WEDNESDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 9, 1864.

TOWN AND COUNTRY. INFORMATION WANTED .- The owner of the Democratic Platform, in the Market Square, can find a purchaser by applying at this office.

An adjourned meeting of the Paxton Fire Company will be held at their room this (Wednesday) evening, at 7 o'clock, for the mmittee to report.

INVINCIBLES, ATTENTION !- A general busi-ness meeting of the Republican Invincibles will be held at the Rall, this (Wednesday) evening, at 7½ o'clock. Every member is re-quested to be present, as business of great importance will be transacted.

CALIFORNIA MATCHES.-They manufacture matches in San Francisco, which can be trodden upon or rolled under foot without igniting; and which, after having been manu-factured a month, may be immersed in water ten or fifteen minutes, and when taken out will not only ignite, but hold a flame.

BALTIMORE SALT OYSTERS. -- Mr. Joseph Hoffman has just received a lot of fine Baltimore salt oysters, and is prepared to serve them up in every style, at his restaurant, corner of Dewberry alley and Market street. He will serve up the best quality of fried oysters every evening. It is the only place in town to get the Baltimore salts.

THE scarcity of local news will be overlooked to-day. Our telegraphic columns con-tain such news as every supporter of his coun-try will desire to peruse. There we chronicle the greatest Union victory that has been achieved in 1864. The glorious results of yesterday's battle cause every loyal man, woman and child to rejoice, and matters of minor importance are forgotten, in the midst of the great general rejoicing.

A SAD PICTUBE OF EARLY POLITICAL DE-PRAVITY--The end of the Committee of Vigi-lance as seen at the Headquarters of the Copper-head State Central Committee.-In the midst of our rejoicing over the result of the election with loyal friends and neighbors wild with gratitude; with a nation sending out its deep hanksgiving in the contemplation of its rescue from utter destruction, we are constrained to turn for a while, more in pity than in re-sentment, to view the last sad remains of two of the foe, as they were found in the room of the Copperhead State Central Committee. We allude to the immortal Vigilance Committee-the immaculate and invincible Counsellor Brown, the veritable John W. Brown; with the facetious and familiar, rosy proboseis and spiritually odorous Josiah Royal. Party never had two more earnest adherents. Each would have fought and bled for Democracy. Both have at length died in the cause of common anger against good things. and now we are called upon to mourn their loss. Jos old Jos-the typo and the Democrat-was discovered late this morning, in a corner of the room of the Committee, defunct, and lo! a miracle! Out of his mouth, in the short space of his demise, grew a stalk of rye in full bloom! The issue of one mythological god from the brain of another, was not more wonderful than the growth of this rye stalk from the mouth of Josiah. His companion, Brown, the counsellor, occupied another corner, and he too was dead -dead as John Randolph's mackeral, which always glittered and stunk by moonlight. Nor was the phenomenon less wonderful in the dead Brown than in the dead Royal-for while a rye stalk grew from the mouth of the latter, the body of the former was discovered to be

When the returns from New York city were received, a few faint cheers were given, but as the news of great Union gains and largely increased majorities came from all parts of the country, the coun-tenences of the grave diverse a tenances of the grave-digger's supporters as-sumed vast proportions, cheers were no longer heard, and at an early hour darkness prevailed at their headquarters. At one time a number of disorderly Cops indeavored to create a disturbance in front of the TELEGRAPH office, but the Republican In-the the telegraph office, but the Republican In-vincibles happened to appear on the streets, with the drum corps, about that time, and the rowdles scattered in all directions, being well aware that it would be to their advantage to avoid an encounter with the loyal boys whose "lamps" have proven an eye-sore to copperheadism.

The Republican Headquarters was the scene of continuous rejoicing. As dispatch after dispatch was received bringing such news as only loyal men rejoice to hear, the utmost en-thusiasm prevailed. The Invincibles had pre-pared an elegant supper, and all who appeared at the Hall were enabled to partake of a boun-tiful repast. It is supposed that not less than fifteen hundred represent conclusions the first supposed the time.

fifteen hundred persons replenished the "in-ner man" at the table. By two or three o'clock this morning, when it was known that Lincoln and Johnson had carried every State heard from, the people generally retired to their homes-loyal men o rejoice, and the copperheads to writhe in the death-throes which follow an inglorious defeat.

ABRIVAL OF CAMELS. -- A number of camels from the Oasis of Biskra, in the great (Afri can) Desert, have just arrived at New York. in a steamer from Havre. They are intended for service on the plains, as the ploneers of a caravan line between the Missouri river and the gold-bearing regons of Colorado. Their owner is a Mr. Fabens, residing at Fort Lee, New Jersey. The animals are said to be in excellent condition, and to have borne the trials of ocean transportation admirably.

of our eminent clergymen: HARRISBURG, Feb. 8th, 1864.

C.A. BANNVABT-Dear Sir: I have used Brown's Bronchial Troches, Wistar's Lozenges, and other preparations for hoarseness and throat troubles, and, in comparison with them all, can cheerfully commend your own as a most admirable specific for public speakers and singers, in cases of hoarseness, coughs and colds. I have found them serving in time of

IT I agree with Mr. Robinson as to the value of Bannvart's Troches. W. C. CATTELL, Late Pastor of O. S. Presbyterian Church.

HARRISBURG, Jan., 1864. To C. A. BANNVART-Dear Sir: In the habit of speaking very frequently, and in places where the vocal organs are very much taxed, I have found the need of some gentle expectorant, and that want has been supplied in your excellent Troches.

I consider them very far superior to any Lozenges that I have ever used, in removing speedily that huskiness of the voice arising from its too frequent use, and impairing the effectiveness of the delivery of public addresses. Yours, &c., JNO. WALKER JACKSON, Paster of the Locust St. Methodist Church.

To C. A. BANNVART-Dear Sir : Having used your Troches, I am free to say they are the best I have ever tried, and take great pleasure in recommending them to all persons afflicted with sore throat or huskiness of voice, arising from public speaking or singing. Yours, &c., G. G. RAKESTRAW, Pastor of Ridge Avenue Methodist Church.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE.

HARBISBURG, FB.b, 29, 1864. To C. A. BANNVART-Dear Sis : I have found your Troches to be invaluable in relieving hoarseness and in strengthening the muscles of the throat. They impart clearness to the voice, and are certainly of great benefit to all public speakers.

"CAMP, CURTIN---More of the Working of My Way." -- Under this heading, the Tory Organ, yesterday, attempted to create the im-pression that two individuals, Messrs. John W. Brown and Frank McReynolds, "who were appointed by the War Department to be present at the election held in Camp Curtin, were refused permission [admission] by those These are the words of the in authority. Tory Organ:

Tory Organ: In the first place, it is a lie that John W. Brown or Frank McReynolds "were appointed by the War Department," &c. The War Department merely issued passes to the different National Committees, which passes were distributed to the State Committees, and by them given to agents, who were to use them for passing the lines, entering camps, forts, &c., not as the agents of the War Department, but as citizens to attend at the outside of a poll for the purpose of watching the progress of the election. Mr. Brown was not refused ad-mittance to Camp Curtin, but he was re-fused admittance into the room where the election was being held. I He knew, as a lawyer, that he had no right to enter that room, yet he attempted to deceive an honest man, to intimidate one not as learned in the law as himself, in order that he (Brown) might do a fraudulent act, and gain a position where he could interfere, perhaps, with the election. Messrs. Brown and McReynolds attempted to make capital out of this matter yesterday, by crying that the election in Camp Curtin was not being conducted fairly. If the officer in charge of Camp Ourtin had done his duly, both these cops would have been cooling their ardor to-day in the guard-house. They had no right even in Camp Curtin, until their orders were signed by Maj. R. I. Dodge, and when Brown and McReynolds first entered the camp, their orders were not thus countersigned. In one sense, this whole affair, as well as those who have made themselves prominent in it, are not worthy of a notice, and we only refer to it to expose still another of the lies recorded against the copperheads.

THE ELECTION passed off quietly in our city, yesterday. No disturbance worthy of notice occurred at the polls in either of the wards. The vote cast was the largest polled here within several years. Both parties endeavored to have every vote brought out, and, judging by the returns, there were but few who remained at home.

mained at nome. The Little Mackerels appeared confident of success, and boasted that the Virginia sexton would be elected. In order to hold their own in our city, they resorted to every means to gain votes. The cry of increased taration, more drafts, etc., was raised, but without avail.
