ANOTHER VOTE — Fifty-one for the Grave Dig-ger. — The following is the result of a vote taken yesterday, on a passenger train between Baltimore and this city :

PASTOR CHOSEN.-We learn that at a meeting, held on Monday evening last, Rev. Wm. H. H. Snyder, of Akron, Ohio, was unani-mously elected Pastor of the First German Reformed Church in this city. Rev. S. was chosen on the ground of his intellectual ability and sterling christian virtues. He will doubtless accept the call thus unanimously tendered.

CONSIDERABLE excitement was created in market, this morning, by a dog chase. A large Newfoundland canine seized a large roll of pudding belonging to one of the city butch-The butcher followed the dog, to regain the possession of his property, but the dog couldn't see anything but the pudding and a way of escape, and he succeeded in getting away to where he could leisurely devour his

A STRANGE STORY.—"Forty years ago, says the Mount Joy Herald, a Mr. Reidlinger, of West Donegal township, got a man to take his wife and children to Mr. J. D. Lindemuth, saying that he thought Mr. Lindemuth, EXTENSION.—The necessary papers to the con-tract forerecting the new wing to the Capitol, were signed by the Commissioners ap-pointed to negotiate for the affair, and de-blumed to Mac D. Science the affair, and dehis whe and condition to Mr. o. D. Lindemuth, saying that he thought Mr. Lindemuth would keep them, but if not, they should be left on the Conoy Ridge. Reidlinger then disap-peared, and was not since heard from till a few days ago, when he appeared at the house of his daughter, Mrs. Frederick Granton, an old man of 80 years. His wife had died a year or two since. While he could do his family a great deal of good he abandoned them, and ow when he is helplose and nock them. now when he is helpless and needs assistance he comes to be a burden to them."

THE SAECASM OF THE SOLDIERS.—The Cop-perheads of this city are daily being rebuked by the veteran soldiers who are quartered here, or by the recruits who are sent out from this post, to fill up the different divisions of the army. The Copperheads are persistent in their efforts to induce the soldiers to believe that it would be to their benefit to vote for "Little Mac," but the soldiers, God bless them, "can't see it in that light." For the amusement of the reader, we will repeat one or two of many incidents of this character which lately came within our observation:

A day or two since, a returned veteran was seized by a party largely composed of Cops, and conducted to a refreshment saloon, to be "treated." About the time the poisoned glass was being lifted to the lips of each man, one of the Cops called out, "Here's to Mc-Clellan, the hero and statesman," a sentiment to which all the drinkers drank but the soldier. He replaced his glass, unemptied, on the bar, and after gazing steadily at the man who prepared the toast, called for "more liquor for all hands." Instantly the glasses were filled, and when the party were about again to quaff the poison, the soldier gave the following toast in a clear strong voice-

"Abraham Lincoln-the present and next President of the United States-Gen. Grant and Gen. Sheridan, with Sherman, the bully of the Southwest, and all the perpetuators of American freedom! Gentlemen," said the soldier, "I could not drink to the first toast, because I have heard McClellan's must base, best heard mcClellan's name too often shout-ed by the rebels as they poured their deadly fire into my face-I would be a fool to drink such a sentiment, and a knave to vote for such a candidate. And if you all don't drink to my sentiments, there will be a row in this As the soldier drank every glass in that company was raised to the lips of the men thereof and drained. Yesterday afternoon, a fiery headed, baw-

ling cop, was amusing the newsboys in front of our office, with the declaration that the or our once, with the declaration that the army was for McClellan. "Ind's so," said a soldier who was justhopping along on crutches, "If you mean the rebel army." —. These sarcasms will suffice for the present, to show by what preferences the soldiers are controlled.

THE BATTLE HOUR APPROACHING-ANOTHER GRAND RALLY FOR THE UNION AND THE GOV-ERNMENT.-Last night the Court House was filled again to overflowing, by another of those intelligent and patriotic audiences which have been attending the splendid series of Union meetings held during the campaign, in this city, under the auspices of the Union County Com-mittee. The Republican Invincibles were out in full equipments, with their popular drum corps, and, after parading through the principal streets of the city, entered the Court House, to participate in the proceedings of the meet-

J. M. Wiestling, Esq., called the meeting to order, by the nomination of the following officers :

President-Dr. GEORGE BAILEY.

Vice Presidents-Gen. Joseph F. Knipe, Beorge H. Small, Charles C. Rawn, William Colder, Peter Bernheisel, Martin Lutz, David Crawford, George Garverich, William Bostick, Grawford, George Garvenon, William Bosteck, John Miller, jr., Daniel Strominger, Josiah M'Farland, George Zinn, William Shafer, W. Bishop, Washington Barr, Jerome Bar-nitz, Anthony King, George Pipes, Daniel Beicart Reigart.

Secretaries—A. S. Chayne, B. J. Harris, Capt. W. E. Sees, Charles Suydam, William Steese, H. M. Graydon, Simon Duey, Jacob Mish, Erastus J. Jones.

R. H. Dana, of Boston, was then introduced and proceeded to address the meeting on the leading issues involved alike in the effort to put down rebellion and secure the safety of the Government, by the re-election of Abra-ham Lincoln. He proved conclusively that the defeat of Mr. Lincoln at the ballot-box, would be received by the world as tantamount to the defeat of our armies on the battle field He convinced his hearers that the election of M'Clellan would be followed by the recognition of the Confederacy, because the friends of M'-Clellan were pledged to that measure, so that if he failed to satisfy them by his official acts in that direction, they would organize rebel-lion in the north to force him into such measures. General Kiernan, of Ohio, was next introduced. He spoke ably and boldly in support of the Government, and made one of the most powerful speeches delivered in this city during the campaign. The meeting adjourned with cheers for the

CLEAR THE TRACK-THE TRAIN IS COMING!-We trust none of our readers will fail to go and hear George Francis Train, at the Court House, on Monday evening. Mr. T. was a delegate to the Chicago Convention, and went there a Democrat. He came away a Democrat, but not of the peace and surrender order. He was a McClellan man, but not a Pendleton and Platform man. We advise honest Democrats who love their country to go and hear him. He is an eloquent speaker, full of sharp satire and piercing wit.

SUDDEN DEATH. - The Lewisburg Chronicle SUDDEN DEATH. - The Lewisburg Chronicle says that after dinner on Saturday last, James Clark, Esq., left the house of James Hayes to visit the grave of his brother, Flavel Clark, in the Lewisburg Cemetery. Two hours after, he was found hear the grave, entirely dead, having died probably of heart disease. Mr. Clark was born in Lewisburg, about the year 1800, but on reaching manhood settled at Birmingham, on the Juniata, where he was a long time engaged in the mercantile busi-ness. Two years he represented Huntingdon ness. Two years he represented Huntingdon county in the State Legislature, and was Rev-enue Collector at the time of his death.

UNION MASS METING IN MECHANICSBURG A Union Mass Meeting will be held in Me-chanicsburg, on Friday, 4th inst. Among the speakers announced we find the names of Rev. J. Walker Jackson, of this city, Rev. E. W. Nevin, of Carlisle, E. C. Stewart, Esq., L. W. Nevin, of Canise, D. Steward, Esd, of Juniata county, Capt. Hutchinson, and others. The reverend gentlemen named are powerful speakers, and are doing a noble work for the cause of the Union. They are speaking for their country, and have a higher object in view than the election of men of the country of the schemping of Free any particular party. As champions of Free-dom and the Right, they have won for them-selves a reputation that cannot be attained by the politician. The people of Cumberland county should turn out en masse on Friday, to hear these eloquent clergymen. Capt. Hutchinson has served his country on the battle-field, and is throwing hot shot into the rebel ranks at home, with telling effect.

COPPERHEAD FALSEHOODS.—A certain horse doctor, of this city, visited the farmers at market, this morning, and circulaed statemarket, this morning, and circulated state-ments that would be more properly told in Richmond. He stated, among other things, that Grant's army had been whipped and cut to pieces, that Sheridan had been defeated and had fied to the monsteing becides pu and had field to the mountains, besides nu-merous falsehoods which could only be cirmerous faisencous which could only be cir-culated by a rebel sympathizer, or by a man who was compelled to take the oath of allegi-ance. He also recommended the farmers to take the New York World, the Philadelphia Age, and other rebel publications. The farmtake the New York World, the Philadelphia Age, and other rebel publications. The farm-ers are informed that there was no truth, whatever, in the statements of this man, and no defeat has befallen our armies. Look out for all sorts of copperhead lies, and brand their authors as the agents of Jeff Davis. The reliable news from the army will be found in our columns deils.

A Marshal Shot by a Deserter.

THE TEACHINGS OF BIGLER, WALLACE AND THE COPPERHEAD ORGAN OF CLEARFIELD COUNTY BEING VERIFIED.

Correspondence of the Telegraph.]

CLEARFIELD, Oct. 31, 1864. On yesterday morning, the 30th inst., two officers attempted to arrest a deserter, a riotous character by the name of Joseph Lans-berry, who lived about two miles from Clearfield town. He (Lansberry) saw the officers coming and barred the door, when the officers broke it in, and one of them, named Butler, followed him up stairs, and while ascending them Lansberry shot him in the abdomen with his rifle, and before assistance could reach the wounded man he clubbed his rifle, striking him on the head, fracturing his kull and otherwise injuring him seriously. The man died the same night, another victim to the principles of the Peace party. When the other officer reached the head of the state and dama his pitch on the murderer

the stairs and drew his pistol on the murderer, it missed fire, when they clinched, and the officer knocked the deserter down stairs, and before he could reach him he recovered and made off, when two or three shots were fired at him, one of which is supposed to have wounded him slightly, inasmuch as blood was found on his trail, but he still succeeded in making good his escape by taking to the woods, and is still at large. The civil authori-ties are making no effort to arrest the mur-derer, for they have been taught to believe that it is all right to murder an officer of the Government. This same deserter, it will be remembered, is the man whom the copperhead party, on the election day, sent an armed escort of six or eight of their partizans to escort to the polls for the purpose of voting for Wm. Bigler
