A Social Hop came off last night, at the state Capitol Hotel. A large number of ladies and gents were present, and participated in the "merry dance."

The "hop" took place in the large dining room of the new building, which has just been completed. It is the largest dining room in the elbecker present insertion in the city, and is fitted up in fine style.

All who attended are lavish in their praise of the manner in which they were entertained by "mine host," and all will be sure to attend when the next social gathering takes place at the "State Capitol."

MARKET.-There is nothing special to record concerning this indispensable institution. This morning there was the usual attendance, without any apparent change of prices.

WINTER. - We are informed that the ground is covered with snow six inches in depth, at Wilmore, in Cambria county. Trains from the West continue to be covered with snow.

STIEMPT TO ROB A COUNTY TREASURY. - The safe of the Treasurer's office at Huntingdon was blown open on Monday night. Fortu-nately but little money had been left in it, and the thieves did not make a profitable "hand.

A SPECIAL MEETING of the Friendship Fire Company will be held in their hall this evening, to make arrangements to attend the funeral of their late fellow member, Thomas D. Thompson.

THANKSOIVING DAY was generally observed by our citizens. Business was suspended, and religious services were held in all the churches. Sermons appropriate to the occasion were deivered by the various pastors. "Order reign-ca" throughout the city. We did not observe a single case of drunkenness—an event which we are happy to announce.

St. Paul's Episcopal Church, corner of Ridge Road and Reservoir. Divine service to-mor-row at 10.30 a.m. and 6.30 p.m. In the even-ing a course of sermons will be commenced by the pastor, Rev. A. J. Barrow, on the "History, Liturgy and Polity of the Protestant Episcopal Church." All who are interested the subject are invited. The ordinance of haptism will also be administered.

HOUSE'S THEATRE continues to be the place of amusement. Large audiences are gath- discussed his subject. His entire sermon was ered there nightly, and they always go away highly pleased with the entertainment. Three fine pieces are on the bill for this evening, VIZ: THE GOLDEN FARMER, BEN BOLT, and THE SWIBS SWAINS. The whole troups will appear, and one of the best entertainments of Lutheran, Rev. Barrow, Ridge Avenue Episthe season may be expected. The inimitable Rouse will appear in three funny characters All who desire to pass an evening pleasantly will find Rouse's Theatre a very desirable place to "while away the hours."

DON'T SOIT THEM. - A policeman and a Jew passed our office yesterday forenoon, when the bulletin board contained an extra on which was printed the dispatch containing the proposed surrender of Alabama and other States to Sherman. The policeman remarked that as soon as he read the dispatch he "made up his mind that it was a G-d d-d The Jew replied that he would not read it at all, as it was certainly a 'd --- d Thus these worthies conversed when they beard even a rumor that their "Southern friends" were surrendering to the great armies of freedom! How hard they take the death of their loved institution, slavery! Pretty policeman! Pretty Jew!

OFF THE TRACK-Detention of Trains .- On Thursday morning as the Cumberland Valley train from this city neared Carlisle, the rails became displaced, and three cars ran off the track. They were considerably broken, but no person was injured. Workmen had been engaged repairing the road and it is probable that the rails were not properly fastened.— The Cumberland Valley railroad has but a single track, and at the point where the accident occured, the track runs on a high em bankment, consequently the wrecks could t be removed, to allow other trains to pass, no. passengers were compelled to wait until and a could be placed upon the track.—the cars were placed at work, and by six Workney. o'clock in the to proceed to Car. 's city at eight o'clock.

TEACHERS INSTITUTES.—Ten lengt in Day will be held at the following p. tees in Dauphin county during the winter: Middletown, December 9 and 10. Berrysburg, January 13 and 14. Linglestown, Ferbuary 3 and 4. Halifax, February 24 and 25.

These meetings will be held on Fridays and Saturdays, with the expectation that directors will cheerfully give the Fridays to the teachers of the surrounding districts, the Satur days being considered as regular District Institute days. It is hoped that teachers will attend as many of these meetings as possible Directors and patrons are especially invited to attend. The State Superintendent, C. R. Co burn, will be present at the Middletown meet ing on the 9th; and in the evening will delive an address on "The duties of parents and school officers in relation to the education of S. D. THE MANUFACTURE OF DOMESTIC WINE IN LANCASTER CITY.—The manufacture of all kinds of domestic wines is becoming quite an extensive business in Lancaster city, as is the cultivation of the choicest grapes. Among the most successful and extensive manufacturers of wine in that city, is Mr. William Gumpf, who has brought the business to such a perfection us to be almost able to rival the best wines produced in Germany and Italy. We notice by the Evening Express, that a large number of the most prominent and influential gentlemen of Lancaster presented Mr. Gumpf with a gold headed cane and gold spectacles, as a recognition of his skill as a wine producer, as well as an acknowledgment of his many good qualities as a man. His produc-tion of domestic wine is only another evidence of the prolific source of wealth with which all part i of the State are blessed.

> PATRICK CAMPBELL.-The remains of this gallant soldier arrived yesterday afternoon, in harge of his brother, Bernard Campbell, Chief of Police of this city. The deceased was well known to many of our citizens, and his many good traits will long be remembered

In the early part of April, 1861, he volun-teered and served out his term of enlistment n the 15th regiment and was honorably discharged, and subsequently re-enlisted in company G, 55th regiment, Capt. Waterbury. He fell at "Drury's Bluff" on the 16th day of May last, and died at Hampton General Hospital on the 17th day of June. He leaves a wife and two children to mourn his loss, "Peace

THANKSGIVING DAY IN THE CHURCHES. -The different churches were all well filled on the morning of Thanksgiving day, in all of which sermons appropriate to the occasion were

Rev. Charles A. Hay, of the First Lutheran, delivered a peculiarly powerful sermon, in the course of which he referred ably and eloquently to the state of the country. His exposition of the real cause of the rebellion, and his severe denunciation of the brutal influences of slavery, were alike edifying to the congregation and appropriate to the occasion. Rev. Robinson, of the N. S. Presbyterian Church, delivered one of his most finished pulpit orations, at once a sermon exhibiting the highest ability of a Christian minister, and a composition displaying those rare qualities for which its author is so justly distinguished. He, too, made the occasion serve as a justification for the utterance of a good word in favor of his country.

Rev. Jackson, of the Locust Street M. E. Church, had prepared a sermon on the subject of bread, the ballot-box and public order. These were the points of his discourse, and it is not necessary for us to write how ably he a masterly production of argument and eloquence.

Rev. Mitchell, of the Q. S. Presbyterian, Rev. Laverty of the Bethel, Rev. Colder, of the Free Baptist, Rev. Johnson, of the Second copal, Rev. Leacock of St. Stephen's, (Front Street Episcopal,) and Father Maher, all had their churches open, but having no report of the sermons preached, we can only pre-sume that each, as was the duty of the Christ ian patriot, made the occasion serve for the utterance of a word in defence of their country and of cheer for those who are perilling life and limb for its preservation.

Music.—Those who remember the pleasant entertainments, formerly given so often by the Harmonic Society to its subscribers, and for the benefit of various Christian enterprises, will be pleased to learn that the society is about to organize for the season. We learn that the society has secured the services of an eminent professor and desires to add to their number all singers who are willing to help improve the standard of music, and extends to them a cordial invitation to be pre-died in June last, at City Point. The funeral will take place, from East State street, to-morrow afternoon at one o'clock, and will be attended by a military escort, who will perform the usual honors, and by the fire-men of this city. Mr. Thompson was a member of the Friendship Fire Company.

As a soldier, the subject of this notice was among the "bravest of the brave," and nobly battled for his country. His death will be mourned by numerous friends in this city.

AN EMINENT TRAGEDIAN COMING .-- We have the pleasure of announcing that the celebrated tragedian Mr. James B. Roberts, has been engaged for six nights, by Mr. Rouse, of the Harrisburg Theatre, and will appear at that select place of amusement ou Monday evening, in the great character of Hamlet, in the play of that name. During the week rare bills of attraction will be presented, but as the en-gagement of Mr. Roberts is positively limited to six nights, it will be impossible to repeat any of the pieces selected. In order to obtain seats it will be necessary to go early, as every-body will attend the theatre next week, the attraction to be presented being greater than any heretofore placed before the citizens of Harrisburg.

BUSINESS LTEMS.

Petroleum is King.—A correspondent of a Philadelphia weekly newspaper, writing from the oil region in which are located the lands of the President Petroleum Company, whose advertisement will be found in another column, says "Before the war, the South proclaimed cotton king. The frequent inquiries concerning the condition of this monarch was always an evidence of his supremacy; "What are the prospects of the growing crop?" "What is its market value." and other similar questions, formed the staple of conversation. Here, things being changed, oil is king. It rules in thought, in conversation and in trade-almost everything is made subservient to its interests. You cannot wonder at this when you consider the changes it has wrought. Villages have become small cities; forests are supplanted by towns of respectable size: farmers with scanty incomes, have become men of fabulous for tunes, all by reason of oil.

"Your readers will obtain some conception if the magnitude of this influence by comparison with other great commercial interests. The coal and iron mines of Pennsylvania, are estimated to yield an annual product of fifty one millions of dollars. The oil wells yield yearly fifty-six millons. California scarcely gives fifty millons yearly; but here, within a very small district, distant but a few hours ride from our largest cities, a wealth greater than a California, greater than our boasted resources of coal and iron, is suddenly discovered! Surely then you can have some charity for the enthusiasm of those among us who predict its early rule in the exchanges of the world."
