the soldiers, one of whom struck him on the head with a musket, killing him almost instantly. Mr. Sweitzer was a harmless, quiet citizen, and his murder can be added to the long cat alogue of crime caused by bad women and bad whisky. We are informed that the soldiers have been arrested.

PERSONAL - Corporal James McGowan ac companied by six privates of Co G, 201st P. V. (Capt. Ensminger,) arrived here on Monday, having in charge thirteen drafted men and deserters, en route for the Provost Marshal's headquarters in Chambersburg, to which place they were taken on Tuesday. The men had been "gathered up" in Bedford county. Corporal McGowan and his squad returned from Chambersburg yesterday, and left this city to-day, to rejoin the company, at Bloody Run. They report the boys to be in good condition, generally well, and enjoying themselves finely. Their camp is in an excellent location, and very healthy.

Major John T. Morgan is in command of the detachment at Bloody Run, and is almost worshipped by all the officers and men in He has proven himself the right man camp. in the right place, and by his kindness to all has won the respect of every person in his command.

BRIG. GEN. JOS. F. KNIPE is in this city, having just arrived from Sherman's army.-He is looking well, and brings a good report concerning the army of the South-west. The General has on every occasion fought gallantly for the good old Union. His numerous friends welcome him home.

DEATH OF AN OLD DEFENDER .--- Mr. Jacob DEATH OF AN OLD SUPERNER, SECON Allgafer, a well known citizen of Reading, Pa, died on Monday, in the 73d year of his age, of apoplexy. He was a soldier of the war of 1812, and marched to the defence of Baltimore in the company of Capt. Lotz.

DEATH FROM THE KICK OF A HORSE.--Mr. Samuel Hottck, one of the old and respected citizens of Cornwall township, Lebanon county, was kicked by one of his horses while entering the stable, on Saturday last, and initial and the ball of the ball and injured so badly that he died on Monday evening.

MASS MEETING IN LEBANON. — A Union mass meeting will be held in Lebanon on Tuesday next. Gov. Curtin, Hon. John Cessna and Col. Taylor (of Tennessee) are announced as the speakers. In the evening a grand torch-light procession will take place. Extensive arrangements have been made to render the meeting immense.

ROBBERY IN THE BRIDGE .-- At an early hour last night two men were knocked down in the river bridge, robbed, and stripped of a por-tion of their clothing. We have been unable to learn their names. It is hoped that the plundeers may be arrested and punished.— They were seen running out of the western end of the bridge, and may yet be identified.

STOCK SUBSCRIBED. -The books of the Con-Company were opened in Bedford last week, when the Board of Commissioners was organized, on motion of Hon. John Cessna, by the appointment of S. L. Russell, Chairman. One hundred and two thousand and two shares of stocks were taken, amounting to five millions one hundred and ten thousand dollars.

-----DEATH FROM FALLING FROM A TREE. - An accident occurred on the 19th, at 9 o'clock, resulting in the almost instant death of Mr. John Martz, residing in Walker township, Juniata county. He fell from a chestnut tree, a height of about forty feet, breaking his neck. This is still another warning to men and boys. Mr. Martz leaves a widow and numerous children.

INTERNAL REVENUE DECISION .- The Commissioners of Internal Revenue have decided that "Deeds of partition between tenants in common, are not deeds of conveyance by which title to re al estate is conveyed, nor does a consideration pass between the parties, but the object of the deed is simply to limit and define the rig'ats of the respective parties; therefore, they are not chargeable with stamp duties. duties.

PETER MESER, Eso., of this city, and one of our most intelligent and respectable German Union men, is doing good service in the cause of his country, by delivering German speeches at various points in Northumberland county. On Saturday afternoon he is to speak at Georgetown, and in the evening at Scranton. Mir. Meyer is an able and a sincere man, deserving of the respectable attention of any audience of intelligence. We commend him to our friends in Northumberland and wherever he appears to address the people on the vital issu es of the campaign.

THE SEA OF ICE, OR, THE PRAYER OF THE WRECKED.—Determined to maintain the good eputation of the Theatre, and to render that establishment the best place of amusement in the State, out of Philadelphia, Mr. Rouse has, at a cost of one thousand dollars, made the necessary arrangements to place before our people the greatest drama ever performed in America, entitled THE SEA OF ICE, OB, A THIRST FOR GOLD. The scenery is entirely new, and of the most costly character, and has been made expressly for this grand play. An immense sea of ice occupies the entire stage upon it, cast adrift, by mutineers, are a captain wife and child ; a storm arises, causing the icebergs to disappear, and give way to a tossing, raging body of water. With the te-nacity of death, the fated Captain and his wife cling to a fragment of ice, from which they gradually sink and are engulfed in the furious waters; but, with the divinity of a parent's affection, first placing their infant upon a massive block of ice and instructing upon a massive block of ice and instructing her to appeal to the Omnipotent Power for succor. The mist rises, as if symbolizing Heaven's acceptance of the orphan's prayer. A gorgeously beautiful AURORA BOREALIS resplendent with its sun-tinted variegated hues; illumines the firmament; barely discoverable in the distance, a welcome barque appears, gradually enlarging in size ; as with the speed of wind, as if impelled by mercy's breath, it comes to the orphan's rescue Here follow many interesting scenes of the most thrilling character, followed by a most magnificent gallery, terrace and park of the palace of Del Monte in Paris. Woman's will; the hour of retribution! concluding with a superb tableau of the REALIZATION OF THE MOTHER'S PRAYER. Let no one fail to witness this grand drama-the most magnificent ever presented to our people.

An Improvement.

Thanks to some clever genius, in the name of all Post Office clerks and sensible people enerally, for the new style of addressing Post Office at which it is to be delivered And yet the name of this office is regully stuck away down in one corner, crowded and cramped, in many cases, so as to be hardly legible. How much more sensible to place it, in large, fair letters, right in the midst of the envelope, so as to have it strike the eye of the Postmaster at once, and make sure of having it sent to the right office. Once safely received there, the special delivery will soon bring it into the proper hands. Thus:

ther John.

Second. She has no deceased brother of any name who left a widow. Third. Mrs. Lincoln and her father were born at and near Lexington, Ky., and none of family, so far as known, ever resided in South Carolina, or North Carolina. Fourth. No widow, by the name of Todd, now living at Harrisburg, Pa., ever saw either Mr. or Mrs. Lincoln to their knowledge, or is in any manner related to them.

Fifth. The chivalric sister, whom General Butler says did not "dare" him, or behave unladylike, for the very good reason that she did not even take the trouble to make herself known, was named Martha, not "Julia." So much for the Democratic mode of warfare upon the President's family. We leave the editor of the Harrisburg Pa-triot and Union-delightful names for so truth-ful a print--with the loyal people of this Jo country.
