HARRISBURG, PA. MONDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 7, 1864.

GEORGE FRANCIS TRAIN! Will address the Union men of Dauphin county, on the vital issues of the War for Peace and the election for President, in the city of Harrisburg, on

On Monday Evening, Nov. 7, '64, From a stand to be erected in front of the Court House. Attached to the Democratic party in its strictest organization, representing it in many conventions, and a delegate to the late Chicago Convention.

THE CHAMPION OF FREEDOM IN TWO HEMISPHERES! Now opposes the machinations of the Democratic leaders, in alliance with the slaveholding traitors, convinced that the re-election of Abraham Lincoln is the only path to peace and a continuance of the Government and the Union.

It is proposed to hold this last rally for the Union, on the eve of the election, in front of the Court House, in order to accommodate the vast crowd of people desirous of hearing the great champion of true Democracy and American freedom.

By order of the County Committee JOHN J. SHOEMAKER, Chairman. J. M. WRESTLING, Secretary.

TOWN AND COUNTRY. Ice was visible on some of our pavements, on yesterday morning.

RAIN commenced to fall late last night, and continued up to a late hour to-day.

JUNATA CONFERENCE (Lutheran) will meet in Newport, Perry county, to-morrow evening.

SNOW—the first of the season—fell at Paper-town (Mt. Holly Springs), in Cumberland county, on Friday last.

A LARGE number of sick and wounded soldiers have passed through this city, within a few days, en route for their homes.

LOOK OUT FOR THE TRAIN!—Geo. Francis Train will speak in front of the Court House, this evening. Let there be a grand rally to close up the campaign.

The afternoon and evening market held in West Harrisburg, on Saturday, was a perfect success. There was a fine supply of articles offered for sale, and the attendance of buyers was large.

The stockholders of the Harrisburg Bank will hold a meeting on Monday next, 14th inst., to decide whether said institution shall be converted into a National Bank, under the laws of the United States.

ANOTHER SOLDIER GONE.—Mr. Daniel Eckert, who had recently enlisted in the one year's service, died this morning, at his residence, in this city, after a severe illness of several weeks.

We publish a very interesting letter from Corporal A. H. B., in to-day's paper. We have received another, which will appear to-morrow. It states that the regiment expected to leave Gainesville on Sunday last.

To-morrow will close the great Presidential struggle, and all parties will doubtless rejoice that the contest is ended. The campaign of 1864 has been one of unusual importance, as on its result depended the fate of the nation. It will long be remembered.

THERE will be a grand opening of Winter Millinery at the establishment of Mrs. Mather, Second street, above Locust, on Thursday next, 10th inst. Ladies will find it to their interest to call. See advertisement in another column.

DO NOT SEND LIQUORS TO THE ARMY.—Our correspondent in the 201st regiment cautions our citizens against sending spirituous liquors in boxes that are forwarded to the soldiers. Such boxes are confiscated at Washington, while all others are forwarded at once to the parties for whom they are intended.

DANIEL DOUGHERTY, Esq., passed through the city yesterday, en route for Lancaster, where he will speak this evening. He spoke in Carlisle on Saturday night, to one of the largest and most enthusiastic meetings ever held in that borough. Mr. D. will close his labors for the campaign in Lancaster, and then return to Philadelphia. We predict that there are many happy and glorious years in reserve for him! Dan Dougherty will recur to his brilliant oratorical tour through Pennsylvania, during the campaign which is about to close, with feelings of proud contemplation of having done his whole duty to the country.

REV. JOHN WALKER JACKSON, pastor of the Locust Street M. E. Church, crowned the career of his Christian usefulness and influence last evening, by the discharge of a patriotic duty, which we believe was incumbent on every minister in the land, namely, the preaching of a sermon in favor of his country, before the election in the result of which is involved the vital interests and the peace of the country. The sermon in question, while it was peculiarly confined to the discussion of the highest Christian duties, defining the allegiance which the man of God owed to his justly constituted earthly authorities, took a range which led the reverend orator into the examination of questions which require the sagacity of the statesman and the purity of the patriot to solve. His theme was his country—his battle-torn and treason-convulsed country. His purpose was to teach the right path in which to tread at this dark hour, in order properly to serve that country, and, at the same time this was done, keep in view also, that proper regard for the Christian character and the Christian religion, which could not be lost sight of without being overtaken by disaster. He maintained that unless this country—this Government—the government which is being warded against by the rebels in arms, was successfully defended, the Christian had little to hope for, so far as man's effort was concerned, for the success of religion. He insisted that the permanency of a free church—of a religion unshackled by the restraints of tyrants, depend upon the prosperity and peace of a free government. In this manner Rev. Jackson discoursed for one hour, to one of the largest and most intelligent audiences ever assembled in his church. Every loyal man in the city owes him a lasting debt of gratitude for that discourse, and, in the name of our bleeding country, in the name of freedom and the right, and order, justice and victory, we return him the thanks of the people of Harrisburg.

A GRAND ENTERTAINMENT.—We direct the attention of our readers to the advertisement in the Amusement column, announcing an original entertainment by a combination of old players.

HEAVY ROBBERY.—Last night the house of Mr. William Morris, on Sixth street in this city, was entered by thieves, who proceeded to the bedroom of Mr. M., seized his clothes, carried them down stairs, took the safe key from the pockets, opened the safe, and stole $2,100 in money, with which they decamped, without being heard. A son of Mr. M., came home at an early hour this morning, and discovered a light burning in a lower room, and his father's clothing scattered over the floor. Mr. Morris drew the money from one of the banks on Saturday evening, and this fact was doubtless known to the thieves. A lot of silver spoons, &c., in the safe, were left untouched.

WHICH IS THE PARTY OF FANATICISM?—A she-secessionist, who could not sit under the Christian and patriotic fire which Rev. John Walker Jackson poured from a free pulpit, last night, into the ranks of the enemies of his country, left her seat with mock dignity, and haughtily rushed from the church. At the outer door she met a friend, to whom she breathlessly exclaimed, "Oh! only think of it, Mr. Jackson had the impudence to call the Southern flag a rag! What an insult! I could not remain to hear any more! AND I HOPE THAT WHEN HE GOES TO THE POLLS TO VOTE, ON TUESDAY, SOME SOUND DEMOCRAT WILL SHOOT HIM DOWN! Oh! the mean profligate! And with the burst of indignation, the she-sympathizer left the house. Who are the fanatics?

From the 201st Regiment. CAMP NEAR GAINESVILLE, VA., Wednesday Evening, Nov. 3, 1864.

EDITOR TELEGRAPH—Dear Sir: Some time during yesterday morning the woods, from some unknown cause, were set on fire, between Lieut. McCurdy and Sergeant Miller's posts, immediately above us. A light wind prevailing at the time sent the flames, hissing and leaping in every direction, fed by the long dry grass, fallen leaves, and debris of every description. It crossed and re-crossed the railroad at various points, lighting up the depths of the forest all night, presenting a scene picturesque and magnificent in the extreme. At one time, early in the forenoon, we found it necessary to pick up some cedar boughs lying near us, and commence a vigorous thrashing of the dry grass burning near us. He kept perfectly cool as the devouring element approached his quarters, and "fought" it bravely for an hour or two, till it became aus-ga-spielt, and ended in smoke.

Night before last, John Nagle, of Allentown, Pa., attached to company E, 202d regiment, while carelessly handling his gun, met with an accident which resulted in the loss of the index finger of his right hand, the ball cutting the bone entirely off, leaving the mutilated member protruding to the skin on both sides, rendering amputation, of course, necessary, which job was skillfully performed by Chief Surgeon Wagonmiller, and his clever assistant, Dr. James Henderson. The ball passed through the rim of his hat, disagreeably near his forehead, and his escape from instant death was certainly providential. The accident occurred about three miles above Gainesville, where Nagle was posted as a picket-guard. He is now at the hospital and doing well. Apropos of the hospital and its inmates, I am pleased to say that under the skillful treatment of the medical staff in charge, out of an increasing number of sick a week or ten days ago, there are not more than eight or ten at present—one or two only, seriously ill. We need no better evidence of the fact that the chief surgeon and attentive assistants are the right men in the right place, and, as such, command the respect and esteem of all men in the regiment.

We learned from a member of the 8th Illinois Cavalry, to-day, that Mosby attacked their force at White Plains, about ten miles above this point, on Monday evening last, attempting to flank them. The notorious "Gorilla" was handsomely repulsed by the brave Illinoisians, with a loss of seven killed, fifteen wounded, and six prisoners captured. The Union cavalry had only seven men wounded. Mosby had a force estimated at 300 men, and they fled in every direction after the repulse. This is the statement of a Union soldier, and we have no inclination to doubt it, as it is well known that Mosby was prowling around that neighborhood, annoying the workmen engaged in taking up the iron, previous to the abandonment of this road by the U. S. Government.

I have an interesting description of a visit to the Bull Run battle-field, by Col. Ayl and party, a week or ten days ago, a brief notice of which I gave you in a former letter. Capt. Ashenfelter, of Company H, was the chaperone of the party; and from the fact of his having a knowledge of the location of the ground, and participating in the battle, the account is highly interesting. I was permitted to copy it from the Chaplain's journal, and will transmit it in my next epistle.

To-day, in passing up the line for our mail matter, I observed a certain Corporal of Company I, sitting on a bar of railroad iron, gazing on something he slipped from his envelope. There was a smile on the man's countenance as a tear in his eye. He was so interested with something he held in his hand that he permitted me to slap him on the shoulder, familiarly, with, "Hallo, Corporal F."—what is it that so interests you? "See," said he, holding out two photographs, done in Flouers' best style—"This is Mary, (his wife), and this 'Georgians,' the baby—our baby—all that I love on earth!" "The baby, corporal—give me that to look upon—it is a pretty innocent," I remarked, jestingly. "No, sir—not for your Government bounty, and another to back it with. I couldn't see the point, corporal." And the man was in earnest, too. Many other hearts might be gladdened, and many frank, honest, bronzed and care-worn faces might be made to light up with pleasure on the reception of an envelope containing the likeness of "mine frow and little ones." Try it, good women of our native city—ye that have been remiss, hitherto, in this respect.

Enclosed please find a like-like picture, sketched by P. J. Richards, a clever artist and native of Harrisburg, attached to Company I. It is a correct representation of the two "babies" at this post—Lieut. McCurdy's on the right, and our own on the left. Observe the corporal sitting under his favorite oak, penning a letter to the "TELEGRAPH." Billy Hill is standing with his face toward the road. "Red-head" is evidently expecting a train. He hears the puffing of the engine, and like a true soldier stands up to his duty, to let the passers-by see he can't be caught "napping!" Jake Waller's old coffee pot sits near the large oak tree, and Shaeffer's overcoat hangs on a neighboring Hickory sapling. Lieutenant, that is thy carabineer suspended from the young hemlock—if it isn't. The barrels, boxes, etc., lying round, are common property. More anon. In haste, truly yours, A. H. B.

Another Attempt to Cheat the Soldier. LOOK OUT FOR MORE FRAUDS. YORK, Pa., Nov. 5.

EDITOR TELEGRAPH.—The Copperheads here are investigating the soldiers of the U. S. Army, and getting them into the office of a Copperhead Justice of the Peace and getting their ballots, to vote for McClellan, and sending them to different parts of this State and elsewhere—when it is a known fact that there are 2,500 soldiers here, and polls will be opened for many States, there being more than ten from such States at this Hospital, and no doubt the same men will attempt to vote at the Hospital on the day of the election. How many have thus been sent home we are unable to state. We would caution the Union voters elsewhere in the State and out of it, to refuse such ballots as they will vote or have an opportunity to vote at the Hospital, thus voting twice. The Copperheads are thus doing what the agents of Governor Seymour have been doing in Baltimore and Washington. Please call the attention of your readers to the above, and thus stifle and quell an intended fraud. JUSTICE.

A Card. At a meeting of Co. G, 194th Regiment P. V., held to-day, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That Lieut. Frederick Yngst, by his arrogance of manner, his unmistakable partiality, his condescending and bombastic speeches, his lamentable ignorance of the first principles of good government and discipline, and his tyrannical abuse of every true soldier; and that it is our firm conviction that he is utterly incompetent for, and unworthy of, any position in the U. S. Army; and that we will discourage and discountenance any attempt he may hereafter make to obtain promotion in the Army, believing that his presence there will produce only insubordination, dissatisfaction and disgust with the service. J. O. WHEELER, Pres't. F. U. WORLEY, Secretary.

A DIALOGUE. PATRIOT REPUBLICAN.—Well, neighbor Democrat, are you going to the funeral next Tuesday?

GENUINE DEMOCRAT.—Funeral! Why, who is to be buried?

P. R.—The Copperhead party. She died on the 11th of October, and on the 8th of November she will be buried.

G. D.—I should like to know who will be the principal bearers?

P. R.—Generals Grant, Sherman, Sheridan and Admiral Farragut.

G. D.—And who will be the principal mourners?

P. R.—They will be Vallandigham, Long, Voorhees, Horatio Seymour, Fernando Wood, G. B. McClellan, G. H. Pendleton, Jefferson Davis and Robert E. Lee.

G. D.—Who will deliver the funeral oration?

P. R.—Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States in 1865, will deliver the funeral oration on the 4th of March next.

G. D.—But I would like to know what his text will be?

P. R.—The following will be his text:—"THERE WILL BE NO RESURRECTION."

G. D.—Well, I think I will attend and help to put her carcass under ground.

P. R.—Yes, do neighbor; as she is dead now, and beyond the hope of resurrection, let us show our respect for her, by putting her under ground so deep as forever to put it beyond the possibility of her admitting to steal her body and make the people believe that she is risen from the dead. MIDDLETOWN.

BUSINESS ITEMS. PROCLAMATION.—To the voter-ies of fashion. Empires are rent, Kingdoms troubled, and Republics severed. Now, I, J. A. Mather, milliner and minister of the realm of fashion, call upon you to be true to your principles and equip yourselves for the coming season from my store in Second street, above Locust, where I have all the styles and latest novelties, hats, trimmings, &c., suitable to all tastes. J. A. MATHER, Milliner.

THE ELECTION ON TUESDAY, NOV. 8.—The intellectual exertion and bodily employment of our worthy politicians for the last few months, to impress upon the minds of others the opinions that they entertain of the good and bad that awaits the future of our country, will on to-morrow (Tuesday) be relieved of their weighty responsibility through the simplicity of our national organization, permitting the people to deposit their own honest conviction of right at the ballot-box, with whom individually the great responsibility rests. After this duty has been faithfully discharged it would not be strange if we entertained a better opinion of ourselves, and maintained it with a little cost in adorning our outward person with a handsome cassimeres or cloth suit of clothes, and a beautiful dress for wife and little ones, at Bowman's accommodating dry goods depot, No. 1, corner of Front and Market streets.

LATEST ARRIVAL.—The undersigned takes the pleasure to inform the ladies of this city and vicinity, that she has received this day a large quantity of CLOAKS and CIRCULARS, ranging in price from $6 to $25. This stock comprises the very latest styles and best qualities, all of which have been purchased since the decline in gold, and are offered at lower rates than they can be sold by any other establishment in the city. MRS. M. MAYER, 103-27 Market street, Sept 28-64.

The cheapest and most select fashionable ladies' dresses, hats, cloaks and circulars are to be found at Mrs. M. Mayer's, No. 13 Market street, between River alley and Front street, (Boger's old stand.) oct17-64

DR. McBERNE'S King of Pain should be kept in every family. Will cure Headache, Toothache, Earache in three minutes. Diarrhoea, Bloody Flux, pain in the Back and Side, Inflammation of the Kidneys and Liver Complaint and Palpitation of the Heart. Sole agent for the State, S. A. KUNKEL & BRO., 118 Market street, Harrisburg. All orders from a distance promptly attended to. sept20-64

FEVER and AGUE can be cured. Do not think because you have tried everything you could read or hear of, that you cannot get anything to cure you, for you have not taken the right medicine. It is curing every one that takes it. It does not stop your shaking for a week or two, but it is a perfect cure. A trial of this will convince you and your neighbors. It can be had only at No. 27, South Pine street, by Mrs. L. Ball. oct17-64

SPECIAL NOTICES. MATRIMONIAL.—Ladies and Gentlemen, if you wish to marry, address the undersigned, who will send you, without money and without price, valuable information that will enable you to marry happily and speedily, irrespective of age, wealth or beauty. This information will cost nothing, and if you strictly confidential. The desired information sent by return mail, and no questions asked. Address J. LAMBERT, oct14-64

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. Renovo and Emporium. TOWN LOTS FOR SALE.

THE PHILADELPHIA AND ERIE LAND COMPANY, chartered by an act of the Legislature of Pennsylvania, offers for sale choice lots for dwellings and business purposes in the new towns on the line of the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad. RENOVO has been selected as the site for the extensive shops for building and repairing the rolling stock of the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad, of which the Philadelphia Company are now lessees. It is 9 1/2 miles west of Sunbury, and 19 1/2 miles east of Erie. The town is situated on the margin of the west branch of the Susquehanna river, in the county of Clinton, and is surrounded by romantic and attractive scenery. The Railroad Company are erecting an immense Locomotive Round House, Repair Shops for Cars and Engines, Car Building Shop, Iron and Brass Furnaces, and Dwellings for the Superintendant and other officers. A splendid depot, with which are connected arrangements for feeding passengers of the most extensive scale, has been commenced. All these buildings are of the most permanent and durable material, and are being erected in accordance with the immense business anticipated on the completion of this great Railroad, so long anxiously looked for, and now so completely accomplished. The town is situated on the margin of the west branch of the Susquehanna river, with Lake Erie having been laid on Saturday, July 24, 1864. A Company has been chartered by the Legislature for supplying the town with water, and the water works are nearly completed. Churches will be erected immediately, and the situation of RENOVO is entirely healthy, and as the dimensions of the lots made by the sale of the lots must appreciate greatly in the course of a few years. EMPORIUM will certainly be the most important commercial point between Lake Erie and the Susquehanna, a distance of 168 miles. It is near the centre of the railroad, 47 miles west of Renovo, 139 miles from Sunbury and 149 miles from Erie. It is near the junction of the West Branch of the Susquehanna, with West Creek, Portage Creek and North Creek, the valleys of which streams make it the most accessible point on the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad.
