Our Fleet Our Army in Fine Condition CHATTANOOGA, NOV. 11. One of the editors of the Philadelphia Bul etin, just arrived from the front, reports that on Monday morning at daylight the encing attacked our pickets north of Atlanta, and killed one and wounded two of the Third Indiana, but subsequently fell back. The result of the election on Tuesday was quite large for Lincoln.

On Wednesday morning the enemy made three attacks on Atlanta, their shells being thrown as far as the rolling mills. The most desperate attack was made on the Rough and Ready road.

The enemy's artillery was within one hun-dred yards of our works, and their infantry and dismounted cavalry within two hundred vards.

Our men, aroused from their slumbers, quickly manned the defences, and soon drove he rebels off. There was no Federal loss The enemy was part of Young's command, and finally retreated towards Macon. Our army is in excellent spirits, and well supplied with rations.

Army of the Potomac FIRING GOING ON.

Sharpshooters at Work,

HEADQUARTERS ABMY OF THE POTOMAC, November 11. On Wednesday evening about seven o'clock a force of the enemy were discovered massing in front of our line, near Fort Steadman, when the guns of the fort opened fire, driving them to their works to seek shelter. The enemy's batteries fired briskly for a short time, but were soon silenced by our shells and mortars. A force of about 150 shortly afterwards made a sortie from their lines and endeavored to penetrate ours, but being met by a salute from the pickets, were not long in finding their way back under cover. A lieutenant in the 8th New York Heavy Artillery was fatally wounded yesterday, when behind the breastworks. A sharpshooter watched for a chance to retaliate, and in less than an hour a rebel, who appeared above their works, afforded him an opportunity to do so. In an instant he fell, pierced by a bullet.

The enemy seem determined to pursue the policy of shooting at every man they see, and our men are forced to retaliate accordingly. The pickets in front of the Second corps were briskly engaged most of last night, and the reports of musketry at times was almost continuous. The commissioners and agents from Phila delphia arrested on a charge of issuing incor-rectly printed blanks and tally, have been ordered to Washington for examination, by the Secretary of War.
