EVENING EDITION.

Thanksgiving Presentation. THE UNION INVINCIBLES AND THE REV. J. WALKER JACKSON.

SM: I have been selected by the Union Invincibles of Harrisburg, as the organ to express their regard for you as a pastor and a patriot...

As members of this organization, we have had many opportunities to witness the disinterestedness of your services, and behold their absolute fearlessness with which you took part in the mighty struggle to save the country.

Wherever freedom needed a defender, you were there to champion its cause; wherever freedom needed an advocate, you were present to plead in its behalf.

It is to such men as you that we must look for the elevation of politics, the politics which embrace alike the glory, the greatness and the safety of the country.

And hereafter, too, the American Pulpit will be looked to as one of the proper mediums through which the American people will be able to learn, not what is merely true and just in politics, but what is absolutely right and proper for the preservation of the country.

To defeat such an influence, demagogues may rave, as they have raved, to intimidate such men as yourself, desperate politicians may defame and asperse you as they have already done, but the result, as already proven, will be victory for Jehovah and the right.

It is unnecessary for me, sir, to indulge in any further personal remarks. You have certainly earned our esteem and respect by your Christian character, and now you deserve our honor and gratitude by the patriotic course you adopted and pursued during the late struggle at the ballot-box.

I feel that you will never regret a single word you spoke in advocacy of the re-election of Mr. Lincoln, because your eloquence assisted in securing to yourself, your children and to us a home and country.

You will now please accept this purse, with the hope that its contents will prove as great a blessing to you as the thought of being contributors to it gives to us.

Rev. Jackson, after having recovered from the surprise created by this meeting, spoke briefly as follows:

I scarcely know how to reply to the very flattering remarks accompanied by this testimonial that you have addressed to me. In pursuing the course I have been proper to do in these very exciting times, I have been actuated by entirely conscientious motives.

I made no calculation at the outset, in reference to either the approval or the disapproval of many I believed simply that was right - and that I must pursue the path in which I have walked if I would secure the favor of God.

I hope hereafter that the occasion will never occur to impel me to a similar course; that each and every party in this country will be so manifestly indifferent as to which of them shall grasp the reins of power.

I shall continue to oppose wrong, to censure dishonesty, to insist upon the path in which I have walked for all parties in this land to avoid the capture of the pulpit - of a free and intellectual pulpit - is to be right, to come in conflict with no moral principles, to be thoroughly loyal to the principles of freedom, and to love the country.

I am glad that you have approved of my conduct, because I really like to be approved, when I may secure the approval without any sacrifice of conscientious convictions.

I can only pray that the blessing of Heaven may rest upon you, and upon your families. "To silence envious tongues, be just and fear not."

By Telegraph. SHERMAN! Reported Capture of Macon! A Great Panic in Rebeldom! Appeals to the Rebel Leaders.

The People Called to Arms! THE REBELS TO DESTROY PROPERTY. Macon and Milledgeville Reported Burned.

Narrow Escape of the Georgia Legislature. Roads and Bridges to be Destroyed. Negroes and Live Stock to be Removed.

Railroads and Telegraph Lines Cut by Union Forces. NEWS FROM SAVANNAH. WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.

The Government to-day received the following dispatches: City Point, Va., Nov. 24-130 A.M. - Nothing new or important has occurred this morning, except the arrival of deserters, who report the occupation of Macon by General Sherman.

Port Monroe, Nov. 24. - The steamer Atlantic and Blackstone arrived here to-day with about 1,225 exchanged prisoners. They lost ten on the voyage from Savannah, which place they left at noon on the 22d instant.

The Baltic was loading when the Atlantic left. The exchange was going on well. Capt. Gray says that just before he left there it was reported that Macon and Milledgeville were burned. The Legislature was in session at Milledgeville, but was dissolved in haste and the members had scattered.

The following I take from the Savannah Republican of the 21st, the only paper I could see. SAVANNAH, Nov. 21. - To the People of Georgia - CONTER, Nov. 18, via SELMA, Nov. 18. Arouse! for the defence of your native soil! Rally round your patriot Governor and gallant soldiers! Obstruct and destroy all the roads in Sherman's front, flank and rear. End his army and you will soon starve them in your midst.

Confident and resolute, trust in an overruling Providence, and success will crown your efforts. I hasten to join you in defence of your homes and families. (Signed) G. T. BEAUREGARD.

RICHMOND, Nov. 19. - To the People of Georgia. We have had a special conference with President Davis and the Secretary of War, and are able to assure you that they have done and are still doing all that can be done to meet the emergency that presses upon you. Let every man fit to arm - Remove your negroes, horses, cattle and provisions away from Sherman's army; burn what you cannot carry; burn all the bridges and block up the roads in his route; assail the invaders in front, flank and rear, by night and day; let them have no rest. (Signed) JULIAN HARTIDGE.

And others. MAcon, Nov. 19. - The military authorities are active and vigilant, and every man is under arms. Confidence is being restored. The enemy are believed to be at our right, distant about thirty miles. The city will be defended to the last.

SAVANNAH, Nov. 21. - A private dispatch, received in this city this morning from Macon, says the enemy crossed the Ocmulgee river in force yesterday, at Planter's Factory, eight miles east of Indian Spring. They are reported to be from 30,000 to 40,000 strong. They would seem to strengthen the belief that Augusta is their object.

The Central Railroad near Griswoldville, was cut at 2 P.M., on the 20th, and the telegraph was destroyed. Communication between Savannah and Macon is destroyed, and the wires have been cut between Gordon and Milledgeville.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25. Admiral Porter communicates to the Navy department the arrival, at Fortress Monroe, of the U. S. steamer Jasco. She captured in the Gulf Stream the schooner Sybil, of Nassau, with a cargo of thirty bales of cotton. Acting Rear Admiral Stribling commanding the East Gulf Squadron, communicates, from Key West, the following captures: Schooner Lucy, under English colors, on the 17th inst., by the schooner Sea Bird, tender to the steamer Hendrick Hudson, and a namesless schooner on the 24th ult., by the U. S. steamer Nita.

Both had assorted cargoes and were near the shore trying to run the blockade. Also the schooner Badger, under rebel colors, from St. Marks, Florida, on the 6th inst., by the steamer Adale, She was loaded with cotton. From Louisville. Louisville, Nov. 24. The Journal reiterates its statement that Hood's army occupies Waynesboro, from which point he threatens both Nashville and Paducah. That portion of our army confronting him is concentrated at Pulaski. Paducah is being placed in a state of defence.
