EVENING EDITION. Important Letter.

MURKIN, Oct. 28, 1864. To the Editor of the Telegraph:

I desire, through your widely circulated paper, to correct, as far as possible, a prevalent error in regard to the votes of soldiers.

It is supposed that under the act of Aug. 25, 1864, regulating elections by soldiers, none of them can vote, except on production of a certificate of assessment, and a receipt for the payment of the special ten cent county tax.

Now, this is not absolutely required, in any case, by that law. It was not the Legislative intention, as I know, having been the draftsman of the bill myself, and as a Senator, one of its most ardent advocates.

That provides, that "the payment of a State or county tax within two years, assessed at least ten days before the election," or the being "between 21 and 22 years of age, shall entitle every white freeman (in other respects qualified) to vote at all elections."

The amendment (also prepared by myself) extends this right to "all qualified electors in military service, under such regulations as shall be prescribed by law."

No power is given to the Legislature to change the meaning of these words "qualified electors"; but power is simply conferred to regulate the manner in which such qualified electors may vote, when in the army; and the act does this and no more.

They could exempt from the payment of all taxes, if thought advisable, but not so as to preserve the right of suffrage, under the Constitution, and hence the nominal ten cent county tax is all that is required in the future.

The right of electors, as defined in the Constitution and the amendment thereto, is specified in the first section of the act; the mode of proof, by the oath of the elector, where he claims to vote on age, or the payment of a tax within two years, when he has no receipt to produce, is prescribed in section 28.

The reading of section 40, without reference to the whole act, has caused misapprehension. Its design was to secure the assessment of all such soldiers over 22 years of age, as had not been assessed within two years, without the necessity of their own personal application, as required by the old law.

It provides, that the offering of a ten cent county tax receipt, shall be prima facie or presumptive evidence of a right to vote; but does not attempt, in the remotest degree, to exclude from voting those who would be entitled, under the provisions of the act, as well as the Supreme Law, to vote without producing any receipt whatever.

My hope is, that these few lines may reach some portions of the army in time to prevent the rejection of votes on this ground.

I have a deep anxiety that every soldier shall enjoy the elective franchise, for the maintenance of which he is exposing his life to danger, and making such heroic sacrifices.

I am yours very respectfully, HENRY JOHNSON.

Another Rebel Stamp Speech for McClellan.

The Richmond Dispatch publishes passages from a recent speech made at Macon, by Hon. B. H. Hill, of Georgia, commending them "as full of good sense."

Among these are the following: "I know that we all want peace, and, if God knows my heart, there is no one who more frequently prays for it than I do.

But how can we make it? Not with Sherman, who says he means extermination. I recently read a letter from him more intensified with malignity than ever escaped the lips of man.

He said he meant to destroy the present people, and populate our country with a better people than the Yankee! You can make with him, or Lincoln only one peace—that is submission.

If Lincoln is defeated, and McClellan elected, in the coming election, we may have peace; but there is no peace party in the North; if we are willing to be subjugated, all will subjugate us if they can.

Peace can only come by the defeat of the enemy. McClellan will never be elected unless Sherman is defeated. The preservation of our honor, the preservation of our State, the election of McClellan, all depend upon the defeat of Sherman.

Every good freeman depends upon his defeat.

INGENUITY OF THE SHARPSHOOTERS.—The Richmond Examiner of the 7th, says the following tribute to the skill of our Yankee sharpshooters:—"Conceive a line of battle beyond a breastwork; each man squatted completely out of sight, firing over his shoulder, while, instead of exposing his head and hands to the advancing confederates, he looks away from the enemy, and narrowly examines the stock of his own gun.

Two little mirrors, scientifically placed at the proper angle, are attached to the stock, enable the soldier to see the sight on his barrel, and all that comes within range without exposing any part of his precious person."

The St. Louis Republican states that at a certain point on the Tennessee river is the headquarters of an old man, who has become a terror to steamboat men.

He is over 60 years old, has a long heavy-barreled gun, and is continually on the watch for a shot at persons employed on the Government transports.

He seldom misses his aim, and is said to have killed as many as 60 men. Futile efforts have been made to catch him; the country thereabouts is a wilderness, composed of dense forests, impenetrable swamps and deep ravines, and in these he makes his home.

NEW YORK NEWSBOYS ON A EUROPEAN TOUR.—One of the most interesting features of the "Newsboys' Lodging House" in New York is a full hall of homes, in which are numbered, and in which the boys are encouraged to save their money, some of them saving from twenty to thirty dollars a month.

Some of these boys even considerable business capacity. As an instance, two of these lads have just started for Europe, worth two thousand dollars each—the result of their earnings.

They propose setting themselves up in business. EMMA JANE LONG, the girl 12 years of age, of Patterson, N. Y., who stole a child and with a large force, and the mountain tops into a well, has been convicted of murder in the second degree.

A BLOODED REPORT, recently arrived at an English port, reports that the Wilmington blockading squadron now numbers one hundred and seventy vessels.

PLEASANTON'S VICTORY OVER PRICE! Price Has but One Gun and No Ammunition.

HE BURNS 400 WAGONS. Two Thousand Prisoners and Several Thousand Stand of Arms Captured.

Price's Army Demoralized. It is Flying in All Directions.

St. Louis, Oct. 28. Gen. Pleasanton gives the following information in regard to his operations against Price:

He marched 92 miles in two days and fought 32 miles.

His force was less than six thousand (6,000), while Price had fully 25,000. Price has but one gun left, and no ammunition, he having blown up his train.

He also burned 400 wagons to save them from capture. We have 2,000 prisoners, with several thousand stand of arms. General Fagan is reported killed.

Price's army is completely demoralized, and flying in all directions.

The Copperhead Forgers of Soldiers' Votes. DONOHUE IN COURT.

He Pleads Guilty!!! The military commission to-day resumed its investigation of the frauds in the vote of New York soldiers.

H. Donohue was brought into court about one o'clock. He had no counsel but proceeded in his own behalf to object to the jurisdiction of the court.

The prisoner pleaded guilty of having signed certain blanks with the name of O. S. Arturs, Capt. Dady and some others, and as it did not appear that he was an officer of the State of New York or of the United States, there was, he contended, no crime.

Important Order of Gen. Dix. The States to be Flooded with Rebel Emisaries to Interfere at the Elections!!!

THE PEOPLE WARNED. Provost Marshals to Arrest Suspicious Characters.

New York, Oct. 28. General Dix has issued an order stating that satisfactory information has reached him that the rebel agents in Canada are sending into the United States large numbers of refugees, deserters and enemies of the Government.

to vote at the Presidential election; and it is not unlikely they will subsequently be organized for the purpose of shooting respectable citizens, and to plunder public and private property.

He says such persons are liable to punishment, and no effort will be spared to arrest them. Provost Marshals and their deputies are charged to detect such persons, and the electors are recommended to take measures for their own security, and to aid the authorities in bringing the rebel emissaries to punishment.

Effective measures will be taken to prevent their return into Canada. All persons from the rebel States are required to report to the military authorities here or to the provost marshals in other places, for registering by the sixth of November, failing which they are to be treated as rebel spies and emissaries.

The War in the Southwest. ARRIVAL OF REFUGEES AT MEMPHIS.—ATTACK ON A UNION STEAMER ON WHITE RIVER.—SIXTEEN SOLDIERS KILLED.—EVACUATION OF SAINT CHARLES.

CAIRO, Oct. 27. The steamer Mayduke, from Duvall's Bluff, arrived at Memphis on the 25th inst., with a large number of refugees.

St. Charles, Arkansas, is being evacuated. POSITION OF THE REBEL GEN. LYON.—HOOD'S ARMY REPORTED NEAR GUNTERSVILLE.—BEST REPORTED THREATENING PADUCAH.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 27. A Nashville dispatch of to-day reports that the rebel Gen. Lyon had crossed near the mouth of White Oak Creek.

A dispatch from Huntsville says that no rebel forces had passed over the Whitesburg and Warrenton road since Tuesday night.

A soldier of the 44th U. S. Colored Infantry, who had escaped from Hood's army, says a part of Hood's force (he thinks it is Gen. Lee's corps) are making for Whitesburg.

A dispatch from Clayville says the captain of the gunboat Gen. Thomas reports, when coming up the river, having seen picket and post fires from the mountain tops towards Gunterville, and the mountain tops into a well, he saw were empty.

A Federal soldier, who was a prisoner since the attack on Dalton, but escaped, arrived at Clayville, and reported that when he left the main force of Hood's army, on Tuesday morning, 28,000 strong, were at Warrenton. He understood the rebels intended crossing the Tennessee in the vicinity of Gunterville.

Forrest is reported as threatening Paducah with a large force. Our military circles are on the alert for its defence.
