DR. WRIGHT'S REJUVENATING ELIXIR. Prepared from Pure Vegetable Extracts, containing nothing injurious to the most delicate. As the Phlegm rises from the ashes of its fire, animals with less than this Elixir rejuvenate the system and overcome disease.

THE CHEROKEE PILLS AND REJUVENATING ELIXIR are sold by all respectable Dealers in the civilized world. Some unprincipled dealers, however, try to sell worthless compounds in place of these; to which they can purchase at a cheap price, and make more money by selling them than by selling the genuine. You value your health—say, the health of your future offspring—do not be deceived by such unprincipled drug-sellers. Always refer to the name of the Doctor, and the name of the medicine, and you will not be misled.

EVENING EDITION. THE CHICAGO CONSPIRACY.

CONFESSION OF A RING-LEADER—WHAT THE REBELS MEANT TO DO IN CHICAGO. THE PLOT. A force of about four hundred men—K. G. C.'s—bushwhackers and guerrillas, were to be assembled at Chicago, and with them an attack was to be made on Camp Douglas on Monday evening, for the purpose of liberating the rebels confined there.

Also, seized two guns concealed in a room in this city. Also, arrested Judge Buck Morris, Treasurer of the Sons of Liberty, having complete proof of his assisting Shanks to escape, and plotting to release prisoners at this camp.

Most of these rebel officers were in the city on the same errand in August last, their plan being to raise an insurrection and release the prisoners of war at this camp. Chicago Tribune.

Letter From the 49th Regiment. HEADQUARTERS 49th REG'T. PA. VET. VOL., (WINCHESTER, VA. Oct. 27. EDITORS TELEGRAPH.—Gentlemen:—Yesterday we received a new flag from the Governor of our State, and Colonel Oliver Edwards, of the 37th Mass., Volunteers, and Commander of this Brigade, the 3rd, 1st Division, 6th Army Corps, was called upon to present the flag to the regiment, which he did in the following manner:

PRESENTATION SPEECH OF COL. EDWARDS. Officers and men of the Gallant 49th Pennsylvania:—By the request of your brave commander, Colonel Hickman, I have the honor to present to you this emblem of our Nation's glory, its strength and its pride. For more than three years you have been fighting our Country's battles, winning imperishable laurels. In the battle of Winchester, Va., September the 19th, 1864, by your bravery and gallantry, you saved "Cowan's battery" from capture; driving the enemy before you, from place to place, until you had won a glorious advance, and hurled death and destruction into the ranks of the foe, thereby enabling the rest of the command easily to hurl back the enemy from before us.

Captain Stuart, in making over to you, who is to receive these beautiful colors, as the gift, the trust of your State, in behalf of the officers and men of the 49th, I do, it knowing that as long as life lasts, no man of your Regiment will allow them to be dishonored, that long will you "rally round the flag." Captain James T. Stuart, who received the colors in behalf of the regiment replied as follows: Colonel—In behalf of the officers and men of our regiment, I accept this flag, and in doing so, we are ready to repeat the words of a former commander of this regiment, when he received it at the hands of Gov. Curtiss, more than three years ago, that old flag of which there are but little left, except shreds, tatters, &c., said that: "So long as he had an arm to wield a sword, or a man left to fight in its defense, so long should it be kept from the touch of the hands of its enemies." How well this pledge has been kept by the regiment we leave others to say, and now as we are about to lay aside the old flag, and take up this new one, we promise that all its corners shall be protected, and that the old flag which was received, it was not supposed by any of us, that our services would be required to defend our country long enough to wear out one flag; but time has shown us our mistake as the end of three years finds us still fighting in behalf of our country, and still ready and willing if necessary, to fight three years longer in its defense. And when this "ornal war" shall have ceased, and this rebellion shall have been crushed, when the glorious stars and stripes shall triumph over every city, whether North or South; then shall it be the pride of the 49th to carry back with us to our State, not only this, but the old flag, there to be deposited with the archives of State, to be looked upon and revered by the generations that shall rise up to enjoy the blessings fought for beneath these flags.

The presentation was attended by numberless ladies from the city of Winchester; also, several from the army, who were anxious to witness the presentation of the new flag, and many officers from the army. In the evening the officers gave a ball, which was largely attended. Yours truly, WM. B. OSMUN, Co. "G," 49th P. V.
