HARRISBURG, PA.

SITURDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 5, 1864.

GEORGE FRANCIS TRAIN! will address the Union men of Dauphin county, on the vital issues of the War for Peace and the election for President, in the city of Harrisburg, on

On Monday Evening, Nov. 7, 264, from a stand to be erected in front of the Court House. Attached to the Democratic party from its earliest organization, represent-ing it in many conventions, and a delegate to the late Chicago Convention,

THE CHAMPION OF FREEDOM IN TWO HEMISPHERES!

Now opp ses the machinations of the Demo-cratic leaders, in alliance with the slaveholding traitors, convinced that the re-election of haraham Lincoln is the only path to peace and a continuance of the Government and the

It is proposed to hold this last rally for the Union, on the eve of the election, in front of the Court House, in order to accommodate the vast crowd of people desirous of hearing the great champion of true Democracy and the great champion American freedom. Br order of the County Committee JOHN J. SHOEMAKER, Chairman.

J. M. Wiestling, Secretary.

OWN AND COUNTRY.

ATTENTION, HORSEMEN! - The parade of the and those desirous of participating in the grand parade of the Union men on Monday reening next, and of favoring a grand caval-cade, will meet at the Franklin House, this evening at 7 o'clock. A punctual attendance is earnestly requested.

James R. Boyd & Son, having completed their new warerooms, now offer for sale an extensive assortment of furniture, of every description at moderate rates.

A SLIGHT ADVANCE was perceptible in the prices of marketing this morning. There was the usual variety offered for sale, with but a slight falling off in the number of buyers.

The Invincibles were at Mechanisburg, last night. Their beautiful lamps, etc., together with the gentlemanly conduct of the men, won the admiration of the large crowd assembled.

Ho, for Middletown!—A special train will leave the depot, at six o'clock this evening, to convey passengers to the Union Mass Meeting at Middletown. The Invincibles and a large crowd of our citizens will be there.

SALE OF CAPTURED STOCK .- There will be an extensive sale of captured cattle, in this city, on Tuesday, 15th inst. Six hundred head will be sold. Special attention is directed to the advertisement, in our columns.

Sr. Paul's Episcopal Church, corner of Ridge road and Reservoir. The Rev. A. J. Barrow will deliver a discourse to-morrow evening on "Isaiah and the Prophets." Service to commence at half-past six o'clock.

BAPTIST CHURCH.—There will be service in the Baptist Church, corner of Second and Pine streets, to-morrow morning, at 10 o'clock and at 7 o'clock in the evening. The pulpit will be filled by Rey. G. R. Bliss, of the Lewisburg University. The public are invited to strend

EVENING MARKET IN WEST HARRISBURG.-The first afternoon and evening market held in the new house in West Harrisburg, commenced at three o'clock this afternoon, and will continue until eight o'clock this evening. This will prove a great accommodation to the people of that end of town.

Another Vote.-We have been furnished with the following figures, the result of a vote taken on a train on the Northern Central rail-

More Copperhead Lies.—The Copperheads were busily engaged in circulating the most were bushy engaged in circulating the most infamous lies among the farmers, at market, this morning. They stated that Grant had been defeated, with a loss of thirty thousand men, and that another draft was to take place, etc. A cause that requires such infamous lying to bolster it up, is unworthy the support of any honest man.

MR. THOMAS STEWART MILLER met with an accident, at Gulden's Station, on the Gettysburg Railroad, on the 4th inst., which produced instant death. He was alighting from a buggy, and in taking out his gun the hammer of his gun caught and exploded the cap, discharging the gun into his breast. He leaves a wife and one child to mourn his loss. His age was 27 years, 6 months and 16 days.

THE ATTITUDE OF THE REV. JOHN WALKER JACKSON.—A gentleman informed us this morning that it is reported, and to some extent believed, that in the oration delivered in this city a few weeks since, by the Rev. J. Walker Jackson, he had declared that the word Constitution did not occur in the Chicago platform. After referring to our notes of that oration, and taxing our memory to its fullest extent, we are satisfied that Rev. J. never made this mistake; and if he did, it was a slip of the tongue, in the excitement of public speaking, for, after having read the Chicago platform in the hearing of the audience, such a statement would have been a simple ab-

Rev. Jackson's argument was this :- that the platform, analyzed in the light of the teachings of its authors, as to the theory of our government, contained no purpose to restore the Union on the basis of the Constitution as it is; that the Government, in its legisla-tive, executive and judicial departments, had always taught, not only the right, but the duty of the coercion of rebels; that the theory of modern Democracy being that the Federal Government had no power of coercion, their theory of reconstruction, if possible, implied Union, with the right of secession guaranteed to the States composing it! He did say that the word Rebellion nowhere occurred in the platform—that its words of condemnation were for the President of the United States, and not for Jefferson Davis.

not for Jefferson Davis. Mr. Stephens, Vice President of the Southern Confederacy, in a letter published since Rev. Jackson's oration in this city, takes preache, Earache in three minutes. Diarrhoso, Bev. Jackson's oration in this city, takes precisely the same view of the Chicago Platform taken by Bev. J. Vice President Stephens regards it as a ray of hope to the South. Rev. Jackson contemplates it as a cloud of danger to the Government. And hence they agree.

THIRD QUARTERLY MEETING for St, Paul's M. E. Church, on Vine street, will take place to-morrow. Preaching at 10½ o'clock, A. M., by the Pastor, and at 7 o'clock, P. M., by the Rev. Dr. Castle, Presiding Elder of South Philadelphia District, Philadelphia Conference.

CLEAR THE TRACK FOR THE TRAIN THAT IS COMING!—The famous Train—George Francis Train—will positively be here and address the people of Harrisburg, on Monday evening next. Everybody is going to hear him, and should the weather prove favorable the Court House will not hold half the people who attend

Who Killed Camprell?—The copperhead papers have sent up a howl in regard to the nurder of James Campbell, who was killed in Philadelphia, on Saturday night last, while the copperhead procession was passing through the streets of that city. They alleged that he had been killed by the "Lincolnites," but the verdict of the coroner's jury, rendered after a full investigation of the case, shows that Campbell was killed by a member of his own party. The following is the verdict:

"That the deceased, James Campbell, came to his death on Saturday night, the 29th of October, 1864, in front of the Commonwealth Buildings from a blow received from a club Buildings, from a blow received from a club, or other heavy blunt instrument, at the hands of some person unknown, who came from the Seventeenth Ward Association, paracling in the Democratic torchlight procession."

DEATHS IN CAPTAIN FENN'S COMPANY.-We earn that two members of Captain Fenn's company, (C,) 201st Pennsylvania Regiment, are dead.

Private George J. Crum died, at Alexandria, Va., on the 22d of October, after an illness of three weeks.

Private William A. Hipple died on the 27th of October, at Second Division Hospital, Alexandria, after an illness of two weeks. The disease, in both cases, was typhoid fever. Mr. Crum, previous to volunteering, resided near this city, and Mr. Hipple in Carroll township, Perry county. Capte in Fenn writes that better soldiers never wore the badge of the 201st Regiment.

SNAKES, REBELS AND VOTES.

BY "WIDE AWAKE."

The Rattlesnake will warn you Before he goes to bite; And Rebels will alarm you, Before they seek to fight; The Copperhead will strike you Without a warning note, While Democrats in darkness, Would cut a Union throat. Now Rattlesnakes and Rebels, Are bad enough we know, But placed beside the others,

They have some little show. The vilest of God's creatures, Is he who crawls around, And waiting by your pathway, Strikes upward from the ground. But Devils, Rebels, Copperheads, Peace Democrats, and all, Fish, flesh and fowl in treason,

All things that creep and crawl-A fearful doom await thee-The voting has begun, And fate will leave you lifeless Before the thing is done. Vermont and Maine have spoken, And Indiana too— And good old Maryland, redeem'd

Has put the question thro'. Ohio has been heard from, And voting there they say, By some strange freak of nature Is going all one way; And Pennsylvania thunders

The passing summons on, Till its echoes shall come back From distant Oregon. Snake killers and Rail splitters, Are very thick this year,

But why, or how it happens, Is re'lly very queer. Sherman, Grant and Sheridan, Will put the Rebels thro', Whilst hosts of Northern voters

Will cut the "Cops" in two. The seed of woman bruises The Serpent as of old-The last poor crawling viper, Will soon be stiff and cold.

THE principal of the Inland Revenue De partment of England has just examined twentysix samples of beer, of which twenty were adulterated. In fourteen of these samples, he found the prohibited articles called grains of paradise—grains which, however, fit for Eden, are by law unfit for beer. In one of the fourteen he found, beside the prohibited grains, a portion of tobacco; in two others, cocculus inportion of tobacco; in two others, cocculus in large and dangerous effectiveness of the delivery of public addresses. dicus was present in large and dangerous quantities; two samples contained capsicum; and two others proto-sulphate of iron.

Principal of the Mendelssohn Musical Institute, Boston.

THIS volume embodies the principal ideas and instructions contained in the elaberate and voluminous works of distinguished German, French and Italian Masters disencumbered of the great mass of words in which they have been usually obscured, stated in simple language, and made plain to the understanding of all who desire to know something of the theory and science of music. This Manual is the result of more than twenty years' experience in the labor of teaching. It will be found to be the best book that can be placed in the hands of beginners and for advanced scholars an invaluable hand book of reference.

Price, in cloth, 67 cts.; boards 50 cts., on receipt of which it will be sent prepaid.
