EDITOR HARRISBURG TELEGRAPH--Dear Sir:-Having been one of the Pennsylvania Elec-tion Commissioners to the army of the Cumberland, I take this method of returning my thanks to the officers and men of that Department for their uniform kindness to me while in the discharge of the duties of my office. In my intercourse with the officers and men. I found but one officer who absolutely refused to render me any assistance in the discharge of my dutics, and this ex-ception was the military conductor who superintended the loading of the cars at Chat-tanooga. This officer could find room for women of rather doubtful character, sutlers and citizens, but absolutely refused any commissioner upon the train, notwithstanding we all exhibited to him our commissions and passes. The commissioners who were thus treated were from Ohio, Michigan, Hentucky and myself from Pennsylvania. I have been unable to ascertain his name or regiment. Especially do I take pleasure in returning my thanks to Major General Thomas, by whose orders ambulances were furnished to haul sick and wounded men to the polls, and also to Dr. R. M. S. Jackson, of Cresson, Pa., who has charge of the Hospitals of Lookout Mountain, for his hospitality and kind-heart-Mountain, for his hospitality and kind-heart-edness, and to Lieut. S. H. SPECIAL: NOTICES.

KILLED ON THE RAILROAD.-The Indiana Register says: James J. Marshall, son of Wm. Marshall, of Clarksburg, this county, was killed on the Penna. Railroad, on Wednesday night, 2d inst. The first Freight Express coming down grade, and the detached part of the train ran into the other breaking two cars held in this department, viz: loaded with hogs, into fragments, causi dreadful havoc, and crushing Mr. Marshall s brakesman upon one of the broken cars. was aged about 25 years. He served three ye in Co. E, 11th P. R. C.; was wounded on and was at one time a prisoner for forty da He was a worthy young man, and his death a sad bereavement to his friends.

THE Shamokin Herald contains the follow ing chapter of accidents:

Sad Accident .- John Zancoller, a boy about fourteen years of age, fell off Mr. May's new breaker, on Saturday afternoon, and broke his neck. It appears that he had been sent on an errand, and returning, stopped to play on the breaker, with some other boys, when this sad accident befell him. He was a son of Michael Zanceller, a Polander, who has resided here for some time.

Another. --- John Vallentine Spann, a brakeman on the railroad, while coupling cars at the Cameron Colliery, on Monday morning, was caught between the bumpers, and instantaneously crushed to death. He was a young man, originally from Baltimore, and had been on the road but a short time.

Still Another .- On Friday night, E. W Smith, a young man, and also a brakemen on the railroad, was caught between the engine and a car, at Sunbury, and had both of his legs crushed to the knee. We learn his injuries are such that his life is despaired of.

PHOTOGRAPHING WITH PRINTERS' INE .- OF dinary printers' ink has been successfully brought into the service of photography.-This ink is mixed with certain chemicals and spread completely over the paper intend ed to be submitted to the action of the rays of light through a "negative"-the secret conindelible photograph may be fixed on the pa-per, leaving the other portions so free as to be easily washed off.
