EVENING EDITION.

THE LOYAL PEOPLE IN COUNCIL! OUTPOURING OF THE PEOPLE! TORCH LIGHT PROCESSION.

The Farmers in the Ranks. The Ladies in Procession. A GUNBOAT ON WHEELS. THE PROCESSION THREE MILES LONG. GRAND ILLUMINATION! THE INVINCIBLES ON HAND. Dastardly Outrage of the Copperheads.

The loyal citizens of Middletown and surrounding townships turned out in immense numbers on Saturday evening, for the purpose of taking council together and have a full vote polled at the election to be held on Tuesday next.

The meeting was, without contradiction, the largest ever held in that portion of the county. They numbered thousands. The large square in the middle of the borough was a perfect mass of human beings, who had come for miles from the surrounding country.

A little after six o'clock the procession was formed by Col. H. J. METZLER, as Chief Marshal, assisted by COL. JOHN CARMAN, COL. DANIEL KENDIG and others whose names we were unable to obtain owing to the dense crowd of people.

After it had been properly formed, over five hundred of the sturdy farmers of the country on horse back leading the front, each of them carrying a beautiful lantern in which was a burning tallow candle.

The procession was headed by a large heavy wagon in which was a tremendous bell had been placed, which was ringing during the passage of the procession.

Another large wagon was filled with young ladies representing the "choir." This party was singing "Rally Round the Flag," "The Star Spangled Banner," "Hurrah Boys, Hurrah," and other loyal songs during its passage through the towns of Middletown and Fort Mifflin.

The next in procession was the famous Gunboat "Galena." A long narrow boat had been placed on wheels with a large smoke stack in the middle. In front was a full representation of the brave General, who fared sumptuously on wine on the same, while his noble soldiers were fighting a battle eight miles distant. This distinguished individual had a "spy glass in hand, and was anxiously sighting at the vast multitude surrounding it. The appearance created a good deal of merriment.

By the time one half of the procession had passed the depot, the arrival of the train was announced, which brought the "Harrisburg Invincibles" and their friends to town. Every lamp of the Invincibles was on hand together with some two hundred more of the loyal men of Harrisburg who came in a special train.

After some delay the club and those accompanying it joined the procession which already extended some two miles ahead of them. The beautiful lanterns made an imposing appearance.

THE PROCESSION. The procession was formed in the main square of the town leading to the depot, and marched out that street crossing the canal bridges, and around the large Iron Furnaces, which were in full blast, lighting up the skies around it. The scene, as the torches passed up and down the hills, was grand and beyond description. The procession must have been at least three miles long, and a reliable gentleman informed us that it took one hour and ten minutes to pass any given point.

THE ILLUMINATION. Every loyal house in the town, large and small, was brilliantly illuminated, and the small houses below the furnaces occupied by the hard working laborer showed their appreciation for the cause by the light of their countenances. The ladies appeared on nearly every door-step and balcony waving their handkerchiefs and cheering for the Union. The Copperhead houses were easily distinguished by their dark appearance, they were already mourning for the downfall of the rebel friends.

THE SPEAKERS STAND. The middle of Centre Square was most tastefully decorated with numerous evergreens and flowers. In front of it the appropriate motto "IN GOD WE TRUST" stood on a bold relief, showing that our friends are working in the cause of the Union with a full confidence in God. After the crowd had staid themselves in proper position Dr. BINGOLD called them to order by nominating the following officers which were unanimously elected, viz:

PRESIDENT, DR. B. WIESTLING. VICE PRESIDENTS, Rev. A. Wieting, North Ward, Middletown; George Smuller, North Ward, Middletown; E. J. Ramsey, Middle Ward, do; Lewis Bomberger, Middle Ward, do; E. J. McCreary, South Ward, Middletown; Daniel Murs, South Ward Middletown; Isaac Mumma, Lower Swatara. Felix Nixler, Lower Swatara. Christian Longmeyer, Londonderry. David M. Epple, Londonderry. John & Fozie, Conowingo. Peter Martin, Conowingo. W. M. Boyer, Harrisburg. Val Hummel, Jr., Harrisburg. H. J. Shell, Derry. Richard Hummel, Derry.

SECRETARIES:

W. H. Kendig, North Ward. Jos. Brestle, Jr., North Ward. John McCreary, Middle Ward. Jno. Monaghan, Middle Ward. J. P. Witherow, South Ward. John Kurtz, South Ward. John Booser, Londonderry. John H. Eppler, West Londonderry. Jos. Greenwalt, Conowingo. Captain Liness, Harrisburg. M. A. Frank, Swatara. Jesse Hummel, Derry.

The President then introduced Gov. A. G. CORKIN, as the first speaker. The Governor's appearance on the stand created the greatest enthusiasm, and three cheers were proposed and given for the Governor and Lincoln and Johnson. After considerable effort to get the vast assemblage near enough, so that the speaker could be heard, Governor Curtin addressed the multitude, in an appropriate, powerful and plain speech, placing the issues to be decided, Tuesday next fairly before the people. His speech was one of the best he has made during the present campaign, and it was received with unbounded applause.

Mr. BARB, of Lancaster, was next introduced, and he entertained the audience with a masterly speech in English and German for some time.

Mr. COATES, of Philadelphia, made the closing address, and kept the audience in excellent humor. All the speakers were well received. The meeting closed with loud and repeated cheers for Lincoln, Johnson and the Union.

A CLOSING ENTERTAINMENT. The closing entertainment, not on the bills, was a very pleasant affair. Our friend Col. Irvin had, as usual, the "larch string hanging out," and gave a splendid opportunity to a large number of invited guests, the Colonel's good lady and daughter had everything prepared in the best style, and supplied the meats, with an abundance that would do credit to a large city hotel.

We understood that several of the citizens "entertained their friends in handsome style." At half past ten o'clock we were reminded by "Uncle Tommy's" steam whistle that the train was ready to start, and the party were obliged to leave much to the disappointment of our friend Irvin, who had made preparations to entertain the visiting Invincibles with a grand welcome supper. We hope Mr. R. will accept the thanks of the Club for his friendship, but owing to the stern orders of the railroad conductor, that must leave with the able to accept the invitation.

OUTRAGEOUS CONDUCT OF BLACKBOARDS. As usual, wherever the Union men have a public parade, they must be attacked by some cowardly ruffian of the copperhead party. Mr. Isaac Nixley was severely injured by a stone, thrown by some miscreant in a crowd, at a dark corner, in front of Raymond & Kendig's tavern. Mr. N. was carrying a transparency at the time.

The beautiful transparency of the Harrisburg Invincible Club was also injured by a stone, thrown through it at the same place. Many of the boys were determined to retaliate, but for fear of injuring an innocent party they refrained from retaliation; otherwise blood would certainly have been shed. These outrageous attacks are no doubt the teachings of the leaders and we warn these blackguards in time to desist from this cowardly practice. The Union men have never, in a single instance, disturbed any of their meetings or processions, and they will not submit any longer. We can tell them that they shall have a free and fair election, and if they want a free fight also, they can have it. The Union men know their rights, and dare maintain them. We hope our friends will watch the copperheads tonight, when our Invincibles pass through the streets.

A few days since a sick soldier who had just been discharged from the hospital, was riding in the cars near Baltimore; behind sat a man who was unknown to the soldier, but as he leaned forward and spoke to him, he felt that he was a friend though a stranger. The soldier spoke of the camp, the march, the battle, of his long sickness, and at last of the Generals under whom he had served. Maj. Gen. Geo. B. McClellan was one. To the question as to whether he would vote for him, his answer was no, but I will for Abraham Lincoln.

During the conversation the gentleman learned the soldier had not a ticket, nor had he money to buy one all the way home—taking a small book from his pocket, and tearing out a leaf, writing a few words upon it—handing it to the soldier and the gentleman is gone. The soldier reads the paper, and finds it to be a pass over the railroad from Baltimore to Troy, Pa. The pass was signed SMOCK CRAWFORD.

General Cameron not only speaks in favor of the soldier but acts. SOLDIERS and the friends of soldiers, remember that Cameron is for Lincoln; will you not show by your votes that you are? CROSIER.

The Manchester Print Works have made, during the year, fourteen millions of yards of calico and print-cloths, and fifty-six thousand dozen of hosiery, equal to seven thousand nine hundred and fifty-four miles of cloth, or twenty miles daily.

A GENTLEMAN of great wealth received from his nephew, who was his reputed heir, a splendid present, to enjoy which he invited his friends to partake. The dinner was gay, but at the desert one of the guests remarked that he had not tasted of the dainty bird. "Ah!" said he, "to tell the truth, I was fearful that it might be poisoned, coming from my heir."

GRANT. ALL QUIET.

New York, Nov. 6. The correspondent from Gen. Grant's army reports all quiet. General Gregg has been promoted to Brevet Brigadier General.

Letters from General Sheridan's army, dated the 31st ult., report that a small rebel force had crossed the North Ford of the Shenandoah on the 29th, and proceeded in the direction of Luray Court-house.

A dispatch of the 4th inst., from the 19th Army Corps, states that Major's rebel army is reorganizing at New Market, and that rebel reinforcements in the shape of conscripts have been sent to Early in considerable numbers.

A Martinsburg dispatch of the 2d inst., states that Mosby made an assault on the 1st on our pickets intending to stampede our animals but was unsuccessful.

No Stirring Movements Expected. Executive Appointments and Judges to be Made after the Election.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5. There is not the least possibility of any immediate active movements in the Army of the Potomac unless the enemy shall provoke hostilities.

The accounts to-day from that quarter possess no public interest whatever. The printing of the Departments, that of the War especially, is so urgent that the numerous presses of the Government Printing Bureau cannot keep up with the demand, and hence the private printing establishments are employed to assist.

Numerous Executive appointments including several important Judgeships, which have been for weeks and months vacant, will not be filled until after the Presidential election. Accounts received at the Post Office Department represent the new postal money order system as being satisfactorily inaugurated.

REBEL ACCOUNT OF ANOTHER VICTORY IN NORTH CAROLINA. UNION FORCES PASSED UP MIDDLE RIVER.

The Richmond Inquirer of the 3d inst., has a dispatch dated near Plymouth, North Carolina, Oct. 31, stating that after three (3) days hard fighting the enemy had passed up Middle River and came down the Roanoke river this morning.

General Baker fought until the enemy's gunboats passed our forts and dismounted all our guns on the harbor. An evacuation was then ordered, which was accomplished under a severe shelling.

From the above it appears that the Union forces went up a channel which took them above Plymouth, enabling them to come down another channel commanding the rear of that place.

This success is the result of the gallant exploit of Lieutenant Cushing in destroying the rebel ram.

New York, November 6.—The Richmond Why, of the 3d inst., gives the number of the Union forces in East Tennessee, and says that Norristown, where the rebel General Vaughan is said to have suffered a reverse, losing four pieces of artillery, is 37 miles east of Knoxville, and that the East Tennessee Railroad runs by it. Vaughan is reported now at Bristol.

The Richmond Examiner of the 3d, has Jacksonville, Ala., advices of 27th ult., stating that Hood's army left there on the 23d, and by the 25th had completed the crossing of the Tennessee river. The rebels had secured before crossing, some 3,000 fine beaves. The track from Dalton has been torn up by Hood for 35 miles, to within three hundred yards of Resaca.

Beauregard left Jacksonville soon after the army to take command in the field. An Alexandria rebel letter shows the rebels in that vicinity are suffering terribly for want of necessities of life, and predicts starvation before the close of the winter.

The authorities in Mobile have ordered the enrollment of negroes. The Richmond Examiner of the 3d says the Northern cities are now swarming with refugees from Dixie. Their principal rendezvous being New York, where Butler and Knox, who robbed the rebel Treasury of about $100,000, are now located.

LATEST FROM THE FRONT. ARRIVAL OF WOUNDED OFFICERS. RETURN OF THE REBEL HATHUNSON.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5. The United States steamer Cossack arrived here last evening from City Point, with a large army mail and a number of passengers. The usual picket firing continues at the front, but there is no news of importance. About fifty wounded officers from the hospitals at City Point came up on the Cossack.

The majority of them were wounded in the late reconnaissance, and they are going home to vote. Some two hundred enlisted men, who are sick and unable for field duty at present, also came up on the Cossack, on short leaves of absence, en route to their homes in the North.

Major Hutchinson, Assistant Adjutant-General to the late Rebel General Ransom, was specially paroled to convey Ransom's

TREASON IN INDIANA. SONS OF LIBERTY.

Confessions of a Deputy Grand Commander. PROPOSED ASSASSINATION OF GOV. MORTON.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 4. Horace Heffern, Deputy Grand Commander of the Order of the Sons of Liberty in Indiana, who for some weeks has been on trial here for a participation in a treasonable conspiracy, today turned State evidence, and made a startling revelation of the schemes of the Order. He said that nobody but Democrats had been admitted in the order, or would be if they applied.

He confirmed the previous evidence of the military organization of the Order, and of the appointment of a Major General to command it. Dr. Bowles, one of the accused, was Commander-in-Chief, with a staff, of which Dr. James B. Wilson, recently arrested, was Adjutant General.

He said that a Committee of thirteen was appointed to prepare for an insurrection, and that the insurrection was intended to release the rebel prisoners in the Northwest, arm them from the Government arsenals, overthrow the State Government, kill Governor Morton, or hold him as a hostage for captured insurgents, and then form the Northwest into a separate Confederacy.

He said he was told by Adjutant General Wilson, of Bowles' plan, that $500,000 had been sent by the rebel agents in Canada into the Northwest, to purchase arms for the Order, and that $200,000 had been left in Indiana, in the hands of Dodd and John C. Walker, State agent. Wilson showed Heffern $4,000 he received from Bowles to buy arms in Washington.

Heffern further swore that the Committee of Thirteen had appointed ten men to kill Governor Morton, and a few days since the Governor received a letter, signed by one of the men, declaring that the writer and his associates were sworn to kill him, and would do it. Heffern's revelations astounded the Court, though prepared by the previous evidence for part of it. If Governor Morton was killed, Dr. Athon, Secretary of State and a member of the Order, was to take his place, as provided by law, in case of the death or disability of the Governor and Lieutenant Governor.

New Orleans letters mention that a naval expedition had gone up a small inlet near Mobile, and secured considerable grain, cattle, &c. A large rebel force is reported at Clinton, La., under Work Adams. 500 more prisoners are to be exchanged.
