HARRISBURG, PA.

THURSDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 3, 1864.

MASS MEETING AT HUMMELSTOWN.

Grand Torch Light Procession.

HON. GALUSHA A. GROW

(Ex-Speaker of the House of Representatives.)

AND OTHER DISTINGUISHED SPEAKERS.

Will address the citizens of Hummelstown, and surrounding townships this evening.

THE HARRISBURG REPUBLICAN INVICIBLES will also be in attendance, and participate in the Torch Light Procession.

An Excursion Train

Will leave the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Depot at seven o'clock this evening for Hummelstown, and will return at eleven o'clock P. M. The citizens of Harrisburg are invited to attend.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

DAN DOUGHERTY, the silver-toned orator, will address the Union people of Carlisle, on Saturday evening next.

It is very singular that the Copperhead papers, while they denounce the National Administration and its prosecution of the war, have not a single word to say against Jeff Davis and his bogus confederacy. A strange sort of Union people are the Copperheads.

The following post-offices in Pennsylvania have been designated as "money-order offices": Easton, Erie, Harrisburg, Honesdale, Johnstown, Lewistown, Meadville, New Castle, Pittsburg, Pottsville, Reading and Scranton.

HO, FOR HUMMELSTOWN!—A special train will leave Harrisburg at a quarter before seven o'clock this (Thursday) evening, to convey passengers to the Union meeting in Hummelstown. Returning, the train will leave there before eleven o'clock. All who desire to attend the meeting should be at the Lebanon Valley Depot in time for the train. Let there be a grand rally.

THE MECHANISBURG MASS MEETING.—The people of the lower end of Cumberland county are making extensive preparations for the grand Union mass meeting to be held in Mechanisburg to-morrow. Should the weather be favorable, the processions from the various townships will be immense. The meeting will doubtless be the largest ever held in the county.

THE PEOPLE WILL VOTE FOR FATHER ABRAHAM.—Another vote was taken on the Northern Central train from Baltimore, yesterday. The following figures indicate the result: For Lincoln..... 413 For McClellan..... 79

Lincoln's majority..... 334

The above is reliable. The vote was taken by Major Welsh, of the Second Ohio Cavalry.

RETURN OF THE ONE HUNDRED DAYS' MEN.—At an early hour this morning the 194th and the 195th Pennsylvania regiments arrived here. These regiments are composed of one hundred days' men, whose term of service expires in the 194th regiment are our Danphin county companies, made up principally in this city. Their numerous friends tender them a hearty welcome home. The regiments proceeded to Camp Curtin, where they are encamped, awaiting their discharge from the service. Many of the men express a determination to re-enlist immediately.

A DASTARDLY ACT.—A Union Man's Barn Burnt by Copperheads.—The Huntingdon Journal says that the barn of George Lang, in Walker township, in that county, was burned to the ground on Wednesday night last, together with his entire stock of grain, which had just been got in. There can be no doubt that this has been the work of an incendiary. There was a large Union meeting held at McClellanstown that evening, which Mr. Lang had taken great pains to make a creditable affair, being a strong Union man, and consequently the feeling against him among the copperheads in that township, was very bitter. Shortly after the meeting was organized the cry of fire was heard, and the barn, about quarter of a mile distant, was discovered to be wrapped in flames. The loss is a severe one to Mr. Lang, and it is hoped that the perpetrators of this diabolical outrage will be brought to justice. We are glad to state that some of the most influential McClellan men of that township, have come out boldly for Lincoln since this outrage, and declare they will support no party which resorts to such acts.

THE SOLDIER RETURNS FROM THE WAR.—Just as we were cogitating where we could find a few items for a local this morning, there was a tap at the sanatorium door, and to the summons "walk in," in came a bronze faced, straight, stalwart handsome-looking young soldier, wreathed in smiles, as he stretched forth his hand for a salutation and a "how do you do?" Well, what a surprise! As we lived, there stood one of our bravest in Lewis, who had just returned from the war. Lewis became restive when the one hundred days' men went out. Types, and rollers, and presses lost their old charm in his eyes. He wanted to go for a soldier. He was strong and ardent—but then we imagined him too young, being less than sixteen years old. Still the boy would go, and he was too brave and good to be disappointed, and therefore, with the consent of his friends, we let him go. He has just been absent one hundred days. In that time he was at the front, and the fact which renders him as proud as any of the grenadiers that used to hold up their heads and curl their mustaches when Napoleon spoke of brave men. "Thank God, the boy returns to his home safe. What miscreant dare talk of submission when America is blessed with such sons?"

We had scarcely ceased our greeting of Lewis when another of our kind, a soldier of his country, and the dead in the German department of the office, William Stephen, came forward for a greeting. He, too, is young, handsome and brave; was also in the front under fire, where he learned something of the duty and danger of defending a country that should be dear beyond all price to the young men to whom it has given birth. And now he returns safe to his old duties in this office.

—God bless the boys!

The loyal merchants of Pittsburg have determined to close their stores on the day when we are to elect a President of the United States. Why should not the patriotic merchants of Harrisburg follow the example?

ANOTHER FALSEHOOD.—The Tory Organ of last evening announces that a soldier was put out of the Union meeting on Tuesday evening. The person put out was an Irishman, residing in the 1st ward, who never smelt gunpowder, and was weakly drunk.

The failure of Reverdy Johnson to appear in this city, last evening, was explained by the Tory Organ as owing to his sickness. This will do to tell the marines; but as Reverdy Johnson is controlled entirely by mercenary considerations, we are inclined to think that the managers of copperheadism in this city, could not raise the amount required by Johnson, to pay a two hours' speech.

FROM A HARRISBURG ARTIST ON A PROFESSIONAL TOUR IN GREAT BRITAIN.—The Example of a Patriotic American Citizen—He Defends the Land of his Adoption in the Face of the Effeminate Enemies.—It is with peculiar pleasure that we print the following letter from our young friend, Harry Davis, who is now on a professional tour, with his great Panorama of the Rebellion, through Great Britain. We commend the tone of Mr. Davis' letter to a class of men in our own midst, and ask them to profit by the lesson of his patriotism. The people of this great country, when Mr. Davis returns to the home of his adoption, will not forget the sincerity of his devotion. After having served our cause on the battlefield, it needed only this last test of his patriotism to give Harry Davis a place in the warmest affections of the American people.

We submit an extract from his letter as follows:

ABERDEEN, Oct. 15, 1864.

To W. H. H. SRO, Esq.—Dear Sir:—Here I am among the great mountains of Glamorganshire. All the citizens of this county speak the Welsh language, which, you know, is my native tongue. My success here has been great. Thousands crowd in to learn all they can about America and the American rebellion, from one, as they well know, will tell them the truth about American affairs. They do not get the truth through the columns of the newspapers, because the papers are all controlled by the same old fashioned copperhead party. My Panorama is all one sided, all for the North and nothing for the South. Now, Mr. Sro, I am one of those kind of persons who will always give the "Devil his due," and I have given the South credit for more than his people ever deserved. The reporters in my entertainment were quite terrified when they heard me denouncing the Southern cause so strongly. Some of the "Big Game" in the audience looked daggers at me, but thank God most of the hard working men are in favor of the government of the United States, and when these working men heard me tell of some of the great victories of the Northern army, they cheered until the large hall echoed with their applause. They had never heard of them through the columns of the papers. I said to them that America was to-day more prosperous than England, although America has had three years of war and bloodshed, and had supported an army of nearly one million of men. You can rejoice that the North has thousands of admirers among the rugged old mountain of Wales. The inhabitants of this place listen with great attention to what I have to say them. I find a great difference in the sentiment here and in Monmouthshire. In Monmouth they cheered loudly for Jeff Davis and his Lincoln, and one of their leading gentlemen had the impudence to make me a proposition from the audience. "What do you think it is?" Well, the old chap got up and swelled out his corporation and said, "Young man, you are on the wrong side; you advocate the cause of the South and you will make ten shillings where you now make one." And others would sing out, "If America is such a good country, why did you leave it?" To which I promptly replied "to enlighten you on the war in America."

HARRY H. DAVIS.

COPPERHEAD METHOD OF ELDTONEERING AMONG THE SOLDIERS.—The following is a copy of a letter received by a soldier of the 200th Penna Regiment, from a Copperhead, who, before said soldier enlisted, endeavored to induce him to vote against the Constitutional amendments allowing the soldiers to vote:

SHEPHERDSTOWN, Pa., Oct. 21, 1864.

FRIEND, I am going to send you a McClellan ticket. The old woman says if you don't vote she will "schlibe" on you. All the girls are wearing McClellan badges except Nelson's girls, and they are as black as hell. The State has gone Democratic, and if you are tired of drafts, taxes, &c., vote for McClellan. Consider the times, prices, &c., of everything you eat and wear, and then vote as you please. Enclosed you will find the Simon-pure tickets. Respectfully yours, WM. L. O.—N.

BUSINESS ITEMS.

IS FRIENDSHIP BUT A NAME?—Association and the ties of consanguinity sometimes have a ruinous control over the interests of individuals. A case in point: Brother-in-law John called in at brother-in-law James' store and purchased a ladies' dress pattern, and a suit of handsome cloth for self. Brother-in-law James is asked by one who noticed that the price is high, why he charges brother-in-law John so much. Oh, says James, I always charge relations more. Honestly blushes at transactions of this character, and the purity of friendship becomes alarmed. The safety of purchasers is largely protected in making the acquaintance of stores where the proprietor's ambition and pride is to sell at lower prices than their honest competitors, not, however, without making a living profit, or through selling at prices to one and less than cost to others. C. L. Bowman respectfully suggests his establishment to those who are disposed to obtain dry goods at the lowest cash market price. No. 1, cor. of Front and Market streets.

EAST PENNSBORO TOWNSHIP, CUMBERLAND CO., Pa., Nov. 2, 1864.

MESSES. KUNKEL & BRO., Gentlemen:—I take pleasure in adding my mite to the great mass of testimony in favor of the great King of Pain medicine, which I have used with my right limb. It was so bad that she was confined to her bed a great deal. I was induced to try for her your medicine. She has applied one 2 dollar bottle and it has already effected great relief. I want another bottle, which I feel certain will bring about a permanent cure. It is but fair to add that my daughter has been troubled a great deal with neuralgia in the face. She has used it completely cured. The son of a neighbor of mine was very sick with the intermittent fever. Nothing seemed to help him. He used one bottle of your medicine, and is now perfectly well again. I consider it a great thing, and everybody ought to have it. Yours truly, GEORGE MANN.

THE undersigned takes the pleasure to inform the ladies of this city and vicinity, that she has received from the makers of CLOAKS, CAPS, CIRCULARS, LARKS, ranging in price from $6 to $25. This stock comprises the very latest styles and best qualities, all of which have been purchased since the decline in gold, and are offered at lower rates than they can be sold by any other establishment in the city.

MRS. M. MAYER, Boger's Old Stand, No. 13 Market street, Sept 28-4f

HAVE YOU HEARD THE NEWS.—Augustus Lochman has removed his Dry Goods Store to No. 12 Market Square, next door to Henry Felix's, Harrisburg, Pa. nov1-5t

THE cheapest and most select fashionable ladies' bonnets, hats, cloaks and circulars are to be found at Mrs. M. Mayer's, No. 13 Market street, between River alley and Front street, (Boger's old stand.) oct17-4f

DR. M'BRAID'S King of Pain should be kept in every family. Will cure Headache, Toothache, Earache in three minutes. Diarrhoea, Bloody Flux, pain in the Back and Side, Inflammation of the Kidneys and Liver Complaint and Palpitation of the Heart. Sole agent for the State, S. A. KUNKEL & BRO., 118 Market street, Harrisburg.

All orders from a distance promptly attended to. sept20-4f

FEVER AND AGUE can be cured. Do not think because you have tried everything you could read or hear of, that you cannot get anything to cure you, for you have not taken the pure vegetable that is curing every one that takes it. It does not stop your shaking for a week or two, but it is a perfect cure. A trial of this will convince you and your neighbors. It can be had only at No. 27, South Pine street, by Mrs. L. Ball. oct17-4f

SPECIAL NOTICES.

This article has been thoroughly tested by Dr. CHELTON of New York, and Professors Booth and Garrett of Philadelphia, who pronounce it free from all poisonous ingredients, and the material composing it will not injure the most delicate hair. Sold by Druggists and Fancy Goods dealers everywhere.

JNO. J. KROMER, Sole Proprietor, 403 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Drunkness Cured. The inebriate may now bid defiance to the tempting cup. Dr. Zane's antidote for strong drink is a certain cure for drunkness. It creates a dislike for strong drink, and can be administered without the knowledge of the patient. Descriptive circulars sent to any address. For sale by all respectable druggists in the United States and Canada. Price $1 per box, or packages of six boxes for $5.

JNO. J. KROMER, Wholesale Agent, 403 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Dr. Rand's Specific. The oldest and most reliable medicine for the cure of Spermatorrhoea, Seminal Weakness, Loss of Power &c. This medicine has stood the test of over thirty years, and has always proved a success.

DR. RAND'S SPECIFIC is exhibited in the form of pills, made up entirely of substances that have a specific effect upon the generative organs. Most persons associate the idea of operations upon the bowels from taking any kind of pills. The Specific of Dr. Rand is not intended as an evacuating medicine. Its medicinal virtues are expended entirely upon the impaired regenerative organs. The pills are not unpleasant to the taste, and many persons mistake them with impunity before swallowing them, which affords the opportunity to get the effect of the remedy.

Price $1 per box, or six boxes for $5. Sold by druggists everywhere.

Bannvart's Troches.

For the cure of Hoarseness, Throat Dis-eases, &c., are specially recommended to ministers, singers and persons whose vocation calls them to speak in public. Manufactured only by C. A. Bannvart & Co., Harrisburg, Pa., to whom all orders should be addressed. Sold by druggist every where.

Read the following testimonials from some of our eminent clergymen:

HARRISBURG, Feb. 8th, 1864.

C. A. BANNVART.—Dear Sir: I have used Bannvart's Troches, Wistar's Lozenges and other preparations for hoarseness and throat troubles, and in comparison with them all, can cheerfully commend your own as a most admirable specific for public speakers and singers, in cases of hoarseness, coughs and colds. I have found them serving in times of need, most effectually.

Yours truly, T. H. ROBINSON, Pastor of N. S. Presbyterian Church.

I agree with Mr. Robinson as to the value of Bannvart's Troches.

W. C. OATTELL, Late Pastor of O. S. Presbyterian Church.

HARRISBURG, Jan., 1864.

To C. A. BANNVART.—Dear Sir: In the habit of speaking very frequently, and in places where the vocal organs are very much taxed, I have found the need of some good expectorant, and that want has been supplied in your excellent Troches.

I consider them very far superior to any Lozenges that I have ever used, in removing speedily that huskiness of the voice arising from its too frequent use, and impairing the effectiveness of the delivery of public addresses. Yours, &c., JNO. WALKER JACKSON, Pastor of the Locust St. Methodist Church.

To C. A. BANNVART.—Dear Sir: Having used your Troches, I am free to say they are the best I have ever tried and take great pleasure in recommending them to all persons afflicted with sore throat or huskiness of voice arising from public speaking or singing. Yours, &c., G. G. RAKESTRAW, Pastor of Ridge Avenue Methodist Church.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE, HARRISBURG, Feb. 29, 1864.

To C. A. BANNVART.—Dear Sir:—I have found your Troches to be invaluable in relieving hoarseness and in strengthening the muscles of the throat. They impart clearness to the voice, and are certainly of great benefit to all public speakers. A. J. HERB

A PHYSIOLOGICAL VIEW OF MARRIAGE.—Containing nearly 300 pages and 130 line plates and engravings of the Anatomy of the Human Organism in a state of health and disease, with a treatise on early errors, its deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only rational and successful mode of cure, as shown by the report of cases treated. A truthful adviser to the married, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain notions of their physical condition. Sent free of postage to any address, on receipt of 25 cents in stamps or postal currency, by addressing Dr. H. P. RUTTER, No. 31, Maiden Lane, Albany, N. Y.

The author may be consulted upon any of the diseases upon which his book treats, either personally or by mail, and medicine sent to any part of the world. oct24-4f

Renovo and Emporium TOWN LOTS FOR SALE

THE PHILADELPHIA AND ERIE LAND COMPANY, chartered by an act of the Legislature of Pennsylvania, offers for sale choice lots for dwellings and business purposes in the above new towns on the line of the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad.

RENOVO has been selected as the site for the extensive shops for building and repairing the rolling stock of the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad. It is 92 miles west of Sunbury, and 196 miles east of Erie. The town is beautifully situated on the margin of the west branch of the Susquehanna river, in Luzerne county, and is surrounded by romantic and attractive scenery. The Railroad Company are erecting an immense Locomotive Round House, Repair Shops for Great Engines, Car Building shop, iron and Brass Furnaces, and Buildings for the Superintendent and other officers. A splendid Hotel, with which are connected arrangements for feeding passengers, and the most extensive coal yard, have been commenced. All these buildings are of the most permanent and substantial character, of brick and iron, and are in accordance with the immense business anticipated on the completion of this great Railroad, so long anxiously looked for, and now an accomplished fact—the last rail connecting the Susquehanna river with Lake Erie having been laid on Saturday, July 24, 1864.

A Company has been chartered by the Legislature for supplying the town with gas and water, and the water works are nearly completed. Streets will be opened immediately. The situation of RENOVO is entirely healthy, and as the dimensions of the town are limited, the value of the lots most appreciate greatly in the course of a few years.

EMPORIUM will certainly be the most important commercial point between Lock Haven and Warren, a distance of 168 miles. It is near the centre of which the Pennsylvania Railroad, 139 miles from Sunbury and 149 miles from Erie. It is near the Junction of the Drift-wood Canal, the Susquehanna River, and the Portage Creek and North Creek, the Valleys of which streams make it the most accessible point on the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad—a very extensive district of country. The moment the projected railroad connecting it with the city of Rochester, N. Y., shall be completed, few interior towns in the State will surpass it in business facilities. An excellent graded road now connects it with Coudersport, the seat of Justice of Potter county. It is also connected with Smithport, the seat of Justice of McKean county. Emporium is the County seat of Cameron county; it has a handsome Court House, and the Land Company have just completed a large and commodious Hotel, which will immediately be opened to the public. The Railroad Company are about to erect a depot and some permanent Passenger Station at a central point near the Hotel and Court House. The place is healthy, and the water is abundant. It is one of the finest White Pine regions in Pennsylvania. As a manufacturing town it has great advantages; coal, lumber, stone, bark for tanneries are abundant, and all the necessary communications with the great centers of points of importance in the seaboard are unimpeded.

This place was selected thirty years ago as a point of importance, and a town and General Superintendent will furnish all necessary information on the premises, or by letter.

It may be addressed to the care of H. P. RUTTER, Secretary and Treasurer, Philadelphia and Erie Land Company, No. 205 1/2 Walnut street Philadelphia, or at Renovo, Clinton county, Pennsylvania.

W. MOOREHEAD, Pres't. Phila. and Erie Land Co.

H. P. RUTTER, Secretary and Treasurer. oct21-d5m

Lithographic Maps of both towns are now ready, and GEO. H. HALL, General Superintendent, will furnish all necessary information on the premises, or by letter.

It may be addressed to the care of H. P. RUTTER, Secretary and Treasurer, Philadelphia and Erie Land Company, No. 205 1/2 Walnut street Philadelphia, or at Renovo, Clinton county, Pennsylvania.

BUILDING LOTS FOR SALE. THE BEST CHANCE to get Cheap Homes NOW OFFERED IN THE CITY.—The subscriber offers for sale 72 Building Lots, situated in the Sixth Ward, between Reilly and Golden streets, fronting on Susquehanna, Two and a half and Second streets. Most of them have valuable pear and apple trees on them, bearing the choicest fruits, selected by Col. John Roberts thirty years ago, the fruit of which will pay for the ground in a short time. There is also on a portion of the ground a sand bank, above the grade of the streets, containing sand of the best quality, which will more than pay for the ground. The location is such that no drainage is required; the cellars will always be perfectly dry. These lots will be sold below the current price of ground in now bringing in this city, and in fact so low as to afford an opportunity for an investor to secure a home.

NOW READY FOR SALE AT FROM $125 TO $225 A LOT. A plan of the ground can be seen at the office of the subscriber, No. 24, North SECOND street.
