DYSPEPSIA.

A Cure Warranted.

Dyspepsia has the following symptoms: 1st. A constant pain or uneasiness at the pit of the stomach.

Out of the thousands of cases of Dyspepsia that have been cured by Dr. Wisbart's Great American Dyspepsia Pills, not one of them has failed of a perfect cure.

I, ELIZABETH BRANSON, of Brandywine, Del., formerly of Chestnut, Del., do hereby certify that for one year and a half I suffered every thing but death from that awful disease called Dyspepsia.

These Pills are not only a cure for dyspepsia, but also for indigestion, flatulence, and all the ailments that result from a disordered stomach.

EVENING EDITION.

From the 201st Regiment.

CAMP NEAR FORT ELLIOTT, VA. Thanksgiving Eve, Nov. 24, 1864. Ed. TELEGRAPH—Dear Sir:—Thanksgiving Day was generally observed here, by all classes. You and your readers are aware the newspaper announced that the soldiers in the hospitals at the front, and elsewhere, would be provided with substantial for a Thanksgiving dinner, from the "fat of the land" of the States to which they belong.

There is a Grand Military Ball in existence somewhere in the city, and some of the officers of the 201st have gone thither to join "the mazes of the dance, and 'trip upon the light fantastic toe'." The Ball was gotten up, it is said, in honor of Gen. Augur. "Thanksgiving Day in Alexandria was, apparently, enjoyed by every one. We enjoyed it over a peck of beans!—therefore we feel 'weak and weary,' and stupid, and must bid you good night.

THE OLD COUNTRY.—Crowded as England is with a hungry population, five per cent. of her soil is not under cultivation. Yet the proportion of cultivated to the uncultivated land, is higher in England than in any other country in Europe.

They had a trial of "squirts" in the upper section of the city during the afternoon, which ended in a small riot, with "noisy hub." The fire engines, respectively named "Friendship" and "Cataract" are small affairs, when contrasted with those of our native city.

My friend, Sergeant Mowry Nichols, of Company A, informs me that in "bobbing around" to see the sights, he stopped into the Washington Street Hospital, and found there as Surgeon in charge, the Rev. Dr. Bishop, formerly pastor of the Locust Street Methodist Episcopal Church, of Harrisburg, prior to their departure for the front.
