

NATIONAL UNION TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT, Abraham Lincoln, OF ILLINOIS.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, Andrew Johnson, OF TENNESSEE.

George Francis Train, Esq. This eloquent and impetuous Democrat, an original friend of Mr. McClellan, but who abandoned the doughty warrior when he became false to honor, valor, freedom and the nation, will address the people of Harrisburg on Monday evening next, in front of the Court House.

There is no crime in the history of human wickedness to be compared with the infamy of digging up the dead soldiers of the Union from their martyr graves in Virginia, and making them vote against the cause which they died to sustain.

EVERY DOUBTFUL VOTE belongs to the Union cause, and can be had for Mr. Lincoln if the Union men in each election district do their duty. See to it, therefore, Union men, that the doubtful voter is approached with the proper argument in favor of his Government, and the day will yet come when such men will regard with honor and gratitude those who prevented them from falling in their duty in an hour of danger to their country.

THE COPPERHEADS say that they are for the Union. But they dare not deny that they are for a Union on the basis of a Confederacy of Sovereign and Independent States.

A VOTE lost may be a cause lost. Make up your mind, friends, now, that come sunshine or come storm, come health or come sickness, you will be at the polls and vote on Tuesday next, and vote for the vindication of the laws and the perpetuation of the Government in the re-election of Abraham Lincoln.

GEN. BUTLER says that it is an axiom of political economy, that thorough preparation for war by a nation in time of peace will avert war; and it would seem to be not less axiomatic that full and thorough preparation for war, and the appliance of the whole power which the nation possesses, will end war.

BELMONT, the purse holder of the McClellan party, acknowledges that his party will be defeated, when he refuses to take a bet of two to one that Lincoln will be the next President. The Jew knows the value of money and loves his treasure too well to throw it away.

GEN. SHERMAN says: "To stop the war we must defeat the rebel armies." Gen. McClellan says: "To stop the war we must 'Exhaust the resources of statesmanship.'"

REMEMBER, the Democrats were in power in every State that seceded from the Union under Jeff Davis. That's the way they adhered to the Constitution in the past. The Chicago Platform says they will adhere to the Union in the future as in the past.

"A FREE BALLOT OR A FREE FIGHT," say the Democrats, and in proof of it they throw out the votes of the men who fight, as in Adams and Lycoming counties, and change the army votes against McClellan from the Empire State.

GEN. SHERMAN, in a lately published letter, says: "I believe Mr. Lincoln has done the best he could." Testimony from such a source should have weight with the intelligent, honest voter on Tuesday next.

EVERY citizen of the North who casts a vote in the coming election will say to Jeff Davis as plainly as in uttered words, either, "Yes, my lord, I am a spaniel," or else, "No, traitor, I am a man."

The Richmond Enquirer says that to give McClellan a chance of being elected at all, "the invading armies must gain no further successes within the next month."

A Last Word to Our Friends

IN FAVOR OF PEACE AND UNION!

Justice and Freedom!!!

LINCOLN AND JOHNSON!!!

We believe the re-election of Abraham Lincoln to be a fixed fact. It is bound to follow a proper effort on the part of the friends of the Union, as surely as a solution in mathematics or a result in logic. Hence, we deem it unnecessary to multiply many words in advocacy of the cause with which Mr. Lincoln is identified.

FATHER AND SON! REMEMBER that while your brother and son was standing in a shower of rebel bullets, baring his bosom to the fire of traitors, the friends of McClellan and Pendleton in Pennsylvania were openly opposing the right of the soldier to the political franchises of citizenship.

MOTHER AND SISTER! BEAR IN MIND that it was George B. McClellan who first recommended a draft, by which your son and brother was sent into the army, and by which the Republican system of volunteering to raise armies was defeated and destroyed.

FRIENDS OF THE SOLDIER! DON'T FORGET that it was the advocates of McClellan who sent sworn agents to the army, and who had made extensive preparations to rob the soldier of his sacred right to decide by ballot who should control the Government, while he is bravely contending with bullets, to show that the Government cannot be destroyed.

ADVOCATES OF A FAIR ELECTION! PONDER THE FACT, that the friends of McClellan, with premeditation and malice, threw out the votes given by the soldiers, wherever such baseness would prevent the election of a man who had favored the enfranchisement of the soldier.

EVERY DOUBTFUL VOTE belongs to the Union cause, and can be had for Mr. Lincoln if the Union men in each election district do their duty. See to it, therefore, Union men, that the doubtful voter is approached with the proper argument in favor of his Government, and the day will yet come when such men will regard with honor and gratitude those who prevented them from falling in their duty in an hour of danger to their country.

THE COPPERHEADS say that they are for the Union. But they dare not deny that they are for a Union on the basis of a Confederacy of Sovereign and Independent States.

Make up your mind, friends, now, that come sunshine or come storm, come health or come sickness, you will be at the polls and vote on Tuesday next, and vote for the vindication of the laws and the perpetuation of the Government in the re-election of Abraham Lincoln.

Another Tory Lie Refuted.

The Tory Organ of Thursday republishes a most unblushing falsehood from the Philadelphia Age, which it stated that President Lincoln was on a gunboat during the rebel invasion, ready to desert his post. On a former occasion the rebels in this city circulated a story that he was concealed at the private residence of General Cameron, all of which were willful lies.

LEBANON, Nov. 4, 1864. Mr. GEORGE BERNESE—Sir:—I read a lie in yesterday's Patriot and Union about President Lincoln being on a gunboat at the time Gen. Early threatened Washington.

Still Another Tory Lie Refuted. The cow-boys were running around the market this morning, lamenting over the bad war news, shedding crocodile tears and stating that Grant had fought another battle, in which he lost 30,000 men, and that his army was routed.

THE WAY TO END THE WAR is to prove to the enemy not only our ability to wage it, but our determination to prosecute it to a successful termination. If McClellan is elected, the rebels will accept the fact as a confession of a want of peace on any terms, and then refuse us a cessation of hostilities except on such a settlement as will insure our eternal disgrace.

THE REBEL PIRATES. THE TALLAHASSEE ON OUR EASTERN COAST. The steamer Chesapeake, from Portland, Me., arrived at this port to-day, and reports that she was boarded by the United States steam cutter Kewanna and informed that the pirate Tallahassee was on the coast, and had destroyed several vessels.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Captain Walker, of the bark Empress Therese, of and for Baltimore, from Rio Janeiro, reported that in latitude 35-30, longitude 74-10, was boarded by the rebel pirate Olustee, Lieutenant Ward commanding, who told us we were a prize to the Confederate States, and ordered us on board the steamer, which was done when they immediately set the bark on fire, and went in chase of another vessel, which was in sight.

MISSOURI. MARMADUKE AND CAROL SENT TO JOHNSON'S ISLAND. St. Louis, Nov. 4.—Major General Marmaduke, Brigadier General Cabell, and four rebel colonels, captured by General Pleasanton at the battle of Osage, left here yesterday for Johnson's Island.

RETTALIATION BY OUR FORCES. GUERRILLA OUTRAGES. On Tuesday night Sue Munday's gang of cut-throats surrounded the house of Mr. Harper, two miles south of Midway, made the old gentleman a prisoner, and without the slightest provocation murdered their victim in the most cowardly and brutal manner.

THE WAR IN THE SOUTHWEST. CAPTURE OF THE FEDERAL GUNBOAT UNDIENE—REPORTS OF DEFEATES. St. Louis, Nov. 3. The gunboat Undiene, one of the poorest of her class, was captured by the rebels at Fort Herman, in the Tennessee river, on Sunday.

PREPARATIONS FOR REBEL RAIDERS. Oswego, N. Y., Nov. 5. Precautionary measures are being taken by the military and civil authorities, for the reception of the rebel raiders should they attempt to visit this city.

CAPTURE OF A BLOCKADE RUNNER. WASHINGTON, November 5. A dispatch from Admiral Porter, dated this morning, commences: "The intelligence of the capture of the blockade runner Lady Shirling, on Friday night, October 28, by the U. S. steamers Kearsage, Cayuga, and Fort Jackson, she had 980 bales of cotton aboard and a thousand tons of burthen. She is now at Beaufort, with her engines disabled."

DISCOVERY OF A PLOT TO DESTROY BUFFALO.

THE CITY TO BE BURNED BY GREEK FIRE

Fraud in the Soldiers' Votes at Buffalo.

BUFFALO, Nov. 5. A letter read this morning from a friend of Buffalo, dated at Drummondville, near Niagara, gives the particulars of the designed raid on Buffalo, which only failed, he says, through the promptitude of our authorities. Two Confederate officers, named Mack and Dinnie, had charge of the affair.

At a signal, these men were to fire the city, by means of Greek fire. Though the plan has failed, it is not entirely abandoned, and they swear they will yet destroy Buffalo. Capt. Ottenoth, of the 179th New York Vols., has been arrested here, and sent to Washington, on charge of being implicated in the soldiers' voting frauds.

THE TRANS-MISSISSIPPI DEPARTMENT. NEW YORK, Nov. 5. The New Orleans Times of the 28th ult. contains abstracts from the Mobile papers of the 19th and 22d which say: "Concerning the trans-Mississippi department, a government messenger has just arrived from Shreveport with the most important dispatches, and it is thought from that quarter, although, says the Register, we cannot give particulars, still we may say that the news is of the most important and encouraging nature."
