MEDICAL.
Dr. Wisbart's in the Philadelphia Ledger, of a great cure made upon Mr. John Babcock, of 1028 Olive street, Philadelphia, by the great American Dyspepsia Pills. I went to Dr. Wisbart's office, and placed myself under his treatment, and told him if he failed to cure me, it would be the last effort I would make. It has been six weeks since I commenced the use of his medicine, and I am now a well man, free from all pain and distress, and can eat every thing I want with comfort, and feel perfectly well.
Dr. Wisbart, I want you to publish my case, as I want every poor dyspeptic suffering as I was, to get on me, and I will tell them of the great cure I have received from your invaluable medicine. SAMUEL D. HAVEN.

street, formerly from Wrightstown, Burlington county, N. J.

great remedy has saved from an untimely grave.

who have prescribed and sold the Pills Cordial, saying

EVENING EDITION.
[For the TELEGRAPH.]
"MARYLAND, FREE MARYLAND."
Proclaim it from the Chesapeake to Susquehanna's shore—
From Florida to Labrador, where storms incessant roar—
From Pensacola and Adams to the North—proclaim it to all lands.
Across the broad Atlantic's waves—aye, Johnny Bull,
We send a message, greeting: "My Maryland is Free!"
To you, Creole, ye frog-eaters, ye airy "La Belle Ye jabbering, frisky mountebanks, ye gormank and ye dansters!
Say, don't you see the "signs of times," the "hand writing on the wall,"
Which tells as plain as plain can be, the Union will not fall?
But, Phenix-like, she will arise! oh, John and Neph take care!
For Jonathan's man to say "darnation skunks be wants!"
You spoke of intervention, both—you swaggered and you
"talked."
But could you go the "fighting point," and therefore friends,
you "talked."
Ah! well, they say discretion of the part of valor plays—(Perhaps "fond memory" brought to mind) "the scenes of other days!"
You thought of battles fought, perhaps, "in the days of Aunt Lang Street."
Of Bunker Hill and Lexington—Worth Point and Brandywine—
Then "mind your eyes"—"his dangerous—as either of you
To cease the bid of Liberty, or tread upon his toe!
Another year upon the folds of Freedom's banner glow!
I feel speed the news from Mexico to the ocean's shore,
Where too-begs march, among the poles North, & the Arctic sea—
Proclaim to every land and clime that "Maryland is Free!"
Send to our erring sister States an invitation kind—
Oh! come into the Union fold, and be no longer blind—
Let foul secession go its way—we ask in Freedom's name!
Aye, let the evil sink to hell, from whence the monster came!
Arise and "join the Union through"—be outcast friends no more!
The ship of State shall sail again, as in the days of yore,
And Peace and Plenty hold their sway, and Law and Order reign,
And (except from the lips of fools, shall never fall again!)
GAINESVILLE, VA., Nov. 3, 1864. A. H. B.

SOLDIERS READ!
The following letter from a soldier, in reference to the efficacy and powerful restorative qualities of DR. Mc-BRIDE'S KING OF PAIN, speaks for itself:
New Windsor, Orange County,
Sept. 14, 1864.
Messrs. S. A. Kunkel & Bro., druggists, Harrisburg, Pa.: Gentlemen—I would inform you that I received the bottle of McBRIDE'S Great Pain Killer, and enclosed please find five dollars more, for which send me five bottles additional to-morrow. I leave for camp to-morrow. Let me know whether you can not supply me with it in the army.
I am in Company H, 2nd Regiment F. V. I have been in very bad health for upward of four years, and two of the one-dollar bottles have cured me entirely, and have made me feel like a new man. I have cured a number of my comrades of various diseases incident to camp-life, and can recommend it to be the best medicine the soldier can provide for himself.
Yours respectfully,
JOE E. WHITE.
All orders from a distance promptly attended to by
S. A. KUNKEL & BRO.

A HOME CERTIFICATE.
The following certificate is from a well-known citizen of Harrisburg:
HARRISBURG, Aug. 30, 1864.
To the Public:—It gives me great pleasure to recommend to the public the medicine prepared by DR. J. J.
McBRIDE, he calls the KING OF PAIN, which I was induced to use it as a general remedy for various illnesses, and it relieved me immediately, and subsequently cured entirely.
It relieved me of my chronic Diarrhoea, which with which I was afflicted for nearly eighteen months, and I was cured. My kidneys were sorely diseased. The medicine has cured me, and certainly that is a great deal in his favor, when I reflect how many I tried without effect, and expecting anything but temporary relief. For my part, I shall always keep a supply of it in my house, believing as I do that it is a most valuable medicine.
DANIEL E. WHITE.

Tribute of Respect.
GAINESVILLE STATION, VA.
HEADQUARTERS 201st REGT. P. V.
November 4, 1864.
At a meeting of Company H, 201st Regiment
Pennsylvania Volunteers, held at their company quarters, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:
WHEREAS, it hath pleased Divine Providence to remove from our midst a late fellow soldier, Samuel J. Brickner, of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania,
Be it resolved, by the members of said company, that in his death we are called upon to mourn the loss of one whom we sincerely esteemed, and one who was ever ready to do the duty required of him, as a soldier, and although not having perished on the field of battle, he lost his life in the cause of truth and justice, and for this his memory shall be revered by us, his fellow soldiers—Resolved further: That we offer our condolence to his bereaved family, for in him they have lost a faithful husband and kind father.
Resolved, That a copy of the above be trans-
