HARRISBURG, PA.

FRIDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 4, 1894.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

RAIN commenced to fall about eleven o'clock last evening, and continued without intermission through the night, and up to a late hour this forenoon.

STAGE FOR JONESTOWN.—Notice is hereby given that the stage for Jonestown starts from Buck's Hotel every Monday, Wednesday and Friday morning, at seven o'clock.

ELDERSHIP.—East Pennsylvania Eldership of the Church of God is holding its annual meeting in Newburg, Cumberland county. The appointments have not yet been announced.

ATTENTION is invited to the advertisement of a sale of hardware and other articles, to be held at the old stand of Houser & Lochman, on Monday next. The sale will be positive, and bargains may be had.

The Silver Cornet Band of Chambersburg, has been engaged to attend the Union meeting at Middletown, to-morrow evening. This is one of the best bands in the State, and will furnish delightful music.

A very important order to refugees and deserters from the rebel lines, and citizens of States in rebellion, who are not in the military department, is published in our advertising columns, by Major Dodge.

CAPTURED.—We learn that Harry Redd, of the Allegheny, was captured by the rebels, in the late engagement before Petersburg. His friends earnestly hope that he may be speedily released.

A STATED MEETING of the Hope Fire Company will be held this (Friday) evening. An election will be held for an engineer of the new steamer, and other important business will be brought before the meeting. Every member is requested to be present.

THE HOPE STEAMER.—We announced, a few days ago, that the steam engine of the Hope Fire Company was expected to arrive early this week. We learn, however, that there was a misunderstanding between the company and the manufacturers, in regard to dates, and that the "masshen" will not arrive before the last of this month.

THANKSGIVING.—Governor Curtin has appointed Thursday, 24th inst., as a day of thanksgiving to Almighty God, for the numerous blessings bestowed upon us as a people, during the past year. It is hoped that the day will be properly observed by the citizens of Pennsylvania. Let all business be suspended, in order that all the people may assemble in their respective places of worship, and return thanks.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?—The Erie Dispatch, a neutral paper, says: A ballot has been received in this county, purporting to be that of a soldier, who, his father testifies, is only fifteen years old; and the signature to the affidavit, the frank on the outer envelope, are all in the same handwriting, and that is not the handwriting of the soldier. The ballot is for the McClellan party.

STILL THEY VOTE.—A vote on the Presidency was taken last evening, on the accommodation train between Baltimore and this city, resulting as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Candidate and Votes. For Lincoln: 163, McClellan: 43. Majority for Lincoln: 120. On the train from Baltimore to-day, Moses S. Kinhart, Co. A, 7th Maryland Regiment, took a vote with the following result: Lincoln: 840, McClellan: 65. Lincoln's majority: 775.

The Republican Invincibles marched through some of our streets, last evening, before leaving for Hummelstown. They had their lamps trimmed and burning, and with their beautiful caps and coats, presented a fine appearance. They were headed by the splendid drum corps from the cotton factory barracks. The Invincibles returned from Hummelstown about eleven o'clock. Their parade in that place created quite a sensation.

SAD ACCIDENT IN UPPER SWATARA.—A sad accident occurred in Upper Swatara township, on Sunday last, by which a boy was killed. The Middletown Journal says that two brothers named Miller, were examining a gun which they supposed not loaded, when one of them pointed the gun at another boy who happened along, saying, "I will shoot you," drawing the trigger at the same time. The hammer of the gun came down but it did not explode the cap. He then cocked the gun again, and pointed it towards his brother, with the exclamation: "This time I will shoot you," when, sad to relate, the contents were discharged by the older boy, the contents of which entered the abdomen of his brother, who survived the injury only about two hours.

BIBLE SOCIETY MATTERS.—There will be a meeting in behalf of the Bible cause on next Sabbath afternoon, Nov. 6th, at 2 o'clock, in the White Church, (Union) two miles east of Middletown. Several addresses will be delivered on the occasion. The annual sermon before the Middletown Bible Society was delivered on Sunday evening last, by Rev. M. McKinney. A Bible Society was organized on last Sabbath afternoon, at Balsach's School House, in lower Swatara township. It is called the "Union Bible Society of Lower Swatara." On the evening of the same day, a society was also organized at Highspire. It was called the "Highspire Bible Society."

COAL OR GAS TAR FOR WALKS.—The Agriculturist describes a mode of making paths or walks out of gas tar and sand. It says the face for the path is first graded and covered with an inch or two of sand; it is then flowed with the tar, and then a covering of sand or gravel is placed over this. In a few months the tar forms a hard mass as hard as stone. The walk when first made is a little yielding; but it may be used at once, taking care that any inequalities be remedied before the tar finally hardens. A walk made in this way is very firm, will not wash when under a slope, and requires scarcely any repair for years. It is said that a barrel of tar will make about 50 feet in length of walk, four feet wide.

OLD DERRY AWAKE!

Outpouring of the People.

A GRAND TORCH LIGHT PROCESSION.

Notwithstanding the disagreeable weather on Thursday evening, the citizens of Old Derry and surrounding townships turned out in masses. The whole town was enlightened with the sturdy farmers from the surrounding country who had come in wagons and on horseback, many of them a distance of several miles.

TORCH LIGHT PROCESSION.

Owing to an hour's delay on the railroad, the Harrisburg Invincibles did not reach the railroad station till after eight o'clock, where they found the citizens in waiting. A procession was at once formed under the command of Captain Roberts, and moved through the town. A long train of wagons followed, the men on foot and the horsemen closing up the rear of a large band wagon, drawn by twelve splendid grey horses, which the procession, which was enlightened by excellent music from the Hummelstown Band.

A fair representation of the famous "Gunboat Galens," in which General McClellan feasted on wine with certain British officers while the battle of Malvern Hill was fought, had been placed on wheels, and drawn by two grays, marked on the sides "Galena," drew considerable attention.

THE ILLUMINATION.

Nearly every house in the town, small or large, bore unmistakable evidence that they sympathized with the Union by the illumination of the windows and beautiful colored transparencies around the front of their houses. Some of the large brick houses were illuminated from the lower story to the garret windows, and made a beautiful appearance.

THE SPEAKERS' STAND.

After a general parade through the town, the procession was halted in the centre of the town, where a handsomely decorated stand had been erected for the speakers. It was literally covered with spruce and flowers. The meeting was organized by the appointment of the following officers, viz:

PRESIDENT, COL. GEORGE T. HUMMEL.

VICE PRESIDENTS, R. T. Hummel, J. Mumma, J. Z. Grove, H. Miller, Joseph Hershey, Richard Fox.

SECRETARIES, J. Hummel, D. E. L. Ross, Dr. Thos. G. Fox.

The President then opened the meeting by introducing Mr. Pope, from Pittsburg, who entertained the audience with a song.—Mr. P. is one of the best singers we have ever heard, and his songs were received with tremendous applause.

Col. Matraux, of Philadelphia, was introduced as the first speaker, and he delivered an effective and argumentative address, which was well received and frequently applauded.

H. B. Sworz, of Clearfield county, was introduced as the second speaker, and he entertained the vast assemblage with one of the most telling speeches we have listened to during the campaign. Notwithstanding the continuous rain the audience stood patiently during the whole evening.

Col. Galters, A. Snow, closed the debate with a powerful speech, in which he argued the questions to be decided on Tuesday next in an eloquent manner. His remarks were received with unbounded applause. The meeting closed with another song from Mr. Pope, when the vast audience, at a late hour, adjourned to meet on Tuesday next at the polls.

A good country minister lately prayed for those of his congregation who were too proud to kneel and too lazy to stand.

FOUND.—This morning, at the Pennsylvania R. R. depot, a pocket-book, containing the discharge papers of Hugh Friel, Co. E, 84th Pa. Vols. The owner can have it by applying at this office.

COL. A. J. HERR will address the people of Pine Grove this evening, and to-morrow evening, at a grand Union meeting in that place. Our Lebanon friends may prepare to hear one of the most effective and eloquent men that have addressed them during the campaign that is about to close.

DESSERT A LA MODE OF PARIS.—The latest "mode" in regard to dessert at fashionable tables of Paris, is to serve the fruit, still growing, in pots, Peas, cherries, peaches, grapes, plums, figs, nectarines, etc., are placed on the table growing on dwarfed espaliers, the pots standing on silver sockets on trays. Strawberry berries thus growing are easily obtained. A pot containing a strawberry plant in full bearing, is a desirable article for the table.

UNION MASS MEETING IN MIDDLETOWN.—A Union Mass Meeting will be held in Middletown on to-morrow (Saturday) evening. A number of able speakers will be present, and extensive arrangements have been made to entertain the meeting. The largest ever held in the town, bands of music have been engaged for the occasion. The Republican Invincibles of Harrisburg will be there, with "music and banners," to take part in the procession. A special train of cars will leave the Pennsylvania Railroad Depot, in this city, at six o'clock, to convey all who desire to attend to the meeting. Let there be a general turnout of our Union citizens.

A BOLD OUTRAGE IN HUMMELSTOWN.—An attempt to assassinate a returned soldier.—An escort of Union men in Hummelstown, last evening, was proceeding to the depot to meet the Harrisburg Republican Invincibles, Capt. Wirt, a returned soldier, who was in the escort, was hit by a stone cutting him severely in the eye and producing a wound which may yet prove fatal. Capt. Wirt happened to see the copperhead coward who threw the stone, and immediately rushed upon and choked the villain, but the blow received by Capt. W. was so severe that he could not hold the rascal, and he therefore made his escape. We allude to this fact to show that the copperheads are in favor of a "fair fight."

THE ASSASSINATION OF CAPTAIN E. M. BUCHANAN.—The Recovery of His Body.—About two weeks since, as Capt. E. M. Buchanan, attached to the staff of Major General Sheridan as Commissary of Subsistence, was brutally murdered near Martinsburg, Va., by a party of guerrillas. Captain B. was proceeding with immense trains from Martinsburg, for the front, when he was induced to return to Martinsburg for the purpose of recovering a set of important papers he had left behind. He was accompanied by an orderly, and after both had dismounted and entered the house, in search of the lost papers, they were seized and dragged beyond the town, and there shockingly mutilated and assassinated.

Captain Buchanan was a brave and gallant young officer, a native of Centre county, where his venerable father still resides. Since the above was written, we have received both showing a dispatch from Captain Buchanan had been recovered, and that preparations were made to carry his remains to Centre county, for interment by Monday next.

THE VOICE OF A DISABLED SOLDIER.

A disabled soldier, wounded at the battle of Gettysburg, who was an inmate of the Mulberry street hospital for nearly four months, in a letter to one of his friends in our city, says: "You ask me who I intend voting for. I answer Lincoln, because I believe him to be the man, and expect him to be our next President. I think that the present administration (taking all things into consideration) has accomplished a noble work, though they have failed in some efforts, on account of the disloyalty of numbers, and the pecuniary ambition of others, yet they are fast accomplishing the great end for which our heroic armies have been gathered, mustered, equipped and led to fields of deadly strife by their noble commanders—not McClellan on a gumbot in the rear, but Grant, Sheridan and others at the front. If I ever detested a gathering, it was that of the Chicago Copperhead convention, (say Democrats? no!) for the majority of them are Copperheads, who cry peace, peace, when there is no peace. I would rather shoulder my gun again, limp to the front, and lose the use of my other limb, than to see this war brought to a close without first having exterminated its cause and prosecutors. A Chicago peace would end the war, but it would not end the suffering, without first extracting the bullet, acute pain with a constant re-opening.

BUSINESS ITEMS.

IS FRIENDSHIP BUT A NAME?—Association and the ties of consanguinity sometimes have a ruinous control over the interests of individuals. A case in point: Brother-in-law John called in at brother-in-law James' store and purchased a ladies' dress pattern, and a pair of handsome cloth shoes, and a pair of law trousers, all of which he paid for in advance. Some of the large brick houses were illuminated from the lower story to the garret windows, and made a beautiful appearance.

THE ILLUMINATION.

Nearly every house in the town, small or large, bore unmistakable evidence that they sympathized with the Union by the illumination of the windows and beautiful colored transparencies around the front of their houses. Bannard's Troches.

For the cure of Hoarseness, Throat Diseases, &c., are especially recommended to ministers, singers and persons whose vocation calls them to speak in public. Manufactured only by G. A. Bannard & Co., Harrisburg, Pa., to whom all orders should be addressed. Sold by druggists every where.

Read the following testimonials from some of our eminent clergymen:

HARRISBURG, Feb. 6th, 1864. U. A. BANNARD—Dear Sir: I have used Bannard's Troches, Wistar's Lozenges, and other preparations for hoarseness and throat troubles, and in comparison with them all, can cheerfully commend your own as a most admirable specific for public speakers and singers, in cases of hoarseness, coughs and colds. I have found them serving in times of need most effectually. Yours truly, T. H. ROBINSON, Pastor of N. S. Presbyterian Church.

I agree with Mr. Robinson as to the value of Bannard's Troches.

W. O. CATTELL, Late Pastor of O. S. Presbyterian Church.

HARRISBURG, Jan., 1864. To O. A. BANNARD—Dear Sir: In the habit of speaking very frequently, and in places where the vocal organs are very much taxed, I have found the need of some good lozenges, and that what has been supplied in your excellent Troches, is just what I needed.

I consider them very far superior to any Lozenges that I have ever used, in removing speedily that huskiness of the voice arising from its too frequent use, and impairing the effectiveness of the delivery of public addresses. Yours, &c., J. N. WALKER JACKSON, Pastor of the Loonist St. Methodist Church.

To O. A. BANNARD—Dear Sir: Having used your Troches, I am free to say they are the best I have ever tried and take great pleasure in recommending them to all persons afflicted with sore throat or huskiness of voice arising from public speaking or singing. Yours, &c., G. G. BAKESTRAW, Pastor of Ridge Avenue Methodist Church.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE. HARRISBURG, Dec. 28, 1864. I have found your Troches to be invaluable in relieving hoarseness and in strengthening the muscles of the throat. They impart clearness to the voice, and are certainly of great benefit to all public speakers. A. J. HERR.

TOWN LOTS FOR SALE.

THE PHILADELPHIA AND ERIE LAND COMPANY, chartered by an act of the Legislature of Pennsylvania, offers for sale choice lots for dwellings and business purposes in the above new towns on the line of the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad.

RENOVO has been selected the site for the extensive shops for building and repairing the rolling stock of the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad, of which the Pennsylvania Railroad Company is now the owner. The site is situated on the margin of the west branch of the Susquehanna river, in the county of Clinton, and is surrounded by romantic and attractive scenery. The Railroad Company are erecting an immense Locomotive Round House, Repair Shops for Cars and Engines, Car Building shop, Iron and Brass Foundries, and Dwellings for the Superintendent and other officers. A splendid Hotel, with which are connected arrangements for feeding passengers at the most extensive scale, has been commenced. All these buildings are of the most permanent and substantial character, of brick and iron, and are in accordance with the immense business anticipated on the completion of this great Railroad, so that the site is looked for, and now an accomplished fact—the last rail connecting the Susquehanna river with Lake Erie having been laid on Saturday, July 24, 1894.

A Company has been chartered by the Legislature for supplying the town with gas and water, and the water works are nearly completed. Churches will be erected immediately. The situation of RENOVO is central, healthy, and as the dimensions of the town are limited by nature, the value of the lots must appreciate greatly.

RENOVO will certainly be the most important commercial point between Lock Haven and Warren, a distance of 145 miles. It is near the center of 92 miles west of 47 miles west of Renovo; 139 miles from Sunbury and 140 miles from Erie. It is near the Junction of the Driftwood Branch of the Susquehanna, with West Creek, Portage Creek and North Creek. The Valley of which streams make it the most accessible point on the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad to a very extensive district of country. The moment the projected railroad connecting it with the city of Rochester, N. Y., shall be completed, few interior towns in the State will surpass it in business capabilities. An excellent graded road now connects it with Conowingo, the seat of Justice of Potter county. It is also connected with Smithport, the seat of Justice of McKean county. Emporium is the County Seat of Cameron county, it has a handsome Hotel, and the Land Company have just completed a large and commodious Hotel, which will immediately be opened to the public. The Railroad Company are erecting a handsome and permanent Passenger Station at a central point near the Hotel and Court House. The place is healthy, and excellent water is abundant. It is in the midst of one of the finest White Pine regions in Pennsylvania. As a manufacturing town it has great advantages; coal, lumber, stone, bark for tanneries are abundant, and its communications with the great lakes and all points of importance in the interior are unsurpassed. This place was selected thirty years ago as a point of importance, and a town laid out with the prophetic name of EMPORIUM, but the difficulty of access has prevented its development so entirely that it is mainly known for the excellence of hunting and trout fishing in the vicinity. The completion of the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad must soon make it a place of great importance as a distributing point for goods of all kinds, and it offers great advantages for persons of moderate capital who desire to identify themselves with the enterprise of a thriving town.

Lithographic Maps of both towns are now ready, and Mr. GIBSON J. BALL, General Superintendent, will furnish all necessary information on the premises, or by letter. He may be addressed to the care of H. P. RUTTER, Secretary and Treasurer of the Philadelphia and Erie Land Company, No. 205 1/2 Walnut Street Philadelphia, or at Renovo, Clinton county, Pennsylvania. W. G. MOORHEAD, Pres't, Phila. and Erie Land Co. H. P. RUTTER, Secretary and Treasurer. Oct 21-33m

A New Manual of Thorough Bass.

Text Book of Musical Theory, by EDWARD B. OLIVER, Principal of the Mendelssohn Musical Institute, Boston.

THIS volume embodies the principal ideas and instructions contained in the elaborate and voluminous works of distinguished German, French and Italian Masters, disencumbered of the great mass of words which they have been usually clothed with, in a simple language, and made plain to the understanding of all who desire to know something of the theory and science of music. The result is the result of a than twenty years' experience in the labor of teaching. It will be found to be the best book that can be placed in the hands of beginners, and for advanced scholars an invaluable handbook of reference. Price, in cloth, 67 cts.; boards 50 cts., on receipt of which the book will be promptly sent.
